The rush began early in the month and during the past few days it taxed the entire office force to the limit. All day yesterday and today there have been two lines of people at the office purchasing stamps. According to the employes the sales this year are way ahead of those of a year ago. The business in the money department has also broken previous records both foreign and domestic. Mr. Bird expects to deliver all Christmas mail about on time, notwithstanding the storm, even if he is obliged to engage more help.

STATE'S NET BALANCE $2,332,262 FOR YEAR

Calendar time has come again and with it the announcement by the Plainfield Trust Company that it has ready for its depositors another of the "art" calendars which have been so popular in the past. This year's subject, Clarinda, was chosen from the works of William Thorne, one of America's most celebrated portrait painters. It is a reproduction in sepia tints of a three-quarter portrait of a young girl whose simple charm and grace will appeal to those who admire natural, wholesome womanhood.

Customers of the Plainfield Trust Company may obtain one of these calendars by calling at the office of the company, corner of Park avenue and Second street. No calendars will be given to children.

THOUGHTFUL MR. GAVETT.

Through the efforts of Street Commissioner Andrew J. Gavett the employes of the street department have received their December pay envelopes before Christmas. Regular pay day is the first of every month, but Commissioner Gavett has secured the money for the employes to facilitate Christmas purchases and help make the Yuletide the merrier.

L. T. L. XMAS PARTY.

A Christmas Thought
I wish you every blessing tomorrow.' I wish that your Christmas is as brimful of happiness as it deserves to be—and no more!
I am sure that my Christmas will be as joyous as I deserve—and no more! I believe that it takes very little to make one happy.
Marcus Aurelius gave this recipe for happiness: "Love the little trade which thou hast learned and be content therewith."
That is my Christmas thought, and I give it to you as a good working principle for a joyous life.
"Love the little trade which thou hast learned and be content therewith."

DIES FROM SUFFOCATION UNDER BED COVERINGS

Paterson, Dec. 24.—With his head buried beneath the bed coverings, the body of James Reid, forty years old, was found in his room at 174 Paterson street. He suffocated in the night.

The discovery was made yesterday morning shortly after 7 o'clock by James Fitzpatrick, a boarder, who went to Reid's room when the latter failed to appear for breakfast. He telephoned to police headquarters. Police surgeons pronounced death due to suffocation.

Reid went home at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and went to bed. He was found fully clothed, save for his shoes, and he lay face downward with the bed covers completely covering his head.

TAFT REMEMBERS EMPLOYES.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—Before their departure for Panama the President and Mrs. Taft made all necessary arrangements for the distribution of Christmas presents to the White House employes tomorrow. So the day will probably be a merry one below stairs in the old executive mansion, despite the fact that the apartments of the President's family will be dark and deserted at Yuletide for the first time in many years. Upon returning home from the isthmus the President's family will be able to enjoy a belated Christmas celebration all their own. For several days the mail carriers and express messengers have been delivering packages, big and small, at the White House, and there is on hand a collection from many parts of the world to greet the President and members of his family on their return.

MRS. HEARST'S BIG GIFT.

Deadwood, S. D., Dec. 24.—One hundred thousand dollars in gold was distributed as a Christmas present today among the employes of the famous Homestake gold mine, of which Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, mother of William Randolph Hearst, is the principal owner. Each of the 3,500 employes of the company was presented with an amount equal to 5 per cent. of what he earned in wages during the year.

WHAT IS NEWS?

The story is told of Horace Greeley that in trying to instill in a "cub" reporter's cranium what is news and what is not news the great journalist drew as an illustration a dog with a washboiler tied to its tail. He said that if a reporter saw the dog in question running down the street and barking the while there would be no news value in the happening. But if the bow-wow with the wash-boiler attached to his tail should be seen leisurely walking down the street wagging his tail there would be a bit of news. The one would be the usual and the other the unusual. In the Yale Review, Maurice Low uses much the same type of illustration in a serious and sensible defense of the newspaper in making a "spread" on the things extraordinary.

Mr. Low ably discusses the subject in the article in question and this part of his dissertation is well worth reproducing particularly for the benefit of those who seem to consider that a newspaper should devote more attention to the more serious matters of everyday life:

"If news is that which is unusual, then a newspaper is justified in publishing the fact that a cow has given birth to a two-headed calf. To determine what interests the general public, and therefore is to be regarded as news, is more difficult and will be determined by the character and the mind of the man in authority. Every person reads a newspaper for the things he is most interested in; he may skim an issue of the newspaper, but he will read only those things that really make their appeal. The man who is more interested in the prize-ring than he is in the proceednigs of Congress will think his newspaper very dull and very uninteresting if it puts a great debate on the first page and buries the doings of the latest white hope in one of the inside pages.

"In this typical illustration is the question that every editor must answer: Which has the greater news value, the Congressional debate or the white hope?—and that means, which will interest the largest number of readers? If there are more persons to whom the prize-ring is of higher consequence than a law affecting the welfare of society, then, considered purely from the standpoint of business, the editor is justified in giving the place of honor to the prize-ring and letting the debate find a place if it can."

OFFICE-HUNGRY OFFICIALS.

As in Union county where the Board of Freeholders is attempting likewise to defeat the people's will by greedily and impudently conniving to hold on after January 1, the Mercer County Board is receiving its due share of public censure and rightly so. The Trenton True American for instance brands the action of the Freeholders as impertinent and explains that the move means that the county's business may be tied up indefinitely and that the interests of the taxpayers may suffer seriously, adding that they have not the slightest chance of convincing the people that they are acting for the public welfare and not for their own selfish interests.

Says the True American:

"These Freeholders are apparently laboring under the old and highly pernicious error that public office, once secured, is private property which they have a right to use as they see fit and to retain as long as they can, despite the public wish to the contrary.

"Ethically, when a man offers himself as a public servant, he makes the tender for the good of the public and not for the good of himself. He agrees that the will and welfare of the people shall be his law and that his own interest shall be subjugated to the interest of the community.

"An office-holder has no more right to seek to retain his position after his employer, the public, has officially signified a wish to dispense with his services, than a private employe has to try to force himself into a business man's affairs after the business man has asked for his resignation."

What the True American has to say of the Mercer county office-hungry officials applies equally well to the G. O. P. members of the Union County Board, whose existence legally expires on January 1.

As tomorrow will be Christmas day, the Daily Press will not be published.

The Daily Press wishes all its readers and friends a Merry Christmas.

PLAINFIELD GETS STATE SCHOOL TAX

City Receives $138,567 It Being Second Largest Amount in Union County.

The annual county and State school tax moneys were received by County Collector Nathan R. Leavitt at Elizabeth yesterday and Plainfield is second in the list in the amounts paid for these purposes, the exact figures being $138,567. City Treasurer William F. Arnold made out a check for that sum and forwarded it to Mr. Leavitt. Elizabeth paid the largest amount for any one municipality in the county, $324,000. Plainfield's share of the county tax is $70,135 and that for State school, $68,432.

At the direction of State Superintendent of Schools Calvin N. Kendall, Comptroller Edward I. Edwards has forwarded to Elizabeth a check for $5,000. The city raised $5,000 for manual training purposes and the State, according to agreement, duplicated the amount.

T. M'M. MUIR COACHES HIGH SCHOOL MINSTRELS

Under the direction of Thomas McMaster Muir and a competent corps of assistant coaches, the Plainfield High School minstrel troupe is rapidly rounding into form and when the curtain is raised for the show on Saturday night, January 18, the school will probably be represented by a crackerjack combination of blackface performers. Assisting "Tommy" Muir in his work are Clyde Doane, Sewell Ulrich and James Moore, all of whom are well known footlight performers. In addition to the pupils' program some professional talent has been engaged, among whom is James Pagliucca, known as the "Little Jersey Pickle." Young Pagliucca was one of the juvenile dancers who performed before a large audience at the Hippodrome last Sunday evening in a benefit play and received rounds of applause.

Fred Allen has been selected as interlocutor and Joseph Carty, Valentine Goldsmith, Rutgers Neilson and Eynon White will act as end men. Cortlandt Fleming, Fred Mills and Daniel McNamee are rehearsing a ballad which will be presented as a finale. The next rehearsal of the troupe will be held Friday afternoon.

COMMUTERS HELD UP AT COMMUNIPAW SLIP

Plainfield commuters who travel on the 7:55 train to New York in the morning were held up today at Jersey City through no fault of the railroad's employes. The Fall River Steamship Company's big boat "Commonwealth," got stuck just in front of the Liberty street ferry slip of the Jersey Central and until it was gotten out of the way, two of the ferry boats were unable to leave the dock. Consequently the other boats in the downtown service could not leave the Communipaw slips.

LEAP YEAR DANCE AT P. H. S. AUDITORIUM

The return of the graduates for Christmas vacations was celebrated last night at the Plainfield High School auditorium when a leap year dance was held, it being attended by thirty couples who enjoyed the program which had been arranged by the undergraduate girls until a late hour. The affair was not the annual Alumni dance but because of the nearness of the two dates was confused by many who make it a point annually to return to their Alma Mater for this particular social function of the school year. The Alumni dance for the classes of 1908 to 1912, inclusive, will be held in the P. H. S. auditorium on Thursday night.

Among the girls who acted as hostesses in the Leap Year affair were the Misses Celestine Waldron, Helen Smith, Meta Pennock, Grace Parker, Marjorie Cooley, Agnes Cooley, Hazel Selby, Irene Dunham, Florence Lee, Gladys Lee, Francis Newell, Ruth Kling, Thyra Styles, Mary Radford, Barbara Peacock, Margarite VanZandt, Jennie Peacock, Helen Carson, Ethel VanZant, Helen VanZant, Louisa Bird, Margarite Shotwell, Edith Ogden and Helen Benedict.

BRADLEYS NOW CONTROL FISS-DOERR-CARROLL CO.

William Bradley, head of the Bradlay Contracting Company, of New York, has bought not only the interest of the Joseph D. Carroll estate, but all other holdings in the Fiss, Doerr & Carroll Company, dealer in horses and vehicles. The transfer of the business will take place Jan. 1 next.

Frederick Wagner will remain as president of the company under the new management, Frank Bradley will be vice president and secretary and and William Bradley will be treasurer.

The relations between the company and the Bradleys have been close for many years, the contractors being large buyers of horses. Joseph Carroll was so intimate with Charles F. Murphy that many persons believed the Tammany leader had a financial interest in the horse company. William Bradley is known best as a subway contractor. He did much work on the present subway and has big contracts for the Lexington avenue line.

ATTRACTIVE MUSIC PROGRAM AT ST. MARY'S TOMORROW

Miss Mary A. Smith, organist of St. Mary's R. C. church, has arranged an attractive program for the Christmas Day services in the church tomorrow morning. The church quartet is comprised of Miss Anna Daly, soprano; Miss Nellie McCarthy, contralto; Albert Mathews, tenor, Thomas Roddy, bass. The program will be as follows:

Prelude, Nuit d Ete, Bingham; Shepherds Abiding in the Fields, Milligan; Processional, Christians Awake, Marco; Kyrie, J. Weigand; Gloria in Excelsis, Weigand; Veni Creator, Werner; Credo, Weigand; offertory, Adeste Fideles, Novello; Sanctus, Weigand; Benedictus, Weigand; Agnus Dei, Weigand; O'Salutaris, Gerum; Tantum Eigo, Lenk; recessional, Holy God; postlude, Grand Chorus in B flat.

Circulation With Influence at the Smallest Cost is what the business man wants to secure trade when advertising. It is not only the number of copies a newspaper prints, but its character and where it circulates; what is admitted in its columns and whether the readers have confidence in the publication. He wants to know whether a newspaper is read in the homes and whether the money he spends is actually a loss or a gain. The

is an ideal newspaper for those who are looking for a medium to reach buyers. It has the right kind of circulation and uses every care in keeping its news and advertising columns free from objectional features—no loan shark or disreputable medical or financial announcements are accepted and it has gained a reputation for cleanliness that makes it a welcome visitor in the Home Circle.

The thousands of subscribers that take THE DAILY PRESS make a clientele of which any newspaper would be proud. No newspaper published occupies a better position.

Every town within a radius of many miles of Plainfield has its subscribers—and every town contributes to the trade of Plainfield merchants. They can reach these people, with their announcements at a time when advertising has reading value and hundreds read no other paper. NO RIPPLE IN WAKE OF RED BANK CHOIR SPLIT

Red Bank, Dec. 24.—In spite of apparent differences between Rev. Percy Perinchief, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Mrs. Ella Pintard, who was recently requested to resign as oragnist, there was no evidence of the trouble during the Christmas services.

Miss Sarah Armstrong, of Shrewsbury, had been engaged as organist at almost the last minute and with only two rehearsals with the choir she filled the position, in spite of an elaborate program of Christmas music. Miss Armstrong, it is said, is to act as organist temporarily.

No reference was made by Mr. Perinchief to the controversy between himself and Mrs. Pintard. It had been asserted that the choir might "strike" following the dispute, but all the singers were in their places.

TAFT REACHES PANAMA.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Colon, Dec. 24.—President Taft and his party landed here at eight o'clock today.

The Christmas exercises of the Congregational Sunday-school will be held in the church parlors on Friday evening at [illegible] o'clock. The entertainment is entitled "Santa Claus' House." All the scholars, their parents and friends are invited to attend.

The Christmas entertainment of Warren Chapel Sunday-school will be held in the church Thursday night. A missionary program has been arranged. The exercises for the primary department will be held in the afternoon.

BRANDEIS MAY BE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

New England Hopeful of Elimination of O'Gorman and Westcott.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 24.—Among Democratic leaders here the opinion is gaining ground that Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, will be New England's representative in President Wilson's cabinet and that he will be given the post of attorney general. For this place there are so far but two men prominently mentioned besides Mr. Brandeis. They are Senator O'Gorman, of New York, and Judge Wescott, of New Jersey, who placed Governor Wilsan in nomination at Baltimore. It is generally believed that Senator O'Gorman prefers to remain in the Senate, but if drafted by President Wilson he might obey the call. As to Judge Westcott, some Democrats of New Jersey are planning to push him for the nomination for governor next fall and in view of this fact it is thought likely he would decline a cabinet portfolio.

Louis D. Brandeis, who under the circumstances is looked upon as the strongest candidate for the attorney generalship, has been a prominent lawyer in Boston for many years, but to the country at large he is best known as a publicist. Born in Kentucky in 1856, Mr. Brandeis was educated in American and German universities, being a law graduate of Harvard, where he received his degree when twenty years old under a dispension of the rules, after studying law only two years.

He attained success, even distinction, early in his professional career in Boston. Meanwhile he found time to take an active interest in public service and social-uplift work of a practical nature. Years ago he laid down a fixed rule to devote a limited number of hours to social settlement work, making evening calls upon the poor and needy as district-committeeman for a charitable organization.

With the passing of each year, Mr. Brandeis has added to that service contribution for public good, until today he gives more than half his time to the community at large without any money consideration. And what is still more remarkable, he voluntarily has paid to his law partners out of his own funds the equivalent of the fees he would have earned in private practice while thus serving without pay as "the people's lawyer." In justice to Mr. Brandeis' partners however, it should be said that they have repeatedly protested against his action.

Mr. Brandeis made his first great fight for the people of Boston some ten years ago, for cheaper and more honest gas. At that time the gas was high priced and of an inferior quality. At his own expense Mr. Brandeis hired a hall and announced that he would talk on the subject. The people came and were interested. He moved off to another part of town hired another hall, and delivered another speech. The people were aroused, and then the lawyer carried the fight up to the Legislature. The necessary legislation was passed, and today Boston's gas is of the best quality and cheaper than in most of the large cities of the country.

TO FEED 25,000 POOR.

New York, Dec. 24.—Commander Eva Booth, of the Salvation Army will be forty years old tomorrow, having been born on Christmas Day in 1872. She intends to "celebrate" the day by giving a Christmas dinner with 25,000 of the poor of New York as her guests. It is hardly necessary to state, however, that the dinner is an annual fixture of the Salvation Army and that it is given on Miss Booth's birthday is but a coincidence. Tomorrow's dinner is expected to establish a record for the number of persons fed and for the extent and variety of the menu. Tables will be spread in several of the largest halls and armories obtainable. In addition to this, thousands of well-filled baskets will be distributed among the sick and others who are unable or disinclined to attend the public dinners. Each basket will contain turkey, with bread, potatoes, cranberry sauce and plum pudding, sufficient to feed a family of four persons. Already hundreds of applications for the Christmas baskets have been received. Among the applicants have been cripples, blind men and women led by children, the aged and feeble, and children shivering in ragged clothes.

FIREMEN TO FORM UNION.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 24.—Boston's firemen are considering a step that may earn for them the distinction of being the first of any city in the East to affiliate themselves with organized labor. The members of the department—the hosemen and laddermen—have agreed to meet the day after tomorrow to decide definitely whether or not they want to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. It is believed the bulk of the firemen will favor such a step. The promoters of the movement explain that, while the proposed organization will be a regular labor union there will be no danger of its members making arbitrary demands upon the city for increased pay or shorter hours, much less of a "walk-out" when called to fight a fire.

SON FINDS HIS FATHER LIFELESS BESIDE HIM

Perth Amboy, Dec. 24.—Awakening early Wilson D. Tyrrell fourteen years old, turned in bed to find his father, George H. Tyrrell, lying dead beside him. The man was thirty-five years old. He had retired early Saturday night apparently in his usual health.

Mr. Tyrrell and his wife had separated, the oldest boy remaining with the father and two other children accompanying their mother.

Coroner James J. Flynn decided that death was due to natural causes, and issued a burial permit.

When he was fifteen years old, Mr. Tyrrell was proprietor of a livery business and conducted it successfully for some time. Lately he had been driving a team for a contractor.

TWO INJURED AS AUTO PLUNGES DOWN BANK

Red Bank, Dec. 24.—Two persons were injured when an automobile in which they were driving left the road near Little Silver and dashed down a six-foot embankment, burying itself in several feet of mud.

The injured were Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Evans, of Little Silver. Mr. Evans recently purchased the machine. It is said he was driving the auto at a rapid rate and that when it turned out for another auto he lost control of his own car. The Evans' auto jumped fully seven feet before leaping over the embankment. Mrs. Evans was hurled over the windshield and landed ten feet from the car. She was injured about the lower part of the body. Mr. Evans was hurled from behind the steering wheel into a ditch containing several feet of mud. It is said he was buried to his waist in the mire. The front of the car was damaged.

Mr. Evans is proprietor of Royal Farms at Little Silver.

LONG CHASE AFTER ALLEGED MURDERER COMES TO END

New Brunswick, Dec. 24.—A chase which carried detectives of Middlesex county far into the West and up into Canada ended at 44 Madison street, Manhattan, when Rafino Gerardo, of Port Reading, was arrested by Detective Richard A. Pelier, of the Middlesex county prosecutor's office, charged with the murder of his father-in-law, Antonio Anzeveno, on the evening of October 19. He was arraigned before Magistrate Barlow in the Tombs Court, Manhattan, and held without bail until Thursday.

Gerardo, formerly a saloon-keeper of Port Reading, was divorced by his wife some time ago, but allowed by the court to see his children at stated periods. On October 19 the father took his three youngsters to Elizabeth and returned them to the home of their mother, across the street from his own, loaded with toys. Anzeveno, according to the story told yesterday, on learning who gave the toys, broke them and threw them into the street.

The cries of the children drew the attention of Gerardo, who dashed across the street, to be met by the angry Anzeveno. The elder man made a rush at Gerardo, who met it, the police declared, with a shot which killed his former father-in-law. Gerardo was indicted by the Middlesex County Grand Jury.

UNITED STATES IS LAST IN MILITARY AVIATION

Washington, Dec. 24.—The United States, home of the first heavier than air flying machine, is far behind other nations in military aviation. This is the assertion of Captain Washington C. Chambers, U. S. N., chief of the navy's aviation corps, an expert who is devoting his entire time to the science. He says:

"France leads the world in aviation, and all that she does is worth nothing. A short time ago, in response to an inquiry by the Minister of War, over 3,000 officers signified their desire to learn aerial navigation. Germany leads in aerostation, but is making great progress in aviation also. France has eight dirigibles, Germany thirty.

The number of aeroplanes actually possessed by each is a rapidly increasing quantity, but France probably will possess about 350 before the end of the year, the ultimate aim being to have 1,000 as soon as the requisite number of pilots can be taught to use them.

"It is significant of German foresight that one of the first steps undertaken, when it was decided to construct a large aeroplane fleet, was to found an aerodynamic laboratory. This is at Gottingen, where the best known course of instruction in aeronautics is ably conducted by Professor Prantl."

France leads, with a total appropriation of $6,400,000 to date, and a popular subscription of $1,000,000. Germany is second, with a total appropriation of $1,500,000 and a popular subscription of $75,000. Next comes Russia, Great Britain, Italy, Japan and then the United States.

TO SING FAVORITE HYMNS AT MRS. MATHIEWS' FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Constance Mathiews, wife of the Rev. Franklin K. Mathiews, pastor of the Baptist church, who died of pneumonia on Sunday after a brief illness, will be held tonight from her late home. The Rev. Dr. Everitt Tomlinson will officiate assisted by the Rev. Dr. T. Vassar, of Elizabeth.

The services as planned will be short, but impressive, and in fitting with the noble, religious and virtuous life led by the deceased. The church choir will sing a few of Mrs. Mathiews' favorite hymns including "O God Our Help in Ages Past," "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go," and "For All the Saints Who From Their Labors Rest."

The pall-bearers will be Edward Hatfield, Harry Paff, Willard Marston, Fred Saunders, Keith Saunders and Albert Meyer. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining the Baptist church, tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Mathiews was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Troll, of Jersey City, where she was born forty-six years ago. She had been a resident of Scotch Plains about five years. She took an active interest in church work and proved to be of great assistance to her husband in his work as pastor of one of New Jersey's oldest Baptist churches.

She is survived by two sons, Maurice and Norman Mathiews; two sisters, Mrs. B. F. Fuller, of East Orange, and Mrs. Watson Hurlburt, of Springfield, Mass., and three brothers, Robert and George Troll, of Jersey City, and John Troll, of Chicago.

INDICT ALLEGED GRAFTERS.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 24.—Patrolman John J. Skelly, Sol Wolf and Immanual Maas, the men whom Mary Goode in her evidence before the Aldermen's Committee charged with having been concerned in her payments of protection money to the police, were all indicted for bribery yesterday afternoon by the Grand Jury.

THEIR GIVING SERVICE WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Barrels of Flour and Tons of Coal Among the Gifts for Needy Ones.

Barrels of flour, tons of coal, complete Christmas dinners, blankets and money were among the many gifts given last night by the Bible classes at the "giving-service" in the First Baptist church. The Men's Bible class with five barrels of flour, and George A. Chapman's class with three and one-half tons of coal led the list. The officers of the school donated two large blankets and Dr. Norman H. Probasco's class contributed a ton and a half of coal. Several of the classes gave whole dinners, and others money for the needy associates of the church as well as many unfortunates in the town generally. Arthur M. Harris, superintendent of the Bible school, presented every one at the service with a beautiful calendar, appropriate of the holidays.

After the classes had made their gifts a cantata was charmingly rendered. Those taking part in its presentation were the Misses Dorothy Lee, Marjorie Cubberly, Mary Buchanan, Evelyn Tennyson, Anna Sherman, Florence Douglas, Nattie Douglas, Emily Pilger, Aileen Chandler, Hazel Coddington, Lillian Narcredy, Helen Ryno, Catherine Endress and Howard Carey, Addison Newkirk, Lester Chandler, Warren Townley, Russell Lee, Clifford Marsh, John Lee, Fred Atley, Everett Case, Russell Suffern, John Kose, Harold Allen and Earl Bach.

STEAMSHIP IS ASHORE PASSENGERS ARE SAFE

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Atlantic City, Dec. 24.—The United Fruit Company's steamer Turrialba is ashore in Egg Harbor and is in a dangerous position. Life-savers have gone to the assistance of those aboard the vessel. A wireless from Capt. Lindsay, of the Turrialba, says that she is ashore on the shoals off Ludlum beach near Barnegat. The vessel is lying easily with bow held fast, but the stern is afloat. The weather continues very thick. There are sixty-eight passengers on board and all are well. The U. S. Revenue Cutter Seneca and a Merrit & Chapman wrecking tug are on their way to the assistance of the vessel. The steamer left Costa Rica on Dec. 13 for New York. She is one of the best of the Fruit Company's fleet.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 24.—At the United Fruit Company's office here it was said this morning that there was no intention at present of taking the passengers off the Turrialba. A wireless message from the captain to the officers of the company says that the vessel is in no danger and it is believed that it will be floated at the next high tide.

CHUMS MEET AFTER 25 YEARS' SEPARATION

As Lafayette Rosenstiehl, the tonsorialist of North Plainfield, was busily removing a heavy growth of whiskers from the face of a supposed stranger by some quirk of mental telepathy mutual signs of recognition suddenly stole over the countenance of both customer and barber.

"Is your name Quinn?" asked Rosenstiehl.

"Are you old Lafayette Rosenstiehl?" demanded the customer simultaneously.

The stranger proved to be George Quinn, of Newark, formerly of Elizabeth, and a school-chum of Mr. Rosenstiehl over twenty-six years ago. Although both have changed considerable since the "good old school days," and had not met for over twenty years, memory asserted itself. Shaving was suspended for awhile while the two clasped each others hands and talked of old times.

"Them sure was the good old days," Quinn said, as he made his departure.

NEW PATERNAL POLICY OF CANADIAN PACIFIC

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 24.—Announcement of a new and startling extension of the paternal policy of the Canadian Pacific Railway in its colonization work is made. The 7,000,000 acres of the company's unsold land are withdrawn from purchase by speculators. In future the land will be sold only to actual settlers on terms which will be recognized as extremely liberal. Heretofore land has been sold on a ten year instalment basis. These terms have now been extended to twenty years. Loans of $2,000 for farm development at 1 per cent. for twenty years will be made by the company.

NO PAPER TOMORROW.

SERVICE MEDALS AWARDED TO MEMBERS OF COMPANY K

Quartermaster Sergeant J. Arthur Dow, Sergeants O. R. Pierson and James Conklin, Corporals George B. Howell and Augustus H. Van Arsdale, members of the Company K rifle team, who competed at Sea Girt for the Williams Trophy, and won by a small margin, received the medallions awarded by Major William B. Martin to the winning team at the weekly drill last night.

Bars and medallions were also awarded to the men entitled for 100 per cent. duty for the past year. Those that received them were: Captain Charles A. Peterson, gold bar for 9th year; Lieutenant N. A. Hort, gold bar for 9th year; Liutenant A. R. Phillips, gold bar for 7th year; Quartermaster Sergeant J. Arthur Dow, gold bar for 6th year; Private Edward Cardner, bronze bar for second year, and Private Phillip Millwater, bronze medallion for first year.

Captain Peterson thanked the members of the company team for their work on the rifle range, and said that the large Williams Trophy would be presented to the company at one of the regimental drills which will be held in the near future either at Elizabeth or Trenton and that there would be a small celebration for the company in the armory after the trophy has been awarded and brought to Plainfield.

A unanimous vote ordered the secretary of the organization to write a letter of thanks to the Daily Press thanking them for the piano, which the company won in the contest just closed.

VICEROY IS RECOVERING FROM THE WOUND

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Delhi, India, Dec. 24.—Vicero, Lord Handinge, whom an attempt was made yesterday to assassinate after a restless night, had no fever today and the physicians said that his condition was most favorable. They stated that they now anticipated no serious results from the wound inflicted on Baron Hardinge.

NAGLE'S FORMAL OPENING.

Clayton M. Nagle, the druggist, announces the formal opening of his new store today. The attractive new iceless soda fountain has been installed and Mr. Nagle is now ready to serve his patrons with the best goods, at reasonable prices and promptly.

ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY.

The attractive display by the New York Telephone Company at the store of the Woodhull & Martin Company, is the idea of John Carty, an employe of the local exchange. Santa Claus has been busy every day and night operating the private switch board, and he never fails to attract shoppers.

EDOUARD DETAILLE DEAD.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Paris, Dec. 24.—Edouard Detaille, the famous painter of battle scenes and once commander of the Legion of Honor, died suddenly of heart failure early today, at his home. He received many honors in France and was knighted in England.

EARTHQUAKE IN ITALY.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Rome, Italy, Dec. 24.—Slight earthquakes were reported yesterday afternoon from Calabria, Sicily, but it was not believed that any considerable damage was done. Remembering the Messina disaster the inhabitants were badly frightened when the tremors first were felt.

STEAMED FLOATED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Dec. 24. The Revenue Cutter Seminole reported by wireless yesterday afternoon to the Revenue Cutter Service that the Clyde Liner Carib, stranded off the coast of South Carolina since Saturday night, had been floated without much damage to the vessel.

Because of Christmas coming on Wednesday this year, the prayer meeting of the First M. E. church will be held tonight in Vincent chapel at 8 o'clock.

The Christmas exercises of the younger children of the First M. E. church Sunday-school will be held in Vincent chapel Thursday afternoon. The exercises for the older pupils will be held Friday night.

AUTOIST MEETS DEATH AT CURVE

Elizabeth Man Lost Control of Machine and it Crashed into a Pole.

HE WAS SPEEDNG CAR

Fatal Accident When John Rogge Was Trying to Round "Dead Man's Curve" Between Perth Amboy and Woodbridge.

Elizabeth, Dec. 24.—While trying to round "Dead Man's Curve," at St. George's avenue and McKeon streets, between Perth Amboy and Woodbridge, yesterday afternoon, at a high rate of speed in his automobile, John Rogge, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rogge, of 1169 Mary street, this city, lost control of the machine, which crashed into a telegraph pole, throwing him out against the embankment which rises on each side of the road at this point. He sustained a fractured skull and died a few minutes later while on the way to the office of Dr. J. J. Collins, in Woodbridge, who had been summoned.

Rogge was going from this city to Perth Amboy when the accident occurred. The streets form a right angle and make a dangerous turning for automobiles. So many accidents have taken place at this spot that it has been called "Dead Man's Curve." Eye-witnesses to the accident say that Rogge attempted to negotiate the turn at a high rate of speed and that he lost control of the car, which plunged head on into a telegraph pole.

Rogge had been married about eight months. His wife was notified late yesterday afternoon of the accident and hurried to Woodbridge. His father and mother left this city last week for Somerville, N. C., for the winter, and a telegram has been sent to them appraising them of the death of their son. Rogge was a well-known young man in this city and was very popular. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

POWERS URGING TURKEY TO CEDE ADRIANOPLE

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

London, Dec. 24.—The six powers are urging Turkey to abandon Adrianople, and accept in principle the terms proposed by the Balkan allies. It was learned today from a semi official source that Great Britain, France and Russia, of the triple entente, and Germany, Austria and Italy, of the triple allicance, through secret diplomacy, were advising the Porte to accept the proposal of the allies.

TRY TO KILL JAP.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Tokio, Japan, Dec. 24.—An attempt to assassinate iFeld Marshal Prince Aritomo Yamagata was made at his home at Sekiguchi, Hoischikawa, on Monday night but the Prince was unhurt. News of the attempt to assassinate Field Marshal would-be assassin, twenty-two years old, was placed in prison after recovering from the effects of a large dose of morphine which he swallowed after he was foiled in his attempt to kill the Prince. Prince Yamagata is president of the Elder Statesmen.

$50,000 FIRE AT CANTON.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 24.—In the blinding snow storm of this morning fire was discovered in the plant of the American Agricultural Chemical Company at Canton and before the firemen, summoned on a general alarm, could gain control of the flames the plant had been damaged to the extent of $50,000.

ANOTHER AVIATOR KILLED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

London, Dec. 24.—Aviator Edward Petre was instantly killed today when his monoplane crashed to earth in Yorkshire near Marske by the sea. He was attempting a flight from Brooklands to Edinburgh.

EIGHT HURT IN TRAIN WRECK.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Americus, Georgia, Dec. 24.—The Chicago-Jacksonville Limited, the Illinois Central northbound passenger train, was wrecked near Eliaville, 15 miles west of here, early today. Three coaches were overturned. Eight persons were seriously hurt but no one was killed.

HORSE KICKED HIM.

Paul Adams, an employe of the city, is in Muhlenberg Hospital as a result of injuries sustained late yesterday afternoon when a horse which he was driving in the vicinity of South Plainfield kicked him in the face and arm. A badly bruised face and a painful arm wrench, with a possible fracture of the elbow, sent him to the hospitl.

Miss Elizabeth Williams, of Park avenue, a trained nurse, is spending the holidays at her home in Lansford, Pa.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

AND A THOUSAND THANKS.

WE WISH to thank the public for the most magnificent holiday business in our history, as up to date our Christmas trade has been the largest with which we have ever been honored. We believe we have the right to claim this as a triumph of our increased facilities, and large assortment of CLOAKS, SUITS and FURS, and the prices that go hand in hand with them. With heartfelt appreciation we bespeak the continuance of the munificent patronage of which it will be our highest endeavor to prove ourselves the worthy recipients.

We wish to remind our patrons that our immense stock of FURS, despite the inroads already made upon them for Christmas purchases, are equal to all demand sof the season.

Remember: This Store Will Be OPEN Until 10:30 TONIGHT

SOUTH PLAINFIELDER NOISY.

Stanley Good, eighteen years old, of South Plainfield, arrested last night by Patrolman McIntyre at the North Avenue station of the Jersey Central, charged with being disorderly, was severely reprimanded by City Judge De Meza this morning when sentence was suspended. It is said he became involved in a fist fight with the conductor of a train coming from Bound Brook to this city, and as he descended from the passenger coach tried to renew hostilities as the railroad employe was helping other travelers from the train.

Y. M. C. A. CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

A special program of motion pictures has been arranged for the Y. M. C. A. entertainments tomorrow afternoon and evening and will include the following films: "A Christmas Carol," by Charles Dickens; "The American Rhine," "Central Park," "The Virginians" and "A Tale of the Wilderness." The afternoon entertainment will start at 2:30 o'clock and the evening one at 7:30 o'clock.

ALICE GARMAN.

Alice Garman, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garman, of 1531 Willever street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held at the home of the parents Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The burial will be at Somerville.

EXPRESS CO. RECORD.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 24.—The five big express companies last night cleaned up their Christmas traffic to the minute. Officials state they are doing the biggest holiday business in the history of the New York offices. The fact seems to be that the baby giant parcels post to be born on the first of the year has put the express people on their mettle.

SCHOONER IS ASHORE.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Plainfield People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Plainfield. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Mrs. Anthony Wahl, R. F. D. No. 1, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I had such distressing pains in my back that I could hardly stand and it was out of the question for me to stoop. I was all crippled up and I knew perfectly well that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble. A neighbor recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and on her suggestion I used them. They gave me almost immediate relief and three boxes changed me from a chronic sufferer to a healthy woman. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when a cold settles on my kidneys and they act as a preventive of any serious recurrence of my former trouble. You may publish this account of my experience for the benefit of other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MRS. WM. F. RICHARDS INJURED BY A FALL

Mrs. W. F. Richards, of East Third street, sustained painful abrasions of the face and a fractured right wrist in a fall last night, while descending the stairs in the Plainfield theatre. As one of the "movies" was concluded Mrs. Richards, accompanied by a sister, Miss Addie Carey, left the balcony and started down the stairs leading to the main floor. When about five or six steps from the lower landing she caught her feet in a fold of her dress and fell heavily to the floor.

She was picked up by theatre employes and Dr. Albert Pittis was summoned. He dressed her injuries and Mrs. Richards was taken to her home in a dazed condition. This morning her face was frightfully swollen, and her wrist was painful.

MRS. MEAD ENTERTAINS Y. W. C. A. MUSICAL CLUBS

Songs and orchestra selections was the chief feature of the annual entertainment of the Y. W. C. A. Orchestra and Glee clubs at the home of Mrs. Frederick G. Mead, on East Front street, last night. The guests were ushered in the parlor, where they were given small lighted red candles. As soon as they received their lights they were escorted into the darkened dining room to the tune of the old English Wassile song, "Ad Drink From the Wassile Bowl." Mrs. Mead then had refreshments served to the singers and players. A social hour followed, during which the orchestra played several pieces and the Glee Club sang Christmas carols.

From Mrs. eMad's house the two clubs went to the residences of several members of the association and serenaded. Miss Elizabeth Goddard directed the Glee Club and was assisted by Miss Edith Mellick at the piano, while Mrs. Charles Dey directed the orchestra which was accompanied by Miss Margaret Hawkins on the piano.

EXERCISES AT NEW MARKET.

The Sabbath school of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, of New Market, enjoyed its Christmas exercises last night. A cantata entitled "The Eastern Star," was given by the following members of the school: C. M. Ryno, Frank Burdick, Harold Burdick, Edna Burdick, Bertie Whitford, Maud Whitford, Florence Curtis, Marjory Dunn, Mary Millard, Elston, Nolton and Forest Randolph, and Helen Jordan. Little Miss Anna May Ryno and Stanley Ryno recited the "Christmas Greeting," Rev. Henry N. Jordan, pastor of the church, gave a short address, and Bernice Rogers recited several pieces. The committee in charge of the entertainment was Myrle Randolph, Edward Burdick and Mrs. H. L. Dunham. Presents were distributed at the close of the cantata.

HURT BY A FALL.

Charles Green, of Myrtle avenue, employed as a foreman at the Saurer Motor Company plant, has been detained at home as the result of injuries received on East Front street, Saturday night, when he was struck by a main line trolley car. Mr. Green was crossing the street, when he was bowled over by the car. Thomas Kennedy, of the West End, assisted Mr. Green, and after giving "first aid" took him home in a carriage.

LITERARY PLAINFIELD.

Miss Margaret Wilson McCutchen, of North Plainfield, and Miss Ida W. Davis, of this city, were among the successful contributors to the Evening Sun's Christmas section issued today. Miss McCutchen's story is entitled "Christmas Star Wishing," while Miss Davis contributed a poem entitled "Gran'pa Socks."

The regular prayer meeting of Temple Baptist church will be held tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock instead of the evening.

LOCAL "HELLO BILLS" HOLD LEAGUE RECORDS

Plainfield Pinners Hold All the Honors Except First Place and Individual Average.

During the past week Plainfield moved from seventh to sixth place in the Elks' Bowling League averages, exchanging places with New York through three wins by the former over Newark, and two losses by the latter to Elizabeth. A shakeup also occured in the team average, Plainfield doing sensational pinning against Newark and increasing its average from 917.8 to 923.2, which allowed them to take the lead from New Brunswick.

Captain Walter Burton, of the New Brunswick team, is still leading the individual average race, having increased his mark from 196.15 to 197.8 and now leads Captain Blatz, of Plainfield, by over a point, the latter having a mark of 195.17. Campbell, of this city, profited by his week's work and increased his mark from 185.13 to 187.9, jumping from eighth to sixth place. Kiely, of the local team, remains in ninth place in spite of the fact that he increased his mark from 194.14 to 195.12. Bill Nash kept us his steady climb by jumping from sixteenth to twelfth position, while Evans raised his average about a point and took possession of nineteenth place.

The Plainfield team, for the time being, holds all the honors except that of first place in the team standing and individual average man, having high team average, high team score, and Nash has high individual score with 258.

NINTH CONSECUTIVE VICTORY FOR AJAX

Complete Summary of all the Conquerors' Games Played to Date.

In defeating the Woodbridge Parish House basketball team on the Y. M. C. A. court last Saturday night, the Ajax five tied their record established for consecutive victories last season, when they won nine straight games before encountering their first defeat. To date the association players have waded through nine games and everyone of them have been victories, although a majority have been won by a margin of one and two points. With the exception of the Battin High School and Company M games, all of the contests have been staged on the local court and the Ajax have gathered a band of lusty cohorts who have been faithful to the cheering cause, because of the close and exciting games which have been staged by Manager Hetfield. The games have been played against the strongest aggregations in the State and many scares have been administered to the local quintet and in a majority of the games, their ability to finish with a strong spurt has been the only thing which separated them from a drubbing.

In the Woodbridge victory, the Ajax hung up their most notable achievement of the season as the visitors had encountered but one defeat previous to meeting the Ajax, out of ten games, and their weight and experience predicted a popular victory for them when they first came on the floor. For the first time this season, the Y. M. C. A. team was behind in the score at the end of the first period of play Saturday night, and their victory was probably due to this bad omen which was slung at them by the speedy Woodbridge five.

As far as the scoring line is concerned, Captain Brynairski seems to be monopolizing the limelight, having scored 23 field goals and 41 fouls and 87 points respectively, and the rest of the team are not far in arrears either in shooting or guarding, but the latter cannot be depicted in black and white and some of the real playing cannot be credited to the men who deserve it.

A summary of the games played follows:

Y. M. C. A. AJAX.

HOLIDAY BASKETBALL PLENTIFUL TOMORROW

Two Games at the Y. M. C. A. and Two at Hope Chapel.

Basketball will be the prevailing attraction in the line of sports here tomorrow afternoon and evening and all of the Christmas games give promise of being particularly fast ones. The Y. M. C. A., as usual, will serve as the basketball rendezvous and two games are scheduled to be played there, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The evening game will be called at 8:15 o'clock with the Y. M. C. A. Ajax and a Trenton scholastic team as opponents. The date has not been settled definitely by Manager Hetfield but in the event that he cannot get the Capitol five he will sign up some other fast aggregation. The Ajax have won nine straight games to date without a defeat and should they make it ten tomorrow they would set up a record which would shatter the mark of nine straight hung up by this same aggregation last season. By a strange coincidence it happened to be Christmas night that the Ajax were forced to swallow their initial defeat last season and this omen may have some bearing on the outcome of tomorrow evening's game.

In the afternoon, the Mohawk A. C., a junior five that has been playing the preliminary games at the Association, will lineup against the Perth Amboy A. C.

At Hope chapel a double header is carded to take place in the afternoon with the Hope chapel and Social Five as contestants in the main game and the feminine quintets of the Hope Chapel and Dunellen Presbyterian Sunday schools will clash in the preliminary. The Social Five is composed of exactly the same lineup that has been representing Plainfield High School on the court during the past season and the game will no doubt be a fast one. Plainfield High School was originally scheduled to play at Hope chapel, but in view of the fact that the scholastic players have three hard contests on the card for this week, it was thought best to call the Hope game off and play it under a different name.

ALUMNI TRIUMPHS OVER ALMA MATER QUINTET

Loosely Played Basketball Game Won by Graduate Five.

In a one sided game on the Y. M. C. A. court yesterday afternoon, the Alumni basketball team of Leal's School defeated the undergraduate five by a score of 37 to 26. Frequent fouling and inability to cage the ball could be assigned as the chief causes of defeat, but the game was poorly played on the part of both teams and the scores made by the winners were garnered from easy opportunities. The Leal's team was without the services of its captain and star player, James Nash, and his absence put a noticeable crimp in the all around work of the aggregation.

Three Jewett brothers were on the Alumni team and did most of the passing and shooting. T. Jewett was particularly adept in caging the ball and his field goal in the first few minutes of play was only a forerunner of the losing side, both in passing and shooting.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS OF COMPANY K FIVE

Local Basketball Team Has Broken Even in Its Schedule To Date.

Individual records as compiled by Manager Thompson, of the Company K basketball team, show that the military players have won four and lost four contests to date, and considering the difficulties under which the team has been banded together, the record is a particularly fine one. By reason of his great work against Hope Chapel last Saturday night, when he scored twenty-two of his team's points, Mulford Darling took possession of first place in the individual scoring record. Seals, who has played in but five of the games, occupies the place of runner up with a total of 29 points.

PALZER NEXT TO FACE M'CARTY

Meeting of White Hopes Will Settle Decisive Point.

LATTER SHOWS UP WELL.

His Defeat of Jim Flynn Recently Places Him In Front Rank of White Heavyweights—Pair to Meet New Year's Day.

The signal victory gained by Luther McCarty over the sturdy veteran, Jim Flynn, in Vernon, Colo., recently, removes practically all doubt as to the former's ability. When McCarty appeared in New York shortly after defeating Carl Morris he showed up so green that he was promptly set down by the majority of critics as being a greatly overrated fighter.

After being pounded from pillar to post by Jim Stewart, a second rater, few could see in the new sensation the long looked for white hope. Again, against Jess Willard, although McCarty won a close decision, his work was so crude that wonder was expressed as to how he managed to fell the gigantic Morris. It was surmised that Morris must have been the victim of a lucky punch and that he must have entirely lost what little form he once possessed. But Morris has gone along winning all his bouts since his affair with McCarty.

Later McCarty trounced Jim Barry, the well known Chicago heavyweight, and later knocked out Al Kaufman. But both of these men had long since passed their prime, and this fact took away most of the significance from McCarty's victories. No doubt Flynn, too, has seen his best days. Reports say he was ill trained. But the fact remains that McCarty is the first white hope to get the better of the man who had come to be known as the destroyer of this species of pugilist.

McCarty's next match will be with his closest rival, Al Palzer. For the last year Palzer has enjoyed the distinction of being hailed as the leader of the future greats. Now, however, the Iowa farmer will have to give place to McCarty, whose record eclipses that of any other white heavyweight in the ring at the present time.

When this pair of stalwart battlers come together for twenty rounds the outcome is bound to be decisive. Both lack the polish of the class of men who were prominent ten years ago. But they compare favorably with the most rugged and determined of past ring warriors. The spectacle they will furnish should be productive of many thrills for those who favor genuine fighting rather than scientific boxing.

WOLGAST OVERCONFIDENT.

It appears that it was Ad Wolgast's boastfulness and overconfidence that resulted in his undoing in his fight with Willie Ritchie in Daly City, Cal., recently. With the exception of four periods he had all the better of the bout up to the fatal round. At the end of the fifteenth Ritchie had grown weak under the battering. Wolgast was strong and exultingly boasted that he would score a knockout in the sixteenth.

As Wolgast gathered himself for a rush he shouted to the referee and ringsiders, "Watch this punch, it's going to be a good one!"

Warned of what was coming, Ritchie set himself and, as Wolgast rushed in wide open, hooked an inside left to the eye. The blow sent Wolgast back on his heels off balance, and before he could recover his poise Ritchie crossed over the right that sent the champion tumbling to the canvas.

There is no doubt that he was badly dazed, and it will always remain a matter of doubt whether he struck the foul blows that followed with deliberate intent. If he were not known to be a foul fighter when in trouble the stain of losing in such an unsportsmanlike manner might be partly wiped out.

COLLEGIATE BASKETBALL

Exciting Race For Eastern Title Is Predicted.

PRINCETON APPEARS STRONG

In Many Quarters Tiger Team Is Picked to Win Eastern Championship. Columbia and Penn Also Look Good. Yale Out of It.

The fight for the Intercollegiate Basketball league is off to a start on what promises to be a most sensational season. Last year's championship race was nip and tuck all the way, but on the present form of the teams the season's battles will be even more exciting. Columbia, last year's champion, and Dartmouth, which finished a close second, hate practically the same players as last season. Cornell has splendid material, and Al Sharpe, a member of the rules committee, for years a basketball official, is in charge of the men. Sharpe should have a team fighting at the top of the heap because he combines a thorough knowledge of the game with a splendid personality. The Ithacans finished fourth last year, falling down in midseason after making a splendid start.

Princeton was a disappointment last year, but the Tigers are counting on coming back strong, and many of the basketball wiseacres predict Princeton's championship. Led by the husky fullback of the Princeton eleven, De Witt, who plays guard on the five, the Tigers should put out a fighting team. The Princetonians have introduced a new style of basketball this year, being coached by F. W. Leubring of the University of Chicago, who will give the Tigers the western open game.

Then, too, Dr. J. E. Raycroft, formerly of the University of Chicago and now the chairman of the college basketball rules committee, is director of physical education at Princeton. Dr. Raycroft is a basketball strategist, and the Princeton team will benefit by having many of Dr. Raycroft's aggressive scoring plays.

Like Columbia, Pennsylvania, the fifth member of the league, can be always counted upon to produce a strong team. The Red and Blue five is led by Lou Jourdet, who played end on the football team. A new lot of players represent Penn this year, as most of last year's team have been graduated. Pennsylvania is fortunate, however, in having a good staff of basketball coaches in Charles Keinath, Artie Kiefaber and Carl Eblers, three stars of the champion 1910 Penn team.

Al Sharpe should turn out a strong team at Cornell with the material on hand.

Princeton plays a strong open attack and endeavors to play its opponents off their feet by rolling up a large score. Dartmouth plays a dribbling game, with Sisson, the clever scoring forward who led the league in points scored last year, as the storm center.

Sisson is the best dribbler playing college basketball today and is second only to the wonderful Keinath of Pennsylvania's champion 1906, 1907 and 1908 teams in whirlwind ability. With three others of last year's five to support him, Sisson should carry Dartmouth's colors to the front this year.

Yale, the sixth member of the league last year, resigned because of the Minor Sports Athletic association reorganization at New Haven, but the Elis, captained by Swihart, who also catches on the Blue nine, will play Princeton and Pennsylvania home and home games and will meet Columbia in New York, so the relative rank of the original six teams may, as usual, be determined. The Elis expect to be back in the league in another year, and it will be well to rank the Blue with the league teams.

MILLIONS FOR THIS PITCHER.

Rockefeller's Grandson Takes Lessons From Mordecai Brown.

Fowler McCormick, fifteen years old, son of Harold F. McCormick and grandson of John D. Rockefeller, took up a course in baseball pitching recently under the tutelage of Mordecai Brown, formerly star pitcher of the Chicago National League club.

The boy, who, some day probably will rank with the world's wealthiest men, is being trained for pitching in Princeton University. His father is a graduate of Princeton, and it is his ambition to watch his son strike out the batsmen of Yale and Harvard, for Fowler McCormick is to enter the university as soon as he is prepared.

Brown will give his pupil two lessons each week, and when spring comes Fowler will try for a pitching berth on the team of the preparatory school he now attends.

Syracuse to Reconstruct Navy.

Syracuse university will reconstruct its navy, destroyed by a recent cyclone. The alumni committee will raise $3,000, the student committee $3,000, and the citizens of Syracuse will contribute $2,000, making $8,000.

PLAITED EFFECTS POPULAR FOR GIRLS' SCHOOL DRESSES

YOUNG GIRL'S PLAITED SERGE GOWN.

SIMPLICITY in every detail marks the well made frock for the young girl. Soft and simple materials are popular. Illustrated here is a new model of serge, skirt and waist being laid in deep plaits. A belt of patent leather goes about the waist, and the round collar and three-quarter sleeves are finished by collar and cuffs of plaited lawn and insertions of valenciennes lace.

Lengthening Dresses.

If your little daughter has reached that age when her dresses, which were made in the early part of the season, have already become too short because she is "running up like a weed" you will find it necessary to let out the hems in her skirts. Do this when the dress is ready for the tub and not after it has been freshly laundered.

A good way is to lower the hem half its width, stitching the hem in again where the crease of the former lower edge is marked. Then when it is washed and ironed there will be no unsightly dark mark on the hem, for the present stitching will quite conceal this.

A New Pie Plate.

A real delight to the housewife and hostess is a pie plate of earthenware set in a reticulated nickel rim about two inches high. Two little ebony handles, nickel finished, are on either side, and the pie plate is so set in that nothing of it shows but the rim. After the annoyance of endeavoring to serve pie presentably this arrangement will be a relief to the hostess and is a charming gift to the bride to be, who will, of course, wish her table in the new home to be the acme of perfection.

Fruit With Lettuce.

Fruit salads are generally served on a base of young and tender lettuce leaves taken from the heart of the head. They are very often combined with nuts and are eaten with a mayonnaise or simple salad dressing.

Savory Viands.

Tongue Cutlets.—Cook a beef tongue very slowly in salted water with spices until quite tender. Skin it and set aside. Next day skim the liquor of all fat, heat, thicken it and flavor it with herbs and a sharp sauce. Make the sauce a good brown and add the tongue (cut in slices), bring to a boil and let all simmer for a quarter of an hour and serve.

Tongue Fritters.—These are useful when there is cold tongue that would not look well otherwise. Cut into even slices of the same size. Make a batter with two eggs, three tablespoonfuls of flour, a little salt and cayenne. Dip each slice of tongue into this batter, drop into boiling fat and cook to a golden brown. Serve piled on a napkin and garnish with parsley.

Keeping Milk Fresh.

A homemade refrigerator may be made by taking a large box. Put dirt or sand in the bottom; put a small box, just large enough to hold the milk, inside the large box, on dirt or sand; pack dirt or sand firmly around the small box. Place the milk in a small bottle, cover thinly, pour cool water on the dirt as it dries out. You will find this equal to any cellar or springhouse for keeping milk fresh and sweet.

Stained Basins.

Pulverized chalk will remove the yellow stains in basins or bathtubs caused by dripping faucets. Moisten the chalk with ammonia and scrub the spot with an old toothbrush dipped in the paste.

SOME ATTRACTIVE NEW CHINA FOR THE DINNER OR TEA TABLE

NEW DRESDEN AND SEVRES WARE.

SUGGESTIONS are here for the housewife who wishes to replenish her china closet or who is looking for something in this line for wedding or birthday gifts. The toast rack is a handsome affair of Dresden china, while the compote dish is of Sevres. The cups are adorned with charming patterns, two of them having the standards that give them a graceful appearance.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

New Combinations Seen In the Season's Models.

Magenta colored cloth trimmed with black soutache braid, is one of the combinations in the new costumes.

Many otherwise somber tailored suits are brightened by a touch of oriental embroidery on collars, cuffs and revers.

A bright velvet dahlia or rose looks charming when tucked into a velvet and fur toque. Some women are using them on their muffs.

The semiprincess frock illustrated is a delightful model for either silk or worsted materials. In the cut it is made of charmeuse trimmed with velvet. The arrangement of the front trimming is rather unusual.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

NUTRITIOUS WINTER PUDDINGS.

FOR winter use foods that help to heat the body are especially desirable. Cereals, milk, chocolate, butter, cream sugar and starchy foodstuffs are useful in his way. Therefore cold weather desserts may be useful and should be chosen with discretion.

Recipes for some wholesome and nutritious winter puddings are given here:

Plain Puddings.

Bread Pudding. Take the yolks of four eggs and beat until light. Add the grated rind of a lemon. Mix a quart of new milk with a pint of fine breadcrumbs and add the yolks with two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Turn into a buttered pudding dish and bake until solid but not watery. Cover with a meringue made of the whites of two eggs and four tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar. Return to the oven and brown.

Chocolate Custard Pudding.—Take one and three-fourths cupfuls of milk, one cake of chocolate and one half cupful of sugar. Cook these together and add two tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatin. When nearly stiff beat in the whites of two well beaten eggs. Serve with a custard made of the two yolks, one cupful of milk and one-third cupful of sugar cooked until creamy and flavored with vanilla.

Nourishing Desserts.

Tapioca Pudding.—Take two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and one tablespoonful of cocoa. Mix and place in a kettle. Add two cupfuls of boiling water and one cupful of milk. When this boils add two-thirds of a cupful of tapioca and stir often until the tapioca is clear and thoroughly cooked. A small piece of butter is an improvement, but not necessary. Add one teaspoonful of vanilla flavoring and put away to cool. Serve with milk or cream.

Cocoanut Pudding.—Take one quart of milk, put it into a saucepan and allow it to boil. Beat the yolks of three eggs with three tablespoonfuls of sugar till light. Dissolve two heaping tablespoonfuls of cornstarch in a little milk; mix eggs and cornstarch together, pour boiling milk over the mixture and put back on the fire, stirring till thick. Remove from the fire, add a pinch of salt and one tablespoonful of vanilla extract. Cover the bottom of a greased pudding dish with desiccated cocoanut, sprinkle a little sugar on; then pour over the custard. Cover the top with meringue made from the whites of the eggs, stiffly beaten. Brown in the oven. Serve cold.

HOW TO DUST.

A Hygienic Method That Is Really Effective.

The dusting that takes the dirt from one place and throws it into the air to settle again on whatever may be near, is not dusting at all. There is never a time under the broom and duster administration when a room with a carpet is free from dust, but the surface dust may be removed in two ways.

The first is to use a damp, not wet, cloth, wiping every article with it, dipping it in fresh water when it becomes dirty and wringing it dry before using again.

All polished articles wiped with a damp cloth will look streaked and bad unless polished at once with a chamois. Even discolored piano cases may be washed in this way and look very well, especially if there is another wiping after the chamois with a soft cloth dipped in furniture polish. A piano man is the authority for this statement.

The carpet may be wiped with a damp cloth, and after this process the room is quite free from dust. It is a slow but good method for dusting. There is a second way somewhat quicker to follow.

First provide yourself with a dustless duster, and you can make a better one than you can buy if you will sew together with flat seams the legs of black hosiery. Then put the duster you have made out of stocking tops into kerosene to soak for twenty-four hours. When it is thoroughly soaked remove it and hang it out of doors to dry until it is free from any odor of the oil.

This will hold all the dust it is rubbed over, and when the dusting is finished the duster may be rinsed in water to remove the dust, dried and is then ready for further service.

A duster of stocking tops is the best to be had and may be dampened with kerosene and while wet used in the same way. This is good for the furniture, but not pleasant for the hands.

ABOUT THE HOUSE.

A soft rag moistened with lemon juice and then dipped in whiting is excellent for cleaning piano keys.

Feathers that have grown grimy can be cleaned by a bath in alcohol, after which they are shaken dry.

Verdigris on metal can be quickly removed by rubbing with a soft rag dipped in ammonia.

A plain cloth dipped in hot water and then in a saucer of bran will clean white paint and not injure it. The bran acts like soap on the paint.

Folding coat hangers that fit in a flat leather case are novelties for the traveler. There are flat cases that contain folding Pullman slippers of soft leather.

Vases having long necks can be cleaned by filling them with clear hot water and small bits of paper. Vigorously shaken, the paper washes away all sediment.

To remove machine oil from materials in which the colors might run use cold water to which has been added a teaspoonful of ammonia. Then wash with soap.

To clean light woolen gowns use damp salt, applying it either with the hand or with a small brush and removing it at once by rubbing it off with a Turkish towel.

CARE OF THE PIANO.

Always keep the piano closed when it is not in use.

A piano is almost as sensitive to heat and cold as an invalid.

It should not be placed too near a fire, as the heat draws the wood.

Neither should it be near an open window, as on a wet day the dampness is apt to rust the wires.

The keys should be dusted frequently, with an old silk handkerchief and rubbed occasionally with a cloth moistened with alcohol. If they get yellow rub with a very little lemon juice and whiting and remove this preparation with a damp cloth.

A Delicious Beverage.

Lemon sirup, a very refreshing drink, is made as follows: Take two pounds of sugar, two pints of water, an ounce of citric acid and half a dram of essence of lemon. Boil the sugar and water together for a quarter of an hour and put it into a basin. There let it remain until cold. Beat the citric acid to a powder, mix the essence of lemon with it, then add these two ingredients to the sirup. Mix well and bottle for use. Use two tablespoonfuls of sirup to a tumblerful of cold water.

Radiates 20 Per Cent More Heat

Get in mind the fact that outside measurement of a square firepot is greater than that of a round one the same distance across, and you make plain the great advantage in Square Pot Furnaces.

They radiate more heat because they have more radiating surface.

This increased radiation makes possible efficient heating on a minimum of fuel and establishes Square Pot Furnaces as economical heaters for homes, schools, churches and halls.

We have dealers everywhere. See the one nearest you for a complete demonstration.

BOYNTON FURNACE CO.
37th Street, near Broadway, New York

In the New York Shops.

(A postal addressed to O'Flaherty's New York Suburban Shopping Guide, 150 Nassau Street, New York City, will supply information as to where the articles mentioned in this column may be obtained.)

The woman who can afford to give her friends luxurious gifts will find at a specialty house exquisite bags, cardcases and purses made of Persian calf with insets of real old Chinese embroidery. This Persian leather is very rare and makes up into delightfully soft bags. They run in price from $6.50 to $12.50. The card cases are $2.50 and are provided with metal clasps.

A lady comes here from California every Christmas with these hand made articles. Among other things she shows address books made of the fine Persian calf with embroidery insets. The price is $1.00.

The bag which will appeal to any woman of luxurious tastes is called an Empress bag because the embroidery which is used in making this bag was restricted solely to the use of the Empress. It is gold with bird designs in colored silks and is very beautiful. The price is $10.00.

One of the department stores is showing exquisite ivory fans with hand painted Delft scenes for $1.00.

A Mother Goose A B C book which opens like a fan and thus spells words and forms pictures is only 10 cents at one of the stores.

Two games that would please any child is the parlor Shuffleboard and the parlor Bowling Alley which are $1.00 each.

At a specialty shop one will find a most attractive collection of old American silver and antique jewelry which offers delightful suggestions for gifts. This shop is the only place where the collector will find the old basket pattern and sheaf of wheat pattern. The tea spoons of these patterns sell for $5.00 each, the dessert spoons are $7.00 each and the tablespoons are $10.00 each.

At one of the department stores one will find long strips of Chinese embroidery for $2.50 a strip. These are fully two yards in length.

Another store is showing dainty opera bags made after the style of the Empire with delicate roses and lace, for $2.90.

Black beaded bags are $1.00, those with the introduction of colored beads in a floral design are $2.00 at one of the stores.

Silk covered hangers are 65 cents.

One of the department stores is displaying a most useful and attractive gift for the housewife. This is a set of white celluloid consisting of a tray and scraper, six napkin rings, and a long handled salad fork and spoon. The price is $5.00.

A gift for a man consists of a holiday box containing a pair of suspenders and a pair of garters. The price is 50 cents.

Quaint character dolls concealing a whisk broom or a feather duster are $2.50.

A round doily worked by hand in an outline stitch showing a Japanese design is $2.75. It is about 28 inches in diameter.

One of the stores is showing trays with mahogany frames with butterflies mounted on white for $5.75.

Attractive tinted pictures in Empire frames are 50 cents.

HER 111TH CHRISTMAS.

Yellville, Ark., Dec. 24.—Mrs. Elmira Wagoner, residing in the northern part of this county close to the Missouri line, is looking forward to a double celebration of Christmas and her one hundred and eleventh birthday anniversary tomorrow. Mrs. Waoner is believed to be the oldest white woman in the United States. She has resided in this section the greater part of her life and her age of 111 years is vouched for by many grandfathers and grandmothers who knew her as a woman of middle age when they were children. She enjoys remarkable health and vigor and still takes an active interest in her household affairs.

CHRISTMAS DAY IN THE CHURCHES

Many at Services in Catholic and Episcopal Houses of Worship.

ANTHEMS AT SUNRISE

Monroe Avenue M. E. Church Holds An Early Morning Meeting That Fifty Worshippers Find Inspiring —Dr. Herring Speaks at Crescent.

In all the Catholic and Episcopal churches and four of the evangelical churches in Plainfield Christmas services were held yesterday.

Holy communion was held at the Holy Cross Episcopal church yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, full service with baptism, celebration of Holy communion and special music took place at 10:30 which was largely attended.

Solemn masses were celebrated at St. Mary's R. C. church yesterday morning at 5:30 and another at 10:30 o'clock. Special music was rendered at all five masses under the direction of the oragnist Miss Mary A. Smith. The church was crowded to its fullest capacity and an extra large number of communicants were at Holy communion. Father Bogan preached at all the masses on subjects appropriate to the day.

The regular mid-week prayer meeting of Temple Baptist church was held yesterday morning at 7 o'clock instead of at the evening hour as usual. The church was crowded with members of the congregation, who took part in the singing of Christmas anthems. Rev. E. C. Conover gave a short Christmas talk.

The celebration of Holy Communion was observed at St. Peter's German Lutheran church yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock and Gesthemane Swedish Lutheran church, in the same building, at 6 o'clock. The services of both denominations were largely attended and the singing of Christmas anthems and carols was enjoyed.

The midnight service held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church Tuesday night was a great success. The church was crowded to its fullest capacity and Christmas communion was served to all present. Other services of the day were held at 8 and 11 o'clock yesterday morning. A special musical program was arranged by the choirmaster, Charles W. Walker. Mrs. Violet Truell-Johnson rendered several selections on the violin.

The Holy communion was celebrated at the Grace Episcopal church yesterday, with Rev. E. Vicar Stevenson officiating. A special musical program was presented by S. Frederick Smith, organist and choirmaster. The program: Processional, Adeste Fideles; Te Deum, in E flat, Parker; Communion service, Eyre in E flat; offertory anthem, "There Were Shepherds," Vincent, and the recessional, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." The services were well attended.

There were three celebrations of the Holy Eucharist at the Episcopal Church of the Heavenly Rest yesterday morning at 7, 8 and 10 o'clock. The following program was presented at the last service, which was a choral service by the vested choir of men and boys under the direction of Wendell C. Glover, organist and choir master: Organ prelude; processional hymn, "Adeste Fideles," Reading; Communion service in E flat, Simper; "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Willis; offertory anthem, "Let Us Now Go Even Unto Bethlehem," Field; recessional hymn. "Angels From the Realms of Glory," Smart; organ postlude.

A Christmas sunrise service held at the Monroe Avenue M. E. church was attended by over fifty members yesterday morning. An organ recital by Miss Bertha Jones, the singing of Christmas anthems by the congregation and the reading of Henry VanDyke's story of "The Other Wise Man," by the pastor, Rev. Frederick J. Hubach, were the important features of the service.

According to the usual custom, a Christmas morning service was held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, yesterday. There was a large congregation present and all entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, the pastor, had charge of the service, reading the Scripture lesson and offering prayer.

Dr. E. Metler Davis, organist, had charge of the music, which was appropriate to the day, and Miss Lillian Vernon Watt, soprano soloist of the church, sang the offertory solo in a pleasing manner.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the theme being pertinent to the Christmastide season and emphasizing the importance to the whole world of The Nativity. The discourse was an especially helpful one and was much enjoyed by the congregation.

B. A. MUMFORD LIES DEAD AT 70

Widely Known Throughout This Section as Baseball Enthusiast.

MANAGED CRESCENTS

Almost as Well Known in Exempt Firemen's Circles as Among Followers of Baseball—Brought First Hook and Ladder Here.

Benjamin A. Mumford, widely known throughout this section of the State as an ardent baseball enthusiast and one of the oldest exempt firemen in the city, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 1023 Arlington avenue, in his 71st year, following an illness of six weeks, during which time he suffered three strokes of paralysis. For several days prior to his death he lay in an unconscious condition.

Mr. Mumford was born in New York city and came to Plainfield about a half-century ago. During the early days he became interested in a volunteer fire department. It was through his efforts that the first hook and ladder was brought here, being purchased by popular subscription, and a little later a team of horses and harness were secured in the same way. Mr. Mumford always maintained his interest in the fire department and was especially active in the Exempt Firemen's Association, of which he was at one time the president.

There is scarcely a baseball fan of recent years who does not remember Mr. Mumford. He was one of the most familiar figures at the games played in this city since the game was introduced here. He was the manager of the Plainfield Athletic Club team, and later was manager of the Crescents, when they played on what was known as LaGrand avenue. After the team removed to Crescent Oval he continued the position of manager for a year. He never lost his interest in the sport, even after giving up his managerial position, and he could always be found at the games, assisting in every way possible to make baseball a success. Many diamond stars of later years owed their success to the training under Mr. Mumford and it was his delight to recall the various players who had ascended the ladder of fame in the baseball world. He had a high technical knowledge of the game and was quick to pick out a good player.

Mr. Mumford was one of the oldest members of Grace church parish, and during his young days sang in the choir of the church when it was situated on East Front street. He was a public spirited citizen and while he never held public office, always interested himself in every department of the city.

Surviving are one daughter, Miss Mary Mulford, and a son, Charles Mumford, who live at home; also a sister, Miss Marion Mumford, and a brother, Daniel Mumford, of New York. Private funeral services will be held at the late home, tomorrow afternoon. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel, will officiate and the burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

MRS. VIOLET T. JOHNSTON ENGAGED TO ENGLISHMAN

Announcement was made yesterday by John R. Truell of the engagement of his daughter, Mrs. Violet Truell Johnston, to Noel G. Evans, of London, England. In the spirit of the Christmastide season, the couple received hearty congratulations from their many friends. Mrs. Johnston possesses unusual musical talent, having appeared here and elsewhere at many entertainments and has also played in the various churches of the city and borough. Her mother was widely known through the establishment of Truell Court, Truell Inn and Truell Hall, in the management of which she had great success.

Mr. Evans, who has lived at Truell Hall for the past three years, is connected with the International Banking Corporation of New York. He has travelled extensively and lived in China and Japan for several years, being interested in Oriental banking houses. For a time he was secretary of the SanFrancisco branch of the New York concern with which he is associated.

W. R. C. MEETING.

Winfield Scott Post, Women's Relief Corps, will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night.

YULETIDE SPIRIT WAS ALL ABOUT

Charities Agent Rates it Best Christmas in Her Experience.

GOOD FELLOWS BUSY

In Co-operation With Charity Organization Society Santa Claus' Aides Made Day Merry for Nearly 800 Children in City and Boro.

"The Good Fellows" of Plainfield, co-operating with the Charity Organization Society, were able to provide a merry Christmas for nearly 800 children throughout the city and borough. The reports indicate that it was by far the happiest Christmas that those children have had.

The whole plan worked out perfectly. All day Tuesday and yesterday morning, "Good Fellows" were to be seen hurrying here and there carrying cheer and other good things in abundance to brighten up the homes of their less fortunate little brothers and sisters.

The Charity Organization Society in addition, provided thirty-three complete turkey dinners; also presents for ninety families and distributed $167 in cash to those in need.

Miss Mabelle Phillips, the agent for the society, says it was the best Christmas she has experienced since her connection with the society began. Everyone seemed to be more generous than usual and the poor of the city were not obliged to suffer from a lack of things that go to make life worth living at holiday time. Every church in the city and borough provided generously for the needy in its congregation so that few if any of the victims of fate failed of one day of cheer, anyway.

OFFICIALLY DEAD, HE PROVES HE'S ALIVE

Charles B. Fowler Wins Fight For a Civil War Pension.

Charles B. Fowler, formerly of this city, and widely-known as a printer, although officially declared to be dead for nearly fifty years, has proved that he is alive and entitled to a pension. The pension has been obtained with the aid of Adj. Gen. Sadler. Mr. Fowler served as a private in Company B, 1st New Jersey Cavalry. At present he is living at Hopewell, but he has worked in various newspaper and job printing shops throughout the State.

Fowler has been fighting several years to get a pension, but his application always has been answered by the authorities at Washington with the statement that Charles B. Fowler was dead, that he was killed on a Southern battlefield. Private Fowler on Tuesday received $168 back pension and a warrant for $21 a month as long as he lives. He says it is the best Christmas gift he ever received.

Fowler is more than 70 years old, is needy and has no relatives. He cannot work because of his enfeebled condition. His inquiries as to the method of entering one of the soldiers' homes in this State drew the attention of Adj. Gen. Sadler. The Adjutant General decided, after an investigation, that the veteran no longer should be counted as dead and took up the case. Affidavits were sent to Washington and Gen. Sadler personally pushed the matter. The man shot on a Southern battlefield was another Charles B. Fowler, who served in the same regiment, but in Company K.

"DETECTIVE SANTA CLAUS."

The entertainment of the Netherwood Reformed Sunday-school will be held tonight and a noteworthy program is to be presented. The numbers include recitations and songs by the infant and junior departments, piano duets by two of the little tots, and a cantata entitled, "The Detective Santa Claus." The cast will be: "Santa," H. J. Martin; "Mrs. Noble," Mrs. T. H. Wood; "Roy Noble," Homer Scruton; "Tom Barton," James Carson; "Professor Kenyon," F. A. Cooper; "high school boys, rooters," and other minor parts will be taken by members of Claude Gounod's class. At the close of the cantata presents will be distributed.

P. H. S. ALUMNI DANCE.

As is the usual custom during the Christmas holidays, the Plainfield High School Alumni will hold a dance and reception in the P. H. S. auditorium tonight. Fred Loizeaux, '09, is in charge of the affair and the tickets, which are restricted to High School graduates, can be obtained from him.

HAS REV. MR. MACRORIE RESIGNED AS PASTOR?

Report Has it That Minister Under a Cloud Has Quit His Two Charges.

Rev. Willis S. MacRorie has resigned as pastor of the Mt. Horeb and Springdale M. E. churches, acording to what seems to be a well founded rumor, although it could not be confirmed by either Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, the District Superintendent of the Elizabeht district, or officials of the congregations to which Mr. MacRorie ministered.

Mr. MacRorie has not exercised his pastoral duties since his arrest several weeks ago, although he still continues to reside at Mt. Horeb. The minister's case has been referred to the Union county grand jury, which meets next month, and it is also expected that the Newark Conference which is to meet at the Halsey Street M. E. church, in March, will take some action. Rev. D. Roe Haney, the student from Drew Theological Seminary, still continues to serve the churches as a supply.

FOG DELAYED ALL THE RAILROAD TRAINS

Jersey Central and Reading Service Badly Crippled This Morning.

Trains on the New Jersey Central were operated under great difficulty during the early morning hours today owing to the dense fog prevailing at that time. The passenger trains were from fifteen to thirty minutes late in arriving at their destination, while the freight and coal trains were also delayed even to a greater extent. The 8:30 club car-train did not leave Plainfield until 8:45. The general weather conditions made traveling by the freight and coal trains a slow process, while the fog only aggravated these conditions. So far as known there were no accidents.

The fog conditions in New York and Jersey City were equally as bad as in this section, and this interfered with the service of the ferryboats. In consequence commuters were naturally delayed more or less in reaching their places of business in the city.

PATIENTS AT MUHLENBERG HAVE CHRISTMAS CHEER

The twenty-three patients who were obliged to spend Christmas Day at Muhlenberg Hospital were generously remembered through the thoughtfulness of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Board of Governors. Each patient received a fine basket of fruit, and those that were able, enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the fixins'. There were ten patients in each ward and three in private rooms.

The wards and private rooms, as well as the halls were appropriately decorated for the occasion with greens and holly and a genuine Christmas spirit pervaded the institution. The staff of nurses and others connected with the hospital were also well remembered by their friends.

PARK CLUB DANCE.

Among the social functions announced for holiday week is the dance to be given at the Park Club, tonight, under the auspices of the entertainment committee. This will be the usual Christmas dance and the attendance of the members and a large number of friends is expected. The clubhouse has been attractively decorated for the holiday season and many pleasing features will mark tonight's affair.

TRUST CO. CALENDARS.

The customers of the Plainfield Trust Company who are anxious to secure its artistic 1913 calendars can get one by calling at the office. The calendar is one of the most effective that the company has ever distributed, the subject, Clarinda, being a copy of the painting of that name by William Thorne, the celebrated portrait painter. The calendars will not be given to children.

MECHANIK-ROSENBLOOM.

Miss Eva Rosenbloom, of New York, and Philip Mechanik, of East Front street, were married Sunday, December 15, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel Klaffer, of 695 Eagle avenue, the Bronx. The fact that the couple was married became known through postcards received by friends here. The bride and bridegroom are now living at 27 Elm place.

Lewis Blackford, a former resident of this city, but now of Brooklyn, spent yesterday with friends here.

WED 50 YEARS, THEY CELEBRATE

Hale, Hearty and Happy Mr. and Mrs. Mosher Observe Anniversary.

CHILDREN ABOUT THEM

Relatives and Friends Offer Their Congraulations in Person While Others Send Messages—Each Beyond the Alloted Span of Life.

Hale and hearty after passing beyond the Biblical alloted life of three score and ten years, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Mosher celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding yesterday at their home on Central avenue. Friends and relatives from many cities arrived during the day to congratulate the couple who were married on Christmas day in the year of civil strife 1862, and there was no place for the sad eyed and wistful after the guests reached the house. The five children of the venerable couple, two sons and three daughters, joined in the celebration. The sons and one daughter are now married. The grandchildren were there too and they romped and played with the Yuletide gifts while the older people gathered about the joyous couple and cheered them. Reminicences of childhood days and the secrets of father's woodshed were related over and over again to the delight of all. Mr. and Mrs. Mosher received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The home-coming children were George B. Mosher with his wife and daughter, Marguerite, of Washington, D. C.; Harry S. Mosher with his wife and son, Nelson, of Tarrytown, N. Y.; Mrs. Charles Dunham, of this city; Mrs. I. M. Courser with her daughter, Muriel, of this city, and Miss Edna Mosher, of this city. Mrs. Mosher's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kaisinger, with their son, Abram Nace, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Emma Lyon and son, Howard Lee, of Philadelphia, were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher were married at Quakertown, Pa., and have lived in this city for the last sixteen years. He has born at New Market, the son of Pinkham Mosher, and came to Plainfield when at the age of six. While still a boy he left his home and wandered abroad. He lived the life of a globe-tratter for thirty-five years and then returned to New Jersey and to Plainfield. His father located in New Market in 1830 and removed to this city in 1842, where he resided on West Front street for many years. Mrs. Mosher is a direct descendant of Governor Snyder, one of the first chief executives of the State of Pennsylvania. She's a Daughter of the Revolution.

Telegrams poured in during the day with congratulations from relatives and friends in various parts of the country and it was surely a happy couple that read the greetings.

At the age of 78 Mr. Mosher is doing the work of a man in the prime of life, being busily occupied at the Potter Press Co.'s plant. Mrs. Mosher is 73.

HE WANTED TO BE BEATEN BUT HE ONLY GOT PINCHED

While in an intoxicated condition, John A. Johnson, 23 years old, of 702 East Fifth street, minus his coat and hat and shoes and stockings, confronted Mrs. Clarabella Doyle, of Cottage place, last night, thrust a stout stick in her hands and implored her to beat him over the back.

Mrs. Doyle, who was accompanied by two small children, ran screaming down the street and Johnson gave chase. The arrival of Roundsman Higgins on the scene stopped the chase and Johnson went to the station house.

Appearing before City Judge De Moza this morning, the prisoner pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct. After he took the pledge and apologized to Mrs. Doyle, the court suspended sentence.

IRMA READY TO GO TO 'FRISCO

Instructs Counsel Not to Fight Extradition, and Leaves Tomorrow.

COAST DETECTIVE HERE

Gallatin, of the Frisco Police, Says Girl is Hardened to Life of Crime —How Old Italian Was Swindled of $7,700.

Nineteen-year-old Irma Bendotti, alias Mrs. de Pietro, arrested in this city as an alleged member of a quartet of swindlers, wanted by the authorities of San Francisco, Cal., on an indictment charging her with assisting in buncoing a wealthy Italian of $7,700, will be taken to the coast city tomorrow. She is locked up in the county jail, where she was committed in default of $10,000 bail. Governor Wilson has granted extradition papers, and Charles J. Gallatin, of the San Francisco Detective Bureau, who has come East after the girl, will take the first train tomorrow for the West with the prisoner.

At the girl's request, no attempt was made to fight extradition. Irma insists on her innocence and says she wants to return to California as soon as possible "to clear her good name."

According to Detective Gallatin, Irma is a shrewd and hardened criminal, and together with Frank Du Bois and Ronald de Pietro, who are being sought by the police on the same charge, and a Toney Rovigo, now in the custody of the coast city policed, formed a clever band of Italian swindlers, who make it a practise to swindle their rich countrymen of their savings.

All members of the band, according to the detective, have been arrested in New York, Cleveland, St. Louis and other large cities on criminal charges, but in each case have escaped imprisonment by "jumping" their bail. Du Bois and de Pietro are thought to be in London, England.

The victim of the alleged swindle for which Irma is being held is Louis Dodero, 75 years old, a wealthy hotel keeper of Vera Cruz. He was persuaded to "adopt" Toney Rovigo, who posed as a recent arrival from Italy. Rovigo in turn introduced his friend de Pietro to the old man as a rich philanthropist who wished to distribute some of his wealth among the poor of San Francisco. Dodero was appointed as "chief distributor," and drew $7,700 out of the bank to show as security. The money to be given to the poor and the bond money were apparently locked in a suit-case and left in Dodero's custody. The next day Rovigo and de Pietro on some pretense departed from San Francisco.

When the old man started in on his philanthropic duties he found the suit-case filled with iron washers and stones. He did not notify the police until four days later. Irma, according to Gallatin, was the custodian of the money, and had it transferred to New York. He is of the belief that it was her share of the spoils that purchased the Mt. Bethel Hotel, where she lived from last August until her arrest.

Detective Gallatin is worth a paragraph by himself. He is a clean cut type of westerner, one of the sort that make a favorable impression wherever they go. This morning Chief Kiely took him about town, introducing him to a number of local business men. This is his first trip east, and he has taken the opportunity while waiting for the requisition papers to be signed, to visit New York and points of interest about that city. He is extending a cordial invitation to all whom he meets to look him up at the Panama Exposition, which will be held in San Francisco in 1915. Like every westerner he is a big booster for the exposition, which he says is to be the "greatest ever."

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

A union service of the church and Sunday-school of Warren chapel will be held Sunday afternoon. The regular Christmas exercises of the school will be held at that time, the Christmas music which was sung last Sunday will be repeated at the service. The evening service will be omitted on account of the union meeting in the afternoon.

WARREN ENTERTAINMENT.

The Christmas entertainment of the Warren chapel Sunday-school will be held tonight in the church parlors. The public is invited.

List of Delinquent Householders Furnished by Police—Clean-up Expensive for the City, But Many Men Get Work.

Street Commissioner Andrew J. Gavett has a full force of men, horses and carts at work today removing the snow from the business section, as well as cleaning out the gutters and sidewalks in the residential section, where property-owners have failed to comply with the city ordinance. Twelve hours after a storm is allowed in which to clean sidewalks and gutters, and in case of failure the city will do the work and charge it against the property.

Police Chief Kiely furnished a list of delinquent householders to Mr. Gavett this morning and the force will get busy at once doing the work. Mr. Gavett was obliged to employ a large number of extra men to assist in removing snow. The men receive $1.50 and $1.75 a day, which together with the hiring of teams and carts, makes a snow storm such as visited Plainfield on Tuesday an expensive proposition to the city.

The teams and carts with a large force of men were put to work in the business section this morning and the principal thoroughfares will be cleaned pretty thoroughly by this afternoon. Other gangs are at work in the residential sections, where satisfactory progress is being made. Mr. Gavett said this morning that as a rule property-owners are prompt in cleaning their walks, but there are some who never give any attention to the matter and the city is compelled to do the work. Yesterday being a holiday, it was impossible to get any number of men to work, so that the start on the clean-up was delayed, especially in the business section.

KRIS KRINGLE DROPS IN AT BONNIE BURN

First Chirstmas Celebration at New Sanitorium Brings Joy to Patients.

The first Christmas celebration at Bonnie Burn Sanitorium, yesterday, proved a complete success in every way. The affair was arranged by Miss Mabelle Phillips, executive secretary of the Charity Organization Society, and Miss Suydam, secretary of the Elizabeth Anti-Tuberculosis Society, under the direction of the Plainfield and Elizabeth Anti-Tuberculosis Societies. They were ably assisted by Mrs. William H. Murray, of this city, and Mrs. Runnells, wife of Dr. J. F. Runnells, superintendent of the sanitorium.

There are now forty patients at the sanitorium and all enjoyed the day's festivities, which included a large Christmas tree, attractively decorated, and the distribution of suitable gifts by Santa Claus, who appeared in the person of Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, of the borough. He kept everyone in good humor.

Another pleasing feature of the celebration was the singing of carols by the glee club from the Young Women's Christian Association, of this city. They first sang carols in the outdoor pavilion and then gathered about the Christmas tree, where they entertained those present with appropriate selections.

CHRISTMAS DANCE WILL BE A BRILLIANT EVENT

The Christmas dance to be given at the Hartridge Auditorium, tomorrow night, promises to be one of the most successful events of the holiday season here. Society folk from the city and borough have responded to the invitations and the committee in charge anticipates an unusually large attendance. "Black Sousa's" orchestra of twenty pieces will furnish the music for dancing.

The dance will be given under the patronage of a number of society women of the city and borough, and the direction of a committee of young men, who arranged the details. The decorations will be especially noteworthy.

MANY SEEKING G. O. P. GUBERNATORIAL PLUM

Prince, Edge, Colgate and Stokes Lay Plans to Capture Nomination.

Trenton, Dec. 26.—The approach of the legislative season usually compels attention to things political, and this season is no different from others, in fact, the gubernatorial situation next fall has come to the surface now and commands more attention here than any other matter.

Gubernatorial booms are springing up in the Republican party notwithstanding the division in the last campaign, which ended in disastrous defeat, and the faith in some of them now before the public indicates belief in their permanency within the party.

Senator Prince, acting governor so long and so many times during the various absences of Governor Wilson, has said he has grown used to the office and will try and make it his in the coming campaign. He hopes the announcement will last like winter wheat throughout the winter, snow and thrive with the sunlight which may come when the legislative session is over.

Senator Edge, Senator Colgate and even Prosecutor Garven, the latter with his anti-meat trust fame as an issue, are ready to float their flags to the breeze if that breeze seems blowing from a quarter to lead their barks safe to the executive shore.

It is remembered that former Governor E. C. Stokes in a recent statement called attention to the fact that the Democratic vote in this State was 55,000 less than the combined vote for Taft and Roosevelt—a fact which makes Republican victory possible under wise management, and impossible through continued factional dispute. Stokes is making a big bid for the Gubernatorial nomination.

The Sunday-school of the Springdale M. E. church will hold its Christmas entertainment on New Year's eve.

The new Catholic church of Our Lady of Mt. Bethel was opened to the public for the first time Sunday. The attendance was large, many coming from New York, Elizabeth, Plainfield, Bound Brook and New Brunswick to assist at the first mass celebrated in the new edifice. The celebrant was the Rev. W. F. Dittrich, rector of St. Joseph's church, Bound Brook, who has charge of the mission. He delivered an eloquent sermon on "The Church of Christ." The property was deeded to the church by Mrs. Catherine Binz and her son, Alfred E. Binz, of Mt. Bethel.

The dedication exercises of the Church of Our Lady, of Mt. Bethel, will take place in the spring.

Alstine Penny, of Martinsville, has returned to his home after a few weeks' visit with his brother, Albert Penny, of Newburgh, N. Y.

High Bridge-Califon.

Mrs. Irma Hoffman, of Califon, has resigned her position at the State Sanitarium at Glen Gardner and will spend the winter in Florida.

George W. Creveley, a farmer, is seriously ill at his home at Lower Valley.

Harvey D. Alpaugh returned Monday to his home in Newark, after making a stay at Califon.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Abbie Fisher, wife of Cyrus Fisher, of Easton, Pa. Death was due to tuberculosis, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Fisher was born in Lebanon Township and was a daughter of the late Samuel King. Her husband and one daughter survive her.

Lester Sutton and Amzie Hoffman, students at Lehigh University and Amherst College, respectively, are spending the holiday vacation at Califon.

By the will of Lambert K. Alpaugh, of Califon, Mrs. Elizabeth Alpaugh, his widow, is appointed sole executrix and receives absolutely his entire estate, both real and personal.

Mrs. Susan N. Wise, Mrs. Nevius Sutton, Miss Mabel Hoffman and Miss Madaline Apgar, of Califon, will leave January 3 for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Frank Moore, of Albany, is spending the holidays with his parents, Justice and Mrs. John H. Moore, at Middle Valley.

Miss Helen Haggerty, of Califon, is visiting her brother, Allen T. Haggerty, in Newark.

Jacob Cregar is ill at his home at Lower Valley.

David Beam is building a residence on his lot near Hoffman's.

The members of Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, will go to Whitehouse, Monday night, to institute a new council of the order.

The Women's Relief Corps will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night to complete arrangements for the installation of officers in January.

BURGLAR TAKEN BACK TO ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Manfra Must Serve Out a 3 Years' Sentence for Counterfeiting.

Elizabeth, Dec. 24.—"You be a good boy and do not give us any trouble and we'll treat you the same way," declared Secret Service Officer J. J. Sullivan yesterday afternoon to Frank Manfra, convicted in this city of breaking and entering and larceny, whom he and Officer Ralph Di Fialto took back to the Federal Prison, at Atlanta, Ga., to serve out a three year term for counterfeiting. Manfra had been convicted and sentenced to three years, but was released on parole on account of failing health. He was arrested in this city some time ago and convicted before a jury in the Court of Common Pleas. His conviction here was a violation of the parole from the prison at Atlanta and the officers from that institution arrived here last Friday and took him back on the warrant made out by Warden William H. Moyer.

"I'll be walking the streets a free man in three months," declared Manfra. "Something in my heart tells me that. I have done nothing. I'll go with you and to show you that I am in earnest and that I have nothing to fear, you give the ticket and I will go to the prison alone." His kind offer to go unescorted was refused by the Federal authorities.

While in the county jail here Manfra is alleged to have said that he would never be taken alive to the Federal prison. The jail authorities paid no attention to him and there has been no attempt at suicide. Manfra was convicted of breaking and entering the home of Mrs. Mary Coddington, at 1166½ Washington street, in this city, and of stealing a gold chain and a ring valued at $35.

FINLEY J. SHEPARD IN NEW YO RK FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS WITH MISS GOULD

New York, Dec. 26.—Finley J. Shepard, of St. Louis, is in New York for the Christmas holidays and is often seen on the streets with his fiancee, Miss Helen Gould. Their first public appearance was last Sunday, when they braved an army of photographers and walked the short block from Miss Gould's home at 579 Fifth avenue to the Collegiate church of St. Nicholas at Fifth avenue and Forty-eighth street. Miss Gould paid as little attention to the photographers as possible, while Mr. Shepard smiled and seemed to enjoy the situation. Mr. Shepard's mother has been an invalid for several years. He will visit her in a New Haven hospital before his marriage to Miss Golud.

ENFORCE THE LAWS.

Hundreds of householders showed no disposition yesterday to regard the convenience of pedestrians, without mentioning the penalty to which they subjected themselves by violating the ordinance requiring the removal of snow from sidewalks within five hours of the time the snow fall ceases.

It may be well to call attention to the fact that every householder who has neglected to clear his sidewalk of snow is liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars and that should the work be done by the city, as is provided in such cases, the costs are to be included in his tax bill. For the benefit of those in ignorance of the ordinance in question, it is herewith presented:

"Section 1. That the owner, occupant, lessee or other person having the charge of each and every dwelling house, store, or other building or lot or lots of grounds, shall within the first four hours of daylight after every fall of snow or hail, or after the formation of any ice upon the sidewalk adjoining said premises, cause the said snow or ice (unless said ice shall have been strewn with ashes, sawdust or sand) to be removed from the flagging, cement, concrete, planks, crushed stone, graveled surface or other artificial covering thereof; and shall also cause the gutter in front thereof to the width of one foot outwardly from and adjoining the curb line to be cleaned out so as to allow the water to run freely along the same, and any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding five dollars; provided, that this section shall not apply to any sidewalk which shall not at the time have been laid either to the whole width or a part thereof with flagging, cement, concrete, planks, boards, crushed stone, graveled surface or some artificial covering.

"Sec. 2. That as to all sidewalks and gutters of any street or highway that is graded, curbed and flagged, the Street Commissioner shall at an expense not exceeding one cent per front foot, in all cases in which the owner of the land shall fail to remove the snow and ice within twenty-four hours after such sidewalks or gutters were covered with snow or ice, remove said snow or ice from said sidewalks and gutters as directed by the statute in such case made and provided, and in such case the costs and expense paid and incurred by said street commissioner for removing the snow and ice from any sidewalk or gutter as aforesaid shall be certified by said Street Commissioner to the city assessor, "and the same shall be added to the taxes of the lot or lots or parcels of land in front of the sidewalks and gutters from which the snow and ice was removed, and shall be a part of the same as a first and paramount lien upon said land and premises."

A strict enforcement of the foregoing ordinance just at this time might have a very good effect.

Now is the time for the Plainfield Ministers' Association to get to work on a protest against the scheme to give back licenses which formerly existed. It is quite certain that an attempt will be made to shove through the Common Council the restoration of two licenses despite the action of a former governing body that cancelled the one and refused to renew the other. The reasons for the action is still fresh in the public's mind and it remains to be seen whether the good work then done will now be undone.

The plan to obtain national legislation on the subject of weights and measures is a move in the right direction. There is a lack of uniformity in the various States with respect to these regulations and President-elect Wilson has announced his intention of giving the question his immediate and careful attention. Under the new law this State, great good has been accomplished but it would be still more effective should Congress enact a measure of national scope.

It strikes us that Mayor-elect Stewart is pretty much like President-elect Wilson for he is keeping to himself his prospective appointments. There's been a lot of "bunk" printed about who will get the jobs but unless we very much mistake the incoming mayor it is sure that he does not propose to name some whom rumor couples with appointive positions.

Because he was ill, Wilson could eat no turkey say the newspaper dispatches. Most of us are ill because we ate too much turkey.

Admiral Dewey is seventy-three years young today. How soon we forget our heroes!

Y. W. C. A. GLEE CLUB VISITED BONNIE BURN

Ten members of the Y. W. C. A. Glee Club visited Bonnie Burn Sanitorium yesterday afternoon and sang Christmas carols for the enjoyment of the patients. Miss Elizabeth Goddard acted as leader. One of the features of the trip was that of taking a large Christmas tree, the branches of which were loaded down with suet, bread, cranberries and bird seed. The tree was set up in a conspicuous place, so that all the inmates of the sanitorium could see it and watch the birds alight and eat of the things provided for them.

During the afternoon the girls visited the different dormitories, sang Christmas songs and told stories to those confined to their rooms by illness.

MRS. MATHIEWS LAID AWAY IN CHURCHYARD

Funeral services over Mrs. Franklin K. Mathiews, who died at her home Sunday night, after a week's illness from pneumonia, were held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Baptist church, the services being in charge of Rev. Everett Tomlinson, assisted by Rev. F. E. Vassar, of Elizabeth. Many members of the church and friends of Mrs. Mathiews attended the obsequies, notwithstanding the bad weather.

Dr. Tomlinson preached the sermon, taking for his text "Satisfied," picturing Mrs. Mathiews' life from infancy to wifehood and motherhood, all of which had prepared her for the final call. During the service the choir rendered favorite hymns of the deceased, "O God Our Help In Ages Past," "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," and "For All the Saints Who From Their Labors Rest."

The floral expressions of sympathy from church organizations and friends were many, the casket being covered with a canopy of roses, besides many handsome set pieces. The bearers were Frederick Saunders, Keith Saunders, Willard Marston, Albert Meyer, Edward Hatfield and Harry Paff, all being communicants of the church who had been received into membership during Mr. Mathiews' pastorate. The interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church, yesterday afternoon.

COLLEGE SOCIALISTS TO MEET.

New York, Dec. 26.—Many delegates have arrived in New York to attend the fourth annual convention of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society which will hold its sessions here tomorrow and Saturday. The leading feature of the meeting will be a dinner at which "The New Political Alignment" will be discussed by Dr. John C. Kennedy, of Illinois, Dr. Thomas C. Hall, of the Union Theological Seminary; Professor Ellen Hayes, of Wellesley College, and other prominent Socialists and exponents of the Progressive movement.

TAX APPEAL GRANTED.

The Union County Board of Taxation, at a session held in Elizabeth, this week, made a reduction of $1,300 on a building on St. Mary's avenue, upon the appeal of the owner, Cormack McDonough. He was assessed $6,500 on the building and $1,300 on land. The Board will not sit again until next week.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Gulick, of 15 Park place, North Plainfield, announced yesterday the engagement of their daughter, Miss Minnie Gulick, to Samuel Powell, also of the borough. No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. Powell is in the employ of the Saurer Motor Company.

The Parcel Post System Can Be Easily Understood

CONTRARY to early expectations, it is probable the new parcel post service will present no great difficulty to the public at large and that it will be convenient in every detail from the start. The system is really not as complicated as was at first expected.

Prodigious labors have been gone through by the postoffice officials and employees to construct the system to the highest degree of perfection; a great expense has been involved and a vast range of new equipment has been called into play, but in reality the whole service is simple.

In order to intelligently make use of the post, one has only to know what unit his local postoffice is located in and to figure the distance from that point to the destination of the article he intends mailing. The distance will indicate to him the zone his parcel reaches, and each zone has its rate designated. There are eight zones. The units are small squares of half a degree in latitude and longitude, into which the entire country has been blocked. The first zone comprises a radius of fifty miles around the center of any given unit. The second zone has a radius of 150 miles, the third 300 miles, and so on.

One has only to know several elemental "don'ts" provided for the service, and the mail clerk will solve all his troubles. In the case of the mail clerk a splendidly constructed scale, specially designed for the work, will in turn solve all his troubles. Thirty thousand of these scales are ordered for the service.

In the first place, parcels must not exceed six feet in combined length and girth and must not exceed eleven pounds in weight. To learn the proportions of a parcel one has only to procure a piece of string seventy-two inches long and wrap it around the two dimensions of the parcel. If the ends of the string meet the parcel is under the required size.

Every postmaster and postoffice clerk has a guide book and map which discloses to him at a glance the location of various units and the various zones radiating from them.

Parcels will be delivered at the postoffice at which they are received to the doors of the persons to whom they are sent in wagons, and in many cities in automobiles. These deliveries are to be as regular as the mailman's.

Among the "don'ts" is a list of what may not be sent by parcel post. This list includes intoxicants, explosives, inflammable liquids, live or dead animals, disease germs, firearms, books or printed matter.

Articles of a fragile nature, such as musical instruments, toys, millinery, glassware, etc., must be marked "Fragile."

Produce may be sent by the post, and this possibility undoubtedly will be a great boon to the suburban gardeners. The farmers will thus be able to carry on a thriving mail order business.

A special rate of a cent an ounce has been fixed for parcels weighing under four ounces. Parcels over that weight must be paid for under the pound rate.

It is important that the name of the sender as well as that of the person addressed should be written clearly on every parcel. When eggs are contained the parcel should be marked "Eggs."

Following is the list of rates which apply everywhere:

Rural route and city delivery, 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound; first zone, within fifty miles of the postoffice, 5 cents first pound and 3 cents for each additional pound; second zone, 150 miles, 6 cents first pound and 4 cents each additional pound; third zone, 300 miles, 7 cents first pound and 5 cents each additional pound; fourth zone, 600 miles, 8 cents first pound and 6 cents each additional pound; fifth zone, 1,000 miles, 9 cents first pound and 7 cents each additional pound; sixth zone, 1,400 miles, 10 cents first pound and 9 cents each additional pound; seventh zone, 1,800 miles, 11 cents first pound and 10 cents each additional pound; eighth zone, over 1,800 miles, 12 cents first pound and 12 cents for each additional pound.

NIGHT SCHOOL PUPILS XMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Songs and Recitations Rendered in Foreign Tongues —Gifts for Teachers.

A Christmas entertainment for the benefit of the pupils attending the night school recently established by the Plainfield Board of Education was held in the Washington School auditorium Tuesday evening, and an enjoyable program was presented for the teachers and friends of the pupils who are of several different nationalities. Vocal and instrumental selections were given. Russians, Spaniards and Hebrews recited various selections in their native dialect and also sang solos, duets and trios in their native tongue. An instrumental trio consisting of a mandolin, guitar and violin occupied a prominent place on the program and the musicians responded to many encores.

One of the pupils addressed the guests and members of the Board of Education present, thanking Dr. Maxson and his corps of instructors for the privileges accorded these foreigners by the city of Plainfield and expressed the appreciation of the pupils for the opportunity afforded them to familiarize themselves with the English language. Miss Bateman, who has resigned her position as principal of the night school to take an extended trip, was presented with a handsome traveling bag by the school, and Julius Newmark, another instructor, was remembered with a silver monogram shaving set.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the affair, after which the auditorium was cleared and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. In addition to the pupil program, Dr. Maxson entertained those present with a number of stereopticon views.

SAENGERBUND KIDDIES HAVE ANNUAL FROLIC

Big Christmas Tree, Songs, Recitations and Distribution of Gifts.

Saengerbund Hall was the scene of a merry festival yesterday when amid profuse decorations appropriate to the Yuletide season more than 100 children wer entertained by the members of the Gaesang and Turn Verein. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the organization assisted in making it pleasant for the youngsters.

An excellent program was opened by Henry Haurand, president of the society, who made the welcoming address. The children then sang in chorus "Stille Nacht," under the direction of Miss Elvira Hoerster. The rest of the program included a vocal solo by Miss Carrie Guttman; song, "America," by the singing section; recitations by Ludwig Bauman, Edna Stenzenberger, Mildred Bamberger, Dora Joyce and Helen Joyce, and the singing of other National airs by the children and members.

Under the supervision of August Wolff, the guests were arranged in marching order and as they passed the stage were presented with souvenirs. As a special attraction for the younger set, a large Christmas tree, artistically decorated, occupied a prominent place on the platform around which the children frolicked with "Santa Claus." Dancing was enjoyed in the evening to music played by Paroubek's orchestra.

Those who arranged the celebration were August Wolff, John Retzer, L. Kuntz, Mrs. Fred Frick, Mrs. Andrew Schlick, Mrs. Charles Diebler, Mrs. Charles Burnett and Mrs. Carl Felber.

LITTLE LOSS SUSTAINED AT THESE TWO FIRES

A little before seven o'clock this morning a broken coupling pin in the steam hammer room of the Spicer Universal Joint Works loosened and the oil which escaped was ignited in some unknown manner. Before the engines arrived, however, employes extinguished the flames with chemicals and little damage was done.

There was another blaze at 9:30 this morning in the grocery store of Samuel Kline, in West Third street. The fire, which was caused by spontaneous combustion, started in cabinets beneath shelves in the rear of the counters and destroyed materials contained there. The fire was discovered by a daughter of Kline. The damage will not exceed $25.

PHI GAMMA DELTA MEN MEET.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 26.—With several hundred delegates present, the national convention of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity was opened here today. The session will close Saturday. This fraternity, organized at Washington and Jefferson College in 1848, now has chapters in about sixty colleges and universities. Many men of prominence in various walks of life are members. The present convention has Newton D. Baker, mayor of Cleveland, as its principal guest.

LOCAL ELKS MAKE HAPPY SIX HUNDRED CHILDREN

Over 600 kiddies enjoyed the benefit program of "movies," oranges and candy given in the Plainfield theatre on Tuesday afternoon by Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E. The characters in the pictures were vigorously applauded as each film was finished and the enthusiasm shown by the children was far greater than that displayed by an adult audience.

The "Hello Bills" brought Christmas cheer to thirty-four families, distributing among them 15 tons of coal, 30 dressed chickens, 15 bushels of potatoes, underclothing, shoes and blankets. The committee in charge of the charity work was composed of John H. Cose, chairman; Charles H. Dunham, Samuel Tavenor, William C. Smith, Fred G. Lyman and John K. Large. Members of the assisting committee were A. A. Prudhon, Charles L. Force, William Randall, S. P. T. Wilbur, Andrew Jennings, Leonce Texier and Vincent W. Nash, Jr.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

WILSON ILL--SPENT CHRISTMAS IN BED

Unable to Eat Any of 43-pound Turkey Which Admirer Sent Him.

Princeton, Dec. 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson was too ill yesterday to partake of that forty-three-pound, chestnut-fed turkey sent to him from Kentucky by South Trimble. He got a cold in making the trip to and from Trenton in an open automobile on Tuesday, and remained in bed under the care of his family physician, Dr. J. M. Carnochan.

President-elect Wilson was much better today and will go to Staunton, Va., his birthplace, tomorrow, as originally planned. Mr. Wilson, however, did not go out today on the orders of his physician. Only persons with whom he had imperative appointments were permitted to see him.

After visiting the President-elect last night Dr. Carnochan said: "Governor Wilson caught cold yesterday and his stomach was upset, too. He is much better tonight. I think he will be all right in a day or two. He has decided that he would not let his illness interfere with his trip to Staunton, Va., on Friday."

Richard H. Taylor and Joseph Murphy, the two Secret Service men who keep a constant guard on the President-elect's cottage, said that the Governor seemed in his usual good health when he reached home from Trenton, Tuesday night.

While in Bermuda Gov. Wilson was slightly indisposed for several days, and he was much provoked when the fact was cabled to "the States" by the newspaper correspondents who accompanied him on his vacation. The publication of such stories, the Governor finds, leads to a big increase in his mail. All letters received must be answered, and as it is his mail keeps several secretaries and half a score of stenographers busy all the time.

The President-elect played Santa Claus as usual. Not until the Wilson family rose and tiptoed into the big studio did they find their gifts which were crammed in the old-fashioned way into stockings that hung over the fireplace.

Hundreds of Christmas presents were delivered at the Wilson cottage and last night two of the housemaids employed by Mrs. Wilson were in the outskirts of the village distributing the overflow of fruits, candies, and roast turkey at the homes of the poor. It is understood that Mrs. Wilson directed that no needy family be overlooked.

Princeton friends came merrily to the Wilson bungalow with holiday greetings. The weather had cleared leaving a nicely packed snow, and throughout the day sleigh bells gave the Wilsons true Christmas music.

Miss Louise and Casper Woodbridge, her brother, whose father is a cousin of the Governor, and a Chinese missionary, were the only house hold guests.

DR. R. S. WOODWARD IS HEAD OF COMMISSION TO STUDY FLYING

DR. R. S. WOODWARD

Washington, Dec. 26.—A long step in the direction of obtaining more scientific information for use in the construction of air craft was taken when President Taft appointed a commission on an aerodynamical laboratory, of which Dr. Robert S. Woodward, president of the Carnegie Institute of Washington, and a representative of the National Academy of Sciences, is named as chairman. The object of the commission, which was created on the recommendation of the secretary of the navy, will be to report to the president for recommendation to Congress on the necessity or desirability of establishing a national aerodynamical laboratory, its scope, organization, the most suitable location for it and the cost of its installation.

FIELDER DISCUSSES CORPORATION LAWS

Radical Changes Advocated by State Senator After Talk With Governor

Jersey City, Dec. 26.—Senator Fielder, who, with Governor Wilson, last week considered at length plans for amending the corporation laws of New Jersey, making them conform more to the progressive sentiment of the nation said yesterday regarding the coming bill that is to be introduced after Chancellor Walker shall have had a chance to investigate the question further with former Supreme Court Justice Bennett VanSyckel:

"From what the Governor has said in his former messages and from what he intimated last week, I think there will be some radical changes in the New Jersey corporation laws. This will probably be in the direction of cutting out the provision permitting a New Jersey corporation to be a holding concern for other corporations, which is one of the biggest factors in the formation of big trusts. Another change will likely be a restriction upon the issuing of securities that are founded upon bona fide valuation, as provided in our State platform.

"The will be no drastic action to drive all corporations out of the State, thus making a $3,000,000 hole in the State's revenue. I feel sure that there can be proper regulation and still leave the laws favorable enough to corporations. What is desired is curbing the big companies in this State so that they cannot form general monopolies in all other States."

Senator Fielder was asked if he favored jail sentences instead of mere fines for malefactors of wealth, as has been proposed. After thinking a moment, he said:

"I think we have got to come to jail sentences. A man is generally quite willing to pay a fine of $1,000 if thereby he can make $1,000,000. The time has come when we must make such men fear jail sentences."

The belief was expressed by Senator Fielder that it will be a physical impossibility to end the legislative session before March 4, in order to clear away all lawmaking before Governor Wilson goes to Washington.

Such a plan has been proposed, but Senator Fielder said that the importance of the legislation to be considered would, in his opinion, prevent it. He thought the session would be about the usual length, closing about the middle of April.

GREAT INTEREST IN ELIZABETH'S SHOW

More Than Two-Thirds of Space Leased by Manufacturers for Exhibits.

Elizabeth, Dec. 26.—No civic movement ever inaugurated in this city has created more interest than the plan of the Board of Trade to hold an industrial exposition in the Second Regiment Armory during the week of February 10, 1913. Arrangements for the big show are progressing most satisfactorily, one of the most noticeable results of the movement being the co-operation of all citizens with the committee in charge. Civic pride has been awakened to its highest pitch, and there is every indication that there will be exhibits of the most interesting sort and a record attendance at the show.

Union county manufacturers already have leased more than two-thirds of the space in the armory and many of them have announced the arrangement of their exhibits. The products of the county are many and varied and displays of versatile character are assured. There will be all kinds of machinery in motion and pleasing exhibits of musical instruments. The Board of Trade has donated space to the various city and county civic organizations and they are planning exhibits of unusual character.

The greatest interest has been taken in the slogan, poster and essay contests held in connection with the plans for the exposition. Thousands of suggestions for slogans were received from all parts of the country. The committee that will award the prize of $25 for the best slogan has about completed its work and its decision will be announced within a few days. The winners of the $75 in prizes offered in the poster contest also will be made known in a short time.

The essay contest will not close until January 15. Indications are that hundreds will be submitted. Gold and silver medals will be awarded to the winners during the exposition.

HERE ARE THE EXPERTS WHO WORKED OUT THE ZONE SYSTEM FOR THE PARCEL POST

EXPERTS WHO DEVISED PARCEL POST PLAN

Washington, Dec. 26.—When Postmaster General Hitchcock prepared to arrange for the inauguration of a parcel post system he appointed a committee of postal experts to decide on the plan and arrange a system. This committee devised the arrangements of zones under which the parcel post will be conducted. The members of the committee are: Sitting, Robert S. Sharp, chief postoffice inspector, chairman; left to right, John C. Koons, superintendent of salaries and allowances, office of first assistant postmaster general; A. A. Fisher, chief clerk, office of second assistant postmaster general; Clarence B. Hurry, chief clerk, office of third assistant postmaster general; George L. Wood, superintendent of rural mails, office of fourth assistant postmaster general.

PERSONAL.

Miss Elsie Jones, of Jersey City was the guest of friends in Plainfield yesterday.

Miss Lois Samuel, of Somerville, soprano soloist at the First M. E. church, who has been taking an enforced vacation owing to threat trouble, has recovered and expects to return to her position next week.

Percy Vail, formerly an employe of The Plainfield Press, but now with the Reading Eagle, of Reading, Pa., is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Vail, of East Fifth street.

Adolph Tepper of the dry goods firm of Tepper Brothers, expects to go to Elmira, N. Y., early in the new year to take over the management of a large dry goods store which the firm has purchased in that city.

Arthur Utzinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Utzinger, of West End avenue, is recovering from a severe attack of whooping-cough.

Fred Dixon, formerly of this city, but now connected with the Pratt-Whitney Company, of Hartford, Conn., spent Christmas with relatives in the city and borough. Mrs. Dixon is stopping for the present with her parents in the borough.

A. L. Force and daughter, Miss Lillian A. Force, of Duer street, spent Christmas Day with relatives in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Burnett C. Kenyon, of West Seventh street, who has been detained at home by illness, has recovered.

Miss Marguerite Shotwell has returned from school to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shotwell, of Grant avenue.

GIMBELS

6661 Chiffon Blouses at $2.95 and $3.95 Regularly $5 to $6.95

This Means a Saving of $2.05 to $3 on Each Blouse

The unique position that this Blouse Shop holds is the root of why this Sale is possible. As the manufacturer from whom we procured these Blouses is not only one of the foremost, but one of the largest, Blouse makers in New York, he has a vast clientele throughout the United States. Besides, he is a plunger and overestimated his orders throughout the country. But as business conditions prevented orders from coming up to his expectations, he found himself with more Chiffon Blouses than he needed. He must now get ready for Spring, so what was he to do? Naturally he turned to us, for we are his largest consumer, and because many of his models were ours exclusively in New York—he was obliged, according to contract, to come to us because he could not sell them anywhere in this city, so we believe that

No Other Store in the United States Was in a Position to Get This Well Known Manufacturer's Surplus of Chiffon Blouses

Because at this season, what other shop than this—the Blouse center of the world—would purchase 6,661 Chiffon Blouses at one time, and to sell at only two prices? We did, because we know that women are eager to get approved Gimbel styles in Blouses of quality at these savings of $2.50 to $3 on every blouse.

WHEAT SUPPLY SHORT ALREADY IS REPORTED

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 26.—Broomhall's special international wheat review cabled today indicates that the supply of wheat abroad is generally inadequate. Importing countries, except Germany, continue to purchase liberally with no serious accumulation of stocks. It is uncertain whether Germany will need to buy large quanities of good wheat but it is assured that that country will not export to the extent of last year. World shipments will continue liberal with America contributing largely. It is surprising, says the review, that France, after reaping a crop believed large, should buy wheat for home consumption so early.

ARABIAN JUSTICE.

Convicting a Thief by the Ordeal of the Redhot Knife.

The ordeal of the redhot knife is thus described by Abdullah Mansur (G. Wyman Bury) as he saw it in "The Land of Uz." The case was one of theft from a caravan. Two young men were implicated, one a palace slave, the other a young Arab, a native of the oasis. Each accused the other, with many oaths and much mutual vilification. Finally both invoked the ordeal of the knife.

In due course a venerable Arab appeared, bringing the instrument with him. His family for generations had possessed the hereditary right to administer the ordeal. The knife seemed a very ordinary piece of hoop iron, shaped roughly into a sort of blade about eighteen inches long. The name and attributes of Allah were engraved upon it, and it was fitted with a plain wooden haft.

An attendant brought a bowl of water and a brazier of live charcoal, in which the knife was inserted. The Arab youth received the ordeal first. He repeated his assertions of innocence and, rinsing out his mouth with water, put out his tongue, which was seized at the tip by the owner of the knife. The instrument, glowing dull red, was drawn from the brazier, and with it three light blows were struck upon the victim's tongue, which was then inspected. It merely showed slight white marks where the hot iron had fallen.

The slave's turn then came, and whether he flinched at the contact of the hot iron or had failed to keep his tongue sufficiently moist I cannot say, but the heat of the blade nicked off a small patch of skin and showed a bleeding surface. According to the rules of the ordeal, that proved his guilt, and he was led away to durance vile.

LUNA'S MIGHTY PEAKS.

Peculiarity of the Ring Mountains of the Moon.

The moon is really and truly a great planet of mountains, its whole visible surface being dotted with elevations of curious shapes and of extraordinary height. We say "its whole visible surface" and hasten to explain that we make this statement simply because the eye of man has never seen but one side of the surface of the moon.

What we see convinces us that the little planet is extremely mountainous, for on the "end" exposed to our view there are no fewer than 30,000 peaks, varying in height from 2,000 feet to four miles. When we consider the fact that this lunarian world is only one thirty-second part as large as the earth we can easily see why it deserves the title of the "planet of great mountains."

There is a peculiar thing about these 30,000 moon peaks. Each and every one of them has a ringlike form, the open end of the conical point being of greater or lesser diameter, according to the height of the mountain. In a low grade telescope these peaks resemble true volcanoes, but when viewed through a high grade glass it is seen that the depression in the center of the queer "ring mountain" is often so great as to be below the general level of the surrounding country.

The depth of these depressions is calculated in a curious manner, by figuring on the relative shadows they cast when the sun is shining full upon them. The diameter of these "ring mountains" varies greatly, some of the larger ones being 50, 100 or even 150 miles, while the smaller look like post holes when viewed through a good telescope.

Straw Hats.

The straw hat is a relative newcomer in the world of dress. It was not until 1784, according to Les Nouvelles, that it first appeared, and its adoption was originally exclusive to women. Men did not make use of it until the Waterloo year, and the foundation of the great Alsatian industry was only in 1854, when the first big factories were erected. Our contemporary adds that it is not generally known that many so called "straw" hats are made entirely of wood. But they are none the less efficient as protectors against the effects of glare and sunshine.

Home Treatment.

"Here," began a woman known to the writer in the Canadian Courier—"here's an article in the evening paper on 'Women's Work For the Feeble Minded.'"

Her husband grunted, being in a reactionary mood. "I'd like to know," he said, "what women have ever done for the feeble minded."

"They usually marry them, dear," replied his wife sweetly.

Practical Consideration.

"You have no magnificent ruins such as we have in Europe."

"No," replied Mr. Cumrox. "I thought of putting up a few, but I gave it up. They're mighty artistic looking, but they're too hard to keep in repair."—Washington Star.

Happy Days.

Fred—Mamma, our principal says his school days were the happiest days of his life. Do you believe that? Mamma—Certainly. He wouldn't say so if it were not true. Fred—Well, I suppose he played hookey and didn't get caught.

Very.

AIM TO REDUCE COST OF ALL MFD. FOODS

Bill Filed to Prevent Uniform Jobbers and Retailers Prices on Products.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Detroit, Dec. 26.—A new application of the Sherman Anti-Trust law was made in an important suit filed today in the District Court of the U. S. for the Eastern District of Michigan southern division by the Federal Court. The action is aimed against the growing practice of manufacturers in attempting to fix a uniform jobbers' and retailers' price for their products and was brought against the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Company, Will K. Kellogg and Andrew Ross. If the government's contentions are sustained by the court the way will be opened for the department of justice to aid materially in reducing the cost of living by forcing manufacturers of staples to remove all restrictions on cut rate sales of their products. A decision reclaring the selling plan illegal and violative of the Sherman law is requested in the bill.

25,000 BULGARIAN TROOPS AFFLICTED WITH CHOLERA

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—According to advices received today by the Russian Red Cross Society, cholera is spreading among the Bulgarian troops at the Tchatalja lines. Already 25,000 soldiers have been afflicted with the disease. Typhoid fever also is prevalent among the soldiers.

TAFT LEAVES PANAMA TONIGHT FOR WASHINGTON

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Panama, Dec. 26.—President Taft completing his farewell inspection of the Canal as Chief Executive of the United States, plans to start for home at 6 o'clock this evening on the battleship Arkansas sailing from Colon.

The President announced that he would not decide definitely until he was back in Washington as to the appointment of Col. Goethals as civil governor of the Canal Zone.

Grant's Graceful Act.

When General Grant was in Japan the emperor invited him to cross the imperial footbridge near the palace at Tokyo, across which none but those of royal blood had ever passed. General Grant accepted the invitation and walked beside the mikado until they reached the center of the bridge. Then he stopped, profoundly saluted the emperor and said: "Your majesty, I have come so far to show you that I am not insensible to the honor you would do me, but I cannot violate your traditions. Let us return the way we came." It was a graceful act, gracefully done.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Few Hints to Housewives.

How to Dress a Chicken.—Use soft materials such as batiste or mull and arrange simply. If a spring chicken, white is the most suitable color.

How to String Beans.—Use a strong thread and sufficiently large needle. Do not fail to knot the thread before beginning the task.

How to Preserve Peaches.—Treat the same after marriage as before. This simple recipe has never been known to fail.—Harper's Weekly.

Books.

I would prefer to have one comfortable room well stocked with books to all you can give me in the way of decoration which the highest art can supply. There is no greater blessing that can be given to a family than a love of books.—John Bright.

Here's a Pointer.

If a man gets on his knees and implores a woman to marry him the chances are he will remain in that position for the rest of his life if she accepts.—Atlanta Journal.

THE POPULAR NEW PSYCHE KNOT AND HOW TO MAKE THIS COIFFURE

New Way of Dressing the Hair

IF you have a shapely head rejoice, for the Psyche knot is again modish. To form this the hair is parted down the center and from left to right to form three equal divisions. The front strands are loosely waved, and then these are brought over the shoulders. Starting at its extreme end the rear strand is rolled over the fingers to the crown of the head and pinned. Over this the front strands are wound until the knot looks like the completed coiffure in the picture.

WHEN MADAME SHOPS.

The Frenchwoman Is Shrewd and Methodical.

The Frenchwoman rarely goes alone to choose a gown. She takes with her an intimate friend or a confidential maid, who shows the liveliest interest in the proceedings. It is not unusual for a Parisienne to remain two hours in an establishment. She regards the models first as merely "an effect," watching the fall of the skirt, the turn of the drapery. She is studying that dominating factor—the line.

Having satisfied herself that the general effect is good, she now turns her whole attention to the details of the costume. Nothing escapes her scrutiny. Everything must harmonize. No jarring note must interfere with the poetry of the conception.

Tea is often served in the midst of these momentous deliberations, and amid the gentle munching of toast madame balances the charm of conflicting creations.

If she comes to a decision there is much to be arranged before the order is given. She must assure herself of the quality of the materials which go to make up the model.

In many cases a Parisienne will demand a written agreement from her couturiere, stating that for such and such a price the finished costume will exactly duplicate the model displayed, samples of the material chosen being attached to the agreement.

The appointment for the first fitting is made, madame recording the day and hour in a tiny notebook, which she carries in a jeweled bag. Everything is done systematically. There is none of the restless excitement which characterizes the shopping excursions of the American woman, who, with one eye on the clock, casts a nervous and preoccupied glance at the manikins as they pass in review.

skeleton frame of dull gold and is of heavy moire, decorated with medallions of rose enamel, incrusted with gold and decorated with pearls. A tiny watch is set at one side of the bag. Compartments for coins, bills and vanity trifles are found inside the bag.

Gas or Oil Stoves.

Many people use on gas or oil stoves heavy iron saucepans and kettles instead of those made of lighter metal through which heat can penetrate easily. This is a very extravagant thing to do. Then they don't turn out the gas the instant the cooking is done or lower the burners whenever it is possible to reduce heat, or they use utensils coated with soot, and, this being a nonconductor of heat, more gas is necessary in order to do the cooking. All pans and kettles used on a gas stove should be well washed outside occasionally.

And gas is often wasted because people use large burners when little heat is required or they use different pans for articles which might just as well be cooked in one. For instance, a pudding can often be steamed over a pan in which potatoes are being boiled. This saves the lighting of a second burner.

A Cooked Dressing.

Here is a cooked salad dressing which is said to be fine with fruit. It also will keep for a long time in a cool place:

Fruit Salad Dressing.—Cook in a double boiler until thick three tablespoonfuls of butter, one of milk and one of sugar. When these ingredients are hot stir in the beaten yolks of three eggs and add the strained juice of a lemon, a little salt, paprika and celery salt, then cook again. When thick take from the fire and beat well. When cool add to this half a pint of whipped cream. This is said to be delicious with pineapples, oranges, bananas and sliced peaches.

Cleansing Brooms.

If brooms are to sweep clean they must be washed occasionally and freed from dust and dirt.

To two quarts of warm water add four tablespoonfuls of household ammonia.

Stand the brooms in this for a half hour. Rinse in cold water and hang in the sun to dry. House brushes of any variety may be washed in this manner.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

NOVEL CHRISTMAS CAKES.

EVERY country in which Christmas is recognized has some particular cake of more than local fame. For instance, there are the Italian pasties, the gay French and German cakes and the English loaf cakes.

English Mistletoe Cake.—For the layers allow three ounces each of butter and sugar, three eggs, one-half pound of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder and one wineglassful of orange flower water. Separate the eggs and beat the whites to a stiff froth, the yolks to a cream. Beat the sugar and butter together, add the yolks of the eggs, the flour sifted with the baking powder, the orange flower water and, lastly, the whites of the eggs. Bake in three layers.

A Handsome Decoration.

For the filling whip one-half pint of cream until stiff, sweeten slightly and divide in two portions. Color one with spinach green and add grated cocoanut to the other. Spread the green cream over the first layer of the cake, cover with the second, spread over the white cream and place the third layer on top. Ice thickly with plain boiled icing and decorate while fresh with bits of candied citron cut to represent mistletoe leaves, using silver comfits for the berries.

German Christmas Cakes.—These delicious little sweets can be cut into as many shapes as the housewife has fancy cutters and can also be made to take a variety of colors by dividing the icing in parts, tinting it green, rose or yellow with vegetable colors and using chocolate for a fourth.

A Rich Combination.

To four eggs allow one pound of pastry flour, three-fourths pound of sugar, one-half pound of almonds well blanched and one-fourth pound of candied orange peel or citron, as preferred, one lemon, one large juicy orange, one-half ounce of ground cinnamon and one-fourth teaspoon of good cloves, one-half teaspoon of allspice, one teaspoonful of baking powder and one-half cup of honey. Beat the eggs and sugar to a cream. Blanch, dry and pass the almonds through a meat chopper. Beat the eggs without ceasing for twenty minutes, then add eggs and sugar, and little by little the flour and the almonds. Grate the rinds of lemon and orange into the mixture, add the strained juice and the honey, then the baking powder. Mix well and if not stiff enough to roll out add more flour. Roll into thin cakes, cut into fancy shapes, bake in a moderate oven. When cold spread with boiled icing colored.

A MODEL ROYAL MOTHER.

Queen Victoria of Spain Like Her Grandmother.

After all, a royal mother is very much like other mothers, except for the publicity and dress parade. Queen Victoria, wife of the king of Spain, is the mother of four, two sons and two daughters, the last having been born in December, 1911. She was married to King Alfonso in 1906. In her girlhood she was the Princess Ena of Battenberg, but that was a pet name, and since she shares a throne the more dignified title of Queen Victoria has been given her. She is the granddaughter of the beloved English queen of that name and in her housewifely and maternal character resembles that ideal queen and mother. The three elder of the present Queen Victoria's four children are Alfonso, prince of the Asturias and heir to the Spanish throne; Prince Jaime and Princess Beatrice, born in 1909, the one shown with her mother in the accompanying picture.

QUEEN OF SPAIN AND DAUGHTER.

A ROLLER TABLE.

It Will Save Time and Steps In Doing Housework.

To save yourself steps and time put rollers under your kitchen table. You can then roll the table near the sink when you are washing dishes, into the pantry when you are mixing bread and want to be near the flour supply or in front of the china closet when you are giving it the weekly cleaning and want a place for the contents of the shelves while you clean them.

A roller table is surprisingly convenient in the kitchen, and all that is necessary is to put rollers on the table you already have. To save the work of scrubbing the top of the table have a piece of zinc tacked smoothly on it, leaving no sharp edges to do mischief. It will save hours of hard work, and hot kettles and cooking utensils leave no marks.

A Dessert Dainty.

For marshmallow charlotte russe take a pint of heavy cream and whip until stiff. Fold in half a cupful of powdered sugar, the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, one teaspoonful of vanilla, one cupful of marshmallows cut into small pieces and one-half cupful of chopped English walnut meats. Line a mold with lady fingers, fill with the cream and let stand on ice about an hour before serving.

Hygienic Shelves.

After the pantry shelves have been scrubbed, instead of covering with paper, try this plan. Give the shelves a coat of common white paint. When dry apply a coat of white enamel. All that is required to clean them is a damp cloth. Papers require constant changes. Besides, crumbs and insects will get in the corners and underneath the paper.

GOVERN YOURSELF.

Men and women often say they can't govern themselves. That is simply admitting they have defects of character which are their masters. They ought to make effort and see if they are not mistaken. The worst effects of lack of self control are on the health. It allows every kind of bad habit in eating, drinking, dressing and sleeping to gain possession of the person, and the result is a weak instead of a strong character. Never have to say you cannot govern yourself.

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

"A young mother with her baby in her arms is ever a means of drawing human thoughts toward that Mother and that Babe who stand forever as our conception of the meeting point of earth and Heaven."

Nursery Cars.

Special cars with nurseries for babies were proposed as an addition to the equipment of overland and limited railroad trains at a meeting of passenger agents of a Western Railroad system recently held in Chicago. It was agreed that it would be better not only for the babies but for the other passengers on the train that there should be special arrangements for children and their mothers or nurses.

Home Study.

In a current issue of the School Review, Prof. William Wiener, principal of the Central Commercial and Manual Training School, of Newark, New Jersey, describes his plan and its sucessful operation for the elimination of home study in that institution.

He vigorously attacks the traditional method of putting upon growing children burdens of work and study after school hours in disregard of the modern eight-hour law of labor which has been found necessary for the protection of adults. He says: "I can not comprehend why this law should not be enforced in favor of the school child also who has not reached his maturity, especially since mental labor is more trying and enervating than physical."

Less than fifty per cent, he declares of pupils actually do the home work required of them and the other fifty per cent. simply kill time in school.

Conscientious children hurry from play to study—hurry through the evening meal and hurry back to study until bedtime. In this way not only do they menace their health but they lose their association with parents and the necessary appreciation of family relations and interests. Prof. Wiener believes further that to this evening study is to be attributed American children's rampant disrespect for their elders and the present undercurrent of immorality among young people.

They are under the present system necessarily debarred from the wholesome moral, cultural and religious influences which should come to them not only through more natural home relationships but also through lectures, concerts, theatres and church associations.

The school should be the educational workshop, the place where if possible all the work of the school should be done. The children when night comes should throw off, as does the laborer and business man, his burdens and cares.

The school program as worked out by Prof. Wiener consists of five recitation periods from 8:30 to 12:15, with five minute intermissions; a half hour noon, and two hour periods following; closing school at three p. m., but providing for voluntary study or conference with teachers until four, which ends the work for that day.

He claims as good results for his students an increased power to think and to do independently and to work by themselves and for themselves, also that it develops in them the judicious discretion of effort that nature intends; for his teachers that their true function of cultivating these powers in pupils is much better exercised and that the problems both of discipline and school fatigue are amazingly eliminated.

He states that his plan has not discouraged any of the usual school activities, and that after a three months' trial he and his teachers are convinced of the wisdom of almost wholly abolishing home study.

THIS IS MY 37TH BIRTHDAY.

William F. McCombs, chairman of the National Democratic Committee and manager of the Wilson presidential campaign, was born in Ashley county, Arkansas, December 26, 1875. He received his preparatory education in Tennessee and in 1898 was graduated from Princeton University. Following this he attended the Harvard law school, from which he was graduated in 1901, and was then admitted to the New York bar. For several years he was employed as a clerk by a prominent law firm. He then opened an office of his own and before long had attained a high place in his profession. Prior to his taking charge of the recent campaign his only experience in practical politics was in 1904, when he was an unsuccessful candidates on the Democratic ticket for the New York General Assembly. Mr. McCombs has been a close friend of President-elect Wilson ever since he was a student at Princeton, where the President-elect was at that time a professor.

FIRST DEFEAT IN TEN GAMES FOR THE AJAX

Pickup Basketball Team Breaks Victorious String in a Rough Game.

In a game against the North Plainfield High School Alumni basketball team on the Y. M. C. A. court last night the undefeated Ajax five fell against their first reverse. Score 26 to 21. Because of the constant exhibition of "roughhouse" which came to a head in the final minutes of play, the officials curtailed the contest with the score slightly in favor of the visitors.

From the first call of the whistle, the game resolved itself into a free-for-all fight and the contestant most proficient in the use of rough tactics was certain to pull out on the larger end of the score. The fouling was unrestricted and indulged in by both teams, much to the detriment of their shooting and passing.

Until the last few minutes of play the contest was nip and tuck, the score being tied up the greater part of the time. At the end of the first period the count stood a 12 to 12 tie and the players went on the floor for blood in the final half. Slugging resulted in time being called at frequent intervals and both of the aggregations suffered considerably from the delays. Peacock and Hetfield put up the best all around games.

P. H. S. QUINTET CAN'T DECIDE ON A CAPTAIN

Edison Woodhull, who has played on the Plainfield High School basketball team for three years, was elected temporary captain before the alumni game Tuesday afternoon. Monroe Good has been serving as captain.

The team has encountered great difficulties in selecting a permanent leader. Good and Woodhull have been the candidates nominated at every meeting but in no instance has the team been able to poll a majority in favor of either man. The matter will probably be placed before the school when the term reopens, and a vote of the entire student body will be taken.

FITZ COACHES WILLARD.

Bob Fitzsimmons, who spends part of his time at his country home in Dunellen when not following the footlights, is now engaged in coaching Jesse Willard, the biggest heavyweight in the ring today, for his bout with Soldier Kearns in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. "Lanky Bob," who used to knock out his victims with short jolts and hooks, is showing Willard how to hit and Fitzsimmons says that the young Texan is an apt pupil. He is fast mastering the Fitzsimmons' style and knows more about ring science than the average heavyweight, and credits much of his success to the coaching of Fitzsimmons.

First Hope Five Meet Ajax, Girls Encounter Strong Nonpareils.

On the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Hope chapel next Wednesday afternoon, the Y. M. C. A. Ajax will play a return game with the Hope Chapel basketball team on the Chapel court. A preliminary contest has also been arranged between the Nonpareil girls' five and the feminine representatives of Hope Chapel. In the previous game the Ajax won on the Y. M. C. A. court over Hope Chapel by the score of 40 to 28 and the Chapelites are out to avenge the defeat. Each team has lost but one contest this season, the Ajax to the N. P. H. S. alumni quintet and the Chapelites to the Ajax. The game should be a corker.

In the girls' game the Nonpareil five will be made up of exactly the same players who performed in the preliminary game Thanksgiving Day, when the Ajax played Hope Chapel and the girls' five defeated the Paterson Y. W. C. A. The Nonpareils are made up of last year's North Plainfield High School players and are a set of the fastest feminine cagers in the State. Hope Chapel will be represented by a formidable aggregation of girl athletes who are familiar with the Hope floor and this fact, and their regular practises, will stand them in good stead against their heavier and more experienced opponents.

GRACE JUNIORS ORGANIZE. FAST LIGHTWEIGHT FIVE

A junior boys' alumni basketball team has been organized at Grace church and practices are being held three times a week in preparation for a busy season within the next two weeks. The squad that has reported for practice, is made up of some particularly speedy basketball players and an aggregation that will be able to cope with any junior five in the city will probably be organized.

Among the players who have shown up to the best advantage in practice are: John Cottrell, Harold Williams, William Whelan, Edward Ryder and Daniel McNamee, who is captain of the team. Harold Williams has been selected to manage the five and he is desirous of signing games with any fast junior aggregation.

WHY GAME WAS SHIFTED; ALUMNI MAY PLAY AGAIN

Because the scene of the Alumni-Plainfield High School basketball game was shifted to the Y. M. C. A. court at the last moment Monday afternoon, the High School management had practically no way of notifying the general public, and many of the High School followers went to the school gym.

The change was decided on by the P. H. S. manager because of the great superiority of the association court over the one at the High School and the fact that the Alumni players were, without exception, college students who have been playing on long collegiate floors and they would have been greatly handicapped in the limited space offered at P. H. S.

After the game there was some talk of a second game and if that proposition is made a reality those who were disappointed before will have an opportunity to witness the second clash. The undergraduates are intensely eager to get another whack at their predecessors.

FAST ALUMNI TEAM DEFEATS P. H. S. FIVE

Graduate Five Was in Condition to Play Championship Contest.

One of the fastest Alumni basketball teams ever brought together for the annual game with the Plainfield High School undergraduate five defeated the P. H. S. players on the Y. M. C. A. court Tuesday afternoon by the score of 49 to 44. The game was close and interesting from start to finish, the winners having no decided advantage along the scoring line until the final whistle was sounded. Every man on the Alumni quintet was heavier and more experienced than his opponent on the P. H. S. team and the weight proved a big factor in the victory.

Unlike the graduate teams that have returned for the clash in previous years, the aggregation that took the floor Tuesday was in prime condition. Every member of the team has been playing regularly on college class teams. Clyde Doane was the shining light for the victorious side and his shooting savored of the coaching he has received on the long Williams College court. Time and again he heaved the ball the length of the floor to have it drop through the iron hoop for two points. He also did some good guarding along with his running partner, Allen Overton.

For the P. H. S. team, Monroe Good carried off the laurels as far as shooting was concerned with eight goals, while Brynarski did some classy guarding. The High School lineup was greatly weakened by the loss of Hetfield and Peacock, two regulars who were unable to play in the Alumni game because of previous engagements.

COLLEGE CHESS MATCH.

New York, Dec. 26.—The annual tournament of the Triangular College Chess League got under way in earnest today at the Brooklyn Chess Club. Pennsylvania, Cornell and Brown are the colleges represented. This is the fourteenth annual tournament in which these three colleges have engaged. The prize is a handsome trophy donated by Isaac L. Rice of this city. Pennsylvania and Cornell are now tied in the race for the trophy.

AJAX FACES HARD GAME.

Manager Hetfield, of the Y. M. C. A. Ajax basketball team, has signed the strong Summit Y. M. C. A. five to appear on the association court in the main game Saturday night. The Summit aggregation is conceded to be one of the fastest in the State and it goes without saying that the local team will have to come back into its old time form in order to make anything like a creditable showing against the visitors.

DOMINION CHECKER TOURNEY.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 26.—Expert checker players from many points throughout Canada assembled at the rooms of the Toronto Checker Club today for the opening of the annual Dominion championship tournament. Three hundred dollars in cash prizes will be divided among the winners of the tournament.

LANGFORD BESTS McVEY.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Sydney, Australia, Dec. 26.—Sam Langford and Sam McVey, heavyweights, fought here today. It was one of the fiercest heavyweight battles ever seen in Australia. Langford knocked McVey out in the thirteenth round. It was announced after the fight that Langford would next challenge Jack Johnson for a fight to the finish.

DISRUPTION THREATENS INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

North Plainfield High School has called off the Interscholastic basketball game scheduled to be played with Plainfield High School on the Y. M. C. A. court next Saturday afternoon and the opening of the three-cornered league will have to be delayed until a later date. The only reason assigned by the borough manager for his act was the fact that the High School players are familiar with the association court and N. P. H. S. wants the contests shifted to Saengerbund Hall, which is much inferior to the court on which the games have heretofore been decided.

Leal's and P. H. S. are in favor of playing the league games at the Y. M. C. A. and unless N. P. H. S. comes around pretty soon it is possible that the organization will be dropped for this season.

1ST PRESBYTERIAN TEAM TO MEET SWIFT HOPES

Hope chapel will line up against the First Presbyterian basketball team in the chapel gym Saturday night. It will be the first clash between the two this season.

The Hope five cherishes a record of not having been defeated by a Sunday-school basketball team in three years and the game with Grace church two weeks ago failed to shatter it.

The Presbyterian five, however, is rated as stronger than Grace and from all accounts will give the Chapelites a better run for their record.

HANLON TELLS ONE ON STEVE BRODIE.

Ned Hanlon, the old Baltimore and Brooklyn manager, was at the National league meeting in New York recently with a new yarn on Steve Brodie, the former Oriole outfielder, who is now editing the bowling alleys in Wilbert Robinson's Baltimore institution for the promotion of merriment. This is the identical place where Robbie repeats the sad tale of the last game of the world's series, winding up with the denoument: "And it cost me $1,400."

Well, then, Hanlon was in Robbie's house one night telling about the time he sent Brodie up to bat with instructions to "wait 'em out," which was something Steve abhorred. However, Steve looked the first one over, and the umpire called it a strike. Steve turned and glared reproachfully at Hanlon on the bench and before he could get his head around again another strike came over. Steve took a second glance at Hanlon, and the third strike floated across the pan.

Steve walked back to the bench, apparently in a rage.

"Now, manager," he roared, "I hope you're satisfied."

As Hanlon finished his story in Robbie's, Brodie plucked at his coat and pulled him to one side.

"Boss," said Steve, "I never told you about it before, but I'm going to tell you now. I never meant to wait out any of them balls, but they just natchily fooled me!"

Umpire Ferguson from the American association is to graduate to the American league next season.

FOREIGN GOLFERS COMING.

Stars of Europe Will Pay a Visit to America Next Year.

With Great Britain's most prominent golf players, Edward Ray, the champion; Harry Vardon and George Duncan, expected to pay a visit to this country next year, the prospects are that the year of 1913 will be the most important yet in the line of international golf.

Champion Ray notified a friend in New York recently by letter that he will most likely make the trip to America and that he also has hopes of inducing Vardon and Duncan to accompany him. On the other hand, Jack McDermott, the open champion of the United States, has declared his intention to try again next year to win the English title, as have other prominent professionals here.

CARTMELL TO TRAIN PENN.

Former Intercollegiate Sprinter Being Groomed to Succeed Murphy.

Nat Cartmell, the former intercollegiate sprinter, apparently is being groomed to step into the shoes of the veteran Mike Murphy as trainer of the University of Pennsylvania track team. While no person in authority connected with the university athletics will openly acknowledge this fact, around the university it is looked upon as a foregone conclusion that Cartmell will succeed the veteran and also that Murphy never will train another team.

Murphy is now in Thomasville, Ga., in an effort to regain his health.

It is believed that it was Mike himself who suggested that Cartmell be given the opportunity to train the track team. Cartmell grew up under the Murphy system of training.

During three years he was handled by Murphy Cartmell annexed the two college sprint events and until he graduated apparently had everything his own way in the sprints. In 1908 he made the Olympic team, but the best he could do was to get a place.

It is not expected that Cartmell will assume his duties until the spring, and in the meantime Thomas Haydock will look after the track men.

McIntyre to Quit.

Matty McIntyre, the former Detroit and Chicago outfielder, has announced his permanent retirement from baseball. McIntyre will go into business in Detroit. He played the latter part of last season with the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league.

TO MEET WITH REBUFF.

Ball Players Not Likely to Get Half Pay on Training Trips.

The demand for pay during the training season which is to be made by the Baseball Players' Protective association is sure to meet with a stiff refusal by the club owners. The clubs stand the expense of the training season so as to fit the players for their work. If there were no training period a majority of the players would report unfit to do their work and when in that condition could not command their salaries.

It is estimated that at present the two major league clubs spend at least $200,000 every spring getting their players ready for the season, when, in fact they could demand that the men report to them in condition to do their work at the time the season opens. Fortunately, these absurd demands are not being made by the players, but by David Fultz, who has had himself placed at the head of the players' union.

MEN WHO HELPED MAKE SPORT HISTORY.

Photos by American Press Association.

Wright made new world's record in pole vault. Travers won amateur golf championship. McLaughlin captured national lawn tennis honors. Wood's great pitching had much to do with the Boston Red Sox winning the American league pennant. Stahl managed and played first base on Boston Americans.

Callahan Has New Training Scheme.

Jimmy Callahan has a new scheme for preventing his recruits from throwing their arms out in the first week of spring training. The Sox manager says that during that time he is going to refuse to let any player wear a glove or mit. He believes that if the men are obliged to catch the balls bare handed they will object to having any one hurl the sphere at them with much force in the throw.

Basketballers Wear Numbers.

Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball association players are to wear numbers on their backs to aid spectators to identify the players during the contests.

New Probationary Baseball Contract Will Not Last.

MAY CAUSE LOTS OF TROUBLE

Rule Was Passed For Protection of Minor Leagues, but Was Unnecessary—Evers Talks of Modern Baseball—Hoodoo May Follow Merkle.

By TOMMY CLARK.

This new probationary contract which the major baseball leagues are forced to submit to the players purchased and drafted is going to be short lived. The new order of things is going to make trouble sooner or later, and its fallacy will then be realized.

This contract gives the player only 25 per cent increase in salary over what he received in the minors, and the contract is but of forty-five days' duration. This means that in the event of a player making good during that period the club for which he is playing must enter into a new contract with him, and the argument of salary, which is usually always straightened out before the season opens, may come at a time when harmony is most desired and bring about a condition which is detrimental to the team.

Incidentally, the young player who is drafted or purchased and has been playing in a small league at a low salary will not feel much encouraged when he receives his first major league contract and finds that he is raised but a few dollars.

This rule was passed for the protection of the minor leagues, who claim to have trouble satisfying the players who go up to the majors at an increased salary and are returned because they fail to make good. But no rule or change of system was necessary to combat this annoyance, for it stands to reason that if a player expects an increase when he comes to the majors he should expect a cut when by reason of his incompetency he is returned to the minors.

If baseball history repeats itself, Fred Merkle, the Giants' first baseman, will be out of major league company shortly, while Jake Stahl, the Boston Red Sox manager, will be found doing bench duty next season.

It is strange, but true, that world's series first sackers seldom last long. In fact, there seems to be some sort of a hoodoo which follows the men who play the initial sack on the teams which win pennants.

Go back a few years and this will be proved. There never was a more sensational player in a world's series than Jiggs Donohue in the series in 1906 between the Sox and Cubs, and yet Jiggs could not find a big league job two years later. Big Dan McGann of the Giants did not last long after the 1905 series with Philadelphia.

The surprise of the 1907 series between the Tigers and Cubs was undoubtedly Claude Rossman, and yet the following year Jennings got rid of him and he drifted into the minors. In 1909 Bill Abstein looked to be a most valuable man in the position until after the world's series, and then Pittsburgh let him out and he drifted into St. Louis, but failed to make good, and he has had a hard time ever since holding his own in the minors.

Just two years ago saw Harry Davis and Frank Chance battling at first base in the world's series. Now both are virtually out of baseball as far as the playing end is concerned. The former is not connected with any club, while the latter will manage the New York Americans next year.

The question of whether baseball has improved in recent years is one which is often disputed by some of the veteran ball players.

Johnny Evers, manager of the Chicago Cubs, related an incident the other day in answer to the question whether or not the game had made any forward strides, which is well worth telling.

"I don't know of any better illustration of whether or not the game has advanced than the case of John M. Ward, who was one of the greatest players of the old days and who was president of the Boston Nationals for a few months in 1912. If the game hadn't advanced Mr. Ward should have known as much as any one," says Evers.

"One day, when 'Hub' Purdue was pitching for Boston against the Cubs, 'Hub' had two strikes and no balls on Sheckard. 'Hub' put the next one over the plate, and Sheckard landed on it for a hit and drove in the runs which won the game. After the game Mr. Ward went to the dressing room and gave Purdue a tearing out. He then notified the Boston pitchers that the next time a pitcher had two strikes and no balls on the batsman and then put the ball over the plate, the twirler would be fined $25.

"The players told us about the new rule. We had three more games in that series with the Boston team. Every time one of us got two strikes and no balls we knew that the pitcher didn't dare get the next ball near the plate. So we let that one go past and took a lusty swing at the pitched ball that followed. Say, we had a regular picnic. I guess that's a little of what might be called 'inside' baseball."

LANDLORDS' LEAGUE TO BE FORMED HERE

One Hundred and Thirteen Owners on Charter Roll—to Meet on Jan. 7.

The first meeting of the Landlords' Protective Society for organization purposes will be held at Firemen's Hall on Park avenue, Tuesday evening, January 7. Thus far one hundred and thirteen property owners of the city have signed the charter roll. At the first meeting officers will be elected and a plan of action will be adopted. It is the purpose of the new society to regulate rents throughout the city and borough, and to take steps to protect owners of property.

All persons interested are invited to attend the meeting, the idea being not to make it an exclusive organization. Jacob Sachar, of West Third street, has taken the initiative in this movement and through his efforts other property owners of the city and borough have become interested.

CRAZED BY WOOD ALCOHOL LUMBERMEN SLAUGHTER

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 26.—Crazed by wood alcohol, a camp of lumbermen near Bemidji turned the Christmas festivities yesterday into a day of massacre. Armed with axes and guns several of the men attacked each other and when the fighting was over there were fourteen men lying dead from wood alcohol and wounds.

POLISH SOCIETY CELEBRATES.

Members of the John III. Sobieski Society gave their annual Christmas dinner yesterday in their lodge rooms in East Second street. The affair was arranged by these officers of the organization: President, Frank Somlack; vice president, Peter Shubert; financial secretary, John Henzler; recording secretary, Stanley Stroke, and treasurer, Walter DeMeza. Members of the Bound Brook society attended a mass at the St. Joseph's church of that city, prayer being offered that Poland be eventually freed from all foreign control and that the United States of Poland be established.

MONTHLY ORGAN RECITAL.

The second monthly organ recital will be given at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. S. Frederick Smith, organist of Grace church, will be at the organ and the soloist will be William J. Tallamy, tenor, who will sing "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death," from "St. Paul," by Mendelssohn. The program is an excellent one and will conclude with the "Hallelujah Chorus," by Handel. The annotations on the music of the program were prepared by H. R. Hubbard, of the Plainfield High School.

KILLED FELLOW UNIONIST.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 26.—James Conway, connected with the local steamfitters' union, was fatally shot by Thomas Freer, secretary of the union, in the latter's office today. Freer, who was found by the police standing over Conway's body with the revolver in his hand, said he was attacked by Conway and two companions and that he shot in self defence. Conway died in an ambulance enroute to a hospital.

VESSEL ABANDONED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Beaufort, N. C., Dec. 26.—The S. S. Dorchester, of the Merchants and Miners Line, has picked up the abandoned British S. S. Alcazar, 65 miles southwest of Cape Lookout. The crew of the Alcazar were taken off by the Tug Columbia shortly after the British vessel went aground on the Carolina coast Monday, but the Columbia was forced to abandon the vessel again after having pulled it afloat.

"PRISCILLA" DISABLED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New London, Conn., Dec. 26.—The steamer Priscilla, of the New England Navigation Co., was towed into the harbor shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon by two tugs that picked her up off Cornfield light, 20 miles west of here. The steamer became disabled shortly after leaving New York last night and sent a wireless here for assistance.

CELEBRATED CHRISTMASTIDE.

Christmas Day was happily celebrated at the home of Mrs. M. A. Randolph, 515 Park avenue, where all her boarders joined in an exchange of gifts. More than 200 presents were placed about a Christmas tree and during the morning they were distributed among the guests by Santa Claus, who appeared in the person of R. E. McDonough.

HE'LL LEAVE TOWN.

Chris Holian, 62 years old, who said he was without a home, was arrested by Chief Marshal George Weiss, of North Plainfield, yesterday for being intoxicated and disorderly. Recorder Gano suspended sentence this morning on the promise of the man to leave town.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Schlereth, of West Second street, spent Christmas with friends in New York.

HON. ALVAH A. CLARK'S CONDITION IS CRITICAL

Alvah A. Clark, one of the best known lawyers of the State, is critically ill at his home in Somerville with bronchial pneumonia, which developed about ten days ago. His condition today is reported as not being as favorable as that of yesterday. The members of the family have been summoned home.

Mr. Clark is the father-in-law of former State Senator Charles A. Reed, of this city. He has been a resident of Somerset county for many years, where he enjoys the distinction of being one of the leading members of the Bar.

Mr. Clark is a former member of Congress and for many years has been a power in Democratic politics.

BITTEN BY PET.

While trying to protect a valuable angora cat from the savage attack of his bull-dog yesterday, Stanley Stroke, proprietor of the Plainfield Cleaning and Pressing Company, in Somerset street, was bitten in the left hand. He did not know which animal had inflicted the injury. Dr. Hughes cauterized the wound.

SANG CAROLS.

Members of the Glee Club of the Y. W. C. A. visited the homes of a number of members of the association and sang Christmas carols. The girls thoroughly enjoyed the sport of tramping through the snow to the different houses where they were welcomed and asked to come into the houses for something to warm them up.

FUNERAL OF ALICE GARMAN.

The funeral service of Alice Garman, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garman, of 1531 Willever street, was held at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of the parents. Rev. C. C. Cain, of Grace M. E. church, officiated. The burial was at Somerville.

WILL MEND LIBERTY BELL.

Famous Object to Be Taken to Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The two mile petition of 500,000 school children of California presented to Mayor Blankenburg and the city council of Philadelphia by Mrs. Emma Doane of San Francisco having been granted, the historic Liberty bell will again take a journey from Independence hall. It will go clear across the continent, 3,000 miles, to San Francisco for the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915. The bell has made six trips from Independence hall on missions of patriotism and instruction. It went to the Cotton exposition at New Orleans in 1885, to the Columbian exposition at Chicago in 1893, to the Interstate and West Indian exposition at Charleston in 1902, to the celebration of the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, Boston, in 1903, and to the St. Louis exposition in 1904.

Mayor Blankenburg has engaged Frederick W. Taylor, a consulting engineer of Chestnut Hill, to repair the Liberty bell so that it may make the trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mr. Taylor has devised an internal structure of steel and wood which will remove the dead weight strain that is rapidly lengthening the crack and pulling the historic bell asunder. He has assured the city authorities that there is little danger in the operation and that there will be no unsightly blotches or apparatus visible.

Fred Dixon, of Bridgeport, Conn., spent yesterday in town visiting friends.

John Young, of East Second street, entertained his sisters, Misses Matilda and Louise Young, at his home yesterday.

8TH Y. M. H. A. DANCE IS GREAT SUCCESS

Many Out-of-town Associations Represented Among the Merrymakers.

The eighth annual dance of the Young Men's Hebrew Association was held last night in Sebring's auditorium and was attended by a big crowd. A feature of the evening was a series of shadow and moonlight dances. Representatives of Hebrew Associations in New York, Newark, Elizabeth, Bayonne, Passaic, Rutherford, Paterson, Somerville, Bound Brook, Trenton and Philadelphia were present. Prominent on the program was a list of criticisms of the members of the local organization under the caption, "As Others See You." The comments were mostly humorous in naming the faults of the members and they were hugely enjoyed by the dancers.

Every man on the floor received a blue and white ribbon insignia of the Y. M. H. A., and the women were presented with flower wreaths. The proceeds from the dance will be used in bettering the local club rooms on Grove street and the members promise a thoroughly up-to-date structure in the near future for the advancement of the Jewish community in this city. Many prominent guests who were present last night have signified their intention of giving their help to the work of improvement.

The present officers of the association are: A. H. Richards, vice president and acting president; Louis Rothberg, secretary; H. Robinson, treasurer; Nat Aaron, sergeant at arms; organization committee—S. Rothberg, chairman; A. H. Richards, Nat Aaron, Jacob Abrams, L. Rothberg; floor committee—Nat Aaron, floor manager; A. H. CHRISTMAS PEACE CUT SHORT BY SHARP RAZOR

Christmas peace on Park avenue was shattered shortly after dark yesterday, when William E. Monchey, colored, of West Fourth street, attacked Howard Conroy with a razor, inflicting a cut ten inches long down the side of his face.

Monchey was being ejected from a barroom for acting disorderly, when Conroy happened along and assisted in subduing the colored man.

Roundsman Morris Higgins, who was off duty and enjoying the performance of "Alma, Where Do You Live?" in the Plainfield theatre, heard of the fight and ran from the playhouse and placed the razor-wielder under arrest.

He was arraigned before City Judge De Meza this morning and remanded until tomorrow, when witnesses of the affray will be in court. The prisoner asked the court to fix bail, which was placed at $1,000.

UNION COUNTY ORPHANS' COURT.

In the Matter of the Application for Sale of Real Estate of ELIZA A. VANDERBEEK, deceased.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

GEORGE M. GRIFFEN and ELIAS H. BIRD, executors of the last Will and Testament of Eliza A. Vanderbeek, deceased, having exhibited under oath a true account of the personal estate and debts of said testatrix whereby it appears that the personal estate of the said Elizabeth A. Vanderbeek, deceased, is insufficient to pay her debts and requesting the aid of the Court in the premises.

It is thereupon on this twentieth day of December, nineteen hundred and twelve, ordered, that all persons interested in the lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate of the said Eliza A. Vanderbeek, deceased, appear before this Court at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the twenty-first day of February, 1913, at ten o'clock in the forenoon or as soon thereafter as they can be heard to show cause why so much of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate of the said Eliza A. Vanderbeek, deceased, should not be sold as will be sufficient to pay her debts and it is further ordered that this order be set up and published in one of the newspapers of this State, as by the statute directed.

CUTTING RETORT FROM DR. EATON

Says the Public School System Is "a Lamentable Failure."

ANSWERS S. S. CRITIC

Plainfield Schools Included, Because Divine Says, He Means Not Only New York But All Sections With Which He is Acquainted.

Defending the American Sunday-school in the face of its being called a "most lamentable failure" by Associate City Superintendent of Schools Edward L. Stevens, of New York, Dr. Charles A. Eaton, of Watchung, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York, declared yesterday that the characterization "lamentable failure" may justly be applied to the American public schools. Fifteen years ago, the clergyman said, Dr. Stevens' criticism of the Sunday-school would have been more applicable, but there has been a big change for the better during that period. Dr. Eaton agreed thoroughly with the school officer that there should be schools for parents where fathers and mothers of every class, from the very rich to the very poor, should be compelled to attend for instruction in bringing up children.

"A somewhat extended observation has convinced me," said Dr. Eaton, seated at his desk in the Parish House, "that our public school system is a lamentable failure. This applies, not simply to New York city but all sections of the country with which I'm acquainted. Its failure is not due to the character of the teachers, who receive less pay for the most important work of any class in the community with the possible exception of the ministry; the fault lies

GIVE A THEATRE PARTY TO AMATEUR THESPIANS

Nine members of the North Plainfield High School junior class will take a trip to New York tomorrow to see "The Lady of the Slipper" at the Globe theatre. The nine are those who took part in the junior play, "The Rivals," a short time ago, and the class is giving them an outing. They will go to New York in the afternoon and take in a few places of interest, beginning probably with the Museum of Natural History or one of the big buildings. They will have supper together and go to the theatre at night. Those who are going are Lucile Ewart, Marguerite Woolston, Jennie Sears, Edith Dalley, Ashley Burner, Roy Love, Charles Beckman, Attwood Giddings and Frank Dunning. The party will be chaperoned by Mrs. Ewart and probably Miss Terry, who has charge of the class at High School and who was coach of the play. Miss Terry is now at her home at Riverhead, long Island, but she will meet the party in New York if possible.

"FRENZIED FINANCE."

Superb moving pictures are shown nightly at the Plainfield theatre when there is no legitimate show on the boards and the attraction this evening will be one of the best yet. "Frenzied Finance" is the subject of the moving pictures today. The show begins at 7 o'clock and lasts until 10:30.

LITTLE FIRE.

LINBARGER WINS HIS BOND SUIT

Judgements Validating Part of Tainted School Issue Are Affirmed.

AN INTERESTING CASE

West New York Issue Sold by Dealers Who Failed Before Municipality Got Its Money—T. M. Day's Arguments Sustained.

Orders have just been entered in the Court of Errors and Appeals affirming the judgments obtained by Harvey R. Linbarger, of 917 Madison avenue, against the Board of Education of the Town of West New York, Hudson county. This brings to a close a litigation which is of interest both to investors and to the taxpayers of municipalities in general. Thomas M. Day, of this city, was counsel for the successful litigants.

The Town of West New York in 1907 authorized the construction of a new school house, and the issuance of a series of $105,000 of bonds to defray the expense. The Board of Education contracted with a firm of bond dealers in Cleveland for the sale of the bonds, at par, and the president and clerk of the Board were directed to execute and deliver the bonds. The bond dealers induced the president and clerk to sign the bonds in New York City and to seal and deliver them in Boston. Instead of getting the purchase price from the bond dealers, however, the president and clerk returned to West New York empty handed. The dealers sold most of the bonds, and failed, without having paid the Board one cent of the purchase price. By legal proceedings, 38 of the bonds were gotten back from the dealers, the balance of 67 having been put upon the market.

Suits were brought by Mr. Linbarger in the Supreme Court against the Board for the purpose of testing the validity of 52 of the bonds, which it was claimed had passed into the hands of bona fide holders without notice of the circumstances attending the delivery to the dealers. These suits were tried before Justice Bergen, without a jury, and resulted in judgments in favor of the bondholders. The affirmance of these judgments establishes the validity of the bonds.

As the obligations are many of them for a long term, having in some cases nearly fifty years yet to run, and the rate of interest is 6 per cent., a somewhat onorous burden is imposed upon the town. A new series of bonds has, however, been floated and the construction of the school house is being proceeded with.

Indictments are pending against the president and secretary of the Board who delivered the bonds, as well as against the active member of the firm of bond dealers, but they have never been brought to trial.

In this litigation, Judge Mark A. Sullivan and Herbert Boggs represented the town as attorneys, and Mr. Day, of this city, represented the bondholders.

XMAS STILL IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Young and Old Bible Pupils Have Their Annual Parties.

KIDDIES BEHOLD SANTA

Busy Old Kris Keeps on Toting His Sack and Will Carry it to Other Schools Tonight—The Programs in Detail.

The annual Christmas festivals of the Sunday schools were begun yesterday afternoon and last night, and will be continued this afternoon and evening. Entertainments were provided for the small children in the afternoon and the older folk in the evening. About a dozen such entertainments were held yesterday and as many more will be held today. The programs were varied, in some cases being furnished by professionals, and in others by the children themselves. There followed a distribution of gifts. Those who held entertainments yesterday follow:

GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The annual Christmas entertainment for the Sunday school of Grace church was held in the parish house last night, and provec to be one of the best in recent years. Professional entertainers were secured by the committee, but they were all of a high class and their entertainment war of such a character as to amuse both young and old.

"Alphonse," French comedian and mimic, who has appeared before King George, Lord Lonsdale, as well as other crowned heads of Europe, delighted all with his clever impersonations and tricks. George P. Moore, a ventriloquist of unusual ability, was pleasing, and he mystified everyone as he walked about the audience carrying a dummy. He is widely known as a lecturer and was one of the speakers for the Republican National committee last fall. He also entertained by drawing comical subjects with crayon. The third entertainer was Emil Bruzheim, a pianist, who added much to the pleasure of the affair.

After the program, Santa Claus, in the person of J. Paul Nolting, appeared and distributed candy and other gifts to the children. Ice cream was also served. Later some of the young people remained for a dance. Harry L. Finch was the chairman of the committee, being assisted by Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, the rector, Seymour Perkins and the

PARK CLUB SET OUT IN FORCE AT DANCE

Always Year's Chief Event, Christmas Affair Proves Most Enjoyable.

The annual Christmas dance of the Park Club, last night, proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the holiday season. This is considered the social function of the year at the club and it is always anticipated by the members with unusual pleasure. The clubhouse was attractive with its Christmas decorations. Henry Johnson, the steward, making artistic use of a large number of cedar trees, greens and holly, all of which were arranged to represent a country scene.

The patronesses for the affair were Mrs. J. H. Howell, Mrs. George T. Rogers, Mrs. Stuart H. Patterson, and Mrs. Samuel St. John McCutchen. The dance was given under the auspices of the entertainment committee comprising Mrs. Harry L. McGee, chairmain; Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Titsworth, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Abbott, Miss Elizabeth McGee, John P. Meyers, William D. Flanders, R. G. Rolston and Harry L McGee.

Music for dancing was furnished by Muller's orchestra, of Brooklyn. The dancing began about 9 o'clock and continued until 2 o'clock this morning, with an intermission about midnight, during which refreshments were served. Prior to the dance there were a number of dinner parties in the city and borough, after which the hostess took their guests to the club.

TO REPEAT XMAS MUSIC.

The Christmas music given by the choir of the First Baptist church last Sunday will be repeated at the service Sunday night, by request. The program will include anthems, with solo numbers by the quartet of the choir.

BIG INTERESTS CRUSH THE WEAK

The Powerful Dominate Business Killing the Little Fellows Says Wilson.

CONDITIONS WRONG

President-elect in Article Entitled "The New Freedom" Hints at His Plans to Bring About a Reconstruction.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 27.—In an article entitled "The New Freedom," appearing in the January edition of "The World's Work," President-elect Wilson discusses his policies and those of the progressive wings of the Democratic party at considerable length. Among some of his observations are the following:

"A corporation is very like a large tenement house, it isn't the premises of a single commercial family. It is just as much a public affair as a great tenement is a net work of public highways. American industry is not free as once it was free. American enterprise is not free. The man with only a little capital is finding it harder to get into the field; more and more impossible to compete with the big fellow. Why? Because the laws of this country do not prevent the strong from crushing the weak. That is the reason and because the strong have crushed the weak the strong dominate the industry and the economic life of this country.

"There is a great deal that needs reconstruction in the United States. I should like to take a census of the business men. I mean the rank and file of the business men as to whether they think that business conditions in this county or rather whether the organization of business in this country is satisfactory or not. If they could vote secretly they would vote overwhelmingly that the present organization of business was meant for the big fellows and was not meant for the little fellows."

BLOOD OF HUMAN OR HENS ON HIS KNIFE?

Gory Question and Mouchey's Defense Settled by City Judge.

Whether the blood on the knife which William E. Mauchey is said to have ripped a deep gash down the side of Fred J. Conroy's face Christmas day was human blood or the blood of a chicken, was a point put up to City Judge De Meza this morning. He decided that the fluid was Conroy's blood, so Mouchey was held in $1,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury, in default of which he will be committed to the county jail in Elizabeth.

The defendant who lives in West Fourth street was being ejected from a barroom Christmas night when, it is said, Conroy came along and assisted in the ejection. He received a deep cut down the side of his face for his pains, but could not say in court this morning whether the prisoner had inflicted the injury or not.

Mouchey was arrested by Roundsman Morris Higgins who searched him directly after the alleged slashing fray and found a penknife on him wet with blood. Mouchey said it was blood from chickens which he had killed during the day.

CASE DISMISSED.

Stanislaw Browski, of West Fourth street, arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing coal from the Central Railroad on December 19, appeared this morning before City Judge De-Meza who dismissed the case because of the lack of evidence.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Henry Voehl, of East Front street, announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Marjorie Voehl, to Daniel Nugent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Nugent, of West Third street. The wedding will take place next fall.

CRESCENT AVENUE CANTATA.

A Christmas cantata, "The Manger Throne," will be sung by the quartet choir of the Crescent Avenue church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. It will be preceded by an organ recital at 4:45 o'clock.

SPOKE AT BONNIE BURN.

At the Christmas celebration held at Bonnie Burn Sanitorium, Rev. William S. McCoy, rector of Holy Cross church, delivered the address.

Historical Night to Be Held Monday—G. Herbert Condict to Review the Chapel's Experiences—Big Reception Wednesday Afternoon.

Special services marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Hope chapel will begin Sunday morning, to continue up to and including Wednesday afternoon. That the celebration should come at this time of the year seems to be especially fitting and the members and friends of the chapel are looking forward to the event with much pleasure.

The first service will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock with the following program:

Organ prelude, "Noel," Dudley Buck; Doxology; sentences of Holy Scripture, invocation, the Psalter, Gloria Patri, Scripture lesson, hymn, "Joy to the World," Handel; the Creed, sermon to juniors, "The Meaning of Christmas;" carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Redner; general prayers, the Lord's Prayer; offertory sentences, offertory anthem, "There Were Shepherds," Vincent; offertory prayer; hymn, "O Come All Ye Faithful;" sermon, Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor; anthem, "Behold, I Bring You Good Tidings," Goss; prayer; hymn, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Willis; benediction and silent prayer; organ postlude, "Hallelujah Chorus," Handel.

The Sunday-school will hold a special service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the program being as follows: Hymn, "Rejoice! This Festal Day;" invocation and Lord's Prayer; Gloria, Scripture, hymn, "The Wondrous Hope;" prayer, hymn, primary department; offertory, offertory anthem, quartet choir Crescent Avenue church; words of greeting, William H. Sampson, J. D. Miller, H. R. Munger, Stephen R. Struthers, I. W. Travell, F. B. Newman; hymn, "Night of Blessing;" roll call, Doxology, benediction.

The program for the evening service follows:

Organ prelude, "Chorus of Angels," S. Clark; hymn, choir; the invocation, hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," Felice de Giardine; Scripture lesson, anthem, "The First Christmas," Bernby; general prayers.

FIVE HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES AT REUNION

Annual Dance That Brings Graduates Together a Great Success.

The fifth annual dance and reception of the Plainfield High School Alumni Association was held in the High School auditorium last night and was largely attended by the graduates of the five classes from 1908 to the present time. The yearly affair, which is generally known as a Christmas reunion of the school's graduates, was inaugurated by the class of 1908, the year after it was graduated, and since then it has become a fixture. Every Christmas the graduating class of the preceding year has been added to the invitation list until now it contains five classes. A large number of course attend the reunion every Christmas.

Fred Loizeaux, of the class of 1908, was chairman of this year's affair and much of the success of the reunion can be attributed to his efforts. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour after which refreshments were served.

FREE ORGAN RECITAL.

The second monthly organ recital will be given at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. S. Frederick Smith, organist of Grace church, will be at the organ and the soloist will be William J. Tallamy, tenor, who will sing "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death," from "St. Paul," by Mendelssohn. The program is an excellent one and will conclude with the "Hallelujah Chorus," by Handel. The annotations on the music of the program were prepared by H. R. Hubbard, of the Plainfield High School.

ALLURING PICTURES.

An attractive program has been prepared for the motion picture entertainments in Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow afternoon and evening. It will include the following films: "Winter Logging in Maine," "The Whole World Kin," "Life in Aden Campo," "Eastern Europe," "A Village Scare," "A Mix-up in Court."

THEIR GAS BILLS TO BE REDUCED

Utilities' Commission Order Means That Gas Will Be 90 Cents Per 1,000 Feet.

FIXES RATES FOR P. S. C.

Its Ruling Applies to Passaic Division But on Complaint Filed and Hearing Given, Similar Order Likely for Plainfield.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Dec. 27.—In a decision handed down by the State Public Utilities Commission today the Public Service Gas. Co. was ordered to reduce its rate in the Passaic division from $1.10 per 1,000 cubic feet of gas with a discount of ten per cent. for prompt payment to 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. It is also recommended that the company establish the reduced rate throughout the other divisions of the Stat where it is now exacting the one dollar per 1,000 cubic feet rate.

The reason that the Board did not make its order a general one applying to all towns where the P. S. C. supplies gas is that the statute provides that it may only issue an order fixing rates "after hearing, upon notice." Mayor McBride made the complaint in the Passaic division. While there is a recommendation that the corporation reduce it elsewhere, which would include Plainfield, no readjustment may be expected until some citizen files a complaint with the commission setting forth that the rate there is $1.10 per 1,000 cubic feet with a reduction of ten cents for payment within ten days and that the rate is considered exorbitant.

The order for the Passaic division becomes effective on February 1, 1913.

R. H. HOOD'S HEARING IS AGAIN PUT OFF

Death in Family of Counsel Forces Postponement, to Millionaire's Annoyance.

On account of the death of Alvah Clark, father-in-law of Charles A. Reed, counsel for Richard Haden Hood, who was to have been arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct, the case has been adjourned from tomorrow until Saturday, January 11, 1913. Hood was arrested some time ago for alleged forcible entrance into the Stelle avenue mansion now occupied by his wife, who is suing him for divorce. Although Mr. Hood is anxious to have the affair settled all efforts made to bring the mater to a satisfactory conclusion outside of the courtroom have been of no avail.

Mr. Hood is under agreement with the police not to enter the house in Stelle avenue, until the case is settled. As he is desirous of gaining possssion of the property, which he deeded to his wife, he is considerably annoyed at the repeated delays. Several times recently Hood has been seen walking around the property looking into the windows as he passwife. It was said he circled the grounds twenty-five times Christmas Day, but made no attempt to pass the guards hired by Mrs. Hood to protect her.

ENTERTAINS STRONG MAN WHO MADE HIM WELL

Maximus, the strong man, through whose efforts William Briggs, of Albert street, regained his strength and is now able to walk after being unable to use his legs for more than a year, is a guest at the home of Mr. Briggs. Maximus is appearing in vaudeville and it was while at Proctor's theatre that Mr. Briggs became acquainted with the strong man from Russia.

Learning the trouble with which Mr. Briggs was afflicted, Maximus began to give him massage treatment with the result that he has fully recovered. In addition the treatment has developed his body, legs, arms and neck to the right proportion. Mr. Briggs' trouble began with blood poisoning following the dissecting of a cat at the High School. After the holidays Maximus plans to spend two or three weeks at the Briggs home.

C. O. S. OFFICERS.

The following officers have been re-elected for the coming year by the Charity Organization Society: President, Dr. Henry M Maxson; vice president, Mrs. Charles E. Ryder; second vice president, Dr. William H. Murray; secretary, William S. Tyler; treasurer, J. Albert Lane.

ALVAH A. CLARK'S LIFE IS ENDED

Somerset County's Leading Citizen Succumbed to Bronchial Pneumonia Today.

SEVENTY-THIRD YEAR

Eminent Lawyer and Political Leader Was Friend of Poor as Well as Wealthy and Powerful—Carved His Own Career.

Alvah Augustus Clark, aged 72 years, for nearly a half-century prominent as a lawyer and as a political leader in Somerset county, died at his home on Mountain avenue, Somerville, at 10:30 o'clock this morning of bronchial pneumonia, following an illness of two weeks. Owing to his advanced age he did not have the strength to successfully pass the crisis of the disease.

Mr. Clark was born at Lebanon Hunterdon county, September 13, 1840, and was prepared for college by Rev. Dr. Blauvelt, of Lamington. For lack of funds to carry him through college, he began the study of law in the office of John C. Rafferty at New Germantown. He was admitted to the bar in 1864 as an attorney at law, and practiced for a time in New Germantown. He was made a counsellor in 1867, when he removed to Somerville and took up the general practice of law. His fame as a lawyer extended first beyond his home town, then beyond the State. Among those who studied law in his office are Richard V. Lindabury, of Newark, and his son-in-law, Charles Arthur Reed, of this city both distinguished in their profession.

Mr. Clark's political activities in the Democratic party won for him the nomination of his party for Congress in the Third district in 1876 and again in 1878, and he served as a Representative in the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses from 1877 to 1881.

For several years, Mr. Clark was a member of the Sinking Fund Commission of the State, but resigned because it interfered with his practice of law. He was always interested in the growth of Somerville, and was identified with several corporations. He was president of the Sergeant Brothers' Lumber Company, of Somerville. For several years he was one of the counsel employed by the Public Service Corporation. He served as a member of the Board of Commissioners of Somerville, and was president of that body for one year.

Mr. Clark was married June 9, 1864, to Miss Anna M. Vanderbeek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderbeek, of Lamington. She, together with three children, Mrs. Charles A. Reed, of this city; Mrs. Madeline C. Mack and Eugene R. Clark, of Somerville, and three brothers, George Clark, of Lebanon; John Clark, of Califon, and Charles Clark, of California, survive.

Judge Clarence E. Case was holding court at Somerville this morning when news of the death of Mr. Clark was received. He was the last law partner of Mr. Clark and was visibly affected by the announcement of his death. Court was promptly adjourned. The announcement of the funeral will be made later.

CITY SLOGAN-MAKERS ARE BEGINNING TO GET BUSY

Paul H. Burns, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is already receiving answers to the Chamber's plan to secure the best suggestions for advertising Plainfield's advantages. The first reply came from a resident of Nutley, and Mr. Burns has also been advised that a majority of the newspapers to whom invitations were sent requesting that they take part in the contest, have the printed announcement.

Some of the suggestions sent in for a slogan for Plainfield are the following:

"Plainfield Possesses Possibilities," "Plainfield Wants Factories-Does Not Need Them," "Plainfield the Price of Union," "Plainfield's Success is Union's Success."

The Chamber is especially anxious that the people of Plainfield engage in this contest for which $175 in cash prizes is offered for the best suggestions on the subject, "The Advantages of Plainfield, and How to Make Them Widely Known." The first prize is $100, the second $75 and the third $50.

Automobile Owners.

Now is the time to procure your 1913 license from H. P. Vosseller, local agent. Care of Standard Automobile and Tire Co., 38-40 Somerset street. 12 27 4 ***

Captain Lena Jackson will conduct the meeting at the Salvation Army headquarters on Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

PLAINFIELD'S NEIGHBORS

New Providence.

Miss Luella Mershon, a teacher of the township schools, is spending the holidays at her home in Beattystown.

Miss Dorothy Debbie, of Scotch Plains, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Debble, of Stony Hill.

On account of the regular weekly meeting night of Starry Flag Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., falling on Christmas in this week and New Year's Day of next week, the meetings were changed to the Mondays of those two weeks.

Miss May L. Genung, of Summit, is the guest of her aunt, Miss Loraine Genung, of Springfield avenue.

Miss Dorothy Debbie, of Scotch Plains, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Debbie, of Mountain avenue, New Providence Township.

Peter J. Krayer, of Union avenue, the West End section, arrived home yesterday from a several weeks' stay at Washington, D. C.

Miss Lu Ella Mershon, of the New Providence schools, is spending the holidays at Beattystown.

Postmaster and Mrs. John H. Peck and son, Arthur, of Springfield avenue, are the guests of Assistant Superintendent of Schools J. Wilmer Kennedy, of Newark.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Kauffmann, of Springfield avenue, the West End section, returned yesterday from a month's stay in Cleveland, O.

Mrs. William J. Kauffmann, of Springfield avenue, West Summit, is recovering from an attack of quinsy sore throat.

The Methodist Sunday-school will hold its annual Christmas exercises in the church tonight.

Joseph Kutz, former proprietor of the Pine Grove Hotel, Berkeley Heights, turned out Wednesday during the storm with his team and snow plow and made paths to the different schools and the station. Mr. Kuntz does this without pay and has kept it up for several years past.

Former Councilman and Mrs. William T. Hickson, of Mt. View Park, entertained the following at a Christmas party Wednesday: Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Lawrence and George and Miss Beatrice Lawrence, of East Orange; Mr. and Mrs. William Winters, of Newark, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hickson and children, William and Emily, of Mountain avenue, New Providence.

The New Providence Gun Club held an all-day shoot Wednesday on the Ackerman Oval. In the morning two turkeys were shot for, and the sucessful marksmen were John T. Hickson, of this place, and William Winters, of Newark. In the afternoon several good scores were made by members of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Meyersville, entertained a home gathering and family reunion of their sons and daughters and grandchildren at their residence Wednesday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Jr., and children, Marian and Norman, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kutcher and daughters, Viola and Amy, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. James M. Helmes, of Stirling; Mr. and Mrs. James A. High and son, Elmer, of New Providence, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles High, of Summit.

Somerville.

The funeral service over William Parker was held at the home of his son, H. H. Parker, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Parker, who was 80 years of age, died at the Soldiers' Home, at Kearny, on Monday evening, from the infirmities due to old age. He was a well known carpenter of this place, retiring from an active business only a few years ago. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and a member of General Wadsworth Post, No. 75, G. A. R. He leaves only one son, but is survived by several brothers and a sister. Interment was in the new cemetery at this place.

The fine sleighing has brought out the sportsmen, and a number of exciting races have been pulled off on West High street.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Anderson spent Wednesday with relatives out of town.

Miss Maude Davidson, of London Canada, will be appointed by the Somerville Anti-Tuberculosis Association as district nurse. Miss Davidson is a graduate of Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, and comes highly recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brown and son, Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Staats, Jr., and son, Roy, and Mrs. Hoffman, of this place, were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Staats, Sr., at the Riverview Hotel, North Branch.

William A. Burner has rented a store in Upper Montclair and will open a business there soon after the New Year.

The congregation of the Raritan Reformed church is making an effort to dispose of the parsonage property on Somerset street. An offer of $7,000 was made by a number of prominent Hungarians for the place, upon which to build a church, but at a meeting of the congregation this was considered too low, and efforts will be made to get a better price.

Albert H. Conyne has traded his property here for a property at Montclair, and expects to move his family to the latter town about February 1.

George Connars, of New York, is spending the holidays with his mother on First avenue.

Mrs. Charles F. Smith is reported as quite ill at her home.

Miss Rose McCarron is visiting her brother, Peter McCarron, at Paterson.

The Rev. John J. Gebhardt, of New York city, will occupy the pulpit of the Reformed church next Sunday, both morning and evening. At the evening service he will deliver a stereopticon lecture.

Miss Ella Fenner, one of the teachers in the public school, is spending the holidays with her sister at Manasquan.

Miss Gladys Kanouse, of Newark, is a guest of her cousins, the Misses Myers.

John Wilcox, who had his foot caught under a 500-pound casting at Greenville last week, is still incapacitated from work.

The young people of the Fourth Reformed church will give a cantata Sunday evening, entitled "Christmas Light and Christmas Life."

Van Hall, who drives for Sargeant Brothers, sprained his right ankle while at work yesterday, and will be laid up for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mack will give a bridge party at the country club on New Year's eve.

Joseph H. Woodruff, of San Francisco, Cal., is spending the Christmas holidays with his mother on East High street.

Mrs. E. F. Wincoske, of South Gaston avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mina F., to William F. Terradell, of Trenton.

The Misses Margaret and Belle Northrup, of Pasadena, Cal., are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Edward Couse.

Miss Edna Hardcastle, who teaches at Quakertown, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hardcastle.

The Company M basketball team will play the Prospector five of South Orange, at the armory on Saturday night. On New Year's night the Michelin team, of South River, the champions of Middlesex county, will play the soldier boys.

Street Superintendent Klotz was busy with the town's teams carting the snow off Main street yesterday.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Miss Annie Parse, of Plainfield, has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. George L. Dunn, of Front street.

Dr. Everett Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Dr. Ray Munger, of the borough, has returned from a week's visit with relatives in New York State.

George Adair, a former old resident here, but for several years past residing at Stelton, was the guest over Christmas of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Clark.

Frank Williams, of New York, has returned home after a visit of several days with his daughter, Mrs. Alfonso Sabitino.

Miss Minnie Hosinger is detained at home with a severe cold, which threatened pneumonia.

Athletics which have been at a standstill at the Parish House were resumed yesterday and the basketball enthusiasts were out in large numbers to parctise for coming games. In the evening the first and second teams engaged in a practise game which was won by the former by the score of 29 to 18.

The exile of all gloom which began Christmas Eve will continue until after New Year's Day. The school children, relieved of their usual duties, have diverted their attention to Spencer Hill, where the coasting is ideal; and the Parish House, with its attractions, draws many behind its walls; snow men in the back yards and vacant lots can be seen, as in former years and the embryo "Mathewsons" are exercising their baseball "wings" by daily indulgence in snowball fights.

Members of the Lend-a-Hand Society will hold their weekly meeting in the Baptist church this afternoon.

Carl Romberg and Charles Walpole are the leaders in Albert's pool tournament, the former having won nine games and lost one. Walpole has been at the loser's end but once in seven contests.

Mrs. Littell and daughter, of Park avenue, have returned from Weston, where they spent Christmas with relatives.

The Parish House will be the scene tomorrow night of two sets of basketball games, the visitors being the Company M Cadet five, of Somerville, and the Mohawks, a speedy aggregation of basketball artists from the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. They will line-up against the first and second teams, respectively. The probable players on the Parish House team will be—E. Lidgate and R. Thompson, forwards; W. Marsden, centre; C. Bettman and E. Hatfield, guards. The lineup of the preliminary game will be: Parish House Jrs.—F. Saunders and W. Hooker, forwards; Harry Paff, centre; M. Hall and W. Anson, guards. Mohawks—D. and B. Berse, forwards; Moulton, centre; Trotter and Gunzelman, guards.

An exhibition by the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. gymnastic team, composed of eight of the best turners of that institution, will be held at the Parish Hall in the near future. Athletes of the Parish House will also appear at the same time.

The Nonpareil basketball team, a feminine aggregation of Plainfield who made for themselves a State-wide reputation at the popular indoor game last year when playing under the colors of the North Plainfield High School, will be the opponents of the girls' five of the Parish House, Monday night. In securing this quintet as opponents the local girls have taken a mighty task on their hands, as the "Nons" are considered about the best girls' team in this section of New Jersey. The teams will line-up as follows: Scotch Plains—Ruth Hatfield and Helen Southard, forwards; Edith Jahn, centre; Sadie Lee and Emma Elliott, guards. Nonpareil—Helen and Ida Hummell, forwards; Mildred McAuliffe, centre; Elsie Debele and Clara Smith, guards. As an added attraction the same night the Parish House seniors will show their skill against the Y. M. C. A. five, of Plainfield, composed of Thomas and John Heron, at the forward positions; Myrton Glover, pivot, and James MacNamee and Harry Moulton as score-preventers. The locals will present their usual lineup.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richardson have returned to their home in Brooklyn, after visiting Mrs. George Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. George McVoy have returned home after spending Christmas with friends in Plainfield.

The Christmas exercises were not held in the Baptist church last night out of respect to Mrs. Mathiews, who died on Sunday. The children will receive their gifts sometime during the week.

The annual Christmas exercises, which were to be held in the Methodist church Tuesday night but which were postponed out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Mathiews, were held in the church last night.

William Schienck, of East Orange, has returned home after visiting his parents.

Dr. and Mrs. Tomlinson, of New York, have returned after spending Christmas with Mrs. Tomlinson's mother, Mrs. Rosina Jahn.

Harry Tallman, of New Brunswick, has returned home after visiting Clinton Reeder.

All Saints' Episcopal church has had electric lights installed.

Miss Mildred Bass, of Paterson, has returned home after visiting Mrs George Rainer.

Mrs. Horace Young is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Cory Johnston, of Cortland, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert G. Meggy and son are visiting Mrs. Meggy's sister, Mrs. James Allen, of Park Hill, N. Y.

Robert Ripley is entertaining his mother, Mrs. Henry Ripley, of New York.

Charles Frank is visiting his brother, Henry Frank, of Bound Brook.

The real estate companies in the borough will begin the New Year with only one house unoccupied.

Bound Brook.

The Chimney Rock Sunday-school will hold its Christmas entertainment in the chapel this evening at 8 o'clock. A cantata, "Mother Goose's Visit to Canta Claus," will be given. Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Houston have been training the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wilson, of South Bound Brook, were Christmas Day visitors with friends at Philadelphia.

George A. Copeland, of the "Sterling," spent Christmas with his family at Waltham, Mass.

A regular meeting of Pioneer Council, No. 58, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in Hamilton Hall this evening when officers will be elected and important business transacted.

Roy Rinehart spent Christmas Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rinehart, at North Branch.

Albert Butler is spending a few days with friends in New York City.

Miss Elsie Wirtz, a student at the State Normal School at Trenton, is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wirtz, of Beechwood Heights.

Benjamin Carpenter, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tunison.

Mrs. Bertram Bernnard, of Boston, Mass., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Vandevirt.

Roy M. D. Richardson, of Beechwood Heights, is spending a few days with friends and relatives at Martinsville.

Miss Carrie Teeter, of Newark, is visiting the home of N. W. Teeter, of South Bound Brook.

Miss Gretchen Franke, of William Penn School, Philadelphia, is spending the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto M. Franke, of East Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garretson, of East Millstone, were Christmas Day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate, of Providence, R. I., are spending a few days with Miss Clara Walfery, of South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Koechlein are spending a few days with friends in Brooklyn.

South Bound Brook Fire Company No. 1 will meet this evening.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Tinsman, of Dunellen avenue, are the parents of a twelve pound baby boy born to them Tuesday.

William Yeoman, of Dunellen avenue, has returned home from a visit with his folks at Haverstraw, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Webber, of Dunellen avenue, spent Christmas with Mrs. Webber's mother, at Greenwich, Conn.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Baraca Class of the First Presbyterian church will be held Monday evening, Jan. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lake, of Jersey City, spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dodwell, of Jackson avenue.

Mrs. C. W. Blaine, of Lincoln avenue, is detained at her home by a slight illness.

Frank Coriell and his bride, formerly of Prospect avenue, are now residents of Manning avenue, North Plainfield.

UNITY LODGE OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED JAN. 9

Unity Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias, elected the following officers for the coming year at its meeting, last night: Chancellor commander, J. J. Lake; vice chancellor commander, W. H. Pickle; prelate, Harold Leadbitter; keeper of records and seal, Frank Putnam; master of exchequer, Nelson I. Wiley; master of finance, A. E. Causbrook; master of work, C. A. Nichols; master-at-arms, J. F. Shepherd; inner guard, H. A. Moulton; outer guard, A. P. Drew; representative to Grand Lodge, H. A. Moulton; alternate representative to Grand Lodge, J. Van Winkle, Jr.; trustee for three years, James D. Anderson.

The officers will be installed by Deputy Grand Chancellor Edward A. Bowman and staff on January 9.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

"Hindle Wakes," at Maxine Elliott's theatre, is one of the few plays endorsed by the Drama League of America, whose Brooklyn branch, through its playgoing committee, describes the work as follows: "General Idea—The action is laid in 'Hindle,' a Lancashire town, immediately after the 'Wakes' or August Bank Holidays. Alan Jeffcote, son of a wealthy mill owner, has employed the holiday by indulging in an escapade with the daughter of his father's old employe, a lifelong friend. The knowledge of this comes to the parents of both parties, who insist on the marriage of the couple as the only solution of the problem. An unwilling assent is wrung from Alan, and his engagement to Beatrice Farrar is broken; but Fanny Hawthorne, the involved girl, refuses the marriage, and does not desire her moral regeneration in a forced union, nor the possibility of greater unhappiness in a mesalliance. She prefers to work out her future at the looms. The development of this plot is logical and intensely interesting; the lines are clever and convincing, and by frequent touches of humor avoid a morbid tone. Dramatic Construction—The characters are clearly and boldly drawn, and present opportunities for fine acting in a series of strong scenes which are taken advantage of fully."

P. Y. S. OF F. B. C. NOTES.

Sidney Mackey has resigned as president of the Young People's Society of the First Baptist church. Last night, after the church prayer meeting, a business meeting was held Heber Cubberley, who held the office of treasurer, was elected to succeed Mr. Mackey as president. Egbert Fountain was elected treasurer. The other officers are Miss Cora Linden, vice president; recording secretary, Miss Ruth Day; corresponding secretary, Miss Jane Van Arsdale.

Owing to the ilness of Harold Serrell, Clarence LaRue will lead the meeting Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

RETORT FROM DR. EATON

in the system followed and the ideals aimed at. One sees small or no signs of culture in the products of our public schools; the use of the English language does not seem to receive much impetus from this training, and certainly, in the production of a sane and simple moral observation, the schools fall far behind what we have a right to expect of them.

"There is too much emphasis on play, too much sentimentality about discipline. I find many public school pupils, who cannot write a letter in English correctly, profoundly interested in public school social functions. Children go in schools as pieces of wood and they come out clothespins. There are many poor boys who have to spend $20 to $30 on graduation 'flummery.' The schools fail to develop the individuality of the child. Idealism is almost lacking. There is a certain external patriotism taught, but I question its depth or value.

"We train thousands of children in social inefficiency while there are literally millions of our boys and girls who ought to be trained during their public school career for the work they're going to do in life; instead, they receive a smattering of a dozen things which they will never use. Their minds become a sort of an intellectual ragbag, and their chief interest is in play and social functions. When they are introduced to the serious business of life their moral and intellectual fibre has been rendered flabby rather than firm by their course of instruction.

"I am afraid that the public schools, both in virtues and vices, are a mirror of the life of the community. A flippant and play-loving parent will rejoice in having his child develop foolishness. I agree thoroughly with Dr. Stevens in his view that we need schools for parents, and attendance ought to be made compulsory for all classes, from the very rich to the very poor.

"I am not willing to lay the blame on the mothers alone. The ordinary father counts for little more in the life of his child than a provider of physical necessities, whereas his child is the one opportunity that the ordinary man has for perpetuating what is best in himself. Our parents have succumbed to the maudlin spirit of the time and seem to be more interested in the heels of their children than in their heads or hearts.

"The old-time family circle, sacred and lofty," the clergyman continued, "where the father and mother gathered their children about them and by precept and example instructed them in honor, frugality and goodness, has almost perished from our land. This is particularly true of larger cities, but the contagion is spreading. The fact is we have become secular in our life, and a secular society is as fruitful of a noble and permanent character as a desert is of corn. You can't have a big tree without deep and wide rootage.

"As to the Sunday-school, Dr. Stevens' criticism would have been more just fifteen years ago. Since then there has been an immense improvement in the methods and quality of instruction, so that the child who passes through all grades of a well equipped modern Sunday-school ought to be well versed in the Bible and ought to have a clear knowledge of the moral teachings of both the old and new testaments.

"The chief weakness of the Bible classes is what makes the public schools so barren of good fruit. The parents turn their children over to the public school teacher for intellectual training and to the Sunday-school for moral training. They reserve to themselves the God-given privilege of buying food and clothes for their offspring. Their chosen field of activity seems to be the juvenile stomach.

"I do not feel depressed, however," Dr. Eaton concluded, "for I believe that we are on the eve of better things. Too many boys and girls are losing their lives, too many homes are shadowed by the prevailing lack of moral stamina. We are blindly, but really, seeking a deeper rootage for our life. When we find it our public and Sunday schools will become what we would like to have them."

Dr. Stevens' remarks on the American Sunday-school were made during an interview on the morals, or alleged lack of them, among public school children. He said in part:

"As for specific religious or moral instruction, I've been impressed from time to time as to what the Sunday-school is doing for the children. As an organization formed for instruction it is the most lamentable failure we have seen in the last 100 years. To teach arithmetic requires some specific professional training, but to teach the Ten Commandments we require simply amiability, regular attendance and a willingness to teach some younger person the 'Golden Text.'"

CHANCE FOR MOTHER TO WIN PLAUDITS AND CASH

The women of Plainfield and the rest of New Jersey are invited to send an exhibit of their culinary skill to add to the interest of Farmers' Week, to be held at the College of Agriculture, College Farm, New Brunswick, from Dec. 30 to Jan. 3. All articles to be exhibited should be at the Short Court Building, College Farm, not later than Tuesday, Dec. 31, at 10 a. m. The following premium list has been arranged:

Best loaf of home-made white bread; best layer cake, any frosting or icing; best collection of six jars home-made preserves, or jellies; best single jar of preserves or jelly; best assortment of relishes (pickles, catsup, etc.).

Premiums in each class to be as follows: First prize, $1.50; second prize, 75 cents. The preserves and relishes may be exhibited in quart or pint jars, or special bottles.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

Good plays, like wine, improve with age. This is certainly true of that marvellously successful melodrama "Human Hearts," which Manager Reno offers for the coming season. The company to be seen in the play this season comprises all of last year's favorites, and where ever a part could be improved upon, the change has been made, and it is promised that never before has this beautiful play been so well presented. "Human Hearts" gives a pure, wholesome lesson that touches the heartstrings in the pathetic scenes and excites the risibilities in the humorous ones. The pathos and comedy are so well blended that the audience is in tears one moment and convulsed with laughter the next. The scenic equipment will be perfect in every detail, so it is said, and the management has done everything possible to insure a first class performance at the Plainfield theatre Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 1.

SCIENTISTS MEET.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 27 (Special).—Philologists and archaelogists from nearly all the leading institutions of learning in the United States as well as from some of the Canadian and European universities, met in this city today to delve into the ristorical development of the languages and to gain knowledge through the exchange of hypothesis on the many debatable questions of antiquity. The scientists are members of the American Philological Association and of the Archaeological Institute of America, which began their annual meetings today in the new building of the National Museum. The annual meeting of the Society of Biblical Literature is being held in conjunction with the other scientific bodies. One of the leading features of the gathering will be a reception for the visitors at the home of Ambassador Bryce, who is himself an ardent student of archaeology.

ICE SKATING.

As might be expected, various societies having civic welfare at heart and many private citizens deeply interested in all that promotes betterment and happiness in the community have warmly endorsed the plan of the efficient and alert Public Playgrounds Commission for ice skating facilities at Parker Field. At a very small expense, probably not over $900, if that much, ice skating could be made a permanent feature at the big playground. But the request was made after the annual budget had been fixed and the Common Council had no power, however much it may have desired to do so, to have appropriated the amount needed for the purpose. This will explain to those interested why no further steps have been taken in that direction by the Commission. It may be depended upon, nevertheless, that the commission will see to it that the request is renewed in time next year for the Common Council to take such action as it may consider proper and we feel sanguine that means will be found to add such facilities in time for the boys and girls to enjoy the sport next winter.

GIFTS TO TEACHERS.

In times past, teachers in the local public schools have accepted presents from their pupils at Christmas and this paper has called attention to the matter, because the practise is wrong both in principle and policy. In the High School, we are told, the custom has been abolished, but it still prevails in the lower grades. The Board of Education could quickly put a stop to this sort of thing by a resolution forbidding it. In New York, it seems, there is a school law making it impossible, and just before Christmas Superintendent Maxwell reminded the teachers of its existence. Commenting on the New York regulation, the Newark Evening News says:

It is a wholesome law, and should obtain everywhere. Presents from pupils to teachers, however well meant, are very likely to engender jealousies and heart burnings among the former, and too often call for an outlay that is oppressive to the individual contributor. The inadvisability of such gifts is quite clear to any who consider the strict footing of equality upon which all should stand in the schoolroom.

FITNESS THE TEST.

In this week's issue of The Commoner, Bryan comes out strongly against the rule of seniority in making committee assignments in the United States Senate and declares to the Democrats that the rights of the people are paramount to custom or courtesy. This should not only apply to that exalted body, but to every organization in political government whether it be in the nation, state or city. It is indefensible, for governmental affairs should be conducted as those concerned in it would manage their own private business, and fitness and not seniority is what counts for promotion in any well regulated business enterprise.

It is announced that the express rate on prunes has been cut, and that the cost of prunes to consumers will be lowered on that account.—Philadelphia Record.

And there is more misery in store for the man who lives in the boarding house for after January 1, hash may be shipped through the mails at a trifling cost.

"The public schools are a lamentable failure," says Dr. Charles A. Eaton, of Washington Valley and New York, "and that applies not only to New York, but to all sections with which I am acquainted." Whereat North Plainfield Township swells with pride at being connected with the Metropolis, if only in a colossal failure.

Senator Fielder comes out with a statement to the effect that he will not run at the primaries but will close his career at Trenton when his term as Acting Governor expires a year hence. Are we to presume that his career at Washington will then begin?

Complaint has been made that in some instances 1913 license tags are being used on automobiles, whereas they should not be displayed until January 1. The offenders are likely to be prosecuted for State Commissioner Job Lippincott has sent out a general warning.

There are others who might make a New Year's resolution such as Sulzer has taken. The Governor-elect of the Empire State vows that he will devote his whole time to his office and has severed his business ties for that purpose.

The Good Fellow movement, conducted by the Daily Press with the valuable co-operation of the Charity Organization Society, resulted in providing a real Christmas for eight hundred poor boys and girls. We congratulate all the Good Fellows.

STOCK EXCHAGE GOVS. PLANS NOT REVEALED

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Dec. 27.—Although leading governors of the New York Stock Exchange in personal conversation give positive denial to numerous statements published for some time past no authorized announcement of the governors intentions or as to the result of their deliberations has yet been made. Some of the more important members of the governing committee unite in stating that no such measure as the incorporation of the Stock Exchange has even been considered and in discussing this matter one of them stated that in the opinion of members such action would result in a loss of their disciplinatory power which as exercised has been the chief factor in maintaining the integrity of the exchange and in keeping the character of the membership at a high standard. For a long time past however the officials of the exchange and many of its members have held conferences and meetings which have been continued from day to day.

DISCUSS COLLEGE ATHLETICS.

New York, Dec. 27 (Special).—The men who make the laws to govern college athletics in the United States rounded up at the Hotel Astor today for the seventh annual meeting of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The attendance at the opening of the meeting showed a larger representation of Eastern and Southern colleges than ever before. During the two days' sessions the delegates will give attention to summer baseball and a variety of other questions relating to the control of college athletics.

TOMPKINS—WALPER.

ANCIENT ENGLISH CANDLE SERVICE AT HOLY CROSS

An old English Candle service will be held tonight at Holy Cross church preceding the Sunday school Christmas party. At the appointed hour the church will be darkened and as the Sunday school children march in from the Bible class rooms candles will be lighted one by one. The choir will sing anthems as the children enter and the effect promises to be unique.

After the service in the church, exercises will be held in the parish house, at which presents will be given to the pupils. The latter will bring things to be sent to St. Bernard's School at Bernardsville, a yearly custom.

YOUNG BORO MERRYMAKERS FILL PUNG TO OVERFLOWING

A number of N. P. H. S. students and their friends went on a straw-ride to Warrenville last night and stopped at the home of Miss Katheryn Reed. The number of young people greatly exceeded the seating capacity of the sled and it was not until they were within one half-mile of their destination that everybody was settled comfortably and satisfied. On reaching Miss Reed's home a delightful time was enjoyed playing games, playing the piano and singing.

Before the homeward journey was started refreshments were served by the hostess' mother, Mrs. Jennings.

As is always the case on the return trip, a little rough-house and mauling was started and even the "chaperon," Mr. Douglas, received his share of the bumps. The party arrived home about midnight.

Those who enjoyed the trip were as follows: Lucy Douglas, Mabel Douglas, Jubilee Rowley, Elizabeth Hilpot, Lillian Spencer, Mary Bennett, Helen Woodruff, Jennie Sears, Madeline Blair, and Ashley Burner, Roy Love, Raymond Kline, Harold Woolston, Henry Spencer, Edmund Kenney, Augustus Van Deventer, Dulos Van Mater, Carroll Taylor, Louis Bennett, Hoyt Tomkinson, Charles Beckman, Frank Dunning and Mr. Douglas, "chaperon."

DISABLED LINER LIMPS TO PORT UNDER CONVOY

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Portsmouth, England, Dec. 27.—Convoyed by two sister ships, the Peninsular and Oriental Liner Narrung with 249 first cabin passengers and a crew of 165 on board is limping back to port today. The steamer ran into a terrific storm off Cape Uschant yesterday. A wireless message from the steamer to the Lizard Station said that the vessel was under her own steam.

TERRIFIC STORM RAVAGES THE ENGLISH CHANNEL

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Havre, Dec. 27.—The storm which has ravaged the English Channel for the past few days has caused serious depredations on the French coast. The new harbor works of this port have suffered considerably. Despatches from Cherbourg state that many steamers and sailing vessels have taken refuge there from the gale.

WRECK ON THE B. AND O.; SOME PASSENGERS HURT

WILL WATCH COUNCIL.

The executive committee of the West End Civic Association at a meeting last night decided to be represented at the Common Council meetings during the coming year. William Boyd, C. O. Pearson and Frank Wikoff were appointed to attend the first meeting on January 1. There will be a different committee at each meeting. The annual meeting of the association will be held at the Washington School, Monday night, January 13, when officers will be elected.

"HOUSE OF SANTA CLAUS."

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Congregational Sunday-school will be held in the Sunday-school rooms this evening at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program consisting of vocal and instrumental music has been planned by the committee in charge and a number of the Sunday-school pupils have been rehearsing a play entitled "The House of Santa Claus," which will be presented as a part of the program.

"Women's Day" will be observed at the Union Institution Baptist church all day Sunday, under the direction of the Missionary Society, Mrs. Mary Miller, president, and Mrs. Mary Stitt, vice president.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Two games of basketball were contested in the Color League last night. The Orange five won from the Green team by a score of 28 to 2, and the Reds dropped a close contest to the Whites by a score of 2 to 1. Taylor was the star of the evening, getting ten field goals and making the Orange quintet's victory a decisive one.

Yesterday afternoon the Yale team of the College League lost to the Pennsylvania aggregation by a score of 17 to 10 and the Princeton team triumphed over Harvard to the tune of 22 to 6.

The standing of the teams in the senior department Color League is as follows: Orange, 441.1; Reds, 356.6; Whites, 343.9; Green, 244.9. This includes all the scores awarded for basketball, swimming and athletics, but not the points awarded in the membership campaign which will be held over until the league season ends.

Summit Y. M. C. A. will provide a basketball team to line up against the Y. M. C. A. Ajax on the local court tomorrow night. No preliminary game has been arranged.

DISLOCATED HIS ELBOW.

Fred Ammon, ager 29 years, of North Plainfield, was sent to Muhlenberg Hospital, last night suffering from a dislocation of the elbow of the left arm. Mr. Ammon was walking to his home, when he slipped on the icy pavement. He was first taken to the office of Dr. Pittis and then to the hospital.

WORRY FOR HACKMEN.

Recent annoyances by the hackmen who frequent the vicinity of the North avenue railroad station have brought numerous complaints to the police and Chief Kiely said today he was going to start a weeding out process and eliminate the trouble makers.

CLEANING BORO WALKS.

Street Commissioner William J. Hudson, of North Plainfield started out this morning with a gang of laborers to clean the snow from the walks of all properties in the borough which have not been cleaned by the owners. Since the fall of snow the police have been taking the names of owners of all property who have been tardy in removing the snow from the sidewalks, numbering 125 in all. The cost of the work will be charged to the owners at the rate of approximately one cent per front foot.

PETER BRUNSON.

New Brunswick, Dec. 27.—Peter Brunson, 89 years old, father of Augustus J. Brunson, president of the First National Bank of Plainfield, died last night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Waker, on Codwise avenue. He was taken ill Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Brunson was born at Three Mile Run, near New Brunswick. He removed to Plainfield from here and for fifteen years was employed by the Plainfield Gas Company.

B. A. MUMFORD'S FUNERAL.

Private funeral services for Benjamin A. Mumford were held this afternoon at the late home on Arlington avenue. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, officiated. The burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

COULDN'T HAPPEN IN A TUNNEL.

Plainfield commuters who took the 7:55 o'clock train to New York, yesterday morning, experienced a shake-up while crossing the river on the ferryboat Plainfield. The boat struck a mud-screw in mid stream. It was a glancing blow, but sufficient to tear away the rail on the forward end of the lower deck.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 31 degrees; 11 a. m., 32 degrees; 1 p. m., 36 degrees.

RUBBER AND HUMOR.

A Closely Clinging Garment and a Laughable Request.

In 1839 Professor Emmet of the University of Virginia visited in New York with his family and while there received from abroad a pair of india rubber cloth boots. His son, Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet, in his book, "Incidents of My Life," says that his distinguished father was happier in his new possessions than a child with a new toy and spent most of his time standing like a heron in the water to test them.

Their shape was not such as would have fascinated Packelan, the famous bootmaker. They were made like a long stocking of coarse canvas, with a leather sole, and over all was smeared a paste of rubber which might have answered in cold weather, but which was sticky and ill smelling under a moderately hot sun. In very few articles has there been more improvement than in rubber goods since they first came into use.

My father took back with him a "raincoat" as a present to our old negro coachman, but he could never be induced to wear it in the rain, and when expostulated with his answer was, "Does you t'ink I's gwine wear dis new coat in de rain?" He never wore it except in the bright sunshine and on a warm day, so that when he got off the box at the stable it was necessary to take with him the cushion and remove his trousers before he could get his coat off.

I recollect as a child the first "gum shoes" in use, which were hideous to look at and most uncomfortable over a shoe, but which to the bare feet of the old negroes were a joy and a comfort. The first rubber shoe was shaped like a large sausage, and from one end along the side a piece was removed to permit the introduction of the foot. After the foot was inserted the elastic substance shaped itself about it.

They were always called "gum shoes." While a medical student I was present at the opening of the Girard House in Philadelphia, and I remember that there were printed notices at each entrance with the request, "Please wipe your gums on the mat."

WILSON IMPROVED, IS ON WAY TO HIS BIRTHPLACE

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Princeton, Dec. 27.—President-elect Wilson left here at 10:30 o'clock today for his old home at Staunton, Virginia, having been pronounced fit for the journey by Dr. James Carnochan. The President-elect said he felt fine and was looking forward to the Virginia trip with much pleasure.

Staunton, Va., Dec. 27 (Special).—Everything is in readiness for the welcome of President-elect Wilson late tonight to be the guest of his native town on the occasion of his fifty-sixth birthday anniversary tomorrow. The President will spend the night in the little Presbyterian parsonage where he was born Dec. 28, 1856. Tomorrow he will be formally welcomed by Mayor May and other leading representatives of the city. There will be a variety of ceremonies during the day, but in deference to the expressed wish of the distinguished visitor the programe will be as informal as possible. The President-elect says he desires to meet the people of his native town without formality. The arrangements committee expects 10,000 visitors here for the demonstration.

MRS. ABIGAIL RANDOLPH IN LAST RESTING PLACE

The funeral service of Mrs. Abigail Randolph, widow of Joseph C. Randolph and mother of L. W. Randolph, was held at 8 o'clock last night at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Alfred B. Dunavan and Miss May Randolph, on East Front street. Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, of which Mrs. Randolph had been a member for many years, officiated. He read the Scripture, offered prayer and spoke in eulogistic terms of the departed, referring to her devotion to her church and her home. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The burial took place this morning in North Plainfield cemetery and the pall-bearers were William Kriney, Le Roy Layton, Russell Doerlinger, Hamlet Luckey, Elmer Gayle and Harry Crawford.

NETHERWOOD REFORMED.

Recitations by members of the Primary and Junior departments, with the singing of carols by the school and the distribution of gifts by Santa were the features last night of the annual Christmas entertainment of the Netherwood Reformed church Sunday-school.

The program included an invocation by the pastor, Rev. Royal A. Stout; "Welcome," Claudia Gonod and Harry Ransen; recitation, "A Christmas Prayer," Edward Noel; song, "In a Manger," Claudia Gonod, Grace Beattie, Grace Farley and Mabel Rhodes; recitation, "Little Lights," Grace Beattie; recitation by Hamilton Johnston; song, "To Grandma's for Christmas," Madeline Hansen and the primary class; recitation, "A Little Star," Jack Johnston; recitation, "A Happy Christmas Night," Grace Farley, and "Greeting," by Edna Hughes, this concluded the Primary department's exercises. The Junior department's were: recitation, Madeline Hansen; recitation, "Christmas Snowballs," Walter Kennedy; recitations, "Are You Poorer for Giving," Augusta Carson; "How to Know Christmas Time," Edward Wiegand; "The Christmas Postman," Albert Hansen; "That Santa," Mabel Rhodes; "A Christmas Tree," Halsey Mills; "What Santa Left," Evelyn Hughes, and a carol by the school.

The appearance of Santa at this point caused such a commotion among the little folks that it was impossible to continue the exercises. To quiet things Santa distributed presents and gifts to all the school as well as special presents to the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Royal A. Stout; the superintendent of the school, Claude Gonod, and to O. G. Wahlig. The exercises were concluded with a carol by the school and benediction by the pastor.

CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH.

The Primary department of the Crescent Avenue church Sunday-school, of which William D. Murray is the superintendent, enjoyed its annual Christmas party in the Sunday-school rooms, yesterday afternoon, and the little folks had a great time. A professional entertainer from New York delighted the children with magic, after which ice cream and cake were served and games were played. Mr. Murray was assisted by the teachers of the department in making the party a success.

According to the annual custom, the children brought useful gifts, provisions, etc., which will be sent to the Children's Home some time today. The officers of the main school have decided that in view of many other engagements not to give a Christmas entertainment for the older members, but later on an affair will be arranged to take the place of the festival.

TEMPLE BAPTIST.

Those that took part last night in the exercises at Temple Baptist church, the full program of which was printed yesterday, were: Richard Mellick, Dorothy Smith, Melvin Conover, Helen Waldron, Elmer Winn, Katherine Baker, M. Maab, Elizabeth Hafner, Edith Johnson, Florence Bouton, Clara Moore, Helen Ayres, Cora Cornelius, Edith Jones, Gladys Stites, Wells Rose, Eva Cartwright, Catherine Wiergler, Mary Moore, Harold Gullberg, Fred Berg, Joseph Waldron, David Meyers, Harry Bremen, Lillian Ryno, recitations; Florence and Kenneth Bouton, Primary department; Edith Jones, Paul Popp, Miss Elizabeth Carson and Mrs. Clarence Murphy, songs and carols.

Edward Baker acted as Santa and distributed presents to all the tots in the Primary department and special gifts to Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Conover, W. A. Conger and Melvin Conover.

SALATION ARMY.

The Salvation Army entertained about 250 children at the army building on East Second street, last night, it being the annual Christmas affair. A pleasing program was presented by members of the Sunday-school, after which there was a distribution of toys, candy and dolls. On Christmas Eve 106 baskets, containing dinners, were given out, providing for five hundred people.

WARREN CHAPEL.

The annual Christmas exercises of Warren chapel Sunday-school were held in the chapel last night. The program included these numbers. Opening chorus, the Misses Alethea Hoagland, Bertha Hoagland, Ida and Edith Wheeler, Try Mattox, Adelaide Stiglitz, Mildred Smith and Grace Van Denberg, C. D. Wheeler, Arthur Hone and Earl B. Smith; recitation, Miss Helen Wooley; song, Mrs. Edgar; recitation, James Goodwin; violin duet, Dyckman Winkler and W. Spear; recitation, Elizabeth Louis; recitation, Constance Hadden; song, the Misses Hannah Stiglitz, Abbe Mitchell and Elsie Kurzshals; song by the chorus; recitation, Miss Try Mattox; song, Mrs. Edgar; recitation, Miss Helen Wooley, and a closing song by the chorus. Mrs. Henry Bishop accompanied the singers on the piano. Assistant Superintendent R. S. Louis had charge of the arrangements for the program.

At the close of the exercises refreshments were served to the members of the school. The committee in charge of the refreshments were: The Misses Dolly Bolsterle, Margaret Swain, Belle Williams and T. Schneider, Mrs. J. W. Gavett, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. William Newmiller, Mrs. A. J. Stiglitz, Mrs. John Schenck, Mrs. Gibson Smith, Mrs. Ben Moore and Mrs. J. O. McKelvey.

The committee in charge of the decorations were Theodore J. Martin, Henry Dresselt, Andrew Stiglitz and Charles Holstein.

DUNELLEN PRESBYTERIAN.

"Christmas In Different Countries" was the title of a cantata given by members of the First Presbyterian Sunday-school of Dunellen ast night. Those that took part in it were: George Apgar, Emma and Clarence Voorhees, Benjamin Dodwell, Bessie Morris, Eva and Sadie Kuntz, Mildred Mattis, Deveror Apgar, Florence Jones, Margaret Sedrick, Edith Wyckoff, Natalie Terry, Theodore Oakley and Elmer Swackhamer. Mrs. C. B. Mattis and Mrs. J. Newton Apgar directed the entertainment, and Miss Tillie Muller accompanied on the piano. At the close of the cantata candy and oranges were distributed to the members of the school. A gift of a $20 gold piece was given to Rev. Ernest R. Brown by his class.

DUNELLEN M. E. CHURCH.

A Christmas cantata, "Christmas Gifts of All Nations," was presented at the Dunellen M. E. church, last night, by members of the Sunday-school. The church was decorated to represent the North Pole, from which an American flag flew. The auditorium and platform were covered with white, representing snow, with several large Christmas trees, artistically dressed, in the background of the platform.

Those that took part in the entertainment were: Father Christmas and later Santa, R. J. Fischer; American Children, Winifred Schenck and Leslie Vail; Starlight, Josephine Hague; sleighbells, George Hipp; four children that acted as gifts, Henrietta Johnston, Henry Smith, Milton Schenck, and little Miss Hipp. Those that represented the different nations, who brought and presented gifts of the countries they were from were: Germany, Ethel Smith; Switzerland, Madison Vail; France, Irene Snyder; Japan, George Hall; Scotland, Gladys Harrison; China, John Maxwell; Italy, Rose Titus; Spain, Ruth Seals; England, Frank Titus; Dutch girl, Ethel Lewis; India, Morris Stites. Those that presented the gifts were also dressed in the costumes of the countries that they represented. The cantata was entirely in singing. Mrs. E. Clarkson accompanied on the piano. At the close of the entertainment gifts were distributed to all the members of the school.

HOPE CHAPEL.

A Christmas tree social was held for the children of the primary department of Hope chapel Sunday-school, yesterday afternoon, in the chapel. Singing and speaking was enjoyed by the little tots, after which Allen Snyder, dressed up as Santa, distributed presents. To the girls he gave dolls and the boys received books and games. The classes were taken to the gymnasium after the gifts were distributed and ice cream and cake were served.

In the evening the main school's exercises were held. A cantata, "A Topsy Turvy Christmas," was much enjoyed by those present. Those that took part in the entertainment were: Santa, Allan Snyder; Grandma, Miss Eunice Eckert; Grandma's guests: Prudence, Ruth Carlson; Pandora, Eva Chamberlain; other guests, Alfred Graves, Roland Davenport, Helen Mac Connell, Gladys Vail, Ida Hunt, Elizabeth Brown, Florence Gordan and Violet Harmer; Grandma's helpers, Elizabeth Mac Millan, Margaret Doig, Elsie and Amelia Slorah, Florence Lines, Josephine Peterson, Ethel Davenport and Kate Karkuff; Fairy Queen, Jessie Ross; dream fairies, Edith Walls, Edith Roseberry, Margaret Cordova, Gladys Arden, Eleanor Carl and Edith Marris; educated cats, Robert Marsh, Robert Heron and Fred Duncan; Jumping Jack, Charles Bradford; Indian doll Harriett Mortimer; Japanese doll, Martha Williams; farmer twins, James and Thomas Brown; French doll, Ethel Jamieson, and the fairy doll, Florence Brown.

Miss Agnes Leigh accompanied the songs on the piano. Mrs. G. P. Williams directed the cantata. G. Herbert Condict, superintendent of the school, entertained those present with stories of Christmas before the cantata.

At the close of the entertainment candy and oranges were distributed to all the members of the school and home department.

SHILOH BAPTIST.

Under the direction of Miss Daisy H. Randolph, Christmas exercises were held last night at the Shiloh Baptist church before a large audience. Master Arthur Venable was the pianist. The program was as follows:

EMBROIDERED LINEN CASES FOR MILADY'S FINE LINGERIE

Night Robes and Corset Cases

FINE Irish linen was used for the outside of these handsome lingerie cases, which have a border of embroidered scallops and French knots done in handwork. At the long side the lingerie is stitched to a lining of pink satin. It is held together with bowknotted straps of pink satin ribbon. The long case is to hold a nightdress and the short one corsets. They would make nice Christmas gifts.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

NEW-YEAR'S CAKES.

WITH the simple refreshments served to callers on New Year's Day small cakes, such as are served at ordinary afternoon teas, are nice. Indeed, a cup of tea and cake with bonbons are quite enough to offer unless you are receiving formally. Fancy sandwiches or a salad may be served if you wish.

Tempting Tea Cakes.

Tea Biscuit.—Take two cupfuls of pastry flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of butter, two-thirds cupful of milk. After the flour has been sifted add baking powder and salt and sift again, then rub in butter. Combine this and the milk, then take on a lightly floured board. With a floured rolling pin roll into a sheet a little more than an inch thick, cut with small round cutter and bake in greased flat tins.

Fruit Cakes.—Take two cupfuls of graham flour and sift with two cupfuls of white flour, four rounded teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt and one-half cup of sugar. Mix in one cup of seeded raisins and one cupful of chopped walnuts, then add one egg well beaten with two cupfuls of milk. Half fill buttered muffin pans and bake twenty-five minutes in a quick oven.

Cream Rolls.—Take a pint of flour, two heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, two of sugar, one of salt. Sift all together. Break one egg in half a cupful of cream or rich milk and stir in the flour. Then add milk enough to make a thin batter. Bake in roll tins until a light brown.

Novel Nut Pastries.

Nut Wafers.—Take a half cupful of butter, cream it and add gradually, beating constantly, one cupful of sugar. Then add two eggs well beaten, two squares of melted chocolate, one cupful of chopped English walnut meats, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla and two-thirds cupful of bread flour. Drop by teaspoonfuls, about two inches apart, on a buttered pan and bake in a moderate oven.

Spiced Macaroons. — Take hickory nut meats, pound fine and add mixed ground spice and nutmeg. Make frosting as for cakes, stir meats and spices in, putting in enough to make it convenient to handle. Flour the hands, make the mixture into balls the size of nutmegs, lay them on buttered tins, giving room to spread. Bake in a quick oven.

Anna Thompson.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Double Skirt Extremely Fashionable For Street Costume.

Where the ordinary walking coat and skirt are concerned the double skirt is immensely fashionable, the upper one being sometimes buttoned down the front like the coat, so as almost to suggest a deep basque. The favorite material is a thick ribbed cloth or velvet, either of which suggests the ordinary corduroy, and in mole and gray, black or dark corbeau blue this makes the most attractive of costumes.

The draped bodice is good style this season, and the one pictured is very graceful and becoming to a slight figure. In the illustration broche crape is combined with plain chiffon and plain satin, but soft silk may be used successfully. JUDIC CHOLLET.

DRAPED CRAPE BODICE.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 34 to 40 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7677, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

Philosophical Phelix Says:

BIG STADIUM PLANNED FOR PRINCETON FIELD

New Athletic Field Expected to Consist of 50,000 Seats.

Princeton University will have a stadium in the near future. Such was the declamation of Dean Howard McClenahan, chairman of the committee on athletic control of the University, in a speech before the Princeton Club of Trenton. He said his committee, composed of three members of the faculty, three alumni and three undergraduates, were the supreme body controlling athletics in all its branches. This committee soon will take up the question with the graduates' council for consideration.

The stadium is to seat 50,000 people and will cost $300,000. Already there have been received over $100,000 in unsolicited pledges toward this fund. This seems to assure its building. It will be used for intercollegiate football only.

The dean told of the reorganization of athletics, and instead of the divided authority of the past the supreme control now rests with his committee. The latter will be assisted by a new alumni advisory committee, consisting of five football men, three baseball men and one from each of the other branches of athletics, the final decision resting with his committee.

Keene Fitzpatrick, the trainer of the football teams for several years, has signed a contract for a long term of years, and William Clark, baseball coach for the past six years, shortly will sign a long term contract.

"All this," said the dean, "makes me sanguine for the future of athletics in Princeton. The outlook for next season is rosy, and the material, both for football and baseball, better than for several years past. The stadium will be an inspiration, and before another year I hope to see it under way."

BIG LEAGUES ARE NOT ONLY ONES MEETING THESE DAYS

As an aftermath of the Sunday-school Baseball League season, Secretary George Gage has called a meeting of the organization for tomorrow night at which all of the remaining league questions will be disposed of.

Mr. Gage is desirous of having every member of the executive board at the Frost Building not later than 7 o'clock, as the matters to be settled are of an important nature and require the presence of a representative from each team.

GOLF AT PINEHURST.

Pinehurst, N. C., Dec. 27 (Special).—Favorable conditions attended the opening today of the ninth annual holiday week golf tournament on the links of the Pinehurst County Club. Play will continue until next Tuesday. Many well known golfers are taking part.

N. P. H. S. TAKES GAME FROM SOMERVILLES

Same Being the First Victory of Boroughites Away From Home.

In a fast game of basketball played at Somerville against Somerville High School, yesterday afternoon, the North Plainfield High School annexed a 37 to 22 victory. Both teams put up a good battle and although the boroughites were considerably handicapped by the length of the county seat court they did some good passing and shooting which pulled them to the fore in the second half. As was the case in their game with the Plainfield High School, when they were defeated by a score of 54 to 11, the Somervillians were wofully weak in passing and the speedy manipulation of the ball by the N. P. H. S. players had them completely bewildered.

For North Plainfield, Dunning, as usual, was the individual star, getting a quartet of pretty field goals and started the ball from centre with unerring regularity. Taylor also entered into the scoring department, getting a quintet of goals from the field. Somerville's honors were divided among Captain Wachter and Bowlby.

The score:

ELKS AND ROTHBERGS IN SPECIAL MATCH TONIGHT

Two of the fastest bowling teams this city can boast of will lineup on the Olympic Alleys tonight in a three game series and the result of the contest may decide what aggregation of pinners will represent Plainfield in the National Tourney to be held at Washington in the near future. The quintets which will strive for honors tonight are the Plainfield Elks, who have been hitting the wood for high scores in the Elks league, and the Rothbergs.

The bowlers who will take part are as follows: Rothbergs—Radin, Montross, Vanderbilt, Thompson, Britton and Evans. Plainfield Elks—Haberle, Keily, Evans, Nash and Campbell.

SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT.

"Knockout" Brennan vs. Eddie McGoorty, 10 rounds, at New York.

Packey McFarland vs. Freddie Daniels, 8 rounds, at Omaha.

Gunboat Smith vs. Frank Moran, 20 rounds, at San Francisco.

Patsy Brannigan vs. Harry Dell, 8 rounds, at Windsor, Ont.

Leach Cross vs. Johnny Lore, 10 rounds, at New York.

Phil Cross vs. Jack Britton, 10 rounds, at New York.

ROTHBERGS' NEXT MATCH.

Manager Thompson, of the Rothberg bowling team, has arranged a game with the fast Empire team, of Newark, to be played on the Olympic Alleys Saturday, January 11.

ATHLETIC BOOM ON AT SCOTCH PLAINS

All-around Work to Be Encouraged by Corps of Instructors.

Although basketball and all other kinds of athletics have been suspended at the Scotch Plains' Parish House during the past week they will be taken up again with renewed activity commencing tomorrow night. It has been planned, by those connected with the Parish House Athletic Club, to encourage not only basketball but every form of indoor and outdoor exercise, including baseball, football, track work, gymnastics and boxing. Competent instructors are available to take charge of, and coach, all aspirants for honors along these lines and the Scotch Plains organization will probably be heard from in the field of sport before the winter is over. One of the fastest basketball teams in this vicinity is at present playing under its colors and when they lineup against Company M, of Somerville, tomorrow night a battle royal is expected. In the preliminary contest the Senior class five will play the Mohawk A. C., a junior team from the local Y. M. C. A.

Next Monday night the Parish House first team will play a team from the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. composed of Ajax and Color League players and the girls' team will clash with the Nonpareil five, of Plainfield. Both of these games give promise of being hot ones as the respective contestants are warm rivals, and as some of the Ajax players are in the fray the 'Plains' representatives are anxious to see what they can do against so formidable a combination.

The Parish House gymnasium has been fully equipped with indoor apparatus of every kind and a program of calisthenics and indoor drills is being mapped out. In order to encourage and foster supervised work along this line the gymnastic team of the local Y. M. C. A. has been engaged to put on a "gym" team exhibition at the Parish House. Manager E. C. Ostlin is now working on the program and says it will include work on the parallel bars, horizontal bar, horse, buck and drills with Indian clubs and dumb bells. Eight men will comprise the team which will be captured by Bert Hansen, the best turner in Plainfield.

EIGHT CONTESTANTS BOWLED IN PARK CLUB TOURNAMENT

Individual bowling honors on the Park Club alleys last night went to Runkle who hit the pins for a total of 192.3, while Dr. H. V. Hubbard ran a close second with a combined score of 184.2. Eight bowling enthusiasts turned out for the weekly games and while the scores were not exceptionally high, those who took part bowled consistently in every frame.

The summaries:

Hubbard	5	56	73	50	177	184.2
Benjamin	0	42	48	65	155	155

COMING QUOIT CHAMPIONS TAKE SEVEN MORE GAMES

The Centrals, leaders in the A. O. U. W. quoit tournament, defeated the Rahway team at Rahway last night in seven straight games. The victors won the third and last games by the narrow margin of three points.

All the matches were interesting and enthusiasm on the sidelines was in evidence during every game. The teams were composed of Spicer and Mosher, Centrals; Albriht and Tomes, Rahway. The scores were 22-13, 21-7, 21-18, 21-10, 22-12, 22-8 and 21-8.

SUCCESS FOLLOWS HAUGHTON

Harvard Coach Is Considered Best Crimson Ever Had.

Percy D. Haughton has been re-engaged as football coach at Harvard for a period of five years. Haughton's first contract, which was for five years at an annual salary of $7,000, expired at the close of the present Harvard football season. The new contract, it is reported, is for another five years at an annual stipend of $8,500.

Harvard athletics have shown a remarkable advance since Haughton's advent as head coach. The first year he took charge of the Harvard squad he turned out a Yale beating eleven, a field goal by Kennard winning the contest from the Elis, 4 to 0. The following year Yale won, 8 to 0, on two field goals by Coy. In 1910 and 1911 the games resulted in scoreless ties. Haughton has at last put Harvard on a par with Yale in football, a position to which Harvard had never attained before his coming. He is regarded as Harvard's greatest football coach.

Haughton acquired a reputation as the best punter in Harvard during his time. He played on the Harvard football team in 1896, 1897 and 1898. In the latter year he was on Ben Dibblee's notable aggregation which trounced Yale by the cheerful crimson score of 17 to 0. He played on the baseball nine the same years he was on the varsity elevens. In his last spring in college he was captain of the nine and instituted the playing system which enabled Harvard to take the annual baseball series from Yale for six consecutive years. On the eleven Haughton's positions were right tackle and fullback. On the nine he played first and second base and pitched.

A man of all around athletic development, Haughton also excels at rackets and squash. He captured the national rackets championship soon after leaving college.

BIG MOTORDROME PROJECT COLLAPSES

Promoters Have Turned Their Attention to Formation of New Corporation.

The project for a motordrome on the Newark meadows, of which F. L. C. Martin, of this city, was one of the promoters, appears to have collapsed and many of those interested in it have turned their attention to the organization of the New York Speedway Association, for which the incorporation papers were sent to Albany yesterday. This association has acquired a lease on the aviation field at Garden City, consisting of 650 acres, with an option of buying it any time within two years at a price of $3,000 per acre.

According to those interested in the Newark proposition, the collapse of the project was due entirely to the expense that would have attended the successful building of the course under the conditions to be met. As against the $1,500 an acre that had been estimated would be required to fill in the 300-acre tract, it was found that the cost would be nearly $4,000 an acre, or more than $1,000,000 in all, apart from the construction of the track. The filling in would have taken not less than two years, when it had been expected that less than a year would suffice.

FIELDER JONES UNIQUELY ILLUSTRATES INSIDE BASEBALL.

Inside baseball is a hard subject to explain, and the magazines which have tried to tell all about it seem to be as far away as they ever were. One baseball player has been heard to remark that those feature writers know as much about the game as a hen does of Latin. It's the fellow with the good personality who knows how to run men. Fielder Jones told a little story at the meeting in Milwaukee recently which shows that inside baseball does not all get in the book. Here is the story:

"We were playing the fifth game with the Cubs for the world's title in 1906," he said, "and Isbell was so nervous he couldn't see. In four games he made one hit. Just before one of the games I went to him and said:

"'You big fellow blank, you're so scared you can't spit.' Izzy looked at me startled-like and came back with:

"'Scared! Scared am I? Why, you big stiff, I'll beat your head off in the clubhouse after the game.'

"'If you aren't scared, you boob, spit.' I came back at him.

"Talk about being mad. Izzy was crazy. During the game he rushed up to me again. 'Spit, darn you, spit,' I said, 'and then I'll apologize.'

"'You go to thunder,' he shouted, but he couldn't spit, and he was so mad at me that he forgot all about the strain of the series, and came through with four hits that day, and the next day he added three more."

Inside baseball? Well, it doesn't all get into the book.

PRINCETON BEATS CORNELL.

Princeton defeated Cornell by a score of 5 to 1 last night in the opening game of the intercollegiate hockey season. "Hobey" Baker's work was a feature.

Get that?

HEYDLER KNOWS WHAT THE UMPIRES GET.

Secretary John A. Heydler of the National league was an umpire in the league back in 1897. Recently Johnny related some of his experiences.

"I was fired out of the Polo grounds once," said he. "It was the year Anson had charge of the New Yorks. Andrew Freedman was chief executive. The first trouble started at Louisville when the New York nine lost a game because a safe drive, to all intents and purposes, swatted me on the shoe top. Later on I was officiating in a warm combat. George Van Haltren was after me on one side and Anson, standing at third base, was handing me a few gentle hints. Walking up to Van, I asked him, 'Who is that fellow coaching at third?' I didn't realize the enormity of my offense for a second or two, but when Anse, flushed with rage, got his dander working just right I knew I was in for it. My Waterloo wasn't long coming."

Heydler told of one shot he got from "Scrappy Bill" Joyce in his umpire days. "Hey, there, is it true that you are Nick Young's barber?" snapped "Scrappy Bill."

captured the shot put easily. In the games at Stockholm last summer he also made a good showing. Rose is the holder of a number of world's records. He is six feet five and weighs at present around 300 pounds. Four years ago he tipped the beam at 240.

FANCY HOCKEY SALARIES.

Canadian Clubs Pay Men Big Money to Chase Pucks.

Baseball players are not the only athletes who are paid fancy salaries. Hockey stars receive almost as much for a shorter season, necessitating fewer games. Ed Oatman, who played right wing on the Cleveland hockey teams three years ago, is an example.

Oatman went back to Canada from Cleveland and was a member of a championship seven last season. Now he has signed a contract with Vancouver whereby he is to receive $2,300 and expense money to the amount of $300 additional.

TO TAKE LONG JAUNT.

Oxford-Cambridge Rugby Football Team May Play In California.

Rugby football players at the universities of Oxford and Cambridge have been asked to form a combined team to undertake a tour of the Pacific coast.

The invitations were sent out by the secretary of the Oxford University Athletic club. It is intended should the team be formed to play a series of eight games against teams representing the Leland Stanford and California universities and club teams. The matches will take place next autumn.

Interlake Yachting Regatta.

The 1913 regatta of the Interlake Yachting association's sailing races will take place at Put-in-Bay the week of July 20 and the power boat races the week following.

FIVE DOLLARS
Opens the Way to Better Pay

Five dollars, plus your promise to pay the balance at the rate of 17 cents a day, places in your hands the newest model Oliver Typewriter No. 5, our very finest production.

The best advice that can be given to the young man or woman who wants to break into business is:

GET AN OLIVER TYPEWRITER

This offer places at your command a machine that turns time, energy and enterprise into the pure gold of success.

Thousands of ambitious young men and women, with the aid of Oliver Typewriters, have won their way to better pay and broader opportunity. This is the age of mechanical writing. The great world of modern business revolves around the typewriter. Typewriter operators are in demand everywhere. Our employment Bureaus in all the important cities are swamped with calls for competent Oliver operators.

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can quickly learn on your own Oliver Typewriter and qualify yourself for a position. You can make the machine meet the payments while you are doing work just for practise.

Easy to Pay---17 Cents a Day

You doubtless spend more than this amount every day for trifles you do not need.

Thousands have paid for Oliver Typewriters on this plan without the slightest effort. Are you going to let a matter of pennies stand between you and this money-making machine?

Against your risk of $5, we risk a $100 typewriter—the same machine that is used by the greatest firms and corporations throughout the world.

LYNCHING RECORD FOR YEAR SHOWS DROP

Fifty-two Mob Executions During Twelvemonth—Decrease Seems Steady.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 27 (Special).—Only fifty-two lynchings, known to be such beyond doubt, occurred in the United States in the year now closing. In previous years the number has been much larger, 190 having been recorded in 1894 and 170 in the year following. The past ten years the number has been steadily decreasing. Only one year, however, produced fewer lynchings than 1912. In 1907 the record shows 51 lynchings, one less than this year.

In some of the Southern States there were fewer lynchings in 1912 than in almost any previous year. The decrease is attributed largely to the efforts made by governors and prominent citizens to prevent mob violence. Many of the governors have acted promptly and energetically to prevent lynchings, with the declared policy of giving the law free opportunity for the punishment of all alleged offenders, white or black.

Again, as in the record of former years, more lynching occurred in Georgia than in any other State. Louisiana and Florida come next in the list. South Carolina, whose governor has gone on record as unopposed to lynchings in certain cases, had six cases of summary execution this year as against only one in the year 1911. Kentucky, with eight lynchings in 1911, had a clean slate this year. Oklahoma is another State with a clean record for the past twelve months. The figures for Texas, Tennessee, Florida and Arkansas show fewer lynchings than in 1911. In Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana the number slightly exceeded that of last year.

The States outside of the South where lynchings occurred in 1912 were West Virginia, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota and California. By States the record is as follows: Georgia, 14; Louisiana, 8; South Carolina, 6; Florida, 5; Alabama, 4; Arkansas, 3; Texas, 3; Mississippi, 3; Tennessee, 1; Wyoming, 1; West Virginia, 1; Montana, 1; California, 1, and North Dakota, 1.

In the fifty-two lynchings the victims of all but two were negroes. Three negresses were included in the list. Alleged crimes against women or girls and the murder of white persons account for practically all of the cases.

A singular feature is found in the lynching of the two white men, both of which occurred in the far North. In each case the victim was accused of murder. In the town of Joppa, a short distance from Rosebud, Mont., Harry Heffner, alleged slayer of Mrs. William Merrill, was taken from the county jail by a crowd of masked men and hanged, despite the efforts of the sheriff and his deputy. The second lynching occurred at Stelle, N. D., where George Baker, charged with the murder of his wife and father-in-law, was taken from the jail and hanged by a mob. The lynching was the first recorded in North Dakota in more than a decade.

The lynching in Wyoming was one of the most sensational of the year. Frank Wigfall, a negro who confessed to having made a criminal attack on Mrs. Esther Higgins, an aged woman known as the "prisoners' friend," was lynched by the convicts of the State Penitentiary at Rawlins.

In the West Virginia lynching the victim was Walter Johnston, a negro accused of assaulting a young white girl in Mercer county.

California's one lynching was out of the ordinary. It occurred on the desert, some thirty miles from the town of Majave. The victim was an unknown negro accused of having attacked a six-year-old child. He was hanged by men alleged to be employed on the Los Angeles aqueduct.

The three negresses who fell victims to mob violence were Ann Boston, who murdered the wife of a planter at Pinehurst, Ga.; Mary Jackson, who was lynched in Panola county, Texas, for alleged complicity in the murder of a white man, and an unknown negress who, together with three negroes, was hanged by a mob in Harris county, Georgia, for the murder of a farmer.

Tyler, Texas, furnished the only instance of the year where the victim was burned at the stake. On May 25 Dan Davis, a negro who had confessed to a criminal attack on a young white woman, was burned at the stake in one of the main streets of Tyler in the presence of a crowd of two thousand persons.

The foregoing record does not comprise cases of plain murder or cases where the victim was killed by a posse while resisting capture.

REFORM CONVENTION.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 27 (Special).—Men and women from all parts of the United States who take an active interest in the promotion of various social sciences and reforms gathered in Boston today for the annual meetings of societies organized for the discusion of such subjects. These organizations are the American Association for Labor Legislation, the American Sociological Society, the American Economic Association, the American Statistical Association, the American Political Science Association and the American Historical Association, of which last-named organization Col. Theodore Roosevelt is the president. The meeting that promises to be of most interest to the general public is the sixth annual session of the American Association for Labor Legislation. The session was opened this morning with an address by John R. Commons explaining the work of the Wisconsin commission in enforcing the factory inspection laws. This afternoon Oscar S. Straus, of New York, former Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor, spoke on the need of a new Federal employes' accidents compensation law.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS LIKELY TO BE IN WILSON'S CABINET

Releigh, N. C., Dec. 27.—Josephus Daniels, editor of the News and Observer of this city, is expected to be postmaster general in President Wilson's cabinet. He has been the Democratic national committeeman from this State for several years and during the recent campaign was in charge of the press department of the national committee. He was chief clerk in the department of the interior during part of Cleveland's second administration.

NOTES FROM LABOR FIELD

Hungary has women hodcarriers.

Chicago is to have a labor temple.

New York has 2,038 union carpenters.

Argentina will have a school of agriculture.

Twenty States have free employment bureaus.

Louisiana has readmitted her children to the stage.

A State federation of labor has been formed in New Mexico.

More than 900,000 persons receive old age pensions in England.

Arizona has established the eight hour day for miners and smelters.

Kalamazoo (Mich.) corsetmakers have been on strike since last March.

Thirty-one States have mine inspection laws with authorized inspectors.

The local union of cigarmakers at New Westminster, B. C., has been granted an increase of $1 per thousand.

There are 969 local unions with a membership of 75,914 in the Bricklayers' and Masons' International Union.

The Tramways Company of Edinburgh, Scotland, has provided a rifle range at Shrubhill for its employes.

The United States has eighty-eight establishments producing gold and silver leaf, which give employment to 1,553 workers.

Of the seventeen thousand odd miles of railways in the commonwealth of Australia over fifteen thousand are owned by the government.

Wages in Japan have risen on the average over fifty per cent. in the last ten years. During that time the average price of commodities has increased about 33 per cent.

Milwaukee working girls are organizing co-operative buying clubs to reduce the cost of living and the movement promises to become popular throughout the entire West.

Acording to official statistics just published there were among 915,063 employes in Pennsylvania industries last year 1,309 fatal and 49,662 minor accidents, a total of 50,971.

Recently the State of Maryland raised the age limit for children as workers from twelve to fourteen years. One result of the change is that more than 2,000 new pupils are expected in the schools of Baltimore, more than half of whom are boys and girls who will attend day schools. The others, all between the ages of 13 years and 3 months and 14 years, many continue at work, provided they attend night schools. This division has been made on acount of the lack of room in the day schools.

Circulation

With Influence

at the Smallest Cost

is what the business man wants to secure trade when advertising. It is not only the number of copies a newspaper prints, but its character and where it circulates; what is admitted in its columns and whether the readers have confidence in the publication. He wants to know whether a newspaper is read in the homes and whether the money he spends is actually a loss or a gain. The

is an ideal newspaper for those who are looking for a medium to reach buyers. It has the right kind of circulation and uses every care in keeping its news and advertising columns free from objectional features—no loan shark or disreputable medical or financial announcements are accepted and it has gained a reputation for cleanliness that makes it a welcome visitor in the Home Circle.

The thousands of subscribers that take THE DAILY PRESS make a clientele of which any newspaper would be proud. No newspaper published occupies a better position.

Every town within a radius of many miles of Plainfield has its subscribers—and every town contributes to the trade of Plainfield merchants. They can reach these people, with their announcements at a time when advertising has reading value and hundreds read no other paper. The business man who starts out on an advertising campaign cannot cover the field without the

O'BRIEN IS SOON TO WALK PLANK

Advisory Health Officer's Term and Job Will End Next Tuesday.

AX GROUND WEEKS AGO

Successor to Be Appointed by New Board Next Year—City Water Analyzed and Found to Be of Usual Good Quality.

It was officially announced at the December meeting of the Board of Health, last night, that the term of office of supervising health officer to which John O'Brien, Jr., was appointed on July 1 last, will expire next Tuesday, and with that date, Mr. O'Brien's connection with the Board will terminate. The decision of the Board to terminate the services of Mr. O'Brien this month was reached several weeks ago. His successor will be chosen by the new Board next year. The terms of Dr. W. H. Murray and William M. Wherry, Jr., expire January 1, when Mayor-elect Percy H. Stewart will name their successors, subject to the approval of the Common Council.

The meeting last night was the final one for the year, and reports were received. The following cases of communicable disease were noted during the month: Diphtheria, 6; typhoid fever, 1; tuberculosis, 3; chicken-pox, 1; whooping-cough, 3. One case of diphtheria resulted in death which followed almost as soon as the disease became apparent. Three houses are now under quarantine on account of diphtheria.

During the month there were twelve disinfections in eight houses and thirty-five rooms and in addition the contagious disease ward at the hospital was disinfected. Thirty-one cultures were examined at the laboratory.

Considerable attention was given to the milk supply. Sixteen dairies and one creamery were inspected and the majority of the dairies were found to be in fair condition. Thirty-one samples of milk were analyzed.

A sample of the city water was taken from the tap in the laboratory and sent to Trenton for analysis and the report showed it to be of the usual good quality. The following owners were granted permission to allow dumping on their properties, under certain conditions: Peter W. Voorhees, Isaac P. Brown, J. D. Loizeaux, David Hand.

There were 219 inspections with general work, 75 inspections of milk supply and 107 in connection with plumbing. Edward Dacy submitted a plumber's bond in renewal and the same was referred to the plumbers' examining committee.

The following returns were made to the office during December: Marriages, 13; births, 34; still-births, 2, deaths, 24.

WOMAN AWARDED HONOR FOR ELIZABETH SLOGAN

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Dorothy Ford-McIver, of 16 Third street, has secured the award of $25 for the industrial exposition to be held in the armory in February under the auspices of the Board of Trade.

"Made RIGHT in Elizabeth" is the slogan selected by the committee in charge as the best of the hundreds submitted during the contest. The slogan conveys two ideas: "made right (properly) in Elizabeth" and "made right (here) in Elizabeth."

While Mrs. Ford-McIver is the one to secure the honor, the award will go to her little four-year-old daughter, Dorothy Ford-McIver.

PROUD OF ITS NOISE-MAKER.

Somerville, Dec. 28 (Special).—The new borough fire alarm has been completed and the town can now boast of having something that can be heard when occasion requires. The work of erecting the new blower on the Cott-a-Lap mill has been going on for some time. Besides the cost of the new blower, wire, pipe, etc., the town is under contract to pay a dollar a day for steam. The old whistle which was taken down two years ago, when the town began to experiment with bells and sirens, was stolen from the town's storehouse.

B'RITH ABRAHAM ELECT.

Plainfield Lodge, No. 627, I. O. B'rith Abraham, elected the following officers at its meeting last night: President, Kalmen Rothberg; vice-president, N. Weintrop; treasurer, J. Himmelfarb; recording secretary, N. Bernstein; financial secretary, A. B. Candor; trustees, J. Sklarew and M. Heller.

DANCE FOR HER SON AND COLLEGE CHUMS

Young People Are Charmingly Entertained by Mrs. E. L. Finch.

Mrs. E. L. Finch, of Park avenue, gave a dance at her home, last night, for her son, Norman R. Finch, who is home from Yale, where he is a member of the freshman class, his classmate, Lawrence Heely; Dwight Harris, of Exeter, and Robert DeGraff, all of whom are chums. The guests numbered about one hundred, comprising young people and including many students who are home from college for the holidays.

The home was decorated with Christmas greens and holly, and in the dining-room the table was made attractive through the use of flowers. Music for dancing was furnished by Austin's orchestra. The program was a popular one. Supper was served about midnight, after which the dancing continued until an early hour this morning.

CHRISTMAS JOLLITY FOR Y. M. C. A. CLASS

Employed Boys Enjoy Performance That Includes Refreshments and Gifts.

The third annual Christmas party given by the Y. M. C. A. to members of the employed boys' class was held at the association last night, with thirty-two boys in attendance. The members were entertained by phonograph selections and short speeches by those interested in the class. The employed boys' department was inaugurated by Boys' Secretary C. William Bingeman three years ago and ever since that time an annual affair has been held. A friend of the association has provided for the presentation of two books to each of the members of the class as a Christmas gift.

Refreshments were served by a number of the older boys in the association, which were provided by the Women's Auxiliary. Frederick M. Genung, who has taken an active interest in the class since its organization, gave a short talk to the boys last night. Herbert E. Parker, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., also entertained with a number of short and witty stories. Mr. Bingeman, who has come in close contact with the boys since the organization was started, and to whose efforts much of the success of the class is due made a short speech which was enthusiastically received.

Those present were: Raphael Berse, Julius Richards, James McNee, Michael Broco, Roy Vail, Alfred Smith, Arthur Brittle, Mathew Coon, Leslie Compton, John Dawe, Seymour Day, Caleb Velard, Harry Westerly, George Bowers, Edgar Gaddis, Frank Mullin, Edgar England, Joe Broco, Willard Bach, Ellis Enander, Kenneth Moffett, Peter Marky, William Marky, Daniel Randolph, Andrew Nelson, Joe Harold, Lawrence Randolph, Benjamin Smelson, Harold Bach, Wilfred Higgins and Alfred Ferant.

NEW MARKET'S FIRE CO. SOON TO HAVE NEW HOME

The New Market Volunteer Fire Department purchased a lot on Main stret, next to C. T. Robbins' residence, yesterday. The new lot, which is 25 by 80 feet, cost the company $20 a foot, and it is expected that it will soon be staked out for a new fire house.

The present house is not large enough to accommodate the needs of the men and equipment.

ANOTHER CEREMONY.

Announcement is made that Augustus R. Fisk and Mrs. Barbara K. Cobbs, of Boston, who were married in Boston on December 14, by a justice of the peace, were wed by a religious ceremony in Jersey City on Sunday, December 22, by Rev. Wilbur Westcott, pastor of the Hedding M. E. church. Edward R. Dugan and Miss Marietta Westcott, of Jersey City, were the witnesses. The couple are still at the Vanderbilt Hotel, New York City.

MUSIC AT 1ST M. E. CHURCH.

The quartet choir of the First Methodist church will repeat the Christmas music rendered at the services last Sunday, tomorrow evening. These selections will include parts of the oratorio, "The Star of Bethlehem," by Harker, and oratorio, "The Coming of The King," by Buck.

HUMANIC EFFORT DURING 10 YEARS

Hugh F. Fox Tells What Has Been Accomplished in New Jersey.

PROGRESS IS STEADY

Coming Meeting of Conference of Charities and Corrections in This City Next February Will Discuss the State's Institutional Work.

Hugh F. Fox, of this city, president of the N. J. Conference of Charities and Correction, and still active in the organization, has written a review of the things accomplished and started during the ten years that have elapsed since the first meeting of the Conference. The 1913 meeting will be held in this city February 2, 3 and 4. Mr. Fox's review follows:

"In the ten years that have elapsed since the first meeting of the New Jersey Conference, great progress has been made. The probation plan has been extended throughout the State on county lines, and the State Probation Officers' Association organized. It is now generally known that this system is more thorough and complete than any probation plan in the United States, excepting, possibly, that of the State of Massachusetts.

"The principle of indeterminate sentence has been written into our criminal code, and a parole system established for the reformatories. The discharged prisoner is beginning to get a square deal, and contract labor in the State Prison will shortly be abolished.

"The building of the Woman's Reformatory is fairly underway, and a

MANY ATTENDED CARD PARTY AT HOLLY PARK

Milton Mendel Entertains 60 Guests With Characteristic Hospitality.

Milton Mendel, of Holly Park, Park avenue, entertained about sixty of his friends at his home last night at a progressive "500" party. The prizes for the women went to Miss Butler and Mrs. Ida Randolph Smalley, those for the men were won by Allan Coddington and Mrs. Allan Coddington, who played as a "man." There was no consolation prize.

During the evening A. A. Farland played several selections on the banjo, Mrs. Ida Randolph Smalley accompanied on the piano, while several of those present sang songs. Dancing was enjoyed after the cards. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mr. Mendel had his guests brought to and taken home in the auto bus and his private touring car, which in spite of the bad roads and weather made good time. Among those present were the Misses Aleta and Roberta Spencer, Marjorie, Grace, Mary and May Woolston, Edith Richards and the Misses Stevenson, Butler, Cody and Angelman, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Farland, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. 38 DYNAMITERS ARE CONVICTED

Only Two Defendants in Famous Trial Acquitted—Sentences on Monday.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Indianapolis, Indiana, Dec. 28.—The Federal jury this morning returned verdicts of guilty against thirty-eight dynamiters. Buckley and Seiffert were acquitted.

The two men found not guilty were released. Court was then adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday, when sentence on the convicted men will be imposed.

A verdict was not expected at 9:30, when the court and forty defendants were scheduled to reassemble. During the night no word came from the jury. The twelve men with numerous bailiffs hovering about them were seen on the way to breakfast. Outwardly they showed no sign of a protracted struggle in the jury room. They had the case since 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

SOCIETY ATTENDED CHIRSTMAS DANCE

Many From Out of Town Enjoy Delightful Event—Orchestra Busy.

More than two hundred people, including many out of town guests, attended the Christmas dance given at the Hartridge Auditorium, last night. It was the most successful affair of the kind given in recent years and all the guests enjoyed the many features provided by the committee. The auditorium was decorated appropriate to the holiday season, there being a profusion of Christmas greens and holly.

The dancing began about 9 o'clock and it was after 3 o'clock this morning when the last of the guests departed for home. One of the surprises of the evening was the music by "Black Sousa," and his band of twenty pieces. It was the first public appearance of the band outside of Brooklyn, and the popular program was received with frequent applause. The musicians were generou giving two encores after each number. Appearing in their regimentals they made a decided hit with the crowd. There was an intermission at midnight during which supper was served by a Newark caterer. The affair was so successful that the committee has decided to give another one at Easter time.

Mrs. Elliot T. Barrows, Mrs. Thomas M. Day, Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen, Mrs. George P. Mellick, Mrs. W. L. Righter, Mrs. Harry Runkle, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart and Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren comprised the receiving party.

The committee in charge of the dance comprised J. Hartley Mellick, W. L. Righter, Daniel Runkle, Joseph P. Wadsworth and Lewis E. Waring. The patronesses were Mrs. Elliot T. Barrows, Mrs. Thomas M. Day, Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen, Mrs. George P. Mellick, Mrs. J. Hartley Mellick, Mrs. W. L. Righter, Mrs. Daniel Runkle, Mrs. Harry Runkle, Mrs. Edward P. Sharretts, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren and Mrs. Lewis E. Waring.

FOUCAULT INCURABLE.

Emil Foucault, aged about 64 years, who has been a patient at Muhlenberg Hospital for a year, under treatment for paralysis, although showing slight improvement, will probably never fully recover and never be able to work again. As soon as a suitable place is found he will be removed from the institution. It will be necessary for him to have constant care and attention. Foucault, whose home was on Rock avenue, near the mountain, fell out of a wagon a year ago Christmas Day, and as a result his body becamse paralyzed.

MERRY OLD KRIS LAYS DOWN PACK

Finishes Round of the Sunday Schools and Retires for Year.

JOY FOR MANY KIDDIES

Songs, Recitations, Magicians, Jugglers and All Manner of Delightful Things to Mark Annual Christmas Parties in Churches.

The Christmas festivals in the churches of the city and borough were concluded yesterday afternoon and evening, when special programs were enjoyed by eight different Sunday-schools. In nearly every instance the children took part, the exercises being both interesting and amusing. There was the customary distribution of gifts, together with the serving of refreshments. The festivals held yesterday were as follows:

HOLY CROSS.

The old English candle service held last night at Holy Cross church was quaint and impressive, and redolent of the Yuletide season. At 7:30 the choir boys entered, singing the processional, "Adeste Fidelis." The tones of organ and voices blending together in the hymn was extremely fine.

As the choir boys reached their places in the chancel the members of the Sunday-school were ushered into the sections reserved for them. Prayers were then read by Superintendent Douglas C. Anderson and a brief address followed by the Rev. William S. McCoy, rector of the church. Rev. McCoy took as his subject, "Who Are the Poor?"

17-YEAR-OLD JACKIE IN TROUBLE ON SHORE

Too Much Grog With Landsman Leads to Fight and Cell.

Albert Vail, 17 years old, of Newport, R. I., and a sailor on one of Uncle Sam's dreadnaughts, was arrested yesterday for an alleged assault on Edward J. Murphy, owner of the pool room at 17 Somerset street. William Doyle, 23 years old, of 534 West Fourth street, who was showing the tar around town, was also arrested on the same charge.

When appearing before City Judge De Meza this morning, the two said they were celebrating the sailor's furlough and the liquid part of the program had gotten the best of them. The court suspended sentence.

UNION COUNTY MAN IS AFTER PLUM WORTH $6,000 A YEAR

Trenton, Dec. 28 (Special).—Notwithstanding several labor organizations in the State have endorsed General Lewis T. Bryant, for reappointment as Commissioner of Labor, it is becoming evident that General Bryant will not be unopposed for another term in office. Some of the North Jersey Labor Union have taken up John T. Cosgrove, of Union county, one of the members of the Employers' Liability Commission, and are advocating him for the position. Mr. Cosgrove has announced himself as a candidate and will seek to land the appointment. The place pays $6,000 a year.

ENGINEER ODDLY SHOT WHILE ABOARD TRAIN

Somerville, Dec. 28.—William Hunt, aged 35 years, employed as engineer of the milk train on the New Jersey Central, while returning to his home at Hampton Junction, yesterday afternoon, was struck in the back of the head by a bullet which inflicted a serious wound. Hunt was riding in one of the coaches of the train which arrived here at 5 o'clock, and he was taken to the office of Dr. William H. Long. Several attempts were made to remove the bullet, but without success. The injured man returned to his home on a later train.

The accident occurred while the train in which Hunt was riding was just west of Middle Brook. He was sitting next to the window when suddenly he felt a stinging sensation in the back of the head. An examination disclosed an ugly wound. The fact that Dr. Long was unable to find the bullet leads to the belief that it may not have entered the head. It is not known who shot at the train as it was passing Middle Brook.

TO ASK SETTLEMENT OF BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Boy Sought $15,000 for Loss of Right Hand From Shock.

At the opening of the Circuit Court Tuesday, January 6, Robert Newton Crane, of this city, counsel for Ferdinand Simon, 14 years old, of Murray Hill, will move for the settlement of his client's case against the Commonwealth Water & Light Company, of Summit.

Simon is suing the corporation for $15,000 the amount which he estimates the loss of the use of his right hand, resulting from a shock received from a live wire, while picking cherries from a tree in front of his home last July. The light company own and operate a municipal lighting plant in Summit and one of the wires was strung through the branches of the tree. While plucking the fruit the boy's hand same in contact with the wire. Riker & Riker, of Newark, will represent the defendants.

EDWARD EVERETT'S NIECE DEAD AT 81

Miss Lucy Hill Everett Was Active in City's Welfare Work.

Miss Lucy Hill Everett died at the home of her nephew, James E. Kimball, 633 West Seventh street, early this morning, in the eighty-second year of her age. She had been ill for some time and her death was not wholly unexpected.

Miss Everett was born in West Newbury, Mass., on June 27, 1831. She was the daughter of Thomas Huse Everett and Mary Ann Kimball; a niece of Edward Everett and cousin of Dr. Edward Everett Hale. She obtained her education in the district school of the little New England village. She was a natural student and after completing her studies became a teacher in the high schools of both Lynn and Salem, Mass. She came to Plainfield in 1870 to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Horace Kimball.

When the Children's Home Association was organized, Miss Everett became its corresponding secretary, which position she filled until a few years ago. She was largely instrumental in starting and took a most active part in the management of The Holly Tree Inn, which was maintained on North avenue as an eating and rest-room for hackmen and laborers where they might be free from the influence of the saloons.

At the time Bethel chapel was founded, Miss Everett saw a new field for her activities and interest and became the teacher of a large class of men. She continued as leader of this class until last winter, when her delicate health made it necessary for her to give up the work. Her class will pay a last tribute of love and respect by acting as the pall-bearers at the funeral service.

Miss Everett's keen and active mind made her a valued member of the Rasores Club. She was a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The funeral service will be held at the home of her nephew, James E. Kimball, 633 West Seventh street, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the interment will be in the little cemetery in her girlhood home, where her mother and sisters were buried.

ALVAH A. CLARK WILL BE BURIED MONDAY AFTERNOON

Somerville, Dec. 28 (Special).—The funeral service of Alvah A. Clark will be held at the First Reformed church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Clark had been identified with the church for a long time, and had acted as treasurer of the organ fund.

A coincidence in connection with the fund is noted. This year the congregation had hoped to pay the last amount due, about $1,000, and the fund was to be closed out. Mr. Clark had acted as treasurer of the fund almost since the installation of the new organ, and it is likely that the life of the fund and its treasurer will have closed at virtually the same time.

THE TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company, today, is as follows: 9 a. m., 31 degrees; 11 a. m., 31 degrees; 12:30 p. m., 31 degrees.

RECTOR FOUGHT FIRE IN CHURCH

Rev. Wm. S. McCoy Calms Congregation and Extinguishes Blaze.

HANGINGS ARE RUINED

Flames Start From Candles Among Chancel Christmas Decorations—Sexton's Hands Burned—After fire Minister Offers Prayer of Thanks.

Panic was averted and the Holy Cross Episcopal Church was saved from a probable damaging fire this morning by the rector, Rev. William S. McCoy. He discovered a small blaze among the Yuletide decorations during a communion service. With the aid of the church sexton the rector extinguished the flames.

During the communion service, celebrated in observance of Holy Innocents Day, the minister heard the cracking of burning evergreen leaves among part of the decorations in the chancel. They had become ignited from several burning candles. Seizing the water cruet at the alter and shouting to his congregation, which was of goodly size, to remain calm as he ran, the rector dashed the water on the flames.

He then ran to a rear room of the building for a pail of water, and called to Charles Irby, the sexton. The two returned and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. While trying to beat the flames out with his hands, Irby was painfully burned.

After order was restored the rector knelt before the altar and offered a prayer of thanksgiving for the preservation of the church. The service was then continued and carried to a close.

The chancel was burned in several places and some altar hangings were ruined, causing damage estimated at about $300.

Speaking of the incident the Rev. Mr. McCoy said the members of the congregation, which was composed mainly of women, deserved great credit for the coolness they preserved during the incident.

"Not one person ran from the church from the time the fire started or caused an unwarranted amount of excitement," he said, "and I am indeed thankful that I discovered the blaze before it had gained headway."

HE WILL MANAGE STORE IN ELMIRA

Farewell Reception Given by Adolph Tepper to Sales Force.

A farewell reception was tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Tepper to the employes of Tepper Brothers' store, in this city, at their home on West Front street, last night. Adolph Tepper will sever his connections with the local store in the near future to open a new branch of Tepper Brothers' at Elmira. Mr. and Mrs. Tepper were assisted in receiving the many guests present by Mr. and Mrs. Mendolson, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Max Tepper, of this city, and Miss Minnie Heidelberg, of Chicago.

In the course of the evening, which was taken up with games, vitaphone selections and vocal music, Mr. Tepper was presented with a handsome silver loving cup. The presentation was made by Mr. Mitze on behalf of the clerks of the store and he expressed the general feeling of regret at Mr. Tepper's leaving, which is felt by everyone connected with the store. As an employer, Mr. Tepper has always been held in high esteem by those under him and has always been popular with his employes. Arthur R. Friedburg was awarded the first prize, a leather cigar holder, in the men's game competition, while the ladies' prize, a handbag, went to Miss Minnie Heidelberg, of Chicago.

Solos were sung by Mrs. Adolph Tepper and Miss Ina Smith, after which dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the affair and Mr. and Mrs. Tepper were the recipients of many wishes for their complete success in their new assignment.

The Misses Cora, Esther and Emily Erickson, of New Rochelle, L. I., have been spending the Christmas holidays with their mother, Mrs. John Erickson, returning yesterday.

The G. W. Hooper residence has been purchased by William Beardslee, who will take possession April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Harris and daughter, of Jersey City, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Labaw announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary, to Albert M. Thompson.

E. P. Johnson, Jr., has gone to Vermont to spend a week.

Roy McConnell, of Alberta, Canada, is the guest of Clyde Enk.

Mrs. George Drobny, aged about 45 years, died Thursday night in a New York City hospital, where she had been undergoing treatment. She had been ill for some time, and she was thought to be suffering from appendicitis, but when an operation was attempted it was learned that her malady was far more serious, but hopes were entertained to the last that she might recover. Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters and two sisters, the latter living in the west. The funeral arrangements will be made after the arrival of the body from New York.

FIVE HELD AS CHICKEN THIEVES AT MORRISTOWN

Morristown, Dec. 28.—The arrest of four men and one woman Thursday may clear up the mystery as to who has been responsible for the theft of several hundred chickens in this vicinity in the last few months.

The prisoners were all committed to jail in default of bail. They are Antonio Esposito, Lorenzo de Levo, Jack Red and his wife, Mary Red, and Joseph Perone, who lives in North street, Madison.

Suspicion was directed to the old house at the edge of the sewer disposal plant, which is owned jointly by the town and the Morristown and Erie Railroad. Sergeant John Morrison and Patrolman Herbert Wilday went out there toward noon, and with a telephone man entered the house on the pretext of looking for a man. They found Esposito and De Levo in there.

Searching about the premises they found a box of Buff Orpington fowls, all killed, hidden in the snow. These were identified later by Christopher Jorgensen as having been stolen Monday night from his coop in Lincoln street. Near at hand, under a shed, the officers found a heap of feathers of all colors, which they assert was four feet high. They immediately put the two men under arrest and brought in about twenty of the fowls as evidence.

Jack Red and his wife were arrested soon after because of their association with the two men. Mrs. Red declared that the chickens she knew about were brought to her place by her brother-in-law, Perone, who keeps a butcher shop in North street, Madison. Policeman Meeker was dispatched to that place and brought back Perone.

The men first arrested had a horse and wagon, and so did Perone, who had been seen on the way to the place of arrest by the back road from Madison.

THE TELEPHONE AND THE PARCELS POST.

The parcels post system under the direction of the postoffice department will be put in operation on Jan. 1, 1913. An editorial in the American Druggist and Pharmaceutical Record for October lays great emphasis on the value of this system for the druggist, who can easily and cheaply build up a combination telephone order-parcels post business in his territory. The telephone enables the druggist to extend his business regardless of distance, but he has been handicapped in the past by the cost and time consumed in making deliveries. The introduction of the parcels post will make it possible for telephone orders to be delivered hundreds of miles away within comparatively few hours at a minimum of expense. People are eager to take advantage of such facilities, and the business is simply waiting development.

The New York Telephone Review points out the fact that these benefits are by no means limited to druggists. Any wide awake merchant can build up his business by the use of the telephone regardless of whatever delivery system is available. The number of telephone calls that could be made in one day is greater than the personal calls a dozen salesmen could make and the expense infinitesimal in comparison.

MUNCY TWINS START IN GOOD HEALTH ON NINETY-FIFTH YEAR

Babylon, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Samuel and William Muncy, who celebrated their ninety-fourth birthday Christmas Day, have started in on their ninety-fifth year in excellent health, and they see no reason why they should not round out the century. They are doubtless the oldest twins in the world. Though their eyes need the help of glasses, their other faculties are good and they enjoy long walks daily. They are widowers, each having raised a family of eight children.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

So strong an impression did "Human Hearts" make upon a prominent clergyman in New York, that he whote to the gentleman impersonating "Tom Logan," vigorously endorsing the play and informing him of his intention of trotting all the orphans of a local asylum out to see it at his own expense. And he did it.

"You cannot conceive," said Manager Reno, "of the appreciation of those youngsters at the change of the sermon thus afforded them unless you had listened to the gallery the day they attended." "With the 'Gods' present,' he continued, "as often as I have myself enjoyed sitting through it, it was as enjoyable as a box of monkeys sprinkled over with tears. Quite often since, have city schools whose principals were aware of the good merit in the play, been given half a holiday, that the youngsters might enjoy a matinee. And what out-spoken critics the tots have been. You can't get a favorable criticism or a padded eulogy for love or money from a juvenile. You must give him the goods, or he denounces you broadcast, and I am really grateful to the tots of America for their appreciation of what all now agree to be one of the best American plays." "Human Hearts" comes to the Plainfield theatre New Year's Day, afternoon and evening.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

Geoge M. Cohan has about completed the fourth month of his highly prosperous engagement in "Broadway Jones," at his own theatre, where seats for this, the best of all Cohan plays, are selling far into next year. Everyday is a turnaway at young Mr. Cohan's popular 43d Street and Broadway playhouse, and from now on all house records for attendance are likely to be broken, this in view of the tremendous advance sale for "Broadway Jones" that extends over a period of eight weeks. To avoid the rush, and get good seats, buy them now for New Year's.

Cohan and Harris can credit themselves with another big success. This time it is "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." at the classic Astor, where Douglas Fairbanks as the heroic young American who stops a revolution and wins a princess, is also winning golden opinions and much applause for his splendid acting. The dash and danger that fill the many scenes of "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." furnish the charm that is being found in it. Then too, its exciting climaxes, especially the blood-bubbling, heart-leaping fight that brings the second act to a close with a whirlwind finish that fairly makes the audience leap from their seats, so realistic is it presented. "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." is a play big in inspiration and broad in its appeal, and it has scored one of the real genuine successes of the season.

MISS EVA BOOTH HAS PLANNED UNIQUE OUTDOOR CELEBRATION FOR SALVATION ARMY TO GREET BIRTH OF NEW YEAR

Washington, Dec. 28.—Peter V. De Graw, fourth assistant postmaster general, who is in charge of the arrangements for starting the parcel post January 1, has distributed thousands of new scales in the larger offices where the business is expected to be heaviest. The scales are of the type used in many butcher shops, with an indicator that shows at a glance the weight of the package, and by looking down the indicator the rate of postage for each zone is seen. A mirror is above the dial so arranged that it can be adjusted to throw the light directly on the indicator. While any scales can be used, a calculation will be necessary or a reference to a table, unless the scales are fitted with the new parcel post dial.

MISHAP STALLS TRAIN, BUT NO ONE IS HURT

Flemington, Dec. 28.—Engine No. 108, drawing the early morning train from Flemington to New York, broke one of the tires on the centre drive wheel and became stalled just west of the bridge crossing the South Branch of the Raritan River about 6:55 o'clock yesterday morning. No one was injured and the train did not leave the track. Many of the commuters went to Flemington Junction and took Lehigh Valley trains. The New York mails did not reach here until near 11 o'clock.

HEAD OF STORIED POLICE FORCE ABOUT TO RETIRE

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 28 (Special).—After more than forty years of faithful and efficient work in the service of the Dominion, Lieut. Col. Frederick White, C. M. G., will retire next Tuesday from the post of Comptroller-General of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. Few men in the Canadian civil service are better known than Lieut. Col. White and fewer still have rendered more distinguished services to their country.

Born in England sixty-five years ago, Lieut. Col. White came to Canada as a young man and after a short time spent in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway he was appointed to a clerkship in the Department of Justice. By 1876 he had risen to the position of chief clerk.

On the organization of the Northwest Mounted Police Lieut. Col. White was selected by the late Sir John A. Macdonald to take charge of the administration of the police bureau of Ottawa. Since that time he has devoted himself wholly to affairs in connection with Western Canada, and no one has done more to advance the interests of that section of the country. Since 1878 he has been at the head of the Northwest Mounted Police, an organization famous the world over for its efficiency and discipline. An important extension of his work was undertaken in 1905, when he was appointed a special commission to administer the government of the unorganized Northwest Territories. At the time of the coronation of King Edward he was rewarded with the honor of C. M. G.

For more than a year Lieut. Col. White has been in failing health and since last spring he has been on leave of absence. It is generally expected that his successor as Comptroller of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police will be Laurence Fortescue, I. S. O., who is at present assistant comptroller and accountant of the department. Mr. Fortescue has been connected with the Mounted Police since the early days of the force, having been appointed in 1875. He came to Ottawa from the West to assist in the administration of the force, and has held the position of assistant comptroller since 1908.

MISS DOROTHY AVERILL BRIDE OF W. G. HARMAN

Miss Dorothy Averill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Otis Averill, formerly of this city, but now of Brooklyn, and William Gray Harman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Harman, of West Eighth street, were married on Thursday at Grace Episcopal church, Brooklyn Heights, by Rev. Dr. C. F. J. Wrigley, the rector. Only the relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony. The only attendant was Bryant G. Harman, brother of the bridegroom, who was the best man.

The bride wore a blue traveling suit and a black picture hat. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. The ushers were two brothers of the bride, Otis Averill and Norman Averill, of Brooklyn; Percy Chapman, of this city and Courtlandt Handy, of New York. An informal reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Moffett, of Willow street, Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Harman left New York yesterday for Grand Junction, Col., where they will live on Mr. Harman's ranch.

OLD INDIAN FIGHTER QUITS ARMY UNDER LIMIT LAW

Washington, D. C., Dec. 28 (Special).—Brig. Gen. Edward J. McClernand, famous as an Indian fighter, closed his active career in the army today. Tomorrow he will reach his sixty-fourth birthday anniversary and will be placed on the retired list in accordance with the law. Few of the present-day officers of the United States army are more widely known that Gen. McClernand. He was born in Jacksonville, Ill., the son of Gen. John A. McClernand, one of the famous Union commanders in the Civil War. After graduating from West Point in 1870 he was appointed a second lieutenant of the Second Cavalry and has been identified with the cavalry arm of the service ever since. When less than two years in the service he received his baptism of fire in a battle with the Indians at Pryor Creek in 1872. Several years later he participated in the rescue of the remnant of Custer's command, and in 1877 he assisted in the capture of Chief Joseph and his band of Nez Perce Indians in the Bear Paw Mountains. For his distinguished services in the pursuit of the Nez Perces he was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant and later was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. Gen. McClernan saw active service in Cuba and Porto Rico during the war with Spain and later held an important command in the Philippines. In the war between Russia and Japan he was one of the United States attaches with the Japanese army in the Manchurian campaign.

SOMERSET COURT PUNISHES TWO POST OFFICE ROBBERS

Somerville, Dec. 28.—Found guilty of having robbed the postoffice and the station of the Central Railroad at Flagtown, Frederick P. Miller was sentenced to one year in State Prison, and Edward Woods was committed to the Railway Reformatory by Judge Clarence D. Case yesterday.

Both men are from Belleville. The principal witness against the prisoners was Charles Hans, a detective in the employ of the railroad, who traced them to Belleville.

WILL REBUILD ON SITE OF BERNARDSVILLE FIRE

Bernardsville, Dec. 28.—Frederick E. Ballentine, owner of the block in Main street partially destroyed by fire Thursday, has announced he probably would begin at once the erection of a new building, practically fireproof, on the old site.

Most of those burned out are being cared for at Bernard's Inn. Herman Herman, restaurant keeper, is awaiting the arrival of a sister from New York, and expects to begin business again.

Chu Sam, laundryman, also plans to resume business, as does Joseph Ehrenhardt, bicycle repair man. The intentions of Michael Ricciardi, confectioner, and Antonion Nervino, barber, are not yet known. Most of the victims of the fire have had to borrow clothes.

HE WANTS PROBE APPLIED TO SUSSEX COUNTY AFFAIRS

Newton, Dec. 28.—After consulting with several persons who say they believe that the county's money of late years has been squandered, Azariah D. Hart, of Newton, declared yesterday that he would begin today circulating a petition asking for a rigid investigation of the county's expenditures covering a period of at least five, and perhaps ten, years.

This petition is in the form of a memorial addressed to Supreme Court Justice James F. Minturn, of Jersey City, setting forth that the petitioners, in the belief that the county's money has been "unlawfully and corruptly" expended, desire the appointment of an accountant, who shall be a resident of the State but not of Sussex county, to go over the books.

The law requires that before a Supreme Court justice authorize such an investigation at the expense of a county, a petition must be presented to him, signed by twenty-five taxpayers and freeholder resident in the county, setting forth an adequate reason for such an accounting.

Mr. Hart said yesterday that he had received assurances of plenty of signers and that he would begin the circulation of his petition in Andover Township today.

PARCEL POST MARKS IMPORTANT EPOCH

Department Works Hard on Preparations, But Expects Trouble at First.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23 (Special).—The inauguration of the parcels post plan in the United States on Wednesday next, Jan. 1, 1913, will mark one of the most important epochs in the development of the American postal service. The last previous step of importance was taken when the Rural Free Delivery System was put into effect fifteen years ago. The introduction of the parcels post system had been agitated for ten years without material progress when Rural Free Delivery became a fact. Since then the demand for the introduction of a parcels post system in the United States became so urgent that Congress finally, notwithstanding the most strenuous opposition from certain interested quarters, yielded to the wishes of the people and enacted a parcels post law.

The framing of the law was not an easy matter, as the whole scheme was in the nature of an experiment upon a tremendous scale. It is true, the framers of the law had for their guidance the laws and regulations of a number of foreign countries where the parcels post has been in successful operation for many years, but the conditions of the postal service in the United States are so radically different from those of the postal service in other countries that it was not an easy matter to adapt their laws to American conditions and requirements.

At last the law was drafted, submitted to Congress and passed and January 1, 1913, was fixed as the date for its going into effect. The many radical changes in the postal service necessitated by the requirements of the parcels post system imposed a tremendous burden of work upon the postal authorities and during the last three months several of the departments worked practically day and night to complete the preparations for the inauguration of the new service.

An entirely new series of stamps for the exclusive use of the parcels post service had to be designed, engraved, printed and distributed; new scales, with a capacity of eleven pounds, to meet the requirements of the new weight limit, had to be contracted for, manufactured and sent to the various post offices in the country; maps showing the zones into which the country has been divided for the purpose of fixing a graduated distance rate, and books containing the various regulations and rules governing the new branch of the postal service had to be printed and distributed among the thousands of post offices throughout the country. In addition to all this special provisions as to space, means of handling the parcels post, etc., had to be made at all larger offices, so as to have everything in readiness when the law goes into effect next Wednesday.

The postal authorities have given the assurance that the preparations are now practically completed, but they realize that owing to the newness of the system and the lack of previous experience as to its operations, it may develop at first many defects and shortcomings which will have to be gradually corrected. The public is expected to be patient and to give the postal department reasonable time to perfect the working of the plan in all its details.

The importance of the new service can scarcely be adequately estimated at the present time. It contemplates the transportation and delivery by the postal service of the United States of parcels containing matter of the fourth class, not exceeding eleven pounds in weight and six feet in circumference from any point reached by the present postal service to any other point reached by that service. The parcels post service of the government extends far beyond the limited sphere of the various express companies, over more than one million miles of rural routes and 435,000 miles of rail, boat and star routes, embracing about 60,000 post offices and 285,000 employes connected with the postal service. The rates of transportation are a great deal cheaper than the corresponding rates of the express companies, which means an enormous saving to shippers, aside from the greater facilities offered to them.

Under the new law everything will be mailable that is mailable now as fourth class matter, with the addition of thousands of articles of a perishable nature, etc., which heretofore were not mailable at all. Only liquor of an alcoholic nature, poisons, explosives, inflamable articles, infernal machines, obscene matter, pistols or revolvers, live or dead animals or any substance which emits a bad odor and disease germs cannot be mailed by parcels post. Perishable matter, like foodstuffs, fruit, etc., will only be accepted for delivery within a fifty-mile radius from the mailing point.

JAMES KELLY'S FUNERAL.

High Bridge, Dec. 28.—Funeral services of James Kelly, about sixty years old, who died Tuesday from heart disease, were held in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The body was taken to Hampton for burial. A widow, three daughters and three sons survive him.

REAL ESTATE AS A BUSINESS.

The real estate business is unlike some other businesses in that it requires not merely ordinary business training but a knowledge of matters which appertain especially to that business. A real estate agent should know not only what sales have been made that tend to fix prices, but what negotiations there have been; not only must he judge of what land and houses are worth today, but he must be a good judge of what increase there will likely be in the value of the land, so that his client may profit by the labor of others. He should thoroughly understand the equitable adjustment of the many differences that arise between the buyer and seller, giving each a "square deal." He should see that his customers, when buying property, get what legally belongs to them, and that when selling property, owners do not part with more than they know they are selling. He should realize thoroughly the importance of not tangling titles and know how to avoid doing so.

The real estate agent should know from practise how to draw all forms of contracts, deeds, bonds and mortgages, assignments of mortgages, leases, releases, liens, etc. He should know dates when taxes become due, and he should advise the purchaser to have the titles searched by some competent lawyer or title company. Alas! many agents do not understand these matters and consequently complications arise.

No one would ask a blacksmith to make a pair of spectacles or a milkman to make a suit of clothes, yet most people think that any one can attend to the important matter of the purchase or sale of real estate. At the closing of a title, the seller should exhibit his receipt for taxes. He should produce his fire insurance policy, covering the improvements. If there is a mortgage on the property, the holder of the mortgage should have the original fire insurance policy and the buyer should receive a duplicate of it. Allowance for the premium, should be calculated, and immediately upon the closing of the title, the new owner's name should be substituted for the old owner's name on both policies. Where there is a mortgage, receipts for last interest payment should be exhibited. In case of tenancy an assignment of the rents in writing to the new owner should be made; an assignment of the lease and rents prorated. When no lease exists, then at the option of the buyer, the seller should put the buyer in possession at the closing of the title or guarantee to do so. Unless this point is waived any charge against the property should be paid up by the seller at the closing of the title, or a sufficient amount of the purchase retained to guarantee the clearing of the title from such liens, within a specified time. Remember that after the title is closed, the buyer has recourse, only to such warranty as is definitely recited in the deed. A bargain and sale deed gives no redress to the purchaser. A quit-claim deed conveys nothing, it only shows that someone, who is not the owner relinquishes some real or imaginary claim against the property.

Finally, those who purchase should remember that a sufficient title is not enough. Accept only one that is absolutely clear; except for such encumbrances as are definitely recited in detail in your contract, the terms of which the purchaser must have already been informed, and assumes, and agrees to pay the same as part of the purchase price.

Sometimes a seller does not insist upon the assumption of the obligation to pay the encumbrances; he may be satisfied to convey the title to you, subject to such encumbrances; in that case the encumbrances do not become a personal liability.

From my personal observations, covering a quarter of a century in the real estate business, I am certain that it takes a good many years of experience to develop a first-class real estate agent, so he can earn money for himself and get money for his customers.

KRIS LAYS DOWN PACK

The rector answered the question by asserting that there is no person on earth who is not in need of spiritual blessings. There are hundreds of thousands of people, little children and grownups, who are physically poor and poverty stricken as to their worldly possessions but the ninety millions of persons in this country and the millions abroad are spiritual direlects. They need the Godly food and raiment as much as the poor East Side children need clothing and bread and shelter.

After the address by Rev. Mr. McCoy the lights in the church were extinguished save a single flame in the altar. Duclos Van Mater, the crucifer, lighted a candle from the altar light, Elmer Perry and Carlton Moore, choir boys, then ignited torches and marching from the chancel down the aisle of the church, lighted the many candles around the hall.

The lights in the church shone out one by one and coming singly after the darkness, produced an effect hard to describe. It suggested something of splendor.

As the church was slowly coming out of the darkness "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung. Then came the benediction, and recessional by the choir. During the service Howard Dentz sang the beautiful "Silent Night" in excellent modulation.

After the church service the children retired to the Parish House where they laid presents about the Christmas tree for the youngsters of St. Bernard's School at Bernardsville. George I. Sill impersonated Santa Claus. Contributing toward the happiness of the St. Bernard's children is a yearly custom at Holy Cross.

There were presents under the Christmas tree for the members of the choir. The committee in charge of the services was composed of Rev. W. S. McCoy, Douglas C. Anderson, Miss Marion Carmen and Miss Iola Moore.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The children of the beginners' and primary departments of the First Presbyterian Sunday-school held their Christmas exercises in the Sunday-school rooms yesterday afternoon. Among the exercises were motion songs by both departments, songs and recitations by members of each class.

Rev. Lewis Bond, dressed up as Santa, distributed presents to the little folks. After the distribution of presents the children were taken to one of the class rooms and ice cream, cake and candy were served. Those in charge of the children's program were Mrs. L. H. Gates, Mrs. Grove Hinman, Miss Clara Karner and Mrs. George Ballantyne.

Two tableaux, entitled "The Flower Girls" and "A World of Girls," were enjoyed by the elder members of the Sunday-school, last night. Those that took part were: "Flower Girls," the Misses Dorothea Huntsman, Marion Wean, Jessica Hill, Natalie Selby and Jennie Peacock. In "A World of Girls," Miss Pauline Gates acted as reader, and the Misses Leontine Huntsman, Grace Doty, Helen George, Irene Dunham, Edith Hamilton, Hazel Selby, Ida Englehardt, Bertha Englehardt and Clara Karner enacted the parts in pantomime.

A number of boys of the church troop of Boy Scouts acted as ushers and assisted on the stage. At the close of the tableaux H. W. Herman, dressed up as Santa, distributed presents to all the members of the school. He was assisted by several of the Boy Scouts.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH.

A varied program of songs and recitations was presented at the Christmas entertainment held last night at All Souls' Unitarian church. Piano solos were played by Miss Dorethea Lawrence, solos were sung by Miss Langford and Rev. A. E. Wilson, and recitations followed by Constance Mumford, Eleanor Bucklin and Master William Bradbury.

After the program there were refreshments of chicken sandwiches, ice cream, cake and cocoa. The church was comfortably filled but the bad weather kept many away. The committee in charge was composed of Rev. A. E. Wilson, Mrs. E. H. Mumford and Mrs. Bradbury.

MONROE AVE. CHURCH.

A varied program, including songs by the school, was presented at the Bible school Christmas exercises held last night at the Monroe Avenue M. E. church. The feature of the evening's entertainment was a juggling act by a metropolitan performer. The program was much enjoyed by a good sized audience of young and old.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

Amid profuse decorations of holly, evergreen and red and green streamers, the inmates of the Children's Home were entertained yesterday afternoon at the annual Yuletide festivities. A large Christmas tree was the centre of attraction for the youngsters and Santa Claus, in the personage of Mrs. Ralph Armstrong, distributed presents of candy, handkerchiefs, mittens and other gifts to the children.

Miss Helen Wooley recited and Miss Catherine Claremont played several piano solos. The Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, spoke to the children and others who helped make the affair an enjoyable one were Mrs. Martin Cooley, Mrs. William A. Woodruff and Miss Ella Serrell.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

The pupils of the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school were entertained last night with a playlet entitled "Is Santa Claus a Fraud?" given by members of the school. The setting of the play, which was held in Vincent chapel, was in an old English court with judge, jury, crier, witnesses, counsel, usher and children. Through the efforts of the counsel for the defendant it was decided that Kris was not a fraud and he was allowed to resume his rounds.

Those that took part in the play were: "Santa," Myrton Glover; "Judge," Edward Crome; "counsel for the plaintiff," Edward Brown; "counsel for the defendant," Harry Little; "court crier," Elton Greenleaf; "usher," Chester Alpaugh; "jury," the Misses Marion and Dorothy Linn, Janet Marchant, Thelma Dowson, Katherine Bingeman and Zeta Voorhees, Roy Love, Wallace Zimmerman, Allen Campbell and Howard Hall; "witnesses," Miss Thomas, the Misses Ruth Johanson and Murtle Darling; "children," Alice Joy, Gertrude Joy, Russell Linn, Clauson Linn, Roswell Ewart and Mary Alice Parker.

A special feature of the program was the appearance of four young men whose identity was not known, as English waits, who sang most sweetly.

At the close of the entertainment presents were distributed to the members of the school.

CHURCH OF HEAVENLY REST.

Santa Claus in the personage of Samuel Kriney, called on the pupils of the Sunday school of the Church of Heavenly Rest last night with a seemingly unlimited supply of presents. His monologue delivered on the tastefully decorated platform of the Parish House following a noisy and cheerful entrance "down the chimney," after the long trip from the Northland, proved a delight to all.

Richard Borden recited a humorous number entitled "Ain't you Glad You're Licin'" and Wendell Glover, organist, rendered selections on the piano. Prizes were distributed to Christian Sieglin, Clare and Alice Mallery, Harry Barton, Richard Borden and John Kriney for good attendance during 1912.

Preceding the entertainment, services were held in the church where Christmas carols were sung, led by the boys' choir. The Rev. Cortlandt Mallery delivered an inspiring address urging the church members to even greater accomplishments in the coming year.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

A program of unusual merit was rendered by members of the Sunday-school of the Congregational church at the Christmas entertainment held last night. The rooms were decorated with holly and other greens and the scenic effect produced on the platform during the rendition of the playlet, "The House of Santa Claus," which featured the evening's festivities caused much admiring comment.

Those included in the cast were Carter L. Goodrich, as Santa Claus; Miss Katherine Martin, as the Fairy Queen; Russell Tomlinson and Eugene Martin, as dwarfs, and the Misses Ruth Fuller, Helen and Marget Rice, as fairies.

The rest of the program included the rendition of the carol, "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing," by the school; a piano duet by the Misses Margaret and Helen Rice; violin solo by Henry Brandt; recitation entitled, "Grandmother's House," by Paul Updike, and the singing of other carols apropos to the Yuletide season.

Gifts of candy and dolls to the young people and books to the older members of the Sunday-school were distributed. George Dean, sexton was liberally remembered.

GRACE M. E.

Santa made his appearance at the entertainment of the Primary department of the Grace M. E. Sunday-school yesterday afternoon. Singing and recitations were followed by a visit from the merry saint who looked a good deal like W. J. Conroy when he took his whiskers off. Toys were given to the younger folks while the other pupils received books and candy and oranges. Miss Alice Carroll was in charge of the afternoon entertainment.

"A Topsy Turvey Christmas," a musical playlet was given for the amusement of the older pupils last night, in the church, which was artistically decorated with Christmas greens. The platform was a scene representing a room in "Grandmother's house," with a spinning wheel and old fashioned furniture.

In the cast of the play were "Santa," Clarence Steiner; "Grandma," Miss Florence Nichols; "Prudence," Miss Florence Hoagland; "doll," Miss Ruth Nichols; "educated cat," Arthur Townley; "fairies," the Misses Edna Mantz, Marjorie Cowling and Edna Jones; "grandma's helpers," Mildred Harden, Elizabeth Hoagland, Elizabeth Voorhees, Helen Nelson and Marion Jones; "Topsy Turvey children," Claude Bodenheimer, Etta Titus, May Winans, Elmer Emmons and David Slammer.

At the close of the cantata presents were distributed to the different classes. Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor, was given a large electric reading lamp; Sunday-school Superintendent W. J. Conroy was presnted with a large rocking chair by his class.

FIRST BAPTIST.

The children of the beginners, primary and cradle roll departments of the First Baptist Bible school enjoyed a Christmas party in the lecture room of the church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Powlison, superintendent, assisted by the teachers of the departments, arranged the program, which was as follows:

Twenty-third Psalm in concert; song, "Away in a Manger;" Bible questions; greetings, Robert Reynolds; recitation, May Douglas, Charles Lyman, Ernest Mallinson and Robert Reynolds; song, beginners class; semi-chorus, Earl and Walter Bach and Leslie Warren; distribution of gifts to members of the cradle roll; song, class; recitation, Estelle Homan; semi-chorus, Mattie and Emma Douglass and Florence Wells. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, the pastor, then told the children an interesting Christmas story, and the program was concluded with the singing of a song entitled "Merry Christmas."

Then followed a distribution of dolls to the girls, penknives to the boys and toys to those in the beginners department, while everyone received a box of candy and an orange. The junior department will have its Christmas party in January.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Performances by professional entertainers from New York featured the Christmas entertainment held in Trinity Reformed church. Miss Hazel Rodman, a magician, dressed in the fashion of a maid of the Orient did mystifying tricks interspersed with the rendition of vocal selections. She was very successful in pleasing both young and old, her performances being novel and cleverly presented.

Miss Edna Kimball proved herself an artist of unusual versatility both as a vocalist and reciter. She sang "O Holy Night," and was forced to respond to several encores. Her recitations entitled, "His First Christmas Tree," and "Boys Don't Have Such a Snap in Life After All," brought rounds of applause from the young people.

The other entertainer was Miss Fannie Heinline, a banjo virtuoso and mandolin soloist, who included among her selections, "Cavalieri Rusticana," the "Plantation Symphony," and "Love's Old Sweet Song."

After the program of entertainment, members of the Sunday-school received their Christmas gifts. The Yuletide idea was carried out in the decorations, red and green predominating. Those who had charge of the arrangements were E. F. Shepard chairman; Fred Donovan and the Misses Edna Raybert, Maud Guest and Mabel Wilson.

APPEAL MADE TO SAVE OLD DOUGHTY MANSION

Somerville, Dec. 28.—Several persons interested in the preservation of historical objects have undertaken a move to save the old Doughty mansion here, which has come into the possession of the Central Railroad and may be destroyed to eliminate a curve in the tracks.

The Central Railroad Company has offered to give the house to an association that will bear the expense of moving it. Enough has already been pledged to prepare the foundation and any repairs made necessary by moving, and a lot has been proposed near the Wallace house. This house also is famous for its historical associations, including the presence of General Washington.

Mayor W. V. Steele, of this place, was asked by the women representing the General Frelinghuysen Chapter, D. A. R., to permit subscriptions for the remainder needed in the project to be sent to his office and he has consented. It is estimated that the total outlay need not exceed $3,000.

In 161 years the Doughty house has been in the possession of but three families. It was built in 1707 of bricks sent from Holland by the father of Dinah Van Bergh, wife of Rev. John Frelinghuysen. It was intended as a theological seminary. Rev. J. R. Hardenbergh also lived in the house, as he married the widow of Mr. Frelinghuysen and became his successor in the pastorate of the Dutch church of Raritan.

The son of Mr. Hardenbergh sold the house to Dr. Peter Stryker and he in turn sold it to Joshua Doughty in 1842, who, with his sister, vacated but a short time ago.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Mrs. Henry Thomas will lead the W. C. T. U. meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the W. C. T. U. parlors on Madison avenue. Henry Thomas and Miss Thomas will furnish special music.

"The Lesson of the Past, and the Promise of the Future," will be the theme of the sermon by Rev. Royal A. Stout at the Netherwood Reformed church, tomorrow morning, and the theme for the evening discouse will be "Christ Our Hope." Miss Mabel Mudd, soprano, will repeat the Christmas music in the evening.

Rev. Frederick J. Hubach, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, will preach tomorrow morning on the theme, "A New Year's Suggestion for the Home," and in the evening on the theme, "A New Year's Wish."

Circulation

With Influence

at the Smallest Cost

is what the business man wants to secure trade when advertising. It is not only the number of copies a newspaper prints, but its character and where it circulates; what is admitted in its columns and whether the readers have confidence in the publication. He wants to know whether a newspaper is read in the homes and whether the money he spends is actually a loss or a gain. The

is an ideal newspaper for those who are looking for a medium to reach buyers. It has the right kind of circulation and uses every care in keeping its news and advertising columns free from objectional features—no loan shark or disreputable medical or financial announcements are accepted and it has gained a reputation for cleanliness that makes it a welcome visitor in the Home Circle.

The thousands of subscribers that take THE DAILY PRESS make a clientele of which any newspaper would be proud. No newspaper published occupies a better position.

Every town within a radius of many miles of Plainfield has its subscribers—and every town contributes to the trade of Plainfield merchants. They can reach these people, with their announcements at a time when advertising has reading value and hundreds read no other paper. The business man who starts out on an advertising campaign cannot cover the field without the movement is on foot to provide separate custodial care for habitual inebriates and for the criminal insane.

TEN YEARS' EFFORTS

"Children are no longer cared for in the almshouses in New Jersey, but are placed in family homes under constant supervision.

"The age of employment of children has been raised to a minimum of fourteen by day, and sixteen at night, and great strides have been made in the administration of the whole department of factory and bake-shop inspection.

"The compulsory education laws of the State have been made pretty generally effective, by the employment of truant officers, while the recent compulsory medical inspection provisions are bringing about a better knowledge of the physical condition of school children, which is being followed up in many communities by the employment of visiting nurses. In some of the most enlightened communities, special classes have been started for backward and sub-normal children, and the whole school system of the State has been aroused to the need of safeguarding their physical welfare.

Equally marked progress has been made in provisions for the sick and afflicted. The State Tuberculosis Sanitorium has been in operation now for some years, and under legislative enactment County Sanitoriums are now being constructed. The Epileptic colony which was established about ten years ago, is extending its operations constantly and the Training School for Feeble Minded has established a notable department for the study of eugenics. New Jersey has adopted a sterilization law which will do much to check the pro-creation of the feeble-minded and idiotic classes in the future, and thus reduce the burden upon the taxpayers. A number of new insane asylums have been erected, and the quality of care given to the insane has been much improved.

"The poor laws have been revised, and a State Commissioner of Charities appointed; a Commission for the Blind is now making plans for their care, and the Tenement House Commission has done splendid work in improving housing conditions for the poor.

"The State Conference has had a marked influence in showing the need for all of these betterments and creating a sound public sentiment for legislative action. So far, the Conference has kept itself free from all vagaries and fanaticism. Its program has been sane and practical, and it has won its way to the hearts and minds of the people by its reasonableness, its fairness, and its open-mindedness.

"Each Conference has marked a new step forward in social welfare work, and the Plainfield conference is taking up timely topics in a way that is sure to be most helpful."

At the meeting here next February the conference will present the institutional work of the State and discuss the most advanced methods of dealing with its problems. Each topic will be discussed by an expert from the medical or physical, the mental of psychological, and the legislative or social aspect.

The tentative program is as follows:

Sunday, "The Church and the Social Problem."

Monday, "Inebriety, Jails and Almshouses; Prostitution and Mental Hygiene; Prison Reforms and Reformatories."

Tuesday, "The Feeble-Minded, Epilepsy, and Eugenics; The Work of Prevention."

General topic, "New Jersey's System of Humanics."

The Scrap Book

A Very Fine Stew.

From Belgium comes a funny story of the reporter of an Antwerp paper who was sent by his editor to Brussels to take down a report of the king's speech. In order to add interest to the event the reporter was given two carrier pigeons, trained to fly between the two cities, by which he should send back his message.

When the reporter reached the capital he went into a restaurant and, handing the pigeons to the manager, took a seat and ordered his dinner. He was kept waiting a long time, but finally a delicious stew was served, which he much enjoyed.

When he had finished he called for his bill, settled it and then asked for the pigeons.

"Pigeons!" cried the waiter in great astonishment. "Why, sir, you have just eaten them."

Content.

To love and bless my kind,
To help men to be free,
To know the godlike mind
Behind humanity,
Is sweeter far to me
Than it would be to find
My little name enshrined
In song or history.

Within my soul I claim
A sweeter symphony
Than all the blasts of fame
Could ever give to me,
And on life's heights I see,
Far brighter than a name,
A light like golden flame
From out eternity.

—J. A. Edgerton.

He Wore the Robe.

A story is told of the late Dr. Peddle, a Scotch minister, to whom his congregation had presented a pulpit robe. He had never worn a robe, and after acknowledging the gift he said he would wait in the vestry five minutes after service to hear any objectors to the innovation. Nobody appeared but one old lady, who, on being asked what her objections were, answered that she had read the epistles of St. Paul and could not find any reference to the apostle wearing a gown. "What epistle did you read?" asked the doctor. "From Romans to Hebrews," answered the old lady. "Well, Janet," said her minister, "I have read from Romans to Hebrews also, and I could never find any reference to the apostle wearing the breeks. What would you think if you saw me going into the pulpit without breeks?" The old lady quit right there, and the minister wore the robe.

The Best They Could Do.

Of all the illegible writers none was more famous in this country, of course, than Horace Greeley, of whom one compositor said once, "If Belshazzar had seen this writing on the wall he would have been more terrified than he was." Once Mr. Greeley wrote to decline an invitation of the Iowa Press association:

"I have waited till longer waiting would be discourteous, only to find that I cannot attend your press meeting next June as I would like to do. I find so many cares and duties pressing on me that with the weight of years I feel obliged to decline any invitation that takes me a day's journey from home."

Out of this the recipients in consultation assembled made:

"I have wondered all along whether my squirt had denied the scandal about the president meeting Jane in the woods on Saturday. I have hominy, carrots and R. R. ties more than I can move with eight steers. If eels are blighted, dig them early. An insinuation that brick ovens are dangerous to hams gives me the horrors."

Real Patriotism.

One of the reputations which the American has abroad is that he can always overtop anything he sees in Europe by something he has at home. An Italian was showing an American friend about Italy and had not had much success in arousing his enthusiasm. If he showed the campanile the American said, "We've got a monument in Washington 200 feet higher." If he showed him the coliseum he remarked, "The auditorium at Chicago is bigger." Finally the Italian showed him Vesuvius in eruption and thought surely that must stir his awe. But the American, after gazing for a moment at the burning mountain, said, "We've got a waterfall in America that would put that out in five minutes."—Christian Work.

CANAL ZONE OBSERVATORIES.

In the Panama canal zone and throughout the entire watershed, observatories are maintained. There are probably as many as 100, which furnish records of variations in temperature, rainfall, the rise and fall of the numerous streams which feed the Gatun lake—the reservoir for the operation of the Gatun locks—and, in fact, every conceivable kind of information which would be of value in connection with the building of the canal and its operation for years to come. The establishment of these observatories dates back to the beginning of the American occupancy, and thus for about seven years data are available. These are of inestimable value and will become more so as further information is tabulated yearly.

All of these observation stations are connected by telephone, and during the rainy season observers are constantly reporting conditions day and night by telephone to the principal hydrographer at headquarters at Culebra. An incident in connection with one of the most important of these observatories, that at a place known as Alhajuela, at the headwaters of the Chagres river, both illustrates the value placed upon telephone facilities and the difficulties under which they are maintained.—New York Telephone Review.

FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS IN CANAL ZONE.

A modern fire department is maintained upon the isthmus of Panama with headquarters at Colon. The telephone is relied upon in sending in emergency alarms. There are police stations throughout the zone, with headquarters in Ancon. All arrests and disturbances are reported by telephone from the outlying police stations to police headquarters at Ancon, where the records are kept.—New York Telephone Review.

—Positions of various kinds—in mercantile fields, in the office, store and factory—the call for those who are skilled in special lines—capable helpers in the work of manufacture and distribution—all these needs of business are reflected in Press Wants.

—Chances for investments—gainful hints for buying and selling—employment opportunities—all are a part of Press Want Columns.

AUTOMATIC SCALES TO BE USED IN WEIGHING PARCEL POST PACKAGES

New York, Dec. 28.—Miss Eva Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in America, has planned a New Year's eve celebration that will be different from the sort New York has heretofore seen. She will have representatives of every corps in Greater New York assemble in Union Square park at 11 p. m., December 31, where an outdoor service of song will be held until the old year dies. Miss Booth has received many compliments since Christmas because of the work in which the Salvation Army fed thousands of the hungry and distributed thousands of Christmas dinners to needy families. She was placed in self in charge of the distribution of dinners at the Ninth Regiment Armory.

AN ORDINANCE

To Amend An Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance to Establish, Regulate and Control a Fire Department, in the City of Plainfield."

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That Section 8, of the ordinance to which this is an amendment, be amended to read as follows:

Section 8. The pay of the force is hereby fixed as follows, the said rates to take effect from the first day of January, 1913:

Chief Engineer ..... $1,800 per annum
First Assistant Engineer ..... 1,350 per annum
Captains ..... 1,200 per annum
Engineer of Steamer ..... 90 per annum

Drivers, tillermen and hosemen shall be divided into five classes according to their respective terms of service as follows:

Class A. Fifth year of service and over.
Class B. Fourth year of service.
Class C. Third year of service.
Class D. Second year of service.
Class E. First year of service.

Provided that the Common Council upon recommendation of the Mayor may advance any regular firemen, drivers, tillermen, or hosemen, from a lower to a higher class, for especially good work or meritorious service, whether he shall have served his full time specified above or not.

That from the first day of January, 1913, the salaries of the drivers, tillermen, and hosemen, or other regular appointed firemen shall be as follows, according to their class:

Class A ..... $1,100 per annum
Class B ..... 1,050 per annum
Class C ..... 1,0[illegible]4 per annum
Class D ..... 964 per annum
Class E ..... 89[illegible] per annum

The members of the fire department, known and designated as "Call-Men" shall perform at least ninety per cent. of duty at all fires or alarms of fires in each year; and such members shall receive as compensation the sum of fifty-five dollars per annum, payable in two semi-annual payments of twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents for each of the six months ending June 30th and December 31st in each year, except that when a Call man shall act as Captain of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, he shall receive one hundred dollars per annum, payable semi-annually and when any Call Man shall act as Engineer of Steamer he shall receive eighty-two dollars and fifty cents per annum, payable semi-annually; but no salary shall be paid to a Call Man until he shall have signed a stipulation that he will render service as contemplated in this ordinance.

Adopted by the Common Council, Dec. [illegible], 1912; approved by the Mayor, Dec. 21, 1912.

GEO. W. V. MOTT, President.

Attest: J. T. McMURRAY, City Clerk.

TURKS' PROPOSALS AT PEACE CONFERENCE

Ottoman Delegates Keep up Porte's Reputation for Driving Hard Bargains.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

London, England, Dec. 28.—The proposals today by the Ottoman delegates were:

The Province of Adrianople to remain under the direct administration of Turkey.

Macedonia to be converted into a principality with Salonica as its capital.

The principality to be under the suzerainty of the Sultan of Turkey but governed by a prince chosen by the Balkan allies and nominated by the Sultan of Turkey. This prince to be a Protestant and from a neutral State.

Albania to be autonomous under the sovereignty of the Sultan and governed by a prince of the Imperial family who is to be chosen for a term of five years, with the possibility of a renewal of his appointment.

All the islands in the Agean to remain Turkish.

After deliberating for an hour and forty-five minutes today, the Peace Conference adjourned until Monday.

PERSONAL.

Edward Jones, an employe of S. Scheuer & Co., is critically ill with pneumonia at his home on Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stuart, of New York City, are parents of a son born to them on Thursday. Mrs. Stuart was formerly Miss Pansy E. Luckey, of this city.

Miss Elizabeth La Lavire is recovering, after having been confined to the house for a week with tonsilitis.

Mrs. J. Hartley Mellick, who has been ill at the home of her father, O. T. Waring, on Park avenue, is much improved and hopes to be out soon.

Mrs. James E. Jack and daughter, Miss Laura Jack, of Bridgeport, Conn., are spending the holidays with Mrs. Jack's mother, Mrs. Margaret Sweeny, of the New Madison.

BULL RING TACTICS

Spain's Great National "Sport" and the Shame of It.

IT IS NOT A TEST OF BRAVERY

The Game of Blind Man's Buff Requires More Courage Than Does the Work of the Toreador—The Poor Hack Horses Are the Real Victims.

The great majority of the spectators were Spanish. Here were young dandies in faultless suits and boots of the most brilliant patent leather. Now enters a woman in the famous mantilla of white lace, reserved solely for the bullfight. There one saw father, mother and little children of quite tender years. A special box, immediately over the door by which the bulls would enter, was reserved for the president of the fight and his friends.

In the ring stood half a dozen policemen. They remained in the arena all through the proceedings, but there were wooden shelters at intervals behind which they discreetly retired when the bull approached. Half a dozen red buckets filled with water stood in a row on the sanded floor. A band, just below our seats, played lively airs.

The audience being now complete, the first matador marched round the arena with his little troupe of picadors (on horseback), toreadors (with red cloaks to wave in front of the bull) and banderilleros, the last named carrying darts which were presently to be planted in the back of the bull.

The toreador is quite a minor personage. The star performer, after the bull, is the matador, who deals the deathblow with his sword. All the other people that I have mentioned are under the control of the matador.

The weapons were now inspected by the president, the men and horses retired and the first bull trotted into the arena. He was a big fellow, rather slow moving, and he stood for some little time in the center of the arena gazing about him at the general scene. The band was playing gayly all this time. A couple of toreadors advanced and set the bull in motion by waving their cloaks just in front of his horns.

It is commonly supposed in this country that the toreador is a magnificently brave person who risks his life for the pleasure of the excited populace. That is quite a mistake. The bull never goes for the man, but always for the cloak. So long as the toreador holds the cloak to one side instead of in front of him and has the usual amount of common sense and ability there is no reason at all why he should receive a scratch, and I believe that he very rarely receives even a scratch. If he is fool enough to get drunk before he enters the arena, that is another matter. Under ordinary conditions anybody who is pretty good at "blind man's buff" could do the work of the toreador. The bull, as a matter of fact, cannot turn so quickly as the "blind man."

After a little of this teasing from the toreadors a picador advanced, lance ready poised. Here is the really cruel part of bullfighting, the part that makes it hideously revolting to all decent people. The horse ridden by the picador is a poor old hack, and it is brought into the arena for no other purpose than to be killed by the bull in the sight of the populace. There is a bandage over one eye so that the horse cannot see the deadly approaching horn of the bull. The picador rides his horse right up to the bull, and the bull is allowed plenty of time to gore the horse to death. Not the slightest attempt is made to save the horse. I want to emphasize this because one had always understood that the horses were killed more or less by accident.

Why are the horses brought in to be killed? Champions of bullfighting will tell you that the death of the horse saves the life of the matador, that it gives the picador an opportunity of inflicting the first wound and that the mere act of goring the horse robs the bull of his natural strength. Twaddle! What the picador does could be done just as well by men on foot or by a man on a trapeze or in fifty ways. The horses are killed to make a slaughter for the crowd, who are angry if they do not see enough blood.

The death of the poor horse I will leave you to imagine. It is altogether too horrible and too pitiful for detailed description.

Now comes the turn of the banderilleros. Each has two little darts. These darts must be placed in the back of the bull, just about the end of the neck, from in front of the animal. This requires skill and speed. It is the only part of the whole proceeding which reflects the slightest credit for bravery or agility upon the men in the arena.

The bull, after being wounded by the picador, is now carrying the darts of the banderilleros in his back. Naturally he is bleeding profusely and is nearly dead. It is the proud work of the matador to finish him off with one thrust of his sword. He stands in front of the bull, who waits for the thrust with lowered head. The wretched business is quickly over, and the carcass is drawn from the arena by four horses.

That is the story of the Spanish bull fight, told in cold, bald prose. Considered as a test for bravery, I cannot find a better comparison than the one I have already used—"blind man's buff." Considered as a national sport, it would be incredible if one had not witnessed it with one's own eyes.—Keble Howard in London Mail.

FORTY FATALLY HURT AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 28.—Three persons were said today to be fatally injured as a result of last night's accident approach to Central Bridge when a street car, leaving the tracks, dashed through the rail and fell forty feet to the pavement below.

WILL DESIGN NEW CURRENCY.

Kenyon Cox, New York Artist, Receives Commission.

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department has engaged Kenyon Cox, a New York artist, to design the back of the new American currency notes. This design on the back will be the same for all denominations of all classes of notes—United States notes, coin certificates and national bank notes. By adopting only one design for the back Mr. MacVeagh believes that this feature of the currency can be given over to art, permitting changes and improvements to be easily made. Mr. Cox has submitted to the secretary the general features of the design he contemplates, and these were tentatively approved. The design is symbolic of progress and peace, showing the development of the nation in the lines of labor and commerce.

The new currency will be two-thirds the size of that now in circulation, its dimensions being 6 by 2½ inches.

Secretary MacVeagh expects to give the order for printing the new notes to Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing about Feb. 15, almost at the end of his administration. It will require eighteen months to accomplish the change, which consequently will not be consummated until well along in President Wilson's term of office.

WHITE ENAMELED FURNITURE FOR THE MODERN DINING ROOM

DINING ROOM IN WHITE AND GREEN.

WHITE enameled furniture for the dining room has received the approval of fashion. It is a more cheerful furnishing than the dark oaks and mahoganies of which some people are so proud. Moreover, it is inexpensive and, although it has a tendency to soil easily, may be cleansed without much difficulty. The illustration shows a dining room finished in white and green.

FASHION STRAWS.

French Twist Latest Way of Dressing the Hair.

The latest fashion of dressing the hair is the French twist, caught with an up to date comb. The front is parted or worn in a flat pompadour.

One of the attractive models of the season is the flat sailor of velvet or plush, trimmed with a ribbon band extending around the front portion and ending in three flat loops at either side, which extend backward almost parallel with the brim.

The most attractive collarets are made by combining a band of fur with velvet and lace. For instance, a band of skunk fur forms the foundation of the collar, and a frill and graceful bow at the side are of tobacco brown velvet and lace.

The bodice that is made with a deep peplum giving the coat effect is smart, and this model shows it at its best. The big collar and revers are most attractive. JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 34 to 40 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7635, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

COLD WEATHER SALADS.

ALTHOUGH the housewife is unable to achieve great variety in the making of salads when winter cuts off the supply of fresh vegetables, there are many appetizing combinations of late ones for adding zest to dinner and luncheon.

Nuts and fruits may be used for salads, separately or with vegetables, in the concoction of these dishes, and if one lives in a large town whose markets supply hothouse vegetables or those imported from warm latitudes salads may be many and delicious in spite of the season.

Simple Relishes.

These simple salads call for vegetables which are available everywhere.

Pepper Salad.—Take the seeds from one green pepper, parboil five minutes in boiling salted water, cut into strips, mix with one-half lettuce which has been shredded and pour over it a French dressing made by mixing one-half teaspoonful of salt, four tablespoonfuls of oil, two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and stir until blended.

Celery and Nut Salad.—Take half a pound of chestnuts, shell and blanch them, cover with boiling water, add a bit of bay leaf and one stalk of celery and boil until tender, then drain, cool and cut into quarters. Add an equal quantity of finely sliced celery, dress with French dressing and serve on heart of lettuce leaves.

Novel Salads.

Salad Medley.—Take six tablespoonfuls cooked dried beans, four tablespoonfuls fried onions, four tablespoonfuls cream cabbage, four tablespoonfuls cold potatoes, five tablespoonfuls cold meat or eggs. For dressing take one tablespoonful each of mustard and flour. Mix smooth, then add one teaspoonful sugar and a few drops of olive oil. Heat one-half cupful of vinegar in a frying pan, pour in mixture and cook until thick, stirring until done.

Egg and Cabbage Salad.—Take six eggs and simmer twenty minutes in water. Cool in cold water, break off the shells, cut in halves, take out the yolks, rub them through a sieve, season with pepper, salt and onion juice. Then mix to a paste with mayonnaise and shape into small balls. Cut the whites of egg in fine strips, add twice as much shredded cabbage, moisten with mayonnaise, turn into a salad bowl, arrange the egg balls in the center and garnish with watercress or parsley.

Happenings Due Next Week

Washington, D. C., Dec. 28.—President Taft's return from Panama will mark the resumption of activities in official circles in the capital after the customary Christmas recess. The presidential party are due to arrive in Washington Tuesday afternoon. The next day the President and Mrs. Taft will hold their last New Year's reception at the White House. The program established by the custom of many years will be followed, the function beginning at 11 o'clock in the forenoon with the reception of the members of the cabinet and diplomatic corps and continuing through the list of the judiciary, senators and representatives, officers of the army and navy and so on until the "plain people" are reached.

Both houses of Congress will reconvene Thursday. In the Senate the impeachment trial of Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce Court, will be resumed Friday, when Judge Archbald is expected to take the stand in his own defense.

Hearings before the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries in the so-called North Atlantic shipping pool are scheduled to begin Thursday. The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether the commerce between the United States and the South American countries is under the control of a steamship trust.

Beginning Monday, the Interstate Commission will hold a series of hearings in Washington on the general subject of transit privileges accorded by railroads to shippers.

The closing of the ranks dinner of the Republicans, which was first spoken of for December 14, has been definitely fixed for next Saturday night at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York. President Taft is expected to attend, together with many other leaders of the Republican party to show that the party is a vigirous political unit despite the results of the November election.

The first few days of the new year will see the inauguration of governors and the meeting of legislatures in many of the States. On New Year's Day new governors will take office in New York, Michigan, Iowa, Massachusetts, Maine and a number of other States.

Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, now aid for inspections at the Navy Department, will relieve Rear Admiral Hugo Osterhaus of the command of the Atlantic fleet Saturday, and will take the fleet at once to southern waters for a series of maneuvers.

The first day of the year, as usual, will see a number of important changes in the Government service, the putting into effect of new laws, regulations and the inauguration of new policies by great industrial and financial corporations. By far the most important event of its kind will be the inauguration of the Parcels Post service, which will become an accomplished fact next Wednesday after many years of agitation and discussion.

What is probably the broadest pension policy yet adopted by an American corporation for the benefit of its employes will be put into effect the first of the year by the Bell interests, embracing the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Western Union Telegraph Company and their affiliated concerns. A fund of $10,000,000 has been set aside to provide pensions, sick and accident benefits and life insurance for the 175,000 employes of the companies. Besides employes the new plan will include their families and dependents.

The centenary of the birth of Sir Isaac Pitman, the inventor of the accepted system of shorthand now in use throughout a large part of the world, will be commemorated Saturday with dinners and meetings in London, New York and many other leading cities, at which speeches will be made by many eminent educators and business men. Sir Isaac Pitman was born in the town of Trowbridge, England, January 4, 1813. The system of shorthand of which he was the author is employed today in reporting the proceedings of every legislative body and every law court in which the English language is spoken. It has been adapted to twenty different languages.

Philosophical Phelix Says:

HOOKS AND SWINGS

Joe Rivers, the Mexican, has signed to box Leach Cross in New York January 8, for a $4,000 guarantee.

According to the recent measurements of Al Palzer, he has 5½ inches more reach than Luther McCarty.

New York and Boston boxers will clash at the next amateur boxing tournament to be staged by the Boston A. A., Jan. 15 and 18.

Kid Carter, the old war horse, reentered the ring in Brooklyn the other night and showed a bit of his old-time form.

Jack Harrison, the middleweight champion of England, and Eddie Morgan, the English featherweight, have returned home.

Bombardier Wells is making preparations to visit America sooner than anticipated, now that he has heard about Luther McCarthy.

John Cyclone Thompson says that he now weighs 190 pounds and will enter the heavyweight division. He will challenge the winner of the coming bout between Palzer and McCarthy.

HOT STOVE WAVES

Manager "Kid" Elberfeld, of the Chattanooga club, has announced that he will play shortstop for his team next season.

Youngstown and Erie are out to cop the franchises now held by South Bend an Terre Haute in the Central League.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Boston Red Sox will play a series of games at Hot Springs, Ark., durnug the training season next spring.

Nine of the Phillies already are under contract. The list includes Manager Dooin, Alexander, Paskert, Lobert, Moore, Knabe, Doolan, Luderus and Magee.

Barry McCormick, the former big leaguer, and manager of the Newark (Ohio) team last season, has been appointed manager of the Peoria team, of the Three-I League.

President Comiskey plans to enlarge his Chicago White Sox park to seat 45,000. The "Old Roman" has purchased a large block of land adjoining the park, where 15,000 new seats will be erected.

It is said that Frank Chance will play first base for the Highlanders and that Hal Chase will be placed at third. As Chase is considered the greatest first baseman in the game, the dope doesn't look right.

If the Pittsburgh Pirates are successful in landing Roger Bresnahan and Ed Konetchy, of the Cardinals, the other National League teams will certainly know they have been playing ball when they tackle the Clarke crew.

Manager Clark Griffith has picked out first place for his Senators in the American League pennant race for 1913, and Hugh Jennings says that his Detroit Tigers will be lucky to finish in the first division.

The Boston Red Sox have signed outfielder George Walsh, of the Fall River team. With Speaker, Lewis and Hooper on the job, and Henriksen ready to jump in at any time, Walsh has a fat chance to perform with the champions.

NO MUSCLE WASTED AT THE WENONAH M. A.

Academy Has Only 35 Cadets, But Is Power in Athletics.

With a roster of only 35 cadets the Wenonah Military Academy at Wenonah, N. J., boasts of as proud an athletic record as is held by any secondary school in the country. By the great efforts of its football, track and baseball teams in the last few years this "prep" school has probably set a record for extraordinary performances which will stand against the onslaughts of secondary teams for some time to come. Herbert Pennock, budding slabman with the Philadelphia Athletics, and Olympic pole-vault champion Babcock of Columbia university, are products of the school situated on the shores of the Delaware and Connie Mack and other big league scouts are season visitors in the little village of Wenonah in search of young "phenoms" under development at the academy.

The records of the football and basketball of 1912 may be taken as a fair criterion of the average run in the athletic squads picked from the infant body of cadets. During October and November the gridiron team won all of its nine championship games from the strongest teams in the State, and one or two practise contests with an average mark of 45 points to 1 and a fraction points for the opponents. Through the grand work of the team the secondary school championship of the State went to Wenonah, and the basketball squad with victories over the University of Pennsylvania freshmen and the crack Mackenzie Club five of New York city, already hung up promise to take home another pennant in the indoor sport.

Coach Ed Lambert, chief of the athletic instructors and recent all-around man at Gettysberg College, is responsible for the records made in the last two seasons by Wenonah men. It was he who turned Pennock into fast company. Chester L. Chamberlin who is spending the holidays at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. J. Chamberlin, on Westervelt avenue, is a member of the football, basketball and gymnastic squads of the Wenonah institution and he promises a successful basketball, track and baseball season.

EXTENSIVE ALTERATIONS ON WESTFIELD GOLF GROUNDS

Extensive changes in the course of the Westfield Golf Club links are to be made this winter, so that when the links are open for the 1913 season the distance of the last five holes will be materially affected. The biggest change will be the lengthening of what is now the longest hole, the ninth, from 390 yards, its present distance, to 560 yards, by the combining of the eighth and ninth holes into one.

The changes are the first extensive alterations that have been made since Dave Hunter, the well known New Jersey professional, mapped out the present course in 1899.

COLLEGE COACH TOO MUCH IN SPOTLIGHT

Garcelon of Harvard Thinks Baseball Teams Should Play Their Own Games.

All the knotty problems of college athletics were thrashed out at the annual convention of the National Collegiate Association at the Hotel Astor yesterday, delegates from more than 100 colleges, schools and universities in different parts of the country taking part in the hundred and one discussions which made up the day's oratorical proceedings.

Summer baseball, amateurism, training, coaching and other phases of intercollegiate sport came in for a drilling. College baseball got the hardest rap of the day from William F. Garcelon, Graduate Director of Athletics at Harvard, who said in his report on baseball among the colleges of New England that the coach had become altogether too prominent in college games. Mr. Garcelon said that college games were no longer contests between teams of college students but contests between coaches.

He said that the players when they went to the bat had to keep one eye on the ball and the other on the coach on the bench. He deplored the fact that the coach had become such a figure in college games and suggested that during baseball games the coaches, instead of running the game from the bench, should go away somewhere and let the boys play their own game.

Mr. Garcelon also took occasion to mention that sometime there would be closer relations between the colleges and the Amateur Athletic Union. He suggested that the A. A. U. would be a better organization if there were more college men identified with its affairs.

Mr. Garcelon directed a stinging rebuke to the A. A. U. when he stated that many of the men who serve on committees in various branches of the organization do so simply for what they can get out of it.

Prof. William L. Dudley, of Vanderbilt University, directed much criticism against the methods employed by colleges in attracting students to their halls of learning. Prof. Dudley hit out straight from the shoulder in his address and remarked that the employment bureaus conducted by some of the colleges were nothing but agencies for hiring athletes. He said that there were three groups of athletic liars—those who tell a lie to establish their amateur standing but won't write it or swear it; those who tell and write a lie but won't swear to it before a notary, and those who will go the limit.

FAST SUMMIT FIVE PLAYS HERE TONIGHT

Brynarski's Place in Ajax Lineup Will Be Taken by Nash.

One of th best basketball games of the season will be played at the Y. M. C. A. tonight when the Ajax meet the Summit Y. M. C. A. aggregation. The Ajax lineup will be somewhat crippled by the loss of Brynarski, who will be out of the game for some time to come as the result of injuries sustained in the game with North Plainfield Christmas night. Nash, however, will be back in the game and his speedy work will undoubtedly fill the gap left open by Brynarski's absence.

Summit has been putting up a stellar article of the indoor game all season and has a record which compares favorably with the formidable one established by the local association team. The referee question, which has been troubling those interested with the local aggregation for some time past, will probably be solved tonight and a competent official engaged to arbitrate the match. Owing to the slow exhibition put up by the teams that have been playing the preliminary games at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday nights, it has been decided to drop the so-called "appetizers" for the time being, and no "prelim" will be staged tonight.

ROTHBERGS DROP ODD GAME TO THE ELKS

Strong Pinning in Third Chapter Does Trick for Winners.

Some pinning in the third game pulled the Elks' bowling team out on top in their three-game match with the Rothberg quintet last night and gave them claim to the team-superiority of the city. In the first game, two double century scores resulted in the Elks coming out victorious, but in the second clash, when both teams rolled poorly, the Rothberg aggregation obtained 861 points against their opponents 834. In the third game Vanderbilt made a game effort to uphold the standard of his team but his companions failed to rally and the series went to the antlered tribe.

The scores:

HUNTING AND FISHING

To those who think of fishing from a pier for any of the winter fish we recommend the sea eel for bait. It is a small eel, about as thick as a lead pencil and silver white in appearance. The flesh is firm and has a tendency to harden on the hook. It is caught in the surf from Montauk Point to Atlantic City with a small mesh scoop net. The eels are sold by the pile or measure by boys at Coney Island, but we know of no other place where they can be purchased.

Twenty fish, weighing twenty-five pounds, is a pretty good catch of an evening. This is done regularly at the Steeplechase pier at Coney Island. This pier, extending far out in the ocean, escapes the attention of thousands of Coney's visitors, but it wouldn't if they knew of the fun that holds forth there every clear night. The men and women who fish enjoy the sport thoroughly and it is healthy.

The snow followed by the heavy rain, may hurt the off-shore fishing through the fresh water flowing into the sea. It always has a bad effect and causes the fish to work away from the feeding grounds that it reaches. Two days will tell the tale, however, and if it doesn't hurt it will mean that the big fish will come along soon.

Gunners should not allow the rain to fool them in attempting to get in a hunting trip this afternoon, as it didn't clean up all the snow. There is still plenty of snow in the country and tracks would be plainly visible.

The netmen of Delaware Bay are catching a few stray weakfish in their nets. This is far out of season, but that section of Jersey seems to be favored with warm weather, and there have been no signs whatever below the Delaware capes, outside of the snowstorm, that seemed to be all at sea and none on land.

LEAL'S FIVE IS KEEN FOR A RETURN GAME

Another Match With Alumni Likely to Be Staged Next Monday.

Although defeated by an overwhelming score in their previous clash with the Alumni, the Leal's basketball team may play another game against the graduate five next Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. gym. Nothing definite has been done toward booking the game, but according to good authority the match will be staged Monday afternoon and the undergraduates venture the prediction that they will even up matters with their predecessors.

The Alumni team is composed largely of the members of the Jewitt family who graduated from the Front street institution, and all of the brothers have had more or less basketball experience on college courts. In the first game the Jewitt brothers proved a big factor in the beating administered to the present day team and should they come together again which now seems likely, the whole Leal aggregation will play the trio of Jewitts.

BASKETBALL RESUMED AT 'PLAINS TONIGHT

Two Good Games Have Been Scheduled After a Week's Respite.

Two games of basketball will be played on the court at the Scotch Plains' Parish House toniht, between the Parish House first team and the Company Cadets, of Somerville; and the Senior Class five and the Mohawk A. C. No games have been played at the Parish House for the last week and the sport will be taken up with renewed activity tonight, as both games are staged between evenly matched teams and both should be close and interesting. The Mohawk aggregation is the same that has been playing the preliminary games to the Ajax at the local Y. M. C. A. every Saturday night and although they have had practically no experience on foreign courts, they ought to be able to give the 'Plains aggregation a good run for the game.

In the main game, the Parish House first team will present its best lineup, with Eugene Lidgate as a floor leader, and if the Parish House players put up anything like the article of basketball they have been exhibiting in recent games, the Somerville five ought to be sent back to the Somerset county seat with the smaller end of the score.

FITZSIMMONS BIG PROTEGE KNOCKS OUT SOLDIER KEARNS

When Bob Fitzsimmons, of Dunellen, picked out Jesse Willard, the Texan cowpuncher, as a coming "white hope" some months ago, the lanky one seems to have ventured a real fact. Because of the right hand knockout blow he handed Soldier Kearns at Madison Square Garden last night Willard looms up as the best material among the present crop of heavies. The terrific punch squarely on the point of the jaw enabled Willard to put Kearns down for the full count in the eighth round. At the conclusion of the bout, which is destined to bring him country-wide fame, Willard said, "I have learned to hit recently, thanks to Fitzsimmons."

AJAX MEETING.

A meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Ajax has been called by President William Peacock to take place at the Y. M. C. A tonight just before the game scheduled with the Summit Y. M. C. A. All members are requested to be on hand promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

QUOITMEN HAD 'EM GASPING AT WINDUP

Nothing More Sensational Than Townley's Last Chance Ringer Toss.

Columbia team won an overtime match at Elizabeth last night in the A. O. U. W. quoit tournament. The teams came into the seventh game with three wins apiece and went after final honors in Turkish war fashion. The Plainfield pair, composed of P. G. Doeringer and Warren Townley, drew first blood when they jumped into the lead by several points, but the county seat aggregation came back and caught the leaders on the back-stretch and made the count 20 all at the call of regulation time.

In the extra minutes Dennis, of Elizabeth, threw a ringer for apparent victory and did not notice Townley who had toed the mark for the final throw. Generally a low an swift shooter, the local man was not considered dangerous in the pinch. He surprised the grand stand, however, with a pretty bulls' eye throw, scoring 6 points for Columbia and securing the final lead by the score of 26 to 20. Doeringer made record tosses during the evening and hard pressed Dennis for individual honors. The locals won two of their four games by a single point margin. The scores were: 10-21, 21-20, 14-21, 21-20, 3-21, 21-8, 26-20.

HOCKEY SEASON OPENS.

Great Fight For Amateur Title In New York Is Anticipated.

The opening of the ice hockey season in New York is looked forward to with much interest by the followers of the game. The Amateur Hockey league will start on Jan. 7, with the Crescent Athletic club, the champions, and the Hockey club as the attraction.

The Hockey league will have a new contestant for this season's championship, and the race for the title will be more interesting than in the previous years. Having won honors in nearly every other sport, the Irish-American Athletic club will be represented this year on the ice by a team that should be capable of holding its own. For years the winged fist club has endeavored to secure a place in the league, but has been unable to do so until this season.

SHIREFF, ONE OF THE CRESCENT STARS.

The club has secured the services of several star hockey wielders, and with Garon, the former Wanderer, to lead them on the Irish-American Athletic club is likely to make the champion Crescent team hustle to retain its hockey prestige. The Irish-American Athletic club will be represented on the ice by the following players: Garon, Mitchell, Kinselia, Baron, Harmon, McDonald, Lapat, Stickney, Bryan, Kelly and Smith.

The Hockey club will also be strengthened by new players from the disbanded Wanderer and New York Athletic club teams. Several of the best players in the league were on the winged foot and the Wanderer teams, and after the clubs declared that they would not be represented in the league this season the star players were quickly signed by the Irish-American Athletic club and the Hockey club. The Hockey club will be captained by J. Gordon. The Crescents will have nearly all their old veterans on the team this year. Neither Shireff nor Lifton has lost any of his speed, and the Brooklynites expect to capture the title again.

GAME CALLED OFF.

The game scheduled to be played at Hope chapel this evening between the Hope chapel and First Presbyterian basketball teams has been called off and unless the Hope managers can book a game before game time tonight there will be no contest at the chapel. The game was called off by the Presbyterian manager because he could not get his men together.

FIVE DOLLARS
Opens the Way to Better Pay

Five dollars, plus your promise to pay the balance at the rate of 17 cents a day, places in your hands the newest model Oliver Typewriter No. 5, our very finest production.

The best advice that can be given to the young man or woman who wants to break into business is:

GET AN OLIVER TYPEWRITER

This offer places at your command a machine that turns time, energy and enterprise into the pure gold of success.

Thousands of ambitious young men and women, with the aid of Oliver Typewriters, have won their way to better pay and broader opportunity. This is the age of mechanical writing. The great world of modern business revolves around the typewriter. Typewriter operators are in demand everywhere. Our employment Bureaus in all the important cities are swamped with calls for competent Oliver operators.

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can quickly learn on your own Oliver Typewriter and qualify yourself for a position. You can make the machine meet the payments while you are doing work just for practise.

Easy to Pay---17 Cents a Day

You doubtless spend more than this amount every day for trifles you do not need.

Thousands have paid for Oliver Typewriters on this plan without the slightest effort. Are you going to let a matter of pennies stand between you and this money-making machine?

Against your risk of $5, we risk a $100 typewriter—the same machine that is used by the greatest firms and corporations throughout the world.

Shall we send you full details of the $5 purchase plan?

Naval Aero Chief Urges Government Laboratory For Work

CAPTAIN WASHINGTON I. CHAMBERS, chief of the navy aviation corps, in his annual report to the chief of the bureau of navigation states that although the aeroplane has not yet arrived at the state of perfection required by all work contemplated for it in naval warfare, it is sufficiently advanced to be of great service in many ways should it be required for emergency use.

Regarding the establishment of an aerodynamic laboratory in New York, which he discusses at some length in his report, Captain Chambers says:

"The status of aviation in the world today may be summarized as follows: The work of establishing aerodynamic laboratories has transported aeronautics generally into the domain of engineering, in consequence of which aviation has reached a stage of development wherein the methods of scientific engineers have replaced the crude efforts of the pioneer inventors.

"Inasmuch as more definite information regarding the actual cost of a dignified and creditable but modest and sufficient installation should be obtained, and as the details of the plan, the scope, the organization and the location of such an important undertaking should not be left to the recommendations of one man, I respectfully recommend that a commission or board be appointed to consider and report to the president, for recommendation to congress, on the necessity or desirability for the establishment of a national aerodynamic laboratory and on its scope, its organization, the most suitable location for it and the cost of its installation."

Working on the assumption that aeroplanes can be carried, stowed and easily launched from all large ships, the latter by means of the catapult recently tested successfully at the Washington navy yard, Captain Chambers has prepared a list of contemplated uses of the hydroaeroplane in actual naval warfare. They are:

"To reconnoiter an enemy's port or to search out his advanced bases and to assist in the operations of a blockaded or a blockading force, to locate and destroy submarine mines, submarine and torpedo boats; to damage an enemy's docks, magazines, ships in repair, sheds and other resources; to provide means of rapid confidential communication between a fleet commander and the commanding officer of a force on shore or the commander of another fleet or division.

"They can be carried on all scouts and large cruisers to extend the eyes of the fleet. They can be carried with ample supplies on board any naval supply auxiliary for scouting advanced bases and use with expeditionary forces."

In response to Captain Chambers' suggestion President Taft appointed a commission on an aerodynamical laboratory, of which Dr. R. S. Woodward, president of the Carnegie institute of Washington and a representative of the National Academy of Sciences, is chairman.

The object of the commission will be to report to the president, for recommendation to congress, on the necessity or desirability of establishing a national aerodynamical loboratory, its scope, organization, the most suitable location for it and the cost of its installation.

In a letter to the president commending the appointment of the committee Secretary Meyer said:

"The construction of air craft among all the leading powers of Europe is now based largely on scientific information obtained at their notable aerodynamic laboratories, and the installation of such a plant in this country is regarded as a necessity to our commercial interests and to the production of safety and efficiency in our air craft."

In his annual report Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, chief of the bureau of navigation of the navy department, pointed out through the delay in establishing an aerodynamic laboratory in the United States there had resulted a waste of time and money.

Albert Naylor, musician, 256 East Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says "Several years ago I suffered from an ache in the small of my back and sharp pains when stooping or lifting. I took Doan's Kidney Pills as I was told that they were good for such troubles and by the time I had finished the contents of two boxes I was feeling better in every way. I have often recommended this remedy to people I have heard complaining of kidney trouble."

INSIDE THE MAGAZINE

Woodrow Wilson's articles on "The New Freedom," begins in the World's Work for January. In these articles the President-elect discloses his political philosophy and the practical means by which, he believes, the Government of the United States may be brought fully into the hands of the whole body of the people in whom, he holds with Jefferson, wisdom resides. The article in the January World's Work is entitled, "The Old Order Changeth." Here Mr. Wilson lays down, as "the one great basic fact which underlies all the questions that are discussed on the political platform at the present moment," the proposition that "nothing is done in this country as it was done twenty years ago." He then reviews the political problems of the day in the light of this proposition, and calls attention to the failure of the Government and of the courts to respond to these changed conditions.

A number of startling articles appear in this month's Wide World Magazine, one of the most striking perhaps, being by a resident of Queensland who describes how he and his companion indulged in "turtle-riding" which he assures us is a most novel and exhilarating sport. The remarkable photographs which accompany the article clearly substantiate his statements. "Adrift on the Ice Floes" relates how two Lake Huron fishermen were driven out to sea on an ice-floe, and for fifty hours battled for life while brave men fought desperately to reach and rescue them. Other good stories and articles are "The 'Wedding-Week' at Pontivy," "Through the Wilds of Asia," "Mountaineering Mishaps," and "Fighting the Rabbit in Western Australia."

Not one of the many publications now being displayed on the news stands is more attractive—inside or out—than the January Lippincott's. From its very striking cover by the Kinneys, to its ever-popular department of humor, "Walnuts and Wine," at the end of the book, there isn't a feature that doesn't demand attention and compel the interest. The novelette is "Tropicania," a stirring tale of love and valor in South America. The man who wrote it—Wilfred Levington Comfort—also wrote those widely-discussed books "Fate Knocks at the Door" and "Routledge Rides Alone," which is a guarantee of the new novelette's literary excellence. Neither in theme nor in treatment does it in any wise resemble the usual run of adventure stories. The plot is fresh and vigorous, and there is the skillful characterization one has been led to expect in Mr. Comfort's stories.

In the Strand Magazine for January Rider Haggard continues his story of Egyptian exploration and romance under the title of "Smith and the Pharaohs." It is as weird and wonderful as anything this writer has yet given us. Excellent short fiction is supplied by E. M. Jameson, "Ole Luk-Oie," C. C. Andrews, Pleydell North, E. Nesbit and other writers. The articles are numerous and interesting. David Devant, the famous conjurer, relates his "Experiences" and incidentally mentions that his first engagement brought him in five dollars while ten years later he received the offer of $90,000 for a year's contract.

F.-P. SHOW TAKING SHAPE.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 28 (Special).—The directors of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition today opened bids for the construction of Machinery Hall, which it is claimed will be the largest exhibit palace ever built. The structure will have a floor area of more than eight acres and will have a length equal to several ordinary city blocks. Great columns, 60 feet in height and 6 feet in diameter, will face the building on all sides. Surmounting the columns will be allegorical figures representing epochs in mechanical history. It is proposed to break ground for the building next Wednesday when a program of exercises appropriate to the occasion will be carried out.

THE ETERNAL SPIDER'S WEB.

The most fragile thing in life—a spider's web—has always stood for the strongest and deadliest—the lure of the siren, the irresistible fascination of an evil personality. Robert Hichens' "Bella Donna" is the kind of woman for whom men ruin themselves. Hence Nazimova's cleverness in dressing "Bella Donna" in a robe of spider's web.

W. M. SANDFORD IS DEAD AT 77

For Nearly Half a Century one of City's Best Known Residents.

OWNED MUCH REALTY

He Travelled a Great Deal Abroad And in This Country, and Knew Much of Places He Visited—Paralysis Caused Death.

William M. Sandford, aged 77 years, one of the best known residents of this city for nearly a half-century, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning at his home at East Front street and Sandford avenue, following several strokes of paralysis. On Christmas Day he joined in a family dinner, it being the first time in many years that all the members of the family were present. During the afternoon he suffered a stroke of paralysis, and became unconscious. He never regained consciousness. He gradually grew weaker, and his death was looked for.

Mr. Sandford was born in New York, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sandford. During his early life he was engaged in the hardware business in New York under the firm name of Sandford Brothers, but after coming to Plainfield he lived a retired life. He with other members of the family owned a large amount of realty in New York, and at various times Mr. Sandford owned considerable property in this city. Associated with the late Jeremiah Manning, he built many fine residences here.

During the early part of his life here he resided on the Sandford farm at Greenbrook, removing to West Seventh street later. For many years he occupied the handsome residence on East Front street. Possessing considerable wealth, Mr. Sandford took a great deal of pleasure in travel both abroad and in this country. He usually spent his summers in Maine and his winters either in the south or in California. His mind was a storehouse of information regarding the countries through which he travelled and he was very fond of describing his trips to his friends.

He had a genial disposition and a faculty of making friends. He was charitable, but bestowed his charity in a quiet and unostentatious way. He was a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and when able was a regular attendant at the services.

Surviving beside a wife are two sons, Charles W. Sandford, of New Mexico; William M. Sandford, Jr., of Crescent avenue; one daughter, Mrs. Pauline Sandford Yule, wife of Captain Edward H. Yule, U. S. A., now at Vancouver, Wash.; also three nephews, Joseph W. Sandford and Frederick Sandford, of this city, and Percy Sandford, at present of New York, and four nieces, Mrs. Henry D. Brewster and Mrs. William J. Roome, of New York; Mrs. Frederick L. Metcalf, of this city, and Miss Emily Sandford, of Philadelphia.

The funeral service will be held at the late residence, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Cresvent Avenue Presbyterian church, will officiate. The burial will be private.

CURRENT EVENTS.

The Women's Current Event Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church will hold its next public meeting in Vincent chapel, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The following speakers will be heard on these subjects: Dr. A. F. Van Horn, "Atypical Children;" Dr. John F. Runnells, of Bonnie Burn Sanitorium, "Treatment of Tuberculosis;" Miss Helen Carol Howes, supervising nurse of Muhlenberg Hospital, "What It Means for Our Girls to Become Trained Nurses;" Dr. Peter B. Cregar, "The Usefulness of the X-rays and Radium," and Dr. H. B. Corbusier, "Orthopedic Surgery."

SANTA CLAUS AGAIN.

Santa was called back to this city Saturday afternoon for the Christmas exercises of the children of St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The exercises were started at the church with a carol service, after which the children went to the Parish House and enjoyed stereoptican views of "The Nativity." William L. Hadley distributed presents to the children. He gave three from the Sunday-school teachers to the rector, Rev. W. E. L. Ward, and the two superintendents of the school, Herbert P. Grant and William L. Hadley.

FRONT STREET CROWD HAD NARROW ESCAPE

If Runaway Had Happened in Daytime Instead of Midnight——!

A horse and cutter belonging to the Central Livery Stable and driven by Leon Harris, of West Front street, broke loose from a hitching post in the Notch Saturday night and proceeded at a breakneck pace down Somerset street, headed for the stables. As the cutter neared the corner of Park avenue and West Front street, David Clarin caught the horse's bridle and brought it to a standstill. The horse was traveling at a terrific pace, and the runaway might have entailed serious injuries to shoppers had it occurred in the daytime. When brought to a standstill by Clarin it was exactly midnight.

Because of the remote country from where the runaway started the driver could not get nito communication with the local authorities, and it was some time before the identity of the horse and sleigh's owners was established.

SILVER JUBILEE AT HOPE CHAPEL

Celebration of a Quarter Century of Religious Work and Growth.

GOES ON 3 DAYS MORE

Three Special Services Yesterday—Crescent Avenue Choir at Sunday School Exercises—Music and History at Exercises Tonight.

The celebration of the silver anniversary of the founding of Hope chapel was inaugurated yesterday, when special services were held morning, afternoon and evening. The Rev. F. L. Greene, the pastor, and the Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the parent church, the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, delivered the morning aand evening sermons respectively.

"Historical Night" will be observed tonight, when a brief account of the history of Hope chapel will be recited by G. Herbert Condict. Among those who will be present to make addresses will be the Rev. Dr. Zelie, Rev. Gilbert Lovell, Rev. Joseph O. McKelvey, Rev. Frederick D. Tildon and the Rev. C. L. Goodrich. The usual watch-night service will be held tomorrow, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day a reception will be held in the church parlors from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Before an unusually large congregation in the morning yesterday Rev. F. L. Greene spoke on "The Work of the Church Today." He told of the good being accomplished for mankind through the organized efforts of the church. He mentioned the gradual growth of Hope chapel, with its religious and uplifting environments, embodying features that draw both young and old.

The excellent program announced for the afternoon service in the Sunday-school attracted 376 members and churchfolk into the room. The primary department, led by Miss Bertha Jones, took prominent part in the celebration. Special music was rendered by the choir of the Crescent Avenue church and words of greeting were said by members of the chapel, including Mrs. S. R. Struthers, William H. Sampson, F. H. Andrews, J. D. Miller, R. H. Munger and I. W. Travell. Mr. Sampson was a member of the committee that selected the present Hope chapel site and took active part in the organization of the various departments of the church.

The evening service was varied and inspiring. Rev. Dr. Zelie spoke on "The Crown of Church Work," and urged that every one do their share in promoting religion and bringing converts to Christ. He said it was not always those who took charge of the big things in the Christian field that accomplished the best results, and added that it was the doer of the smaller things that was needed the most in the religious organizations.

The programs at the various services were as follows:

Morning—Organ prelude, "Noel," Dudley Buck; Doxology; sentences of Holy Scripture, invocation, the Psalter, Gloria Patri, Scripture lesson hymn, "Joy to the World," Handel; the Creed, sermon to juniors, "The Meaning of Christmas;" carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Redner; general prayers, the Lord's Prayer; offertory sentences, offertory anthem, "There Were Shepherds," Vincent; offertory prayer; hymn, "O Come All Ye Faithful;" sermon, Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor; anthem, "Behold, I Bring You Good Tidings," Goss; prayer; hymn, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Willis; benediction and silent prayer; organ postlude, "Hallelujah Chorus," Handel.

Sunday-school—Hymn, "Rejoice! This Festal Day;" invocation and Lord's Prayer; Gloria, Scripture, hymn, "The Wondrous Hope;" prayer, hymn, primary department; offertory, offertory anthem, quartet choir Crescent Avenue church; words of greeting, William H. Sampson, J. D. Miller, H. R. Munger, Stephen R. Struthers, I. W. Travell, F. B. Newman; hymn, "Night of Blessing;" roll call, Doxology, benediction.

Evening—Organ prelude, "Chorus of Angels," S. Clark; hymn, choir; the invocation, hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," Felice de Grardine; Scripture lesson, anthem, "The First Christmas," Bernby; general prayers, offertory sentences, offertory solo, Miss Goddard; offertory prayer; hymn, "Forth From the Dark and Stormy Sky," Hemy; sermon, Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie; hymn, "Still With Thee, O My God," Mason; prayer, response, choir; benediction and Amen, choir; organ postlude, "Marche aux Flambeaux," S. Clark.

The program for "Historical Night" tonight will be as follows:

Organ prelude, anthem, invocation

38 DYNAMITERS ARE SENTENCED

Terms of From One to Seven Years Imprisonment Given By Judge Anderson.

HE REFUSES A STAY

President and Others in International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers to Serve Time for Their Crimes.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Indianapolis, Indiana, Dec. 30.—Counsel for the thirty-eight convicted dynamiters made a motion this morning for a stay of judgment which Judge Anderson denied. The court sentenced Frank M. Ryan, of Chicago, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, to seven years in prison. The cases will be appealed at once.

Eugene A. Clancy, of San Francisco; Michael J. Young, of Boston; Philip A. Cooney, of New Orleans; Olaf A. Tveitmore, of San Francisco; J. T. Butler, of Buffalo; J. E. Munsey, of Salt Lake City, and Herbert S. Hockin, of Detroit, were given six years.

These men were sentenced to serve three years each: Charles M. Peum, of Minneapolis; Edward Smythe, of Peoria, Ill.; F. J. N. Anderson, of Cleveland; H. W. Legleitner, of Indianapolis; M. J. Cunnane, of Philadelphia; M. J. Hannon, of Scranton, Pa.; E. G. W. Basey, of Indianapolis, W. B. Brown, of Kansas City; W. J McCain, of Kansas City; Paul J. Morrin, of St. Louis; W. E. Reddin, of Milwaukee, and M. L. Pennell, of Springfield, Ill.

These men were sentenced to serve one year and one day each: William Bernhardt, of Cincinnati; William Shupe, of Chicago; Charles Wachtmeister, of Detroit; James E. Ray, of Peoria; Fred Mooney, of Duluth, and E. E. Phillips, of Syracuse.

P. J. Smith, of Cleveland, and John H. Barry, of St. Louis, were sentenced to four years each.

Frank C. Webb, of New York, was sentenced to serve six years.

The following were held under judgment with sentence suspended: F. J. Murphy, of Detroit; James Cooney, of Chicago; James Coughlin, of Chicago; Frank F. Farrell, of New York, and H. R. Kline, of Muncie, Indiana.

Sentence was suspended upon Edward Clark, of Cincinnati, who pleaded guilty and testified for the Government.

The sentenced prisoners were taken directly from the court room to a temporary dining room in the Federal building, where they were permitted to partake of a farewell dinner with their wives, families and other relatives. At the conclusion of the meal the prisoners were taken to the county jail to await their transportation to the prison at Leavenworth.

FAMILY'S WANT SECURES BRUTAL HUSBAND'S RELEASE

After driving his wife and nine-day-old babe from the house with scant clothing to protect them from the cold, William Knuss, 35 years old, of 619 South Second street, continued raising such a disturbance in the neighborhood Saturday night that Patrolman McIntyre was summoned and placed the man under arrest.

Appearing before City Judge De Meza this morning, Knuss pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct, but received lenient treatment because his wages are needed to support his family. Sentence was suspended under the condition that he take a pledge to abstain from liquor for a period of one year. Mrs. J. W. Case, a nurse who was attending Mrs. Knuss, was the complainant.

FUNERAL OF MISS EVERETT.

The funeral service of Miss Lucy Hill Everett, who died Saturday morning, was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her nephew, James Everett Kimball, on West Seventh street, and was largely attended by friends and neighbors. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue church, officiated. The burial will be in Rural cemetery, West Newbury, Mass., tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

READING ROOM HOURS.

The Circulating Department of the Plainfield Public Library will be closed on New Year's Day. The Reading Room will be open in the afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock with an assistant in charge.

FREEHOLDER ACT WILL BE FOUGHT

Republican Majority Decides to Test Strong Law's Constitutionality.

DENY ITS APPLICABILITY

Meet Again Tomorrow, and Rumors of More Political Jobbery Are Rife —Party Leaders Angry Over Greedy, Buccaneering Tactics.

Elizabeth, Dec. 30.—Backed by the opinions of former Attorney General Robert H. McCarter and former Supreme Court Justice Gilbert Collins, the members of the large county Board of Freeholders have decided to test the constitutionality of the small board act under which the new board of seven members was chosen at the last general election. For this reason the members plan to meet for organization on January 1, just the same as if the new board had never been chosen, and to retain control of the county government until the courts decide otherwise.

Following a meeting of the present large board Saturday afternoon the Republican members went into caucus. The question of testing the constitutionality of the Strong act, under which the new small board was chosen, was discussed, and it was agreed that the members meet for organization next Wednesday.

An opinion was submitted to County Attorney Codington by Mr. Collins. In the latter's opinion the act under which the referendum was had in 1911 and the small board of freeholders elected last November does not apply to counties of the second class. The opinion submitted by Mr. McCarter, who was retained by the Bergen county freeholders, is similar in this respect to the opinion of Mr. Collins. There are other points in the opinion of Mr. Collins which, while they differ in detail from the opinion of Mr. McCarter, give the members of the Union county board of freeholders reason to believe that there is an excellent chance that the courts will declare the Strong small board act unconstitutional. There was considerable sentiment among the Republican freeholders against taking any steps toward testing the legal status of the new small board until the opinion of Mr. Collins was received. This, followed by the opinion of Mr. McCarter, submitted to the Bergen county board, has determined their course.

The Gill act, passed by the Legislature in April of this year, and which is a revision of the Strong act of 1902, and the amended Strong act of 1908, was drawn to cover the defects in the Strong act. The opinions of both Mr. McCarter and Judge Collins do not deal especially with the Gill act because the new small boards in counties of the second class like Mercer, Bergen and Union, adopted the referendum under the amended Strong act of 1908, but it is held that the act of 1908 excluded second class counties from the provisions of the act of 1902 and therefore, when Mercer, Union and Bergen adopted the act in 1911 it adopted an act which did not apply to second class counties.

Already two appointments have been made by the present large board. They are those of County Engineer Bauer and Road Inspector Fink. They were not made on the ground that the small board act is unconstitutional, but under the provisions of a State road act passed at the last session of the Legislature at the direction of State Road Commissioner Stevens.

The new small board will make a fight to oust these two officials, according to John P. Owens, the caucus choice of the new small board for county attorney, by instituting quo warranto proceedings.

The recognition of the old board next Wednesday means that the new small board, which has already selected all the county officials to succeed those now serving, will be kept out of office until the decision of the courts is handed down, which may not be for several months. The new board, however, will meet for organization January 6. It is composed of six Democrats and one Republican. There are fifteen Republicans and five Democrats on the present large board.

When the board met here Saturday afternoon it was expected that the session would be the last and that the body would adjourn sine die. The Republican members decided not only to reorganize January 1, but voted to hold another meeting tomorrow. The object, according to their statements, is to hear the final reports of county officials, but these could have been submitted on Saturday just as well; hence there seems to be some basis for the report that the old board intends to "put one over." Just what the members contemplate doing, of course, is a secret, but that they fig-

FOUR PLAINFIELDERS SUFFER FROM THEFTS

T. C. Smith, Minus $21, and C. L. Ford, Shy a Raincoat, Heaviest Losers.

Four citizens of Plainfield were the victims Saturday night of thieves who succeeded in getting away with chickens, watches, clothing, jewelry and money.

Albert Reeves, of 212 Jackson avenue, was robbed of sixteen chickens during the night. By prying open a kitchen window thieves succeeded in gaining entrance to the home of F. W. Iredell, 615 Madison avenue, and stole a gold and silver watch and $5, all the property of a servant. Although silverware and other valuables were close at hand the intruder left them untouched.

C. Layton Ford, of 207 West Sixth street, left his front windows unlatched. Some versatile weather prophet apparently foreseeing today's rain, decided his old raincoat had reached the end of its period of usefulness, so he quietly raised one of the Ford windows, stole to the hallway and ran off with Mr. Ford's brand new cravenette—a Christmas present. He thoughtfully left his old coat behind.

Prying open a window sash, someone gained entrance to the house at 421 Madison avenue, occupied by T. C. Smith. When Mr. Smith awoke yesterday morning he found $21 missing from his dresser.

ANTI-"LIBERALISM" CITYWIDE PROTEST

Newly-Organized Federation Takes Stand Against More Licenses.

An organization certain to add much to the strength of the Christian forces in Plainfield has just been formed by delegates representing the men's Bible class of twelve of the churches of the city and borough. Yesterday twenty-one men representing fourteen such classes having a total membership of 700 met at the Y. M. C. A. and formed a federation, adopted a constitution, and began to set in operation plans for the accomplishment of the objects for which the federation is created. These are three in number.

First, to interest men in Bible study; second, to aid in the formation of new classes; third, to engage in any work the aim of which is to improve the moral or religious condition of our city. As a preliminary step toward the organization of the first two objects it is probable that a Bible Study Institute will soon be held.

Afer a discussion of the question of work for civic betterment in which the federation might properly engage it was unanimously decided to organize a city-wide protest against the granting of any additional liquor licenses in Plainfield. A committee consisting of Arthur M. Harris, chairman, Alex Millar, John G. McLaughlin, W. T. Schmittmann and I. L. LaRue has been appointed to organize such a protest and to bring the matter before the City Council through a representative. This committee has already had printed and circulated among the men's classes a remonstrance which has been signed by several hundred men voters in Plainfield.

The officers of the Federation are: President, George H. Batchelor; vice president, Dr. F. T. Clawson; secretary, Edgar F. Sheppard; treasurer, Howard McWilliams.

Membership in the Federation is open to any Men's Bible class in the city and immediate vicinity.

CARY-WALKER.

Mrs. Fannie Walker, of 524 West Second street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Sadie Walker, to Andrew Cary, of 628 West Fourth street, both of this city. WANTED BROTHER DECLARED CRAZY

Harold and Reginald Chandor Have Jack Arrested on Arrival in New York.

FREED BY MAGISTRATE

He Says His Mode of Life Doesn't Suit His Family—Latter Once Resident Here, Lives Now in New York.

In the New York World today appears the following, which will be read with much interest by a good many Plainfielders:

"Jack F. Chandor, arrested yesterday morning at the Grand Central Station on his arrival from Denver, faced in the afternoon in Harlem Police Court two brothers who accuse him of insanity. They are Harold A. Chandor, a broker at No: 14 Wall street, and Reginald F. Chandor, who lives with their mother, Mrs. Adeline Dickinson Chandor, in Irvington.

"The arrest was made on a warrant issued Dec. 27 by Magistrate McQuade upon an affidavit by Harold F. Chandor that Jack Chandor proved himself insane by declaring he had visited places where he never had been, by abandoning his wife and child and committing other irrational acts.

"His two brothers were on the station platform awaiting the train.

"'Let's all go to the Belmont for breakfast,' said Jack. He introduced his friend and travelling companion, Benjamin Rothwell, of Denver. After breakfast the party went to Magistrate Freschi's court. Besides the other accusations Chandor was accused by his brothers of being a 'morphine fiend.'

"Jack Chandor, six feet tall, athletic, light-haired, pink-cheeked, acted as his own lawyer and cross-questioned his brothers. Then Brother Reginald admitted that when he occupied the same room with Brother Jack in a Baltimore hotel not long ago he saw no traces of hypodermic needles in his arm. The Magistrate next put Jack Chandor on the stand, and for over an hour riddled him with questions. To each Jack gave an answer that was not only intelligent but self-contained. Rothwell's evidence was that his conduct in Denver was rational.

"The Magistrate declared there was no reason to hold the defendant, because he showed extraordinary lucidity. The two brothers requested that the case be postponed till this morning at 9, when their mother would appear against Jack. Magistrate Freschi consented paroling the defendant in his own custody.

"In his answers to the Magistrate Jack Chandor maintained that he had been in Russia as a child, although his brothers, both of them younger than he, did not know it. Thirty years ago John Arthur Chandor, father of the three brothers, led a strange career, which they appear to ignore. The family lived for years in Plainfield, N. J.

"John Arthur Chandor, son of an English resident of New York, who ingratiated himself with a wealthy Russian nobleman, was born in St. Petersburg. Through the latter's influence, it was said, the elder Chandor received a ninety-nine year contract for lighting the streets of St. Petersburg and Odessa with gas. John Arthur Chandor, spoke equally well Russian, French, German, Italian and English, was an excellent musician, an expert swordsman and one of the best shots in Europe. At Harvard in 1868 he attracted attention by the barbaric splendor of his furs, jewels and equipages.

"Two duels in one morning and numerous affairs with titled women in Europe preceded Chandor's secret marriage in April, 1874, to Miss Adelaide, the eldest daughter of John Dickinson, of Fordham, which took place on the United States ironclad frigate Roanoke, then Vive Admiral Rowan's flagship, on the European station. Horsewhipped in Boulogne-sur-Her for his attentions to other women, Chandor took his wife to Paris, St. Petersburg and New York. It was in St. Petersburg that his eldest son, Jack F. Chandor, now thirty-six, was born and spent his boyhood. In 1877, a year after the boy's birth, Chandor accompanied to Paris Mrs. Ralston, a millionaire California widow, who was said to have loaned him about $125,000 in eighteen months.

"These facts and others concerning John Arthur Chandor became public in 1880, when Mrs. Bloomfield-Moore, a Philadelphia society leader and writer, was sued for libel by John Arthur Chandor after printing in the Philadelphia Press the statement that Chandor had obtained from Mrs. Emily - Schaumberg - Hughes-Hallett £4,000. Col. Hughes-Hallett resigned his seat in Parliament after the affair became public and there was talk of a divorce suit, but the matter was subsequently hushed up.

"John Arthur Chandor always re-

The Borough Council will have its final meeting for the year at the engine house this evening. Bids will also be received for the construction of sanitary sewers on North Gaston avenue, East Cliff street and Warren street. The Council will meet for reorganization at noon on Wednesday, when Councilman Joseph Barras will retire after serving the town and borough since 1907. Mr. Barras withdrew from the race for re-election because of the pressure of private business. He will be suceeded in the new Council by William F. Wright, who is connected with the Somerville Beef Company, and who has been a resident of this place for many years. Lewis A. Bellis was elected to succeed himself. Dr. T. H. Flynn's term as member of the Board of Health also expires at this time, and he will undoubtedly be reappointed. Other appointments to be made by Mayor Steele are borough attorney, clerk, superintendent of fire alarm, superintendent of streets, overseer of the poor, engineer of fire engine, borough physician, poundkeeper, and members of the borough police force. There is one vacancy from the police force which was named last year, caused by the death of Marshal H. W. Koch. Marshals Hanlon, Holmes, O'Brien and Sauter will be reappointed, but the choice for the successor to Officer Koch is still undecided. There are a number of aspirants for the position, including Special Marshal Ramsey, who has been serving during the illness of the late Marshal Koch, and Special Marshal Joseph L. Rina, a recent appointment, and John R. Anacker. Just who will get the position will depend upon who is selected as head of the police committee by Mayor Steele. The outcome of this latter matter is awaited with interest, particularly as the members of the force at the last regular meeting asked for an increase in salary from $70 to $80 per month.

Robert Haver has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Haver, of North Branch.

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE.

Among the appointments which it will be the duty of the incoming Mayor, Percy H. Stewart, to make will be one on the Board of Education, the term of J. Herbert Case expiring. The position is one of exceptional importance—any matter pertaining to the welfare and advancement of the public schools is necessarily so. There is hardly anything more vital in our system of government, as we view it, than the education of the youth of our country. In every community of every county and State, it should be the constant aim to entrust such matters to the men most fitted, experience of course, having considerable weight.

This is our excuse for addressing Mayor-elect Stewart, presenting as we do without the knowledge of Mr. Case, his name as a candidate to succeed himself. Before he became a member of the Plainfield body he rendered invaluable service in a like capacity in North Plainfield, and he has fully sustained his reputation since being placed on the City Board as is testified to by his colleagues. As a banker and as a business man of large affairs, he possesses knowledge quite valuable in the transaction of the work devolving upon directors of public education.

Mr. Case is not a politician; he has never been identified with practical politics. And practical politics, Mr. Stewart will agree, should not enter into the selection or the duties of a member of this or any other Board of Education. We believe we speak for all those who have the best interests of our schools at heart when we say that we sincerely hope our incoming city executive will insure among his first official acts the return of Mr. Case to the position he so admirably fills.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. William Croswell Doane, bishop of Albany, is so well known for his opposition to the cause of equal suffrage that it was naturally to be expected he would say he had no faith in the cause when asked his opinion regarding the pilgrimage from New York to Albany. Those really interested in the cause, however, will share his opinion that those who tramped to the Empire State Capitol are "a band of silly, excited and exaggerated women." Like Coxey's army the marchers gained notoriety but did not command respect. "General" Rosalie Jones recalls Mother Jones and her march.

The Chamber of Commerce has $175 in its treasury to give to those who submit the best plans for the advertisement of Plainfield. A slogan is also wanted and the winning one will bring a reward, too, but none has sent in as yet this one: "Plainfield is made famous by its Chamber of Commerce."

Somerville lost its first citizen when Alvah A. Clark went to his reward. For many, many years the former congressman was a dominating figure in Somerset county and his fame as a lawyer and a man of culture was State wide. As the New Brunswick Home News says he was "a courtly gentleman of the accepted 'old school,' a lawyer of high ability, an earnest friend or a generous foe." His children may well feel great pride in the memory of his useful life.

One of the big problems we expect that Mayor-elect Percy Stewart will discuss in his first annual message is the matter of a municipal system for the collection and disposal of garbage and ashes. For more than a decade, the Board of Health has yearly at least petitioned the Common Council to bring about this much needed improvement, and we look forward to Mr. Stewart to use his good offices to accomplish the purpose.

The ordinance providing for the removal of snow from sidewalks is in need of amendment so far as relates to the amount to be charged up against the householder when the work is done by the city. The rate fixed is so inconsequential that to assess it does not act as a preventive. What is needed is to make the charge so high that the householder will remove the snow within the time limit named in the ordinance.

Those thirty-eight traitors to the cause of Union Labor, who stand convicted as dynamiters and enemies of society, received their jail sentences today. It is unfortunate the whole lot could not be put away for the rest of their natural lives.

Having resorted to every sort of a scheme to force a break between Wilson and Bryan, the enemies of the one or the other have about given up the hopeless task.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Mrs. Lucie Rising will give an illustrated talk on Japan before the Judson Junior Templars at the First Baptist church, this afternoon. A mirrorscope will be used to throw beautiful views on a screen.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Lucie Rising will speak on "Judaism, Orthodox and Reformed." Mrs. Clarence Murphy will lead the devotional exercises.

The regular business meeting of the Men's Association of Warren chapel will be held in the chapel on Friday night at 8:15 o'clock.

Celebration of the Holy Communion will be observed at St. Stephen's Episcopal church Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

The Christmas music of St. Stephen's Episcopal church was repeated yesterday morning. Mrs. Violet Truell-Johnson played several selections on her violin and the rector, Rev. W. E. L. Ward, preached a special Christmas sermon on "Emanuel, Which Being Interpreted Is, God With Us."

PERSONAL.

Mrs. William N. Schneider and her daughter, of Brooklyn, have returned home after visiting Mrs. Schneider's sister, Mrs. Charles D. Clark, of East Sixth street.

Mrs. Arthur McVoy, of West Fourth street, is entertaining her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Shay, of Ridgewood, and their daughter, Rita.

George W. Palmer, of Brooklyn, has been spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Charles D. Clark, of this city.

Charles Walker, of Elizabeth, organist at St. Stephen's Episcopal church, of Netherwood, was entertained over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bolles and daughter, Martha, of Naugatuck, Conn., have returned home after spending several days with Mrs. Bolles' neice, Mrs. Elmer Hummer, of West Eighth street.

LEHIGH AMENDS PLAN TO USE C. R. R. TERMINAL

The Lehigh Valley Railroad has made official announcement that beginning with May 1 next all trains of that road will be run into the Jersey City terminal at Communipaw, and work will be started at once to make necessary junction with the New Jersey Central tracks on the Elizabeth meadows. The announcement confirms unofficial information given out some time ago.

Announcement has also been made that the Pennsylvania terminal at Exchange place, Jersey City, will be abandoned by the Lehigh as a terminus. It is the belief that the West Shore Railroad will run its trains to the Pennsylvania terminus in order to take advantage of the river tube connection at that place, avoiding the long ferrage at Weehawken.

DECRIES EFFEMINATE CONCEPTION OF JESUS

Cannot Command Mature Respect, Says Preacher—Christ Stalwart Man.

"The Man Christ Jesus," was the theme of the discourse by Rev. Dr Philip B. Strong at the First Baptist church, yesterday morning, and in the course of it he said:

"I want to protest against the effeminate conceptions of the Master which are so often given from the pulpit and desk and which have been given us by artists of a certain class.

"Most of us are hero-worshippers to a greater or less degree and such a Christ as is given to most of us in the teachings of our youth cannot command the respect and honor and adoration of our mature manhood and womanhood. If Jesus Christ is God, just as tuly He was man—a poor man, a carpenter, living among rough fishermen and artisans. Had He not been every whit a man, a manly, stalwart man, of muscle and brawn, of fire and mettle, He could never have attracted such types as the impassionate Simon Peter, John, the son of thunder, or Simon, the zealot, nor could a queer, sexless individual have commanded and held the allegiance of women, for women ever admire a manly man. Because He was just this, they and the many others sat at His feet to learn.

"The third chapter of Mark, like many other passages, shows some of the spirit and fire in the make-up of this wonderful man. He hated hypocrisy and in thundering tones and unsparing language He arraigned the Scribes and Pharisees for their falseness. No effeminate Christ would have cleansed the temple of its traffic in merchandise by such a drastic method as He used. Moreover, if Jesus Christ was weak and effeminate, then God must be also, for He is the incarnation of Jehovah, who hates iniquity.

"The gentleness of Jesus, of which we hear so much, was not the gentleness of a baby, who knows nothing but mildness, but the gentleness of restrained strength, for that is what gentleness is. One who can strike the keys of a piano so vehemently as almost to break the strings, can also touch them so tenderly as hardly to be heard. Such was the strength—the gentleness of the Christ. So strong that strong men were attracted by Him, so tender that little children sought Him and were gathered to His breast.

"This wonderful Man who never wrote a book has been the theme of tens of thousands of books; this Man who never painted a picture, yet inspired a Raphael, and a Murillo, and a Hoffman, who never sat in the chair of a legislator, nor was ever hardly out of the confines of His small province, this Man, this Prince of Men holds the univers in His grasp and rules in the hearts of millions of loving, willing subjects today! Surely He was the Son of God."

TENANTS OF APARTMENT HOUSE NIP FIRE IN BUD

Quick action on the part of tenants prevented what might have been a serious fire early last night in the Endress apartments at Front street and Madison avenue. Flames were discovered shortly after 6 o'clock burning briskly at the bottom of a dumbwaiter shaft in the center of the building. The dumbwaiter had been pulled to the top of the shaft during the afternoon and the only food that the flames had upon which to feed was the sides of the shaft.

The fire had reached beyond the first floor before being discovered. A three-inch hose in the hands of several occupants of the building flooded the shaft and extinguished the fire before they had made much headway. What started the fire is unknown. The damage was not great.

BUSY WEEK FOR PARK AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be something doing at the Park Avenue Baptist church every day or night this week. The services will start off with the big jollification of the Sunday-school tonight in the Sunday-school rooms. A Christmas tree, out of town talent and a number of surprises are to be looked for.

Tomorrow night, all the notes held against the church for back debts will be burned at the watch night service. The meeting will be of the old jubilee kind and a social time will follow.

Wednesday night the regular midweek prayer service will be held at 8 o'clock in the church parlors.

The Women's Home Missionary Society will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock.

The Young People's church will be conducted Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Sunday-school rooms.

The choir rehearsal will be held in the church Saturday night, at 8 o'clock.

ure on duplicating on sharpness of tactics the bit of jobbery of two weeks ago when they named Jacob Bauer county engineer and James Fink road supervisor, would not surprise anyone. Incidentally it is said that the Democratic members will not be present.

Members of the Republican County Committee and courthouse officials are not in sympathy with the buccaneering tactics of the old board and freely express themselves privately to that effect. They are known to be opposed to the plan of the holdover ousted Freeholders to meet in January and organize for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the Small Board Act.

The bond of Road Supervisor James L. Fink for $1,000 was furnished by Hiram Fink and accepted by the board Saturday.

O. H. Nye asked the county to reimburse him to the extent of $50 for the loss of a horse which had to be shot as a result of injuries sustained by stumbling on the Morris avenue turnpike near the Canoe Brook Club at Chatham. After some argument the letter from Mr. Nye was placed on file.

The board passed a resolution rescinding a previous resolution which authorized the County Collector to transfer a court account of $6,339.91 to the election account and to transfer an incidental account of $1,847.-11 to the court account.

It was decided to have the County Collector's report printed in pamphlet form at a cost not to exceed $225. The County Collector was also authorized to sell a gold watch and diamond ring found on the body of a man buried by the morgue keeper, and which have been unclaimed.

Elizabeth, Dec. 30.—The seven members of the small Board of Freeholders who will succeed the present board on January 1, were sworn into office this morning before Judge Clarence E. Case, of Somerville, sitting for Judge Edward S. Atwater, who is detained at home by illness. County Clerk James C. Calvert gave the oath in the presence of a large number of county officials, including some of the new office-holders.

The new board, which is comprised of six Democrats and one Republican, the latter being George Otto, of Elizabeth, are as follows: Thomas Hughes and James McCann, of Plainfield; Thomas Pierson, J. Logan Fay, Dennis F. Hennessey and George Otto, of Elizabeth, and Joseph Greer, of Union.

BULGARIA IS WILLING TO MAKE CONCESSIONS

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

London, England, Dec. 30.—After a session lasting a little more than an hour, the Peace Conference was adjourned today until Wednesday. It was learned that the plenipotentiaries of Turkey and the allies had held two private unofficial conferences since Saturday in efforts to reach understandings. Bulgaria, it was said, was the most anxious of the Balkan States for peace, being willing to make concessions to Turkey in order to end the war.

MANY AT RECITAL.

The second monthly organ recital at the Crescent Avenue church Saturday afternoon was much enjoyed by a large audience. The organist, S. Frederick Smith, was assisted by William J. Tallamy, tenor. The program was opened by the "Introduction and Passacaglia," by Max Reger. This number was followed by "Berceuse and Prayer," by Guilmant. A feature number was the "Le Petit Berger," by De Bussy. Other numbers on the program were the "Grand Chorus" by Kinder, "Nuit d'Ete" by Binet, "Vesper Bells" by Lemare, and the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel. Mr. Tallamy's solo was "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death."

WARREN CHAPEL EXERCISES.

Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, gave a New Year's blackboard talk before the Sunday school yesterday afternoon at the Christmas exercises. Joseph W. Gavett, superintendent of the school, presided. Rodney S. Lewis, assistant superintendent, read the scripture lesson and Dennison E. Parvin led in prayer. Among the numbers on the program was singing by the primary department, under the supervision of the Misses Dolly Leisterli and Margaret Swain. The evening services were omitted and the congregation joined in the afternoon exercises. Mrs. J. O. McKelvey presided at the organ.

CRESCENT AVE. MUSIC.

Special music was rendered yesterday morning in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The program included "Adoration," by Guilmant; "While the Shepherds Watched," by Neidlinger; "There Were Shepherds," by Manney, and Handel's "Finale." In the afternoon an organ recital was given in which a cantata, "The Manger Throne" was presented.

PARTY FOR COLLEGIAN.

A reception was given to John White, of Cornell University, by Leonard Church, of East Front street, Saturday night, at whose home Mr. White is spending the holidays. The evening was passed in playing games and several of those present entertained with vocal and instrumental selections. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Miss Vivian Dunn, Miss Florence Neal, Miss Ruth Day, Miss Ruth Stanley, Miss Winifred Steward, John White, Leonard Church, David Smalley, Fred Dickerson, Harold Sharkey and Garthwaite Carman.

REPEATED XMAS MUSIC.

The choir of the First Baptist church repeated its Christmas music last night before a large congregation which enjoyed the various anthems by the choir; also the solos by Miss Elizabeth St. Ives, soprano; William Holmes, baritone; George Smith, tenor, and especially the beautiful contralto solo, "The Virgin's Lullaby," by Mrs. Annabelle Dickey.

MINING COMPANY ELECTS.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the San Bartolo Mining Company was held today in the Babcock building and the following directors were elected: E. W. Henck, W. de La R. Anderson and George L. Babcock. H. J. Forristel was elected treasurer. After the stockholders' meeting the board of directors met and elected the following officers: President, E. W. Henck; secretary, H. J. Forristel.

DIED IN SANITARIUM.

James Crotty, aged 64 years, member of the firm of P. Crotty & Co., paper and twine merchants, of 135 Wooster street, New York, died yesterday at a private sanitarium on Clinton avenue, South Plainfield. The body was taken to his New York home for interment.

The Bamberger Half Yearly Furniture Sale Began Today

An Occasion of Incalculable Importance to the People of New Jersey.

The first great half yearly movement of the new Bamberger furniture store started on its successful way today. In many respects this is one of the most unique and interesting and profitable sales ever held by an American store.. The Bamberger furniture department has been open but ten weeks, hence the merchandise is above criticism. We have no undesirable pieces or any old stock. What we offer during our first great sale is new and good and of absolutely reputable make. We do not carry cheaply made furniture, and we do not handle freakish or undesirable pieces. Our furniture has been chosen with discriminating care and exquisite taste. Bamberger furniture is consistent—faithful—sturdy. Even at regular prices our furniture values are admittedly the best in Newark. During this sale, which lasts until January 31st, we are going to reduce prices ten, twenty, twenty-five and in some instances, fifty per cent. Think what is means to you! The great Bamberger store is going to establish a new and greater sales record and you will reap the benefit. Every piece of furniture in the store (restricted lines excepted) bears a reduced price tag. Nothing is reserved. If you do not need furniture for immediate use, look to the future. Such values as these may never again present themselves. Take advantage of the present opportunity.

WORLD'S BIGGEST OFFICE BUILDING PLANNED FOR SITE OF EQUITABLE STRUCTURE BURNED A YEAR AGO

New York, Dec. 30.—Plans have been filed for a structure to take the place of the Equitable building burned a year ago. Work will be commenced as soon as the debris from the fire is cleared away. The new building will cost about $13,000,000 and it will be built on a site recently sold for $13,500,000. The building will be thirty-seven stories high and will be the biggest in the world, having more than 1,100,000 square feet of floor space. It will cover an entire block and will have two arcades on the ground floor, practically dividing it into four sections. There will be forty-six public passenger elevators, and any concern occupying two or more floors may have its own private elevator.

RAYMOND POINCARE TO BE A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

Paris, Dec. 30.—Premier Raymond Poincare, yielding to the insistence of friends in the senate and chamber, has consented to be a candidate for the presidency. The members of the senate and of the chamber of deputies, meeting as the national assembly at Versailles on January 17, will choose a successor to President Failieres.

SCIENTISTS TO MEET.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 30 (Special).—Two thousand or more scientists of note, representing virtually all of the great institutions of learning on the American continent, assembled in Cleveland today to discuss the progress of science during the past year. They meet under the auspices of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, one of the oldest scientific organizations in the western world. The association embraces about thirty affiliated societies, all of which are to hold meetings during the week. At a dozen different meeting places papers will be read and addresses delivered on discoveries in physics, chemistry, mechanical science and engineering, mathematics and astoronomy, education, zoology, botany, anthropology and psychology, geology and geography, physiology and experimental medicine, and social and economic science.

PHI DELTA THETAS MEET.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30 (Special).—The Phi Delta Theta Greek letter fraternity began their biennial general convention in Chicago today, with headquarters at the Hotel La-Salle. Several hundred delegates are in attendance and an elaborate program has been prepared for their entertainment during the week. Phi Delta Theta was founded at Miami University in 1848 and with one exception it is the largest of the Greek letter societies in point of membership. Among the prominent men included among its members are the late President Benjamin Harrison, ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, former Secretary of State John M. Foster, and William Allen White, the Kansas editor.

PRESIDENT TO RECEIVE.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30 (Special).—Arrangements for the annual New Year reception at the White House next Wednesday await only the approval of the President and Mrs. Taft for completion. So far as is known there will be no innovation introduced at the reception, which will follow closely the precedent established by the custom of many years. It is expected that the function this year will attract an unusually large crowd, since a recent statement attributed to President-elect Wilson has been construed to mean that the time-honored reception may be abolished altogether.

CALLAHAN MURDER CASES.

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 30.—The first of the cases growing out of the assassination of former Sheriff Ed Callahan, the Breathitt county feud leader, is to be called for trial here this week before Judge James M. Benton, of the Clark circuit court. There are fifteen defendants and each has applied for a separate trial. It is expected that Ansbury McIntosh, who is accused of being the ringleader in the plot to kill Callahan, will be the first one tried. Judge Benton has issued a warning that any attempt to bribe or intimidate witnesses will be followed by an immediate indictment.

MAY CHANGE ITS NAME.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 30 (Special).—The Music Teachers' National Association met in annual convention here today as the guest of Vassar College. The sessions will continue several days. Among other things the convention will consider and act upon a proposition to change the name of the organization to National Musical Association.

PRESENT AT LUCKNOW RELIEF.

London, Dec. 30 (Special).—Lieut. General Sir George B. Milman, who participated in all of the important engagements in the Indian Mutiny and was present at the relief of Lucknow, celebrated his ninetieth birthday anniversary today. He retired from active military service nearly fifty years ago.

LAWMAKERS TO ELECT GOVERNOR AND SENATOR

Concord, N. H., Dec. 30 (Special).—When the New Hampshire legislature assembles day after tomorrow the lawmakers will face one of the most puzzling situations in the history of the State. As soon as they have organized for business they will be called upon to select a governor to succeed Governor Robert P. Bass, whose term is about to expire. In the November election none of the candidates for governor polled the majority vote as required under the constitution, and the choice of the governor therefore devolves upon the Legislature. In addition to selecting a governor the Legislature will name a United States senator to succeed Senator Burnham, whose term will end next March.

Whether Democrats or Republicans will be selected for the two high offices to be filled by the legislature is a matter that cannot be foretold with certainty. The Legislature is apparently Republican by a narrow margin. The Progressives, however, claim forty-one of the Republican members, and are pledged to act independently. This gives them the balance of control, and leaves the result in doubt.

The senatorship is the problem in which most interest is manifested. The avowed Republican candidates are former Governor Henry B. Quinby and Rosecrans W. Pillsbury, editor of the Manchester Union. Henry F. Hollis and Clarence E. Carr are the Democratic candidates for the senatorial toga. Governor Robert P. Bass is regarded as a receptive Progressive candidate. Many look for a deadlock over the senatorship.

The problem of the governorship is expected to present fewer difficulties in its solution. In the election of November 5 the Democrats made sweeping gains and all but succeeded in landing their candidate for governor, Samuel D. Felker, of Rochester. Mr. Felker had a substantial plurality, but under the constitutional provision requiring a majority of the votes the election was thrown into the Legislature. In making their selection the lawmakers will be required to vote for one of the two leading candidates at the election, Felker, Democrat, or Franklin Worcester, Republican. As Felker received the plurality of the votes cast at the election it is believed that any of the Progressives will feel it their duty to vote for him. Governor Bass, leader of the Progressive Republicans, has gone on record as favoring Felker over Worcester, the choice of the regular Republicans.

DUPLEX METAL WIRE IS SUBJECT OF HIGH PRAISE

The Chester Times has the following to say of the product of the Duplex Metals Company:

"It is gratifying to know that our fire alarm system, which is one of the most up-to-date installations in the country, is entirely equipped with copper clad steel wire, manufactured by the Duplex Metals Company, of this city.

"The Beacon Light Company, of this city, also is now using large Copper Clad wire for its lighting circuits.

"This wire, with which it seems the entire city will be equipped, not only for fire alarm and lighting service, but also for telephone work, possesses many advantages of interest to every citizen interested in city affairs.

"The copper coating welded to a steel core prevents the wire from rusting and affords ample conductivity while the steel core furnishes the strength.

"The high strength of the wire, which is much greater than copper, insures against those wire breakages with which we are so familiar, that plunges the city into darkness and often results in injury to pedestrians and animals.

"The importance of having such a wire as Copper Clad in service has been recognized by many municipalities where it is now in service and the general adoption of its use throughout the entire country is a recognized assurity."

NEW YEAR'S EVE IN HOTELS.

New York, Dec. 30 (Special).—Seeing the old year out at the big New York hotels promises to eclipse all previous celebrations, for the arrangements completed at all the well known hostelries along Broadway and Fifth avenue. The reservation of tables has been going on for weeks, and every available inch of space is reported taken for tomorrow night's gaieties. Music and cabaret entertainment will enter more largely into the festivities this year than ever before.

REMEMBERS IROQUOIS FIRE.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30 (Special).—The customary memorial exercises were held today to mark the ninth anniversary of the burning of the Iroquois theatre, December 30, 1903, when 600 persons, mostly women or children, were trampled to death or suffocated in the flames.

TRANSIT PRIVILEGES.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30 (Special).—At the quarters of the Interstate Commerce Commission in this city a series of hearings was begun today on the general subject of transit privileges accorded by railroads to shippers.

tained his residence in England and his British nationality. The boys, Harold and Reginald, were born in Berlin and London respectively. In 1887 Mrs. Chandor and the three children went to live in Plainfield, N. J."

Mrs. Adeline Dickinson Chandor and her children resided on East Ninth street, this city, from 1887 to about four years ago, when they removed to New York. The family was rather well known about the city, the children being more or less prominent in the younger society set. Jack F. Chandor spent much of his time away from home, but Harold A. Chandor, Reginald F. Chandor, Roland Chandor, together with a daughter, Miss Alys Chandor, who has since married, lived at home. Roland Chandor, the youngest of the children, was killed in the Westfield wreck. The other sons were active in local athletics, Harold being a member of the Alis Club which promoted baseball and football. The family always liver in good style, indicating an ample and steady income.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beekman, of East Fifth street, are spending the holidays with Mr. Beekman's parents at Highland Park, New Brunswick.

MONEY KING IS QUESTIONED.

Pujo Money Trust Probers Examine Into Morgan's Business.

J. P. Morgan, one of the richest men in the world, was personally under an inquisition as to his business relations recently, and the public had a pretty clear view of high finance machinery. This occurred at the sessions of the Pujo money trust investigating committee of congress. Although Mr. Morgan was not shown up as a pirate and it wasn't made possible to prevent or change the financial giant's affairs, some startling things were learned.

For instance, Mr. Morgan admitted that 180 men had virtual control of about $25,000,000,000. He admitted that there existed virtually a trust on money credit, and he admitted that probably a state regulation of the Stock Exchange would prove a mighty good thing for the public at large. The picture shows Mr. Morgan and the building in which he conducts his billion dollar deals.

Gift Cow For President.

This is the new White House cow, or, rather, it will be after March 4 next. It is Nona of Avon, the best milker in Iowa, where they raise some of the finest cattle in the country. Nona has been selected by the William Galloway company of Waterloo, Ia., as a present for President Elect Wilson. It is guaranteed that there will be no water in Nona's milk even if she does hail from

PRESIDENT'S GIFT COW.

Waterloo. Yes, dear reader, that is a joke. Nona is valued at $5,000, as you can see that she is some cow. Thus is how William Galloway, president of the company, explains his gift:

"I thought that since Iowa is a great agricultural state it was only right that that state should contribute one of its best dairy products to our chief magistrate."

NOVELIST MAY SUCCEED REID

Thomas Nelson Page Mentioned For High Position.

Following President Taft's decision not to name a successor to the late Whitelaw Reid as ambassador to the court of St. James, Thomas Nelson Page came into the spot light as a probable choice. It was widely mentioned that Mr. Page would receive appointment to the big diplomatic post at the hands of President Wilson.

Mr. Page is one of America's foremost men of letters. His work, to a large extent, has been with the south as his theme. "I have tried," he said recently, "to heal the breach between the north and the south with my stories." Mr. Page was born in Virginia in 1853. He was educated at Washington and Lee and at Yale.

SNAPSHOTS OF LA MODE.

How the Paradise Plume Is Used This Season.

The latest whim in paradise plumes favors the use of a few strands instead of a full sweep. These scanty paradise trimmings are very graceful when perched upright on the edge of the brim or at the base of the crown.

A striking costume is of black and white. The white satin skirt buttons down one side and is draped on the other with black velvet. With this is worn a black velvet coat gathered slightly into a high waist belt.

This tailored shirt waist includes all the new features of the season, the set in sleeves and the overlapped edges. In the illustration it is made of linen and

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

NUT SWEETMEATS.

DAINTIES for the Christmas dessert, for the children's stockings or to fill fancy boxes often presented as Christmas souvenirs are in demand at this season. The most delicious sweetmeats may be made with nuts. Almonds are considered especially suitable for the more delicious and expensive confections sold in the shops.

Choice Confections.

Chocolate Almonds.—Take a pound of almonds and blanch them by pouring hot water over the meats. Allow them to stand for a few minutes; then replace the hot water with cold, rubbing off the skins from the nuts. Melt sweet chocolate in a dish over boiling water; then dip in the meats, one at a time.

Lay the dipped almonds on oil paper and when they are dry dip a second time.

Carameled Almonds.—Take a cupful of sugar and a quarter of a cupful of water and boil to the caramel stage. When it has reached the right condition pour in a few drops of lemon juice. The sirup should not be stirred after the sugar has dissolved. Blanch some almonds and heat them without browning. Drop these nuts, one at a time, into the cooked sugar without stirring and then lift out on oiled paper. Should the sirup become too cold reheat it and if it is too thick add a few drops of water and cook it again.

Toothsome Nougat.

Almond Nougat.—Take a quarter of a pound of gum arabic and soak in a cupful of cold water for several hours; then boil until clear. Strain and add a pound of confectioner's sugar. Cook in a double boiler until it is thick. Then beat light, add the white of an egg beaten to a stiff froth and beat these together until light and stiff. Flavor with vanilla and stir in two cupfuls of blanched and chopped almonds. Mix well, pour into shallow oiled pans and when nearly cold cut into squares or bars. Wrap each piece in oiled paper and pack in tin boxes to keep fresh.

French Nougat.—Take half a pound of shelled almonds, blanch and cut each almond into eight long strips. Spread these on a pan or paper and place in the oven to dry. Put two-thirds of a cup of granulated sugar in a saucepan and stir carefully over the fire until it is a light brown; then add the almonds, which should be taken right from the oven. Mix and pour into a well oiled pan. Cut into strips.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

A feature of unusual interest at the Century theatre, New York, where "The Daughter of Heaven," is in its fourth month, is the entertainment furnished by Frank R. White, the one man orchestra who controls the Hope-Jones Unit Orchestra, recently installed by the Liebler Co. Hitherto in all theatres, the music discoursed between the acts of the performance has been regarded by the public as the accompaniment to conversation rather than as an important part of the play they have paid to see. At the Century, however, the admirable selections from "Pagliacci," "La Boheme," "Tristan," "Tanhauser," etc., which are interpreted with such effect by Mr. White, have commanded silent attention. Invariably when the curtain falls on the last act of "The Daughter of Heaven," Mr. White is surrounded by hundreds of interested people who have lingered to satisfy their curiosity and wonder as to how it is done. On several occasions it was only the imperative "Lights Out" of the manager that dispersed the patrons.

A typical holiday bill, teeming with all the good things that modern vaudeville can supply, and topped by Florence Roberts in J. Hartly Manners' playlet, "A Woman Intervenes," is the offering at Proctor's Fifth Ave. theatre for the week commencing tomorrow afternoon. The act has been presented herabouts many times, and has never failed so far to pass critical muster. Also in evidence is Little Lord Roberts, singer and dancer, who, despite his twenty-four years, only weighs fifteen pounds. Gertrude Vanderbilt and George Moore will make their reappearance in a series of dancing and song creations. Others listed to entertain are: Ed. F. Reynard, ventriloquist, in "A Morning in Hicksville;" Teschow's Cats, well-trained felines; Bogart and Nelson, the Four Rianos, Olive Briscoe and William Roehm's Athletic Girls, whose contribution consists of a series of athletic feats.

Year-End Clean-Up of USED PIANOS
And Player-Pianos

If Santa Claus failed to bring you a Piano on Christmas you now have an opportunity to select from a very large assortment of excellent instruments at very small cost and on the easiest possible terms of payment.

We have assembled the used instruments taken in exchange during the holiday business, and a number of Pianos used as samples on our floors.

The variety to select from ranges all the way from the artistic Sohmer, Vose, Chickering and Shoninger Pianos down to other upright instruments at $60, $95 and $100.

There is also a fine collection of Player-pianos at remarkably large reductions. All of these instruments have been gone over thoroughly by our repair experts, and put in the best possible condition.

A very small cash sum and easy monthly payments afterward are all that is required to select from this interesting assemblage.

CITIES WANT LAW CHANGED.

Bozeman, Mont., Dec. 30 (Special).—A movement to secure the repeal or modification of the State law limiting the bonded indebtedness of municipalities was launched here today at a conference of mayors of the leading cities of Montana. The claim is made that the limitation of the bonded indebtedness causes the cities to issue warrants upon which they are required to pay a much higher rate of interest.

We aren't specialists in just making clothes for men whose figures are excellent—we're specialists also in making clothes to make men look excellent whose figures aren't—that's the acme or sartorial art.

To those who never seem to secure just what they wish in overcoats and suits we tender a cordial invitation to examine our winter stocks of woolens—a trial order will prove the excellence of our work.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Philosophical Phelix Says:

HUNTING SEASON CLOSES TOMORROW

Lack of Snow, Good Dogs and Fine Gunnery Have Resulted Disastrously.

The hunting season closes in this State tomorrow at sundown. The game and game birds protected from then until next fall are the quail, partridge, pheasant, squirrel, rabbit, prairie chicken, wild turkey, gray and English snipe, rail birds, reed birds, mud hens, woodcocks, and all shore birds and snipe. This leaves only the wild water fowl in the unprotected list.

The season has been an unusually long one because of the lack of snow, and the damage done to the supply of game cannot be repaired for years. In many places, where quail have been known to escape the season's hunting, the farmers claim that they have been exterminated. English pheasants have suffered because of the ability of trained dogs to locate them and the increased proficiency of the gunners.

The fish and game commissioners will make heroic efforts to get a new supply of game for the next season, but they have grave doubts as to their ability to do so. States that in former years permitted the export of live game have closed their doors against the practice, and the supply must come from breeders. The stock at the State game farm will not be available in time for November 1 of next year.

In the meantime an effort will be made by a body of sportsmen to place a closed season on quail for three years by persuading the Legislature to enact a law to that end.

BRYNIARSKI ACTS AS TONIC ON HIS TEAM

Jumps Into Fray and Spurs Listless Players to a Last-Minute Victory.

After watching his team put up a slow and uninteresting exhibition of basketball against the Summit Y. M. C. A. Saturday night, Captain Brynarski, of the Y. M. C. A. Ajax, went into the fray during the last few minutes of play and inspired new life in the team. The four supporting players responded so thoroughly to his spur that the team came out ahead by the score of 31 to 26.

The local aggregation displayed none of the aggressiveness and all around basketball ability which has characterized their work in previous games but were contented to let the visitors remain in the van until the last few minutes of play, when the shifts were made. Buckle was relieved by Brynarski, after he received an injury to his leg, and Peacock went back into his old place at forward after playing the pivot position during the early part of the contest.

Summit completely outplayed the local team from the start until the final two minutes of play and even then their work was of top notch order, but the Ajax came through with an almost superhuman spurt which in the end netted them victory by three spectacular goals. Time and again the visitors passed the ball up and down the floor without an Ajax man touching it and they could invariably make their shots count from any angle. Peacock was the mainstay of the local five Saturday night and his ability to cage the ball was what kept his team in sight. Six field goals were his evening's contribution and two of these he pushed in when the ball was thrown up between him and his opponent by the referee.

NEWLY ELECTED CHAPEL MANAGER WANTS GAMES

At a meeting of the Hope Chapel basketball team Saturday night, George T. Leighs was elected as manager of the five for the remainder of the present season, succeeding Arthur Grisley, whose time is pretty well taken up with his High School managership. Mr. Leighs was manager of the Hope Chapel team during the successful season of 1911-12, and he has already started a revision of this year's schedule.

The Hope team has been playing rather irregularly during the present season and their games have been somewhat few and far between, but the new manager promises a good game to be played in the Chapel gym every Saturday night and will have a complete schedule published in the near future. Mr. Leighs is desirous of getting into communication with any fast amateur team of this vicinity and will receive all communications at his home, 714 West Fourth street, Plainfield, N. J.

DOUBLE BILL TONIGHT AT THE PARISH HOUSE

Teams of Two Sexes Will Play on the Scotch Plains Court.

Basketball will hold forth at the Scotch Plains Parish House tonight, when two speedy games are scheduled to be decided, a feminine game between the Nonpareils, of this city, and the girls' five of the Parish House, and a boys' game between a team from this city and the first team of the Parish House. The girls' game promises to be an unusually interesting tussle as the teams are evenly matched. While the girls from Plainfield outweigh their opponents to some extent, the home team will make up for this deficiency by their familiarity with the 'Plains' court, where they have been practising regularly in preparation for the game.

In the boys' contest some of the choicest basketball material in this city will trolley to the little town where the popular indoor game has secured a great hold and they should be able to give the strong Scotch Plains aggregation a run for the winning honors. The home team is one of the heaviest set of amateur basketball players in this vicinity but their opponents tonight will be made up of both Y. M. C. A. Ajax and Hope Chapel players who, although light, can give a creditable account of themselves on any floor.

The teams will lineup as follows: Nonpareils—Miss Ida Hummel, Miss Helen Hummel (captain), forwards; Miss Mildred McAuliffe, centre; Miss Elsie Debele, Miss Clara Smith, guards. Scotch Plains—Miss Ruth Hatfield, Miss Helen Southard, forwards; Miss Edith Jahn, centre; Miss Sadie Lee, Miss Emma Elliot, guards.

Plainfield—T. Heron, J. Heron, forwards; Glover, centre; McNamee and Nash, guards. Scotch Plains—Lidgate and Thompson, forwards; Marsden, centre; Bettman and Hatfield, guards.

MISUNDERSTANDING KEEPS CO. M AND 'PLAINS APART

Owing to a misunderstanding between the Company M basketball team and the Scotch Plains' Parish House five, in regard to the court on which their scheduled game was to be played, the two teams failed to come together Saturday night. The Company M players expected the 'Plains' players to play on their court at Somerville and after waiting for some time concluded that their opponents did not intend to put in their appearance and a scrub five was gathered together to put on an exhibition. The same idea prevailed at Scotch Plains and as a result no game was played by the first team at the Parish House.

PLAINFIELD FIVE FALLS BEFORE RAVENING TIGERS

A basketball team, known as the Plainfield Five, was defeated in a close and well-played game at Rutherford, Saturday night, by the Tiger A. C., of that place. Although the score stood a tie the greater part of the game, the home team was able to cage two neat field goals in the last few minutes of play which put them in the lead by the score of 30 to 26. The local team was greatly handicapped by the slippery condition of the floor, which made it exceedingly difficult for the players who were unaccustomed to the slow floor, to get started. Suction soled shoes greatly aided the Tiger five who are a set of the fastest basketball players in and about Greater New York.

The Plainfield aggregation lined up as follows: T. Ricketts and Coyle, forwards; J. Ricketts, center; Cassin and Naylor, guards.

MOHAWKS CAPTURE FAST, CLOSE GAME

Scotch Plains Parish House Five Nosed Out by Three Points.

In one of the fastest games of basketball played in the Scotch Plains' Parish House gym this season, the Mohawk A. C., a quintet of players from the local Y. M. C. A., nosed out a 21 to 18 win at the expense of the Senior Class five of Scotch Plains. Both teams put up stellar exhibitions of teamwork and shooting and although the Mohawk players had never seen the 'Plains' court until Saturday night they were able to find the basket ten times to their opponent's seven.

In the final half the home lineup was greatly strengthened by the substitution of Hooker, in the place of Anson, and during that half the new player scored seven of his team's eighteen points. For the visitors, Gunzelman occupied the center of the limelight getting five field goals, while Moulton placed himself in line as a runner up with an additional trio.

TAYLOR PUTS IT ALL UP TO MGR. GRISLEY

P. H. S. Leader Seems to Be Stumbling Block to League Opening.

Manager Carrol Taylor, of the North Plainfield High School basketball team, is desirous of getting into communication with Arthur Grisley, the Plainfield High School game booker. Taylor is particularly anxious to get the Interscholastic basketball league under way and it seems that the city High School manager is clogging things by his lack of active co-operation. It was at first thought that the N. P. H. S. boys were responsible for the delay but the boroughites appear to be the only ones pushing the project at the present time and if the other two schools had co-operated with Taylor, the schedule might have been started by this time.

When asked about the league yesterday, Manager Taylor had the following statement to make:

"The North Plainfield team is particularly desirous of getting the basketball league started but as yet I have been unable to get into touch with Art Grisley. When school is in session I can communicate with him, but during vacation all efforts to get him started have been unavailing. As far as N. P. H. S. is concerned, the league could have started during the holidays but if the managers cannot be brought together to draw up a schedule nothing can be done as far as competition is concerned. I would be glad to hear from Manager Grisley at any time and I will make it a point to see him and draw up a schedule at once if he will notify me."

From the present state of affairs it seems as though all the criticism that has been handed out to the N. P. H. S. manager about the cancellation of the game with P. H. S. last Saturday afternoon is totally uncalled for, as P. H. S. had nothing to do with arranging the date in the first place and Manager Taylor was never assured in a business-like way that the P. H. S. team would be on hand.

COLOR LEAGUE TEAM BEATS CO. K IN A SLOW CONTEST

In a loosely played game on the Y. M. C. A. court Saturday night the Company K basketball team fell before a picked team representing the Senior department Color League by the score of 14 to 13. Both teams played indifferent games and the shooting and passing were eccentric which was to a large extent due to lack of practice. Many easy shots were missed by both contestants and the playing was uninteresting because of this fact.

LEAGUE MEETING CALLED OFF.

The meeting of the Sunday-school Baseball League which was called for last Saturday night to close up the business of the past season was called off because a quorum did not put in appearance. President Robins was on hand but announced that the meeting would have to be held at some future date.

SIGNS LIFE CONTRACT.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 30 (Special).—Marty O'Toole, the $22,500 pitcher of the Pittsburgh baseball club, was married today to Miss Rose K. Kefernan, of Saxonville, near this city. The wedding took place this morning in St. George's church, Saxonville. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Bermuda.

K. OF C. POOL TOURNEY.

In the Knights of Columbus pool tournament, which is now well under way, Hurley and Greenwood are scheduled to meet at the lodge rooms tonight. The game will be called at 8 o'clock.

NEW YEAR'S SHOOT.

The Independent Gun Club will hold a shoot for turkeys, chickens and ducks on New Year's Day on the club's grounds on Maple avenue. It will be a sweepstakes event.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE AT MONROE AVE. CHURCH

A "miscellaneous evening" will be held tomorrow night at the Monroe Avenue M. E. church. At 8:30 o'clock sandwiches and coffee will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society and a general social time will be held until 9:45, as a prelude to the watch-night service, when a symposium on the subject of "Our Goal For 1913" will be given. The five-minute addresses on the subject will be given by Edward H. Beekman and Blanchard E. Randolph, for the Sunday-school; J. R. McCormick and N. Mansfield Smith, for the Epworth League; C. B. Lawson and Mr. Cook, for the church; Mrs. J. C. Pierson and John J. Praed will speak on the other societies of the church.

Following this a fifteen minute prayer service conducted by William T. Schmittman will be held. At 11 o'clock Walter M. McGee will deliver a short address on "The Call of a Reasonable Service," at 11:20 sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and at 12 o'clock, the "Happy New Year Circle."

Muslin Underwear
Represents the Biggest Feature
In Our Great White Sale

WE KNOW we are not the only house holding a muslin underwear sale. Muslin underwear sales in the month of January are almost as numerous as snowflakes in a blizzard. WE DO KNOW, however that every item in our sale is unmatchable—and OUR GUARANTEE goes with this statement—this covers fullness of garments, quality of materials and trimmings, character of workmanship and numerous other minute details, such as buttons and buttonholes, no raw seams, but all felled and every other good point that goes to make up perfect muslin underwear. In the reading of muslin underwear sales, these factors are frequently overlooked by the buying public, but WE CONSIDER them highly important, for WE KNOW they are the things which make up the value and character of a garment and that THEY ARE FAR MORE IMPORTANT than all the newspaper print that may be indulged in.

While our sales in the past have afforded very unusual values and given us an enviable reputation, this sale we feel sure, owing to its astonishing scope, excellent qualities and remarkable values, will go on record as the most extraordinary muslin underwear distributing event that Newark has ever known.

MISS KENNEY'S CHARMING DEBUT

Guests From Many Cities Attend Her Coming Out Reception.

MANY HANDSOME GIFTS

Which Include a Profusion of Flowers—Music by Orchestra—Dinner Follows Reception, and a Dance Follows Dinner.

Miss Frances Marie Kenney, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Kenney, of Rockview avenue, was formally introduced to society at a charming reception given at her home yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Despite the stormy day there were 150 guests present. Among them were friends who came from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Washington, Richmond, Atlantic City, Paterson, Newark, Jersey City, the Oranges, Elizabeth, Somerville, Bound Brook, Albany, Trenton, Princeton and New Brunswick to congratulate Miss Kenney on her coming out.

Mrs. David T. Kenney and Miss Kenney were assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. F. Clare, and Mrs. Lynn W. Thompson, of New York; Mrs. Ignatius Daily, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. W. H. Williams and Mrs. A. G. Hooley, of Plainfield.

The young women assisting were Miss Beatrice Ridder, Miss Julia Barter and Miss Gertrude Heely, of New York; Miss Kathryn Agnew, of Paterson; Miss Kathleen Holly, of New Brunswick, and Miss Helen Besler, of Plainfield, all being classmates of Miss Kenney at Maplehurst School, New York.

Miss Kenney wore a gown of white charmeuse and white chiffon and she carried Killarney roses. Mrs. Kenney's gown was of brocaded velvet with chiffon and charmeuse and trimmed with Carric-ma-cross lace. The debutante was the recipient of a large number of floral and other gifts. The parlors were filled with beautiful flowers.

During the hours of the reception there was a delightful musical program furnished by an orchestra, which added much pleasure to the affair. Following the reception, an elaborate dinner was served to the receiving party and a few friends to the number of about thirty, and this was followed by a dance to which a large number of young people were invited. The festivities continued to a late hour.

Miss Kenney is a favorite in a wide circle of friends, a great many of whom were present yesterday to congratulate her and also to extend the greetings of the season.

EAST END TAXPAYERS IN MOOD FOR SOCIABILITY

Owing to the inclement weather the election of officers by the East End Taxpayers' Association was postponed at the meeting at the home of E. W. Hughes, 1218 Columbia avenue, last night, until Thursday evening, January 9.

President R. Newton Crane appointed the following committee to provide for the good and welfare of the association at its next meeting which will be held at the new club house, 243 Leland avenue: E. W. Hughes, chairman; George York, Truman Sharpe, Benjamin Davis and W. R. Way. The committee will hold a special meeting at the Queen City Hotel, Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when they will discuss ways and means for entertainment of the members.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. E. W. Hughes summoned the members into the dining room where she served refreshments.

BROKE HER LEG BY FALL ON AN ICY PORCH

HEADS OF DEPTS. TURN IN REPORTS

Statements of Work Done and Money Expended During the Year.

SOME POLICE RECORDS

Commissioner and Committee Detail How City Thoroughfares Have Been Kept up—Tree Commission Criticizes Short-sighted Owners.

The annual reports of the various city departments were presented at the final meeting of this year's Council, last night, a summary of which will be found hereinafter. They were filed according to the usual custom. Mr. Mygatt offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the publication in the official newspapers of the city of the annual report of City Treasurer W. F. Arnold and the printing of 250 copies in pamphlet form.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported a total of 279 permits granted during the year, representing a total value in buildings of $1,345,818. Following the transaction of all business of the evening, the minutes of the meeting were read and approved, thereby officially closing the city's affairs for the year 1912.

Some idea of how the city's business was conducted during 1912 in the important departments may be obtained from excerpts from the various reports, as follows:

HOW CITY'S STREETS HAVE BEEN MAINTAINED

The summary of the Street Committee's annual report follows:

STREET REPAIRS;

The streets receiving the principal grading and repair work this season were the following: Park avenue, at the southerly end; East and West Front streets; Watchung avenue; East Second street; East and West Fourth streets; East Fifth street; East Seventh street; Prospect avenue; St. Mary's avenue; West Seventh street; West Eighth street; Plainfield avenue; South Second street; West Third street; Manson place, and McDowell street.

Many complaints have been received this year, as usual, in regard to the condition of the sides of streets which are only macadamized for a width of 16 feet in the middle.

This construction answers very well for thinly settled districts, but as soon as the increase of buildings calls for driving on the dirt sides, it is entirely inadequate.

The Town of Westfield is setting an excellent example in road construction, the macadam on most of the newly improved streets covering the entire space between the gutters, which are generally paved with brick or concrete. When the work is done in thinly settled districts only the center of the street is macadamized at first, the idea being that the pavement will need resurfacing by the time the street is built up, and that this repair work will then be done at the expense of the town, and the sides will be macadamized at the same time at the expense of the property owners. It is evidently unfair to repair the dirt sides and gutters on some streets with stone at the expense of the city, and on other streets to macadamize the full width of the roadway and assess most of the cost on the abutting property owners.

Numerous openings were made in the brick pavement this year for sewer connections and by the public service companies. These openings are repaved by the street force and the cost of the work is paid by the individuals or companies making the openings. With the exception of a number of spots needing repair, the pavement is now in good order.

The macadam pavements with bituminous binder in top course constructed during the past few years, are proving satisfactory and are the only macadam pavements which seem able to meet the demands of modern travel.

A number of streets to which attention has been called in previous reports as being in need of substantial repair, have not yet been attended to, owing to lack of funds.

DUST PREVENTIVE WORK.

In dust preventive work there seem to be three general classes of material: 1st, light oils, which are applied as easily, and are almost as clean as water, and which only last a month or two on busy streets; 2d, heavier oils, which are more trouble to apply, but last nearly a season, both of these being good dust-absorbers, but the latter help to form a greasy mud on much traveled streets in wet weather; 3d, tar or asphalt preparations, which soon harden and prevent the formation of dust and also preserve the macadam, but on which dust gathers to some extent.

SURPRISE FOR HOLLY; PUT UNDER PROBATION

Court Accepts Suggestion of Lawyer and Gives Him Another Chance.

Elizabeth, Dec. 31.—John I. Holley, of Plainfield, charged with obtaining under false pretences and by means of a spurious check an overcoat valued at $30 from W. Epstein, of Plainfield, and also with embezzlement of a motorcycle from William P. Johnston, of Plainfield, yesterday morning pleaded non vult to both allegations and was placed on probation in the personal care of the probation officer by Judge Clarence R. Case, of Somerset, in the Court of Common Pleas. Judge Case is sitting during the illness of Judge Edward S. Atwater.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees represented the defendant and suggested that he be placed on probation in order that he might be given a chance to accept some employment in which he will have a chance to live a better life. The court took the suggestion of the attorney for Holley and suspended sentence, putting Holley under the personal charge of the probation officer.

BENJ. FRITTS SUFFERS RELAPSE

Benjamin Fritts, of 919 West Fifth street, who underwent an operation at Muhenberg Hospital early in the month, is in a somewhat serious condition. He insisted on returning home a short time after the operation, and the trouble was aggravated to such an extent that he was obliged to return to the hospital.

NO RUSH IS EXPECTED

Gradual Growth in Business is What Postmaster Looks for—Warns About the Use of Special Stamps and Other Rules.

Postmaster E. H. Bird and his corps of assistants at the local postoffice are prepared for the inauguration of the parcel post service tomorrow morning. While Mr. Bird does not anticipate any great rush of fourth class matter which will come under the parcel post system, he will be fully prepared to handle any amount of business that comes to the office.

Arrangements have been made to engage horses and wagons and additional men to deliver packages if the amount of business warrants. Otherwise the regular carriers will deliver the mail matter. If necessary Mr. Bird will engage substitute clerks to handle the business in the office.

In speaking of the new service today, Mr. Bird desired to emphasize the importance of acquainting the people with the fact that only the special parcel post stamps can be used to send such packages, that the address of the sender must be placed on the package. The new stamps are printed in red and bear different pictures illustrating the various branches of the service, such as the rural carrier, the automobile, steamship and railway mail service and the

ANOTHER WARNING FROM PISCATAWAY

"Carry out Sewer Plans at Your Peril" Township Tells City.

Residents of Piscataway Township, in a petition to the Common Cuncil at its final meeting of the year, last night, entered a vigorous protest against the proposed plans to locate a sewage disposal plant on the Darling farm in that township, and warned the city that if they attempted to carry out its plans it would do so at its peril. The signers set forth in their petition that the successful carrying out of the project would prove a great detriment to property interests, with no adequate return, and they declared that they would oppose the plan to the very last step. The communication was referred to next year's Council.

Councilman F. L. Holt, reporting for the special sewage committee, performed his last act as a city official, when he submitted the contract prepared under the direction of Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, which must be approved by Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen. Mr. Holt stated that the committee had reached an agreement as to the plans, cost of maintenance, etc., and submitted the contract for approval. He urged prompt action so that the matter could be put in the form of an ordinance and permit North Plainfield and Dunellen to go ahead with their part of the plan. The matter will be taken up by the new Council at an early date.

INSPIRATION AT CHAPEL MEETING

Messages From Other Charges at Hope's Silver Anniversary Exercises.

DR. RICHARDS RECALLED

Rev. Mr. Goodrich Tells How His Consideration Was Shown When Chapel Was First Projected—Historical Sketch by Mr. Condict.

Special services, a continuation of the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the founding of Hope chapel, held last night were featured by greetings, good music and an address by Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church. The greetings were delivered by Rev. Gilbert Lovell, a returned missionary from China; Rev. Joseph O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, and the pastor of the mother church, the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie. The messages carried good cheer from their respective charges.

The address by Rev. Mr. Goodrich was delivered on behalf of the churches whose pastors are members of the Plainfield Ministers' Association. He recalled reminiscences of the chapel's beginning and spoke of the inspiring way in which it was inaugurated. The late Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, as pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church a quarter of a century ago, consulted with the other congregations in the city, the speaker asserted, in order to discover any possible objection to the founding of this their outpost of the church. The idea of Dr. Richards as to the "property rights" between the churches was illustrated at that time. Before the Crescent Avenue's great leader saw the practical realization of the founding of Hope chapel he satisfied himself that no other ecclesiastical body had intentions of building in the West Fourth street district and that the property owners in the vicinity had no objections to the building of a chapel in the neighborhood, said the speaker. While considering his call to this city Dr. Richards investigated the possibilities of branching out and establishing "colonies" of the Presbyterian church in the ten outlying sections of the community.

Rev. Goodrich declared that the Hope chapel people in their loyalty and appreciation of the "mother church" have forgotten the fact that Hope chapel has been of great service to the Crescent Avenue church. It was unique, the speaker said, that although the movement has reached such proportions Hope chapel was still allied to the Crescent Avenue body and is earnestly keeping it with it. However, as the speaker praised this condition he warned against being too closely connected and asserted that a church could not do its full share as an agent of God's forces until it was independent. The speaker, in conclusion, spoke of the increased zeal of the Chapel worshippers through the twenty-five years and prophesized a great sucess for the chapel.

G. Herbert Condict followed with a historical sketch of the chapel, which is given in full.

Tonight the usual watch-night meeting will be held in the chapel at 10:30 o'clock. The service will consist of the singing of old hymns together with a short address by the pastor, Rev. Frederic L. Greene. Opportunity will also be given for words of greeting or testimony.

Mr. Condict's historical sketch was as follows:

"Many years ago there stood at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, Plainfield, a small one-story building, which was used as a church by a German congregation.

"This building was rented and afterwards purchased, by the Crescent Avenue church, and in it on Nov. 30, 1884, the first session of Bethel Sunday-school was held.

"The Sunday-school having outgrown this building, it was decided to erect a new chapel, and then the question arose as to what should be done with the old structure. The members of the session had half made up their minds to give it to anyone who would move it away, but it occurred to one of the elders that it might be better to slide it off bodily, down to the other end of town, beyond Plainfield avenue, where at that time there was nothing resembling a Sunday-school, and see whether there might not be a few children to attend it. So the building was put on rollers and moved down through the streets, to its present location and perched upon new foundations, on ground once occupied by a saloon.

"Notice was sent around to the people living in the neighborhood that a Sunday-school would be opened, inviting all to be present at the first session. The school was called "Hope," because as yet there was nothing in sight but Hope.

"Several items which appeared in the minutes of the Session of Cres-

SWAN SONGS BY RETIRING SOLONS

D. W. Taylor Highly Pleased to Have Served City 4½ Years.

TOLLES ALSO PLEASED

After 16 Years of Service, President Welcomes Chance to Stay Home and Get Acquainted With Family—Mr. Holt's Observations.

President Ralph I. Tolles and Councilmen Duncan W. Taylor and Frank L. Holt, retiring members of this year's Council, were given an opportunity at the final session of that body, last night, to say a few words in severing their connection with the Council. John E. Dunn, the fourth retiring member, was not present.

Mr. Taylor expressed his pleasure and satisfaction at having been able to serve the city for four and a half years. While there were times when affairs did not seem to run smoothly, on the whole, he thought real progress had been made. Mr. Taylor referred to the important sewer matter under way, which he did not think should require more than two years to complete; and touched on the progress made in the fire department, recalling that a new auto apparatus had been purchasd, a new building code adopted and provisions made for the safe storage of gasoline.

Mr. Tolles, the oldest member of the body, who holds the record for longest service, having been a councilman sixteen years and honored with the presidency for eight years, thanked the members for their uniform courtesy and kindness to him. He said that he had some regrets in severing his connection with the Council, but on the other hand he would now have a chance to stay at home more and get acquainted with his family. Mr. Tolles felt sure that progress had been made during the past year and he believed that it would continue; that the new Mayor would take an active interest in the city government, and that the new Council would work in harmony.

Mr. Holt said that he was very glad to add a word to what had previously been said. He considered the past four and a half years he had served in the Council an education. When he had heard people talk in a loose way about the city government, he said he felt that it would be a distinct benefit if more people could have a chance to serve as councilmen. It was hard to please everyone, and with limited means it was impossible to provide all the improvements desired. One thing he felt sure of and that was that all the members had done their best.

Recalling two of the past four years, Mr. Holt said that they had been full of important matters not yet completed. Thus much was left to be done by the new Council.

Mr. Mygatt, speaking for the other remaining members, extended best wishes to the retiring members and wished them all a Happy New Year.

MRS. A. G. MAXWELL GOES TO HER REWARD

Mother of Mrs. W. A. Garrigues Passes Away After Lingering Illness.

Mrs. Annna G. Maxwell, widow of Ebenezer Maxwell, and mother of Mrs. William A. Garrigues, of Watchung avenue, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the latter after a lingering illness. She was born in Philadelphia and always lived there until a few years ago when she came to Plainfield to make her home with her daughter. She was a member of one of the oldest Philadelphia families.

Mrs. Maxwell was a communicant of Grace church and when her health permitted was an attendant at the services. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William A. Garrigues and Miss Eleanor Maxwell.

The funeral services will be held at the late home Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, will officiate and the burial will be in Philadelphia.

STYLE AND SR RELIABILITY

ROTHBERG'S New Year's Message

With the arrival of the New Year, comes the customary resolutions, together with wishes of happiness, and new born hopes for the future.

We admire the spirit of thoughtfulness towards others which is so evident at this time, and I, too, wish everyone "A Happy New Year."

But merely WISHING for it or HOPING for it, will never bring anyone the least bit of happiness.

Hopes and wishes are words found only in the Lexicon of the Weak.

To attain Happiness you must work for it yourself. Say that YOU WILL make the New Year free from care and worry—don't merely HOPE that you will. This is my New Year's Message.

January Clearance Sale

WILL COMMENCE ON

Thursday Next, January 2nd, 1913

and we intend making it the Greatest Sale Event of its kind in the history of this store. It will be and will include all Winter Stocks now on hand. The time has arrived for us to clean house, as it were; inventory taking will soon be here and we want as small stocks as possible to have to list; also we commence with the New Year cleaning up in preparation of the new spring season, making room for the new goods which will begin to arrive soon, and this is our means of doing it. We have to reduce the prices and radically too in most instances at a heavy loss to us; still we know that this is imperative to an up-to-date clean stock to start the spring with, and gladly accept that loss.

HOPE CHAPEL MEETING

cent Avenue church will prove interesting.

"Nov. 16, 1884—'Elders Squires, Pierson and Sampson were appointed a committee to look over the field and make the necessary investigations as to the practicability of establishing a Sunday-school in the west end of the city.'

"March 2, 1885—'Reported unfavorably and committee discharged.'

"March 7, 1887—'Elders Squires and Sampson were empowered to procure a plot of ground near Liberty and Third streets, at a cost not exceeding five hundred dollars.'

"Sept. 13, 1887—'Committee reported having purchased a lot costing nine hundred dollars, and that it would cost one hundred and fifty dollars to move the old Bethel Mission building, and one hundred and fifty dollars more to put it in order.' The report was approved.

"The above is all the official history of Hope Chapel, up to the organization of the Sunday-school, but that brief record is a condensed report of much hard labor and earnest prayer. The outlook up to this time had been very discouraging, but from the moment the old building found a resting place on the new foundation, everything seemed to change and hope quickly gave way to realization.

"At the time the old building started on it's devious journey, no one had any positive knowledge that more than one family would attend the first service, but while the foundation was being dug, one member of the committee met in the trench a company of eight or ten boys. He asked them if they knew of any person who would attend that Sunday-school, and more than half the number said they were coming. That member of the committee went home perfectly satisfied, thanking God that there was now a reasonable certainty that there would be at least five scholars on the opening day. The policy announced by the superintendent at that time has been faithfully adhered to during all of Hope Chapel's subsequent history, viz: 'A place where all, without regard to wealth or social station, would be welcomed to a participation in the blessings of the gospel.'

"The Sunday-school was started January 1, 1888, with three officers, five teachers, twenty-seven scholars and four visitors, making an attendance the first Sunday of thirty-nine, and this in spite of a most discouraging storm and mud knee deep. So heartily was the new enterprise endorsed by the residents in this section of the city, that on the fifth Sunday the record showed an attendance of one hundred.

"For two years and a half there was, in addition to the school session, but one service on Sunday, which was held in the evening, beginning January 15, 1888. Sunday morning service was begun November 23, 1890. The first communion service was held December 14, 1890, and forty-five persons joined the church at that time.

"As far as the records show up to the present there has been no interruption in either of the three Sunday services (morning, afternoon and evening) except the omission of the morning service in the summer of 1909, during Mr. Howard's illness, and of the Sunday-school session on Christmas or Easter, when a combined service of the home and chapel schools has been held at Crescent Avenue church. During July and August, 1912, the Sunday-school session was held at 9:30 a. m., instead of 3 p. m.

"Within six months of the opening of the old building, the room was so crowded that an addition was started to be shortly followed by another and still another, until up to date there have been twelve extension, including the bowling alley, gymnasium, church building, storehouse and kitchen.

"In this connection the following extracts from the minutes of the session of Crescent Avenue church are interesting:

"Dec. 12, 1889—'Elder Squires presented the need of more room for Hope Chapel.'

"June 9, 1890—'Resolved that it was the sense of the session that an addition be made to Hope Chapel.'

"March 3, 1891—'Elders Squires and Lovell were appointed a committee to confer with the trustees in regard to another extension to Hope Chapel.'

"May 17, 1892—'Elders Lovell, Squires and Andrews were appointed a committee to make necessary arrangements for securing a bowling alley for Hope Chapel.'

"Sept. 26, 1898—'The session approved the appropriating of the Van-Derveer legacy of $5,000 for the building of a church edifice for Hope.'

"Sept. 30, 1900—'The pastor reported that he had received a gift of $1,000 from a gentleman, who did not wish his name to be known, this gift to go toward the erection of a gymnasium at Hope Chapel.'

"Oct. 3, 1900—'A joint meeting of session and trustees was held in reference to erecting a gymnasium at Hope Chapel.'

"Jan. 23, 1901—'The amount of money to erect the new gymnasium having been pledged it was voted to advise the trustees to go ahead with the construction of the building.'

"There are a few dates connected with the church building which should be recorded as follows:

"The church building was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on Dec. 31, 1899.

"The mortgage on the church was burned at a service held on April 14, 1902.

"The church organ, a memorial to Mr. Squires, was first used at a service on Nov. 17, 1907.

"Highest in love and esteem of chapel members stands the name of Mr. Henry C. Squires, who was appointed the first superintendent, by the session of Crescent Avenue church on Oct. 3, 1887, and who held that office continuously until his death on Oct. 15, 1906, after over nineteen years of faithful and devoted service.

"His loyalty to the school was attested by his constant and punctual attendance, in all sorts of weather, even while residing for a time in New York City.

"He was a loyal friend and counselor, especially to the young men and boys of the Chapel, many of whom, now well along in life's journey, take pleasure in recounting the many instances of his wonderful devotion and self-forgetful assistance at trying and critical periods of life, and many owe to him their first glimpse into life which is eternal.

"To him, more than to anyone else, Hope Chapel owes it's beginning and the great work accomplished by it through these years.

"Following the death of Mr. Squires, Mr. Ira W. Travell, assistant superintendent, assumed charge of the Sunday-school, until Mr. H. Raymond Munger was appointed superintendent on Nov. 18, 1906. Owing to poor health, Mr. Munger was obliged to relinquish the office and was succeeded by the present superintendent on Feb. 17, 1907.

"Mr. Munger will always be considered a member of the school, as he was one of those who aided most effectively Mr. Squires in his efforts for many years. He was the teacher of a class of young men and women on the first Sunday and for years carried on that work and afterward a large class of men with pronounced success.

"The school has had four assistant superintendents.

"Mr. Fred H. Andrews was the first, holding the office, with the exception of a few months, from Jan. 1, 1888, until Feb. 7, 1899, when he was transferred by the session to the superintendency of the Warren Chapel school. He, too, was one of Mr. Squires able lieutenants and made possible the fruition of that desire for a Sunday-school in the West End. It was through his efforts that the singing was made such an important feature in the school. He was the first leader of the music and speedily the school earned for itself that reputation for effective and whole-souled singing which it has always possessed. It was with pleasure that he was welcomed back as a teacher of a class of young women and leader of the music on Feb. 9, 1908.

"During Mr. Andrews' tenure of office, he was called away for a time in the summer of 1894, to other important work, and Mr. Fred B. Newman assumed the duties of assistant superintendent. Mr. Newman's connection with the Chapel began early in its history, when he was seventeen. He first became assistant librarian and then took charge of a class of six boys. He says himself that 'it was like trying to ride a buckin broncho,' but he hung on and finally the class numbered twenty-five, and out of it came the Young Men's Association. His energy and lively interest in all that goes to make up the life of young men and boys made him most successful in his work and those attending the Chapel at that time look back on his connection with pleasing and grateful remembrances.

"On the transfer of Mr. Andrews to Warren, the session appointed Mr. Ira W. Travell assistant superintendent, an office which he held until he moved to Morristown Sept. 1, 1909. Mr. Travell's earnestness and executive ability, combined with his experience with teachers in the public and High Schools, rendered his services of the utmost value to the Chapel and one and all regretted that his duties elsewhere prevented his continuance in office.

"Mr. Travell was succeeded by Mr. J. H. Manning, our present assistant superintendent, who was appointed on Nov. 2, 1909. Mr. Manning, who is an elder in the First Presbyterian church, came to the office peculiarly well fitted for its duties, owing to his long and varied experience in Sunday-school and Y. M. C. A. work, and his warm love for his Christian activities and his genial manner make him beloved by all.

"The Chapel has been particularly fortunate in the pastors who have ministered to the spiritual welfare of the people during these years.

"The pastorate of Rev. G. Kennedy Newell was begun Sept. 1, 1890, and continued until Sept. 1, 1901, when he removed to a charge in Brooklyn. Hope Chapel was his first charge after graduation from Union Theological Seminary.

"During his connection of eleven years with the Chapel work, Mr. Newell endeared himself to the members, as well as to the dwellers of the whole of the West End, by his quiet, but fearless and persistent efforts for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God in their midst. Starting in with a comparatively small Sunday-school, he built up a strong organization, which when he left comprised within itself a church having 350 members and a school of 560, together with all of the other additional societies, clubs and associations, which enter into the life of an active parish.

"Rev. Lawrence R. Howard, coming direct from Union Theological Seminary, was installed Oct. 1, 1901, and resigned Oct. 1, 1910. For nine years Mr. Howard worked earnestly and faithfully in this field, winning the love and esteem of all who knew him, seeking with loving sympathy those to whom he might be of assistance in any way, never sparing himself in his indefatigable zeal. Many are those who owe to Mr. Howard the incentive to begin a new and better life.

"Rev. Frederic L. Greene, the present pastor, preached his first sermon at the Chapel on March 5, 1911. Mr. Greene came to the Chapel after several successful years of experience in the ministry, having had three charges since his graduation from Auburn Seminary in 1902. Under Mr. Greene's able leadership the work in all departments is going forward with increased activity and all are looking for greater and quickened interest in every direction in the future.

"Volumes could be written about the work of the various Chapel organizations, which have [illegible] a great and effective in[illegible] in so many different channels.

"The Sunday-school has been marvelously blessed throughout its history and now is making good strides forward with the numerous departments, including the Cradle Roll, Beginners', Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior, Adult and Home Departments.

"A Sunday-school Association has been recently formed, for the purpose of getting young and old together five or six times a year for an evening of entertainment and hospitality.

"The Ladies' Aid Society has accomplished much in furnishing the Chapel with such needed accessories, as window shades, carpets, chairs, Bibles, the church organ, and has in addition, contributed largely for charitable objects. The Society was organized June 8, 1890.

"The Ladies' Missionary Society, founded April 26, 1894, has kept up the interest in Missions and has contributed to charitable objects.

"The Relief Committee, started almost as soon as the Sunday-school, has proved itself one of the most important organizations, having performed its office quietly and effectively.

"The Y. P. S. C. E., organized June, 1890, has rendered valuable assistance in holding the interest of the young people in church work and the Junior Society, first organized in 1892, has accomplished the same for the children, although it has not had a continuous existence.

"There have been several circles of King's Daughters during the existence of the Chapel.

"Girls' and Women's Clubs have carried on social and industrial work and the present organizations are most flourishing.

"Clubs, Leagues and Associations have been legion for men and boys and have varied in scope and activity. At present there is lively interest in the Junior Boys' Club, the Boys' Club, the Young Men's Club, the Men's Club and the McWilliams Bible Class Association, covering in their membership over one hundred boys and men.

"The Ways and Means Committee has accomplished a great work in securing funds for the church music and choir and in caring for the physical needs of the Chapel, acting under authority from the Board of Trustees of the Crescent Avenue church.

"The Excursion Committee is another permanent committee, having had in charge the many successful summer excursions.

"The many successful fairs, socials and entertainments, which have been held in the Chapel, have made of it a center of hospitality in the West End and have assisted in rendering it a power for good in the community.

"At a meeting of the session, held Sept. 11, 1888, 'it was voted to open Hope Chapel every night of the week,' and since that date the doors have seldom been closed in the evening.

"Many well known and beloved names will come to the minds of those who have attended the Chapel during the past years, of men and women who have given of their very best in the enterprise, who should be mentioned in this historical review, but when it is remembered that only by the devoted co-operation of members who have labored faithfully in the 'rank and file' without particular notice or official title, has it been possible to accomplish such great things, it will be realized that it would occupy the whole evening to refer even incidentally to the devotion, earnestness and indefatigable zeal which have been shown by the individual members of the Chapel—men, women, boys and girls—as well as by those from outside who have been interested.

"And so having glanced backward in a cursory and general way only, over the doings of a quarter of a century of bright achievement, we look forward with faith and courage to even greater accomplishment to come, thanking our Heavenly Father for His loving kindness in permitting us to be fellow laborers with Him, in this broad field of His Kingdom."

C. L. JAEGER RECEIVES PRIZE FROM FORESTERS

Court Plainfield, No. 1144, Independent Order Foresters, held a busy session last night. Two applications for membership were received and six candidates were initiated. It was decided to hold the annual ball in Sebring's Hall on Monday night, January 20.

Under the good and welfare, Charles F. Jaeger was presented with a gold prize, offered by the Court to the member who secured the greatest number of applications for new members during December. A smoker followed the business session.

Happy New Year!

GREETINGS!

As provided by the charter, the municipal year begins tomorrow and it will witness a change in the administration of the public affairs. After serving the taxpayers faithfully and ably for the last two years, George W. Moy retires from the Mayor's chair and Percy H. Stewart takes his seat. To the outgoing city executive we can only repeat what we have asserted time and again in these columns, that his administration has been productive of much good to the municipality. There has been a better and more effective enforcement of the laws and ordinances—and by that we mean all of them, not some of them—and there has not been favoritism shown in any department or in the transaction of the general business of the city. Moreover, economy has ever been his guide. Plainfield needed just what it obtained in the administration of Mr. Moy and it is better today because he has been Mayor.

To the incoming city executive, Mr. Stewart, the Daily Press extends its greetings, with the sincere wish and expectation that his administration of the public's affairs will be most successful in every way. So far as lies within its power, this paper pledges its hearty co-operation and support to him, having faith in the man and feeling sanguine that his career in office will be an honored one. It is pleasing, indeed, to observe that no sooner did he receive his certificate of election than he set about to familiarize himself with the detail work of every department and to acquaint himself with the minute history of the public business during recent years. This is an evidence that he proposes to give his best to the city and that it will profit by his work. He is under obligation to none and will always strive for the city's interests with no entangling alliances. Mr. Stewart, we wish you unbounded success!

PARCELS POST "DON'TS."

The Government's parcels post system comes as a New Year's gift to the American people. For the instruction of the local public, this digest of "Twenty Don'ts" as compiled by the Newark Evening News is of sufficient importance to be reproduced:

1. Don't seal a parcels post package against inspection. It cannot be mailed.

2. Don't use regular postage stamps. They are useless on parcels post mail. Get the right stamps.

3. Don't forget to put your own name and address on the outside of the package, preceded by the word "From." Otherwise it will not be sent.

4. Don't forget that all merchandise is parcels post matter, whether it weighs four ounces or eleven pounds.

5. Don't send books or other printed matter by parcels post. They are not in that class.

6. Don't send perishable matter such a long distance that it will spoil in time of transit. What's the use?

7. Don't send perishable matter unless or until you are sure it is adequately stamped. It will be "held for postage."

8. Don't place parcels post matter in a mail box. It should be delivered in person to a postoffice clerk.

9. Don't send a parcels post package until you know into what "zone" it is to go. The amount of postage required depends as much upon the "zone" as upon the weight of the package.

10. Don't put letters or other material of a "higher class" in with parcels post matter. The package is chargeable at the rate of the "highest class matter" enclosed.

11. Don't mail perishable goods without marking the package "perishable" in bold letters.

12. Don't mail fragile goods unless securely packed and marked "fragile" in bold letters.

13. Don't forget that parcels post matter can be insured, but cannot be admitted to the registered mail. Insurance for $50 may be obtained by adding 10 cents postage and filling out an "insurance tag" in person.

14. Don't think that because a package weighs only an ounce in excess of eleven pounds that it is mailable. It is not.

15. Don't mail a package that measures over 72 inches in combined length and girth at its thickest part. It can't be accepted.

16. Don't attempt to mail intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons or pistols. They are excluded.

17. Don't forget that parcels weighing over four ounces or less are mailable regardless of distance. The rate is one cent an ounce or fraction thereof.

18. Don't forget that parcels weighing over four ounces are mailable at pound rates.

19. Don't forget that a fraction of a pound is considered a full pound.

20. Don't forget that you can get maps, guides and rate tables of the parcels post from the chief clerk of the Postoffice Department at Washington. They cost 75 cents.

It is difficult to understand how the present Board of Freeholders are going to benefit by instituting proceedings to test the constitutionality of the laws providing for the small Board which was elected in November to assume charge of the county's affairs next week. Are the present members mindful of the fact that the Legislature to convene next month will be Democratic and that it can be depended upon to remedy any defects in the amendment in question? The law could be validated months before it is probable that an opinion could be handed down by the courts as to the soundness of the election.

Ralph I. Tolles retires from the public service after sixteen years of usefulness. Eight of his last years as a member of the Common Council were spent as presiding officer of that body and his honorable record in that position was marked by fairness and impartiality. The taxpayers owe him a debt of gratitude and he retires with the satisfaction of knowing that they appreciate this obligation.

And so you see, despite all the official talk to the contrary, the newspapers were right when they printed months ago the news that the Lehigh Valley was to enter the Jersey Central terminal. The Lehigh's change from the Pennsylvania to the Jersey Central to get into New York will be made on May 1.

And Councilmen Frank L. Holt and Duncan W. Taylor should not be overlooked when giving thanks to retiring public officials for their good works. These men gave valuable time and rendered splendid service as city fathers. Would that they had consented to continue as servants of the people.

Note that Postmaster General boasts of eggs sent to San Francisco and back to Washington safely by parcels post. Umph. We've seen some that could be shipped across the continent in a mail bag.

Good thing for Vice Chancellor Garrison that votes for women and recall of judges are not parts of our Constitution, for yesterday he judicially announced that $1 or $1.10 is enough to pay for corsets.

Of all the press agent stories ever put over on a high class newspaper the one in the New York Times concerning an alleged boom for J. J. Hill for Secretary of Agriculture, is entitled to first prize for the year.

As tomorrow, New Year's day, will be a holiday, the Daily Press will not be published.

PUBLIC MEETING IN BORO ON NEW SCHOOL QUESTION

The project of a new school in North Plainfield for the elementary grades and the remodelling of the Somerset school building into a first-class High School is receiving some opposition in the borough because of the expense involved. At a meeting of the Board of Education last night Allan B. Laing, one of the members, reported a number of informal protests from citizens, and a resolution was adopted to hold a public meeting in the Somerset School Thursday night to discuss the feasability of adding to the borough schools. Members of the North Plainfield Council will be present and enter into the proceedings in an official capacity.

The suggestion advanced by Councilman William J. Buttfield at the last meeting of the Council, that some arrangement be made to have the Plainfield Board of Education take care of the Borough's High School pupils, will also come up for discussion.

KOONS A VICE PRES'T OF JERSEY CENTRAL

Plainfielder is Also Made Freight Traffic Manager of the Road.

New York, Dec. 31.—Official announcement was made by the New Jersey Central Railroad Company, today, that T. B. Koons, of this city, was today elected vice president and freight traffic manager of the company, with offices at 143 Liberty street, New York. The appointment becomes effective January 1, 1913.

Mr. Koons will be the freight traffic manager with the title of vice president. He has been connected with the road for some years. The new honors given to Mr. Koons is in recognition of efficient and faithful service.

William G. Besler, also of this city, is the first vice president and general manager of the New Jersey Central.

CHARITY BALL WILL BE A LIVELY AFFAIR

Jigs and Reels on One Floor, Costume Dance on Another.

Preparations are rapidly being completed for the Holy Name Charity ball to be held on Friday night, January 31, in Sebring's Auditorium. Piper Toohey will play for jigs and reels on the first floor. On the second floor all dancers will appear in masquerade and many souvenirs will be given for grotesque as well as fancy and beautiful costumes. Several other novel features are being planned.

The floor committee is under the management of Daniel J. Courain and comprises the following: James J. McCann, assistant; J. V. A. Alster, John Hurley, W. E. J. Gillihan, T. A. Moore and Joseph McCue.

A committee of the following young women has been formed as an auxiliary to the Holy Name Society: Mrs. A. F. La Rock, chairman; Miss Nellie Meaney, secretary; Mrs. Wilbur Schaeffer, Mrs. Daniel J. Courain, Mrs. Paul H. Burns, Mrs. Thomas A. Moore, Mrs. E. J. Harding, Mrs. M. B. Caffrey; the Misses Anna Callahan, Nora Callahan, Mae Birmingham, Mary Murray, Sadie Hanrahan, Emma Sullivan, Alice Connolly, Annabelle McAffee, Alice McAffee, Kathryn Sharkey, Mollie Lyons, Nana Doyle, Margaret Bray, Hannah Bray, Rose Bray, Frances Caven, Nora McDonough, Emma McAvannah and Kathryn Connolly.

DEMOCRATIC FREEHOLDERS WILL OPPOSE G. O. P. GRAB

Elizabeth, Dec. 31.—At a conference of the Democratic members-elect of the new small Board of Freeholders yesterday, a committee, comprising John P. Owens, nominee for county attorney; Abe J. David, nominee for county collector; Dennis F. Hennessy and Joseph F. Greer, was appointed to take charge of the contest the new members will make to oppose the grab of the Republican members of the present board to retain office. This committee will meet at once and formulate plans for the fight and if it is considered advisable, will retain other counsel. This, however, is not likely, as both Mr. Owens and Mr. David are practising attorneys.

REPORTED SALE OF MARTINE BUILDING IS UNCONFIRMED

The rumor circulated several weeks ago that Marcus Loewe, the New York vaudeville magnate, was to enter the local field by building a theatre for vaudeville and moving pictures in competition with Proctor & Sanderson, was revived today when it was reported that "a New York man" had purchased D. W. Martine's property on West Front street, opposite the postoffice.

Efforts to see Mr. Martine today were unsuccessful and no confirmation of the report could be had. Members of his family said that they had heard nothing of such a report and doubted the truth of it. For some time there have been all sorts of rumors concerning a new theatre in this city, but nothing has materialized.

CLARK AND COUNCILMEN CAUCUS ON APPOINTMENTS

Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., of North Plainfield, and members of the Council held a caucus in the Council chambers last night and discussed the appointments to be made tomorrow noon at the organization meeting. Those present at the conference refused to divulge what transpired. It is said that practically the same officeholders that served during 1912 will be reappointed.

For the first time in the history of the borough, the positions of "regular members of the police force," will not be included in the appointments to be made by the Mayor. The Police Tenure of Office Act, which was voted by the citizens at the presidential election, places the police appointments in the civil service.

SECOND ENTERTAINMENT IN HOLY CROSS COURSE

The second of the series of entertainments provided by the entertainment committee of the Church of the Holy Cross will be given Friday night at 8:15 o'clock at the Park Club, when the Hearons Sisters Concert Company will appear. They have ability of a high order.

Among those who recommend them very highly indeed may be mentioned Fanny Crosby, the hymn writer, who after listening to their selections said: "Their music was artistic, delightful and executed with great ability."

Admission tickets may be obtained at the door. Special music has been secured for the dancing at the close of the entertainment.

EX-PRESIDENT CASTRO HELD AT ELLIS ISLAND

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press)

New York, Dec. 31.—Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Venezuela, seeking entrance to this country, was taken off the S. S. La Touraine at Quarantine today and removed to Ellis Island pending a decision whether he will be allowed to enter the United States.

CONVICTED DYNAMITERS ALL FILED APPEALS

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 31.—a writ of supersedeas and a writ of error were filed today by attorneys for the thirty-three men sentenced to prison for the dynamite conspiracy. Both matters were put over until Thursday by Judge Anderson. They did not delay the removal of the men to the Leavenworth, Kansas, prison.

'POSSUM PARTY.

Ephraim Carman, colored, of Jefferson avenue, caught a 25-pound 'possum, yesterday, single-handed. Ephraim, who has quite a reputation as a 'possum hunter, was notified that one of the animals was causing trouble to the chicken owners in the West End. Immediately "Eph" started the hunt and soon succeeded in running down the beast. The 'possum will be served, with all the "fixin's" tonight, at a watch-night party which Carman will give to a number of his friends.

AUTO SPEEDER FINED.

Austin W. Andrews, of 78 Washington avenue, was fined $10 by Recorder Gano in the North Plainfield police court this morning for exceeding the speed limit when passing through the borough in his motor car Saturday. Chief George Weiss said the machine was being driven at the rate of 30 miles an hour along Somerset street, and that the driver refused to stop when he called to him. The Chief got the license number.

WATCHUNG COSTUME DANCE.

The North Plainfield Township Improvement Society will give its annual New Year's costume dance tonight in Texier's Hall, Watchung. The arrangement committee believe this event will eclipse any social affair yet given by the society. The usual brilliant decorations will be seen and many novel costumes will be worn by the dancers.

DUTCH ARMS DELEGATES.

O. P. Wahlig, president, and William T. Banks, of the Netherwood Reformed church Dutch Arms, were appointed at the regular business meeting last night, to represent the organization at the meeting to be held January 9 in the interest of a Federation of men's clubs in this city.

NURSE TO BE WED.

Miss Nellie Dunn, of Princeton, who has been a pupil nurse at Muhlenberg Hospital for several months, resigned her position today and tomorrow she will be married to George Cranston, of Princeton Junction. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride-elect.

FRANCIS JOSEPH IS AGAIN SERIOUSLY ILL

Paris, Dec. 31.—Should the aged ruler of Austria not rally from one of the sleeping spells of which he is a victim, the Austrians would occupy Belgrade, the Servian capital, within twenty-four hours, according to the opinion of Maurice Waleffe, director of the Paris "Midi." "Emperor Francis Joseph," he says, "was eighty-two last August and is subject to sleeping spells. When these are prolonged the entire court flocks about the heir to the throne, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, who issues orders, speaks as a master and commands the generals."

—Press Wants outline in plain, concise terms the chances that are at hand for the great army of workers, renters, landlords, agents, those who would buy, sell or exchange.

SANTA CLAUS IS STILL VISITING S. S. CHILDREN

Santa Claus visited and frolicked with the members of the Sunday-school of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church last night at the annual Christmas entertainment arranged by the Women's League. Recitations by the Misses Anna Duschene and Dorothy Jacot and Joseph Feidel, and the rendition of Yuletide carols by the pupils in chorus, furnished a pleasing program. Santa, in the personage of William Lewis, was exceedingly generous with candy and other presents which were distributed to over two hundred children.

Those who comprised the committee of arrangements were Miss Justina Smith, chairman; Mrs. A. E. Kenney, Mrs. James Bailey, Mrs. Edward Ryan, Mrs. James Harper, Mrs. Fred Pasch, Mrs. Thomas Meeney, and Miss Mary Jacot.

DEPTS. TURN IN REPORTS

and sprinkling with water is called for by residents as soon as the material gets hard. There are also insistent calls for water sprinkling on the pavements with bitumen-bound tops. Evidently, the ideal preparation has not yet been evolved.

Formerly, when the street sprinkling was done by contract the regular season extended from May to October, inclusive, and provision was made for occasional sprinkling during the rest of the year. Now, on account of the great amount of automobile travel, water sprinkling is demanded throughout the year except when the ground is covered with snow, during rains and in very cold weather.

The principal streets treated with Tarvia B were:

West Seventh street, from John street to the city line; East Front street, from Berckman street to Terrill road; Park avenue, from Seventh street to South End avenue; East and West Fourth streets, from Watchung avenue to Liberty street; Watchung avenue; Rahway road; Elmwood place; Washington avenue.

Trinidad Liquor Asphalt was used on the following streets:

Belvidere avenue, from South avenue to Charlotte road; Central avenue, from West Front street to Elizabeth street; East Fifth street; Leland avenue, from East Second street to South avenue; Plainfield avenue, from West Eighth street to Elizabeth street.

As the effect of the application of road oils is temporary, the cost of dust-preventive work is not added in this report, to the cost of street repairs.

REMOVAL OF SNOW.

The cost of removing snow from roadways was $1,287.42 and the work done was largely in the business streets. Where tracks are laid, one-half the expense of snow removal is paid by the Public Service Railway Company.

It is hoped that tenants and property owners will arrange, as far as possible, for the prompt removal of snow from their sidewalks, as this committee is unable to recruit a sufficiently large force of laborers to promptly clean the sidewalks in case many of them are neglected.

STREET NUMBERS.

Several hundred erroneous or missing streets numbers have been corrected and supplied this year, the corporation counsel's assistance being necessary in only four cases. Practically all the numbers on building now agree with the official number on the tax books and tax bills.

ASH DUMPS.

Fewer complaints than usual have been received about the ash dumps. There has been such a keen competition between owners of low land to secure the permission of the Department of Health to have ashes dumped on their premises, that they have taken extra care to manage them without nuisance. The city employe, Alexander Miele, has been in charge of the dumps receiving the largest amount of refuse.

STREET SIGNS.

An inspection of the city street signs shows that there are 114 new signs needed for use where new streets have been opened and to replace those which are damaged. The estimated cost of these signs and of erecting them is one hundred dollars.

FINANCIAL.

The receipts for the year total $48,206.93, the principal items of which include an appropriation of $43,000 and $4,636.73 received from the Public Service Railway Company for removing snow, the repair and oiling of streets. There were smaller amounts received from the company for repair of ditches.

The disbursements total $48,175.35, among the principal items of which are $8,012.04 for general street cleaning and opening gutters; $3,786.82 for street sprinkling; $9,919 for dust prevention, labor and materials; $1,106.97 for construction and repair of sidewalks; $1,500.96 for storm sewers; $1,287.42 for removing snow; $1,198.55 for assistants and inspectors on grades and street construction; $1,836.42 for repairing Park avenue; $4,837.71 for repairing West Fourth street. There has been paid on account of streets macadamized by contract $20,757.16, there was expended $21,675.58 on account of sanitary sewers constructed by contract. The construction of new tracks on East and West Fourth streets by the trolley company called for extensive repairs, but the committee was unable to complete the westerly end of the street for lack of funds. The company pays one-third of the cost of the re-macadamizing.

PROPERTY OWNERS HINDER TREE COMMISSION WORK

The Shade Tree Commission report for the year is in part as follows:

The elm trees bordering the city's streets and avenues as well as on public grounds have been carefully sprayed with a solution of arsenate of lead, and in consequence, have well withstood the attacks of the beetles, which apparently have come to stay with us, although it has been evident for the past two years that the numbers are each year being reduced, due in part to the systematic annual spraying, and in part, to the dying out of trees on private grounds that have not been regularly treated, thus removing the feeding grounds that are free from poison.

Considerable attention has also been given to the cottony maple scale that is again attacking the maples. Many trees have been sprayed and some of them scraped to destroy this scale. Many more need attention and it is planned to push this work the coming year.

The work of thinning out the trees where they were overcrowded has been continued, and much more of this work needs doing. We have been greatly handicapped in this, however, by the opposition of abutting property owners. There is perhaps nothing that will better serve to beautify our thoroughfares than the removal of deformed and overcrowded trees and the proper trimming and care of those remaining so that they may develop symmetrically. All recognize the fact that we have too many trees and that they should be thinned out, but many people prefer that their neighbors' trees should be thinned rather than those in front of their own premises.

The committee submits the following account of its receipts and expenditures for the year:

Receipts—Regular appropriation, $2,500; appropriation for care of park, $200; sale of wood, spraying, trimming, etc., for private owners $80.50; total, $2,780.50.

Disbursements—Care of City Park, spraying elms and maples, trimming, removing and cementing trees, etc. $2,772; cash balance on hand, $8.50.

Respectfully submitted, Miles Roberts, P. S. Suffern, Commissioners.

RUNNING DISPOSAL WORKS COSTS 16 CENTS PER CAPITA

The annual report of the sewer committee shows the total length of sanitary sewers, including those constructed by private parties under city supervision, to be 50.87 miles. During the year 234 connections were made with the sewers, the total number of connections to the gravity sewers being 3,700.

The report says, in part:

DISPOSAL WORKS.

In the last report of this committee the changes proposed in the present disposal plant were described, and it was expected that the plans for this work would be promptly approved by the State Board of Health, and that construction work would have been started last spring. This plan was abandoned when the project for a joint trunk sewer and disposal work was taken up, and a special sewerage committee was appointed to take charge of matters pertaining to the new project.

The present works have been operated under the direction of R. S. Lanphear, manager and chemist. The operation has been carried on as in 1911, excepting that the effluent from two primary contact beds has been run on to one secondary bed, the secondary beds being used in rotation. The quality of the final effluent has deteriorated, as compared with that of the past few years, on account of the increased clogging of the primary beds, and is such that the State Board of Health would probably object to draining the effluent into Green Brook next summer. The material in the upper beds is now being washed and this will result in a much better final effluent, in addition to increasing the capacity of the plant.

The septic tanks have been operated in pairs during the entire year, each pair being in use from four to six weeks. The percentage removal of suspended matter from the screened sewage was not as great as in any of the past few years, but this was due to the smaller quantity in the screened sewage. The average quantity of suspended matter in the septic tank effluent was less than in 1911.

An examination of the concrete in the septic tanks was made and it was found to be in first class condition.

The septic tanks were cleaned last March and about 2,000 cu. yds. of wet scum and sludge were run on to the sand sludge bed. This represented 2.81 cu. yds. per million gallons of sewage treated, and indicates that the greatest amount of septic decomposition ever obtained was in 1911. The measurements made in 1912 indicate that similar good results will be obtained in March, 1913.

A contract has been made with Charles A. Peterson to remove, wash, and replace the acceptable portion of the present filling material in the primary contact beds and supply whatever new material is required, this work, as above stated, being now in progress. In November, 1912, the surfaces of the secondary contact beds were cleaned and leveled by Mr. Peterson as a part of his contract, at a cost of $114.76. During 1912, three clinker primary beds have received four cleanings and an average quantity of 32 cu. yds. of scum and surface material per month has been removed from the secondary beds.

The cost per capita for the maintenance of sewage disposal works is 16 cents.

PUMPING STATIONS.

The pumping machinery has worked in a very satisfactory manner excepting at the Monroe avenue station, where one of the motors has given considerable trouble. The contractors are now at work upon the motor and will either repair it or furnish a new one. Five per cent. is still withheld on the pumping machinery contract.

When the pumping machinery for the Monroe and Huntington avenue stations was first installed the contractors furnished two ten horse power motors and two 10 inch by 8 inch air compressors for each station. These being found too large for economical operation, one motor and one compressor in each station was replaced by a three and one half horse power motor and a 7 inch by 7 inch air compressor, one large unit being left in at each station with the idea of using them in the future at the proposed pumping station in the west end of the city, which is planned to care for the sewage from the district west of Monroe and Clinton avenues. There are already quite urgent demands that sewers be installed in this part of the city.

The trouble with the motor above referred to has increased the cost of operation to some extent. Considerable experimental work has been carried on at these stations by Assistant R. L. Bonham, which has resulted in more reliable and economical methods of operation.

The statement of receipts and disbursements shows the following:

Total receipts, $8,574.66; total disbursements, $8,397.58. FLAMES ENTAILED $22,668 LOSS IN CITY DURING YEAR

Fire Chief T. C. Doane after enumerating the number and style of apparatus in the city fire department, the number of paid firemen, together with a detailed description of equipment and advocating more motor-driven apparatus, his annual report states that there were 156 alarms during the year, 94 by 'phone, 51 by box and 11 verbal, with insurance and losses as follows:

Loss on buildings	$ 9,279.00
Loss on contents	13,389.00
Total loss insured and uninsured	$22,668.00
Insurance on buildings	$142,650.00
Insurance on contents	83,075.00
Total amount of insurance	$225,725.00
Amount of Insurance collected:
Insurance loss	$22,243.00
No insurance loss	425.00
	$22,668.00
Value of property involved:
Buildings	$172,300.00
Personal	$113,925.00
	$286,225.00

Unknown, 28; chimneys and defective flues, 25; woods and grass, 23; debris, 15; out city, 6; locomotive sparks, 5; automobiles, 4; gasolene, 4; stoves, 4; heater, 4; steam, 3; oil stoves, 3; smoke, 3; false alarms, 3; tar pots, 2; thaw pipes, 2; motors, 2; grease, 2; balloon, 2; curtains, 2; bed, 1; gas stove, 1; load hay, 1; alcohol stove, 1; cigar, 1; spontaneous combustion, 1; flash light, 1; sulphur candles, 1; boys, 1; lamp, 1; fireworks, 1; awning, 1; railroad ties, 1; electric iron, 1; total, 156.

No duty, 44; small extinguishers, 36; hydrant streams, 22; chemicals, 19; beat out, 18; chemical and small extinguishers, 7; chemical and hydrants, 5; pails water, 2; pails water and small extinguishers, 1; steamer, 1; steamer and hydrant, 1.

There are 373 fire hydrants throughout the city with a pressure of about 75 pounds in the center of town. In the Netherwood heights section the pressure will average less than 30 pounds. Some means should be used to prevent the use of the hydrants by the water wagons. In a great many instances when a fire occurs we find the hydrants out of order through the carelessness of the drivers of the water wagons.

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES FROM POLICE DEPARTMENT

Chief Kiely's report was in part as follows:

I would suggest to your honorable body the need of increasing the police department, as the growth of the city demands it. Our Gamewell system should be extended, signal lights should be installed, so that any officer could be notified in case of necessity. The hours of duty of the officers and men need regulating, as some are working eight hours, while others are working nine and ten hours. For many years we have been obliged to use our patrol wagon and ambulance in conveying the injured and sick to our hospital. There is always danger of the person dying from delay. This should be overcome by the purchase of an ambulance patrol wagon, and should receive due consideration from your honorable body. I would also suggest to your honorable body that the finger print system and Bertillon system be adopted, because they will be of great assistance to this department.

Respectfully, P. S. Kiely, Chief of Police.

READY FOR PARCEL SERVICE

manufacturing and harvester industries. Great stress is also laid on the fact that special delivery service will not be given in handling this fourth class matter.

For the present, at least, the new business will be handled at the regular stamp window, but if it should warrant other provisions will be made. The government has supplied the office with two pairs of scales, maps, a key to the map, together with a sufficient quantity of stamps and a book of rules and regulations covering all points of the service.

Mr. Bird in answer to a question said that he did not anticipate any great rush from the rural free delivery routes of other sections of this city, but predicted that the business will gradually assume large proportions. It is believed that eventually the business will grow to such an extent that arrangements will be made for calling for packages as well as delivering them as is now planned.

The rush at the postoffice today resembles somewhat the one on the day before Christmas, the only difference being that most of today's heavy outgoing mail consists chiefly of picture postcards.

MONROE MEN'S CLASS.

The monthly business meeting of the Monroe Avenue church Men's Bible class will be held in the church tonight at 8 o'clock. This will be followed by a social hour in the Epworth house, when refreshments will be served by the women of the church, to which the public is cordially invited. Following this a service will be held in the church until the midnight hour.

P. B. C. RESUMES JAN. 2.

The Plainfield Business College and School of English will resume its session on Thursday, January 2. Prof. Herr reports a splendid year in 1912 and the prospect for an increase in the number of students during the coming year is very bright.

SAENGERBUND DANCE.

Members of the Gesang and Turn Verein will give their annual New Year's reception and dance Wednesday night in Saengerbund Hall. They have been assisted in making the arrangements by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the organization.

January Furniture Sale

Our semi-annual sale is an event looked forward to by all careful buyers, especially those who can discriminate between our good, well made furniture and the usual class of special sale goods. The largest reductions are naturally on the odd pieces and discontinued patterns; in fact, all goods will be marked to show a great saving from our already low prices.

FIVE DOLLARS

Opens the Way to Better Pay

Five dollars, plus your promise to pay the balance at the rate of 17 cents a day, places in your hands the newest model Oliver Typewriter No. 5, our very finest production.

The best advice that can be given to the young man or woman who wants to break into business is:

GET AN OLIVER TYPEWRITER

This offer places at your command a machine that turns time, energy and enterprise into the pure gold of success.

Thousands of ambitious young men and women, with the aid of Oliver Typewriters, have won their way to better pay and broader opportunity. This is the age of mechanical writing. The great world of modern business revolves around the typewriter. Typewriter operators are in demand everywhere. Our employment Bureaus in all the important cities are swamped with calls for competent Oliver operators.

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can quickly learn on your own Oliver Typewriter and qualify yourself for a position. You can make the machine meet the payments while you are doing work just for practise.

Easy to Pay---17 Cents a Day

You doubtless spend more than this amount every day for trifles you do not need.

Thousands have paid for Oliver Typewriters on this plan without the slightest effort. Are you going to let a matter of pennies stand between you and this money-making machine?

Against your risk of $5, we risk a $100 typewriter—the same machine that is used by the greatest firms and corporations throughout the world.

MAYOR'S RECEPTION CHIEF HOLIDAY EVENT

No Other Happening Rivals Change of Administration in Interest.

New Year's Day will be generally observed in Plainfield and North Plainfield according to the annual custom. The merchants will close their shops for the day. At noon Mayor G. W. V. Moy will retire and Mayor-elect Percy H. Stewart will take up the reins of government. The new Council will hold its first meeting at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mayor-elect Stewart has announced that a reception will be held at the city offices at 3 o'clock in the afternoon when he will be glad to greet all who care to call on him.

Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., and the Council, of North Plainfield, will meet at noon for organization. Allan Cowperthwaite and E. S. Boyer, the councilmen-elect, will take their seats at that time, succeeding William J. Buttfield and Morris C. VanArsdale.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue church, will hold his usual New Year's Day reception at his home on Park avenue during the afternoon, to which members and friends of the church are invited.

There will be a New Year's Day reception at Hope chapel in the afternoon, in connection with the twenty-fifth anniversary exercises which began on Sunday last. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Gesang and Turn Verein has planned for a holiday program at Saengerbund Hall. There will be a dance and reception at Debele's Hall in the evening under the auspices of Prof. Bruneel's dancing class.

The attraction at the Plainfield theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening will be that popular play "Human Hearts." At Proctor's theatre there will be an unusually good program of vaudeville and moving pictures, beginning at 11 o'clock in the morning and running continuously until 11 o'clock at night.

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST SCHOOL ENJOYS PLAY

Clever Entertainment Feature of the Sunday School Christmas Party.

"A Christmas Entertainment in a Mining Village" was the title of the playlet given by members of the Seventh-Day Baptist Sabbath school at the Christmas exercises of the school last night. The platform was set to represent a Western mining town with shacks, toosy turvy streets and the mouth of the mine in the background. The scene of the entertainment was in the village schoolhouse, where the children were holding their Christmas exercises. It was so arranged that the audience appeared to be seated in the school room, with the platform in front. W. C. Hubbard, who played the part of the mine owner, made the address of welcome.

The cast of the playlet was: "Mine owner," W. C. Hubbard; "teacher," Miss Ethel Titsworth; "miners," Frank Langworthy, Dean Worden, Junior Cottrell and Leland Shaw; "exceptionally bright scholars," Miss Helen Rogers, Roy Titsworth and Roland Davis; "other scholars," who sang songs, the Misses Elizabeth Kellogg, Beatrice Cottrell, Stephana Shaw and Helen Dalberg; "scholars who speak pieces," Robert Spicer and Jean Cottrell; "the Chinese visitor," George Davis; "Bridget, the camp cook," Miss Anna Stillman.

The committee in charge of the refreshments were Miss Mildred Green and Mrs. Ira West. The committee in charge of the decorations were Mrs. Irving A. Hunting and Mrs. F. A. Langworthy.

Charles Titsworth and a quartet comprised of part of the choir sang a number of the old time songs which were much applauded.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ALVAH A. CLARK HELD

Somerville, Dec. 31.—Funeral services for the late Alvah A. Clark were held yesterday afternoon at the First Reformed church, the Rev. Dr. William S. Cranmer, the pastor, officiating. The edifice was crowded with friends and relatives of the departed lawyer and former congressman. The many floral emblems banking the altar just behind the casket were beautiful.

Jurists, lawyers and men prominent in professional and business life in New Jersey attended the obsequies.

The honoary pall-bearers were Mayor W. V. Steele, County Clerk A. G. Anderson, Judge C. E. Case, A. A. Cortelyou, H. F. Moosbrugger and David J. Smith. Interment was in the new cemetery at this place.

MATINEE DANCE.

HOLIDAY FRUIT PUDDINGS.

INSTEAD of plum pudding some families find a simpler and more digestible sweet desirable as a finish for the Christmas feast, which is [illegible]y enough without a rich pudding. [illegible] families wi[illegible] here are small [illegible]s it is so of[illegible] advisable to omit [illegible] plum puddi[illegible] at the following recipes may b[illegible]al in suggesting desserts that w[illegible]ke yet not so rich as the English [illegible] pudding:

Baked Cranberry Pastries.

Pudding.—Take two well beaten [illegible] a cupful each of sugar and [illegible] two tablespoonfuls of butter. [illegible] these together, first combining [illegible]ugar and butter, and add to th[illegible] cupfuls of flour and two teas[illegible]s of baking powder which ha[illegible] sifted together. Wash and drain [illegible] and a half of nice, firm cranberri[illegible] stir these into the batter. But[illegible] a pudding dish, pour the batter in [illegible] and bake in a moderate oven. [illegible] with whipped cream or cranber[illegible]ce.

Fig Pudding.—Fig pudding is sometimes served for Christmas dinner in the place of plum pudding and is made of one cupful of molasses, one cupful of chopped suet, one cupful of milk, three and one-quarter cupfuls of flour, two eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half a teaspoonful of [illegible] one pint of figs. Mix together the molasses, suet, spices and the figs [illegible] flour. Dissolve the soda with a teaspoonful of hot water and mix with the milk. Add the other ingredients. Beat the eggs light and stir into the mixture. Add the flour and beat thoroughly. Butter two small or one large mold, turn the mixture into the mold and steam five hours. Serve with a cream sauce.

Christmas Good Cheer.

Fruit Pudding.—Beat the yolks of five eggs, add a cup of sugar and beat again. Take half a pound of minced suet, of ground nutmeg, cinnamon and cloves a teaspoonful each, two cupfuls of milk and a pint of flour. Have ready chopped two ounces of citron and a half pound of seeded raisins. To these add half a pound of cleaned currants and dredge all with flour. Stir the fruit slowly into the flour and last of all stir in the stiff whites of the five eggs. Turn all into a well greased pudding dish and bake in a uniformly heated oven for an hour and three-quarters.

WHAT IS WORN.

Necklaces No Longer Hug the Throat. Girl's Hats.

Necklaces are long and fall low around the neck. The tight dog collar and rows of pearls are out of fashion at present. Chains of pearls to hang over the shoulders are preferred to anything else.

Hats for the growing girl are unusually smart this season. A model of beige beaver is trimmed with a broad bow made of raspberry pink velvet.

The little girl's undergarment that is quite plain at the front is a pretty one to wear under dainty dresses. This one is made in princess style in front with a full skirt at the back.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for little girls from four to eight years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7673, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

LADIES' AID MEETING.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Hille, 816 Carlton avenue, on Thursday afternoon, January 2.

—Press Wants show many chances for advancement.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

The forthcoming visit of "Human Hearts" will, no doubt, be warmly welcomed by the lovers of all that is good in melodrama. "Human Hearts" is beyond question, one of the strongest and most interesting of plays, that has ever visited our city. The author belongs to that all too small group of dramatists who understands how to reach the heart and hold the attention of the audience. In "Human Hearts" he has constructed a play that will never grow old. The principal theme of the play is "Hope," and has not some author written—"Hope springs eternal in the Human breast." "Hope" the one bright ray of sunshine that breaks through and illumines the clouds of despair that almost overwhelms poor "Tom Logan"—the "Hope" of a good, pure woman's love—the "Hope" of brighter days—the "Hope" of an honest man, unjustly accused of crime, that the criminal will be detected and his good name restored. The author has handled this subject with consummate skill and ease that shows the true dramatic instinct. The love interest is all as absorbing. The comedy element is introduced in such a way that it becomes relevant to the story, and the climaxes are worked out naturally and logically. "Human Hearts" will be seen at the Plainfield theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Many theatregoers may be wondering why Charles Grapewin, who will appear at the Plainfield theatre Saturday afternoon and night in "Between Showers," a new farce comedy, selected Mike Donlin, the famous baseball player, to support him in his latest instead of selecting a more experienced comedian. Mr. Grapewin, who is a baseball player of note himself, had the same question put to him several weeks ago and his reply was so quick that the questioner nearly lost his breath. "I selected Donlin for the part for the reason that I know he is just as good an actor as he is a ball player. When Mike first went on the stage, he was a drawing card on account of his playing with the New York Giants, but he was ambitious, studied hard, and he is today a better actor than a great many of the performers on the American stage. He has natural ability and is as good a performer as Jim Corbett, the famous pugilist, who would have been one of our greatest stage stars, but for the fact that he was a great pugilist before he took up acting. Of course Donlin is a great drawing card from the box office standpoint, and I venture to say that the great majority of people who come to see the show on the opening night come to see how Donlin looks and acts on the stage." "Between Showers" is new and original in plot with many novel and laugh provoking situations, and the producer, Cliff Gordon, has done his utmost in the matter of supporting players, scenery and electrical effects.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Frederick J. Hubach, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, has started to organize a singing class which will sing at the church services and at special entertainments and sociables that are to be held at the church from time to time.

The monthly business meeting of the Epworth League of Grace M. E. church will be held in the chapel Friday evening at 8 o'clock and will be followed by a social hour.

A preparatory service for Holy Communion, which will be celebrated at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Commencing next Tuesday and including the Friday night following special prayer meetings will be conducted nightly in the three churches on Front street, the First Baptist the First Methodist, the First Presbyterian churches, and in Trinity Reformed.

The weekly prayer service will be held in the Netherwood Reformed church tonight instead of the regular meeting night Wednesday night. The topic of the meeting will be "The Christian Speaking."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Netherwood Reformed church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. W. Johnston, 218 Netherwood avenue, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Consistory of the Netherwood Reformed church will be held at the parsonage Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Special services will be held at the Netherwood Reformed church next Sunday to mark the third anniversary of the church's installment as a separate institution. Appropriate services will be held both morning and evening and special music will be rendered by the Christmas choir.

Christian Endeavor Society of Warren chapel will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Sunday school rooms tonight. It will not be a watch night service.

The midweek prayer meeting of Warren chapel will be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock instead of tomorrow night when the usual meetings are held.

The sewing school meetings at Warren chapel will be resumed Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The midweek prayer service of the Congregational church will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock instead of tomorrow evening as that date falls on New Years night.

A meeting of the official board of the Congregational church will be held in the church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The monthly business meeting of the Men's Bible class of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will be held in the Epworth House tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will meet in the Epworth House Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Order of Loyal Princes of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will meet tomorrow at 7 o'clock in the Epworth House.

The Young People's Society of the German Lutheran church will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Siedentop at Dunellen.

Charles Davis, organist at Holy Cross church, played two special selections at the recital Sunday night, "Jerusalem the Golden" with its difficult variations, and "The Question and the Answer," by Wolstenholne, which was played in masterly style. There was a solo by William Smith entitled "Nazerath." The recital was followed by regular evening worship at which Rev. W. S. McCoy took as his subject "A Message of the Years."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will hold its next regular meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Epworth House. A full attendance is desired.

HOLIDAY BASKETBALL CARD AT HOPE CHAPEL

Females of the Species in One of the Two Games.

Hope chapel will be the center of attraction for local basketballdom tomorrow afternoon, when two corking good contests are scheduled to be decided. In the preliminary, the Hope Chapel girls will lineup against the strong Nonpareil five of this city. This contest has excited considerable interest among Hope chapel followers because of the fact that the Nonpareils scored a 90 to 2 victory over the Hope representatives on the Chapel court last year. In that game the team score was not only the largest ever made on a local court but Miss Hummel, the Nonpareil captain, established a State wide reputation for field goal shooting when she caged forty of the two point variety. It goes without saying that this versatile player will be well guarded in tomorrow's game as the Chapelites are out to make a creditable showing and even entertain visions of a win over the invincible Nonpareil aggregation.

In the main game the Chapel five will line up against the Viz Society, of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. The Elizabeth five is the same that lost to the Y. M. C. A. Ajax in this city last month by the close score of 29 to 25, and the Hope players are anticipating a stiff contest. Although Hope chapel has played no regularly scheduled games for some time past the players have all been playing on one team or another and are all in first class condition for the struggle.

SOMERSETS MEET CO. M IN RUBBER GAME OF SERIES

A cracking good game of basketball is due to be pulled off on the Company M armory court at Somerville, tomorrow night, when the Somersets meet the Company M aggregation in the rubber contest of a three-game series. From an advertisement appearing in Somerville, this seems to be one of the most important games of the season and the county seat basketballdom is expected to turn out enmasse for the contest. Somerville won the first game by the score of 23 to 18, which proved one of the most exciting games seen in some time. But the second game was even more interesting. The Somersets crept up from what seemed imminent defeat at the end of the first half, and won by a score of 38 to 30. This is the rubber game and there promises to be a speedy exhibition of basketball.

ONE-SIDED TRIUMPH FOR NONPAREIL FIVE

Captain Hummel More Than Doubles Opponents' Score Single Handed.

In a game with the Scotch Plains Parish House girls' five in the Parish House gym last night, the Nonpareil basketball team again displayed its strength by chalking up a total of 46 points, while the home five was striving its hardest to total up eleven points. Because of their unfamiliarity with the girls' code of rules which were enforced leniently last night, the Plains' girls were considerably handicapped and repeated fouling gave Miss Helen Hummel, the local captain, an opportunity to get in eight of her accurate throws from the fifteen yard line. Not satisfied with this contribution, which in itself was enough to keep her team in the running, Miss Hummel caged ten field goals with her characteristic overhead throw.

When given any kind of an opportunity, the home five proved to have some unusually fine basket tossers in its numbers and but for the superior guarding displayed by the visitors, the score might have been a good deal more interesting. Miss Ida Hummel and Miss Clara Smith also took a hand in the scoring, the former being credited with five goals and the latter with two, both made from the center of the court. Barring the limited knowledge of the feminine rules evidenced on the part of the Parish House players, the losers put up a good game and the way they were covered by the Plainfield forwards made their work all the more sensational, as all of their goals were made from difficult positions.

BANK CLERKS TO PLAY PARISH HOUSE QUINTET

Five husky representatives of local banks will go to Scotch Plains tomorrow night, where they will tackle the Parish House first team in the first basketball game of a series which has been arranged between the two aggregations. The bank clerks have been practising regularly on the Y. M. C. A. court and form a speedy quintet.

The teams will probably lineup as follows:

Plainfield Banks.	Parish House.
William Coyle	E. Lidgate
Thomas Ricketts	R. Thompson forwards
Alfred Manley	W. Marsden

PLAINFIELD PLAYERS ANNEX CLOSE CONTEST

Behind at End of First Period, Late Spurt Wins 'Plains Game.

In a close and exciting games of basketball on the Scotch Plains' Parish House court last night, the Plainfield five defeated the Parish House first team by a score of 29 to 25. Although outweighed to a considerable extent by the 'Plains' five, the Plainfield representatives set a terrific clip in the second half and pulled the game out of the fire by the close margin of two field goals. The respective contestants were about as evenly matched as two basketball teams could be and although the home five were ahead by the score of 12 to 7 at the end of the first half they had to fight for every field goal made.

In both the shooting and passing department of the game the Scotch Plains' players proved themselves adept and their team work completely baffled the Plainfield delegation at times. The teams alternated in tossing goals and because of the close rivalry prevalent the large crowd of Scotch Plains' cohorts were constantly on their feet. Thompson, the old Plainfield High School player, and Dallas, the former Leal's star, were the shining lights for the home aggregation and their playing was of the top notch variety. For the victors, the Heron brothers occupied the center of the limelight, their passing savoring of the Hope chapel variety and their shooting being little short of sensational.

BOYS' SECRETARY HOST AT A JUNIOR LUNCHEON

Thirty members of the Y. M. C. A. boys' department College League were entertained at a banquet in the boys' rooms this noon by Secretary C. William Bingeman. Charles H. Line, formerly assistant physical director in the local association, was the guest of honor and entertained the members in one of his characteristic short speeches after the "feed."

Mr. Bingeman responded to calls for a speech and outlined the work proposed for the College League for the coming spring months and instructed the older boys present in the nature of the plan proposed.

PARISH HOUSE FIVE'S BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Scotch Plains' Physical Instructor Planning Busy Athletic Campaign.

The fact that athletics have come to stay at Scotch Plains is made plain by the busy season now under way and the one now being planned by the Scotch Plains instructor, Burnett Brodziak. In outlining the work he has planned, Mr. Brodziak says that he is aiming to hold the interest of both male and feminine athletes and will have athletic competition that will interest both sexes. He is at present busy compiling a basketball schedule which, when completed, will be one of the most formidable arranged by any manager in this section. The games booked to date are as follows: January 1, Plainfield Banks at Scotch Plains; January 4, Company K at Scotch Plains; January 11, open; January 14, Ajax at Scotch Plains; January 18, Knickerbocker Five, of Westfield, at Scotch Plains; January 24, Ajax at Y. M. C. A.; Ferbruary 1, Knickerbocker at Scotch Plains. Games are also pending with the Tiger A. C. and the Bound Brook High School. Mr. Brodziak is also arranging a schedule of games for the Parish House second team and the girls' five and is anxious to get into communication with quintets of either sex.

At the conclusion of the basketball season the Scotch Plains' director will issue a call for track candidates and a baseball nine will be organized to float the Parish House colors, maroon and white. All around sport will be encouraged and in order to give every one desiring to engage in outside competition an ample opportunity to display his or her ability, a number of different teams will be organized in regard to weight and ability.

MARTIN RECALLED BY N. Y. YANKEES

McMillan Sent Back to Rochester and Martin Figures in Deal.

Jack Martin was taken somewhat by surprise this morning when the announcement came through the press that Frank Farrell, president of the New York American League baseball club, had sent Tommy McMillan back to Rochester and issued a recall of him to the Yankees. When seen yesterday afternoon, Martin expected to join the Rochester nine on their training trip and apparently had not been consulted by the club officials in regard to the transfer.

A Money-Saving Boiler

Square Pot Boilers operate economically. Their fuel consumption is comparatively small, their heat-delivering power comparatively large. The reason of this superior economic efficiency lies in the firepot. This is square at bottom and round at top—a form that gives greatly increased radiating surface over the ordinary round pot. Here is a sectional view of the economical Square Pot Boilers.

Note the nearness of interior water-holding sections to fire—upward trend of surfaces and capacious feed door and square firepot.

This arrangement gives free steaming and develops high efficiency on little fuel.

Call on our nearest dealer and see the famous Square Pot Boilers.

BOYNTON FURNACE CO.
37th Street, near Broadway, New York

There was a hitch in the deal, as President Farrell and President Chapin, of Rochester, had different ideas about the terms agreed upon last summer. Rather than have any dispute with the Rochester man, Farrell called the deal off. He requested Chapin to return Martin, and informed the Rochester magnate that McMillan would be returned to him.

McMillan's return to Rochester will not weaken the New York team. Martin should be developed into the better player of the two. He is younger than McMillan, being only a youngster. He was picked off the lots in this city and farmed out to the Richmond Virginia League team in 1911, where he hit .312.

Martin was first sent to Rochester without being tried, although he played against the Highlanders in a practice game in Atlanta. He looked so good then that Wolverton recalled him early last season, after Roy Hartzell failed to fill the hole at shortstop. Martin will have to improve as a fielder, but he is a valuable man at bat.

Martin hit only .225, but had the knack of getting on the bases. He has a good batting eye, and drew many passes. He also is fast on the paths, and frequently does the unexpected. He was one of the brainiest baserunners the Highlanders had last year.

BASKETBALL AT Y. M. C. A.

A double bill of basketball will be contested at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon. The Presbyterian and Ajax fives will meet in the main game and the Mohawks will play Company K as a preliminary.

MANY ENJOY THE P. A. B. XMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Professionals were the only entertainers at the Christmas entertainment of the Park Avenue Baptist Sunday-school, last night.

Mr. Roseni, of New York, started off the program with a number of juggling feats which was followed up by Mr. Shackelford, of East Orange, who entertained with comic songs which he accompanied on the piano and banjo. Mr. Roseni returned to the platform and did clever shadowgraph work. Recitations, songs and a mock trial between colored folks in Virginia were the next numbers delivered by Mr. Shackelford.

Although it was announced that admission to the entertainment was by ticket, all those who did not have tickets were not turned away, and the Sunday-school rooms were filled to overflowing.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF CHOSEN FREEHOLDERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union was held at the Courthouse, Elizabeth New Jersey, on Thursday, December 5, 1912, at 2:30 p. m. Director Cady and Freeholders Bourdon, Crane, Darby, Doane, Fay, Gruener, Hall, Hennessy, Jones Krouse, Meisel, Perry, Randolph, Smith, Teller and Wilbur present.

Absent—Freeholders Acken, McMane and Pierson.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur the reading of the minutes of meetings of November 7 and 21, 1912, was dispensed with, and they were approved as per printed copies on members' desks.

Communications.

New York, November 11, 1912.

Regarding property situated on Springfield avenue, that in order to construct a county road you cut off corner of some of my property, leaving a gore piece, I have recently visited the place and find nothing has been done to straighten up the gore lot that you took in making the road, and it is something that should be left in better condition, and I want to ask why you don't fix that up so that it looks more like an ornament than it now appears?

I naturally supposed in giving you the right to construct the road and taking certain of my property, that you would make your improvement so that it would be satisfactory to me, and I must confess that it does not. I trust you will give this your attention, because it filled me with the feeling that you would appreciate my giving you this right of way over my property.

I would like also to ask if taking the new course of road, which you take, if the section you have abandoned does not properly belong to me? I ask you because you are much more familiar with proceeding of this nature than I am.

Yours very truly,
BYRON A. BEAM.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this communication was referred to the county road committee.

November 19, 1912.

The increase in the number of statistical records that must be kept in the office of the county superintendent to be compiled for the State Commissioner of Education and the various studies that are being made involving the addition of long columns of figures make an adding machine a very desirable addition to the office. Most of the county superintendents in the State are supplied with an adding machine.

I understand that the Board of Elections have also found this adding machine a very convenient help. I wish you would kindly consider the purchase of an adding machine at your convenience.

Yours very truly,
J. J. SAVITZ,
County Superintendent.

On motion by Freeholder Hennessy this communication was received and ordered placed on file.

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 4, 1912.

On the afternoon of September 2 1912, the schooner John Aron was damaged by a collision with the South First Street Bridge. The accident was caused by the blowing out of a fuse while the bridge was being hoisted. The following was the damage sustained, which I instructed the captain, James Rhall, to have repaired, and for the payment of which he now presents a bill. Damage as follows:

Loss of preventive stay and block, loss of gib-halyards, loss of peak-halyards and block, damage to small boat.

Respectfully submitted,
D. F. HENNESSY, Freeholder.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this communication was received and ordered placed on file.

Communications were received from Mrs. J. K. Van Nest, the Fanwood Lumber & Supply Company and James M. Morrison relative to claims they hold against some of the contractors on the Bonnie Burn Sanitorium, which were read, and also one from the Hand Storage and Express Company.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur these matters were referred to the county attorney and county collector.

December 2, 1912.

Herewith is submitted a report of the work of the Department of Weights and Measures for the month ending November 30, 1912.

During the month 318 inspections were made, divided as follows: Scales inspected, 112; weights, 70; dry measures, 85; liquid measures, 49; yard sticks, 2. There were confiscated, 5 scales and condemned, 14, making a total of 19 found incorrect. One defective weight, 12 dry measures and 5 liquid measures were confiscated.

For the month there were 129 office inspections, divided as follows: Scales, 3; weights, 18; dry measures, 76, and liquid measures, 32. Of the scales one was condemned and confiscated and ten dry measures and one weight confiscated.

The total inspections made in the county to date are 5,509, with a total of 920 confiscations.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. SCHWARTZ,
Superintendent Weights and Measures.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this report was received and ordered placed on file.

Elizabeth, December 4, 1912.

Your committee on the recopying of some of the early books of record in the registrar's office, which are becoming worn and almost illegible, would respectfully report that it has examined the books in question and finds them in such poor condition that for the preservation of the records immediate action should be taken to recopy them.

And we recommend that the registrar be empowered to employ a suitable person for this purpose at an annual salary of $840.

HENRY KROUSE,
CHARLES A. SMITH.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call unanimously adopted.

Report of Committee on Replanking Bridge Over Rahway River at Springfield Avenue, Cranford:

Your committee would report that bids have been received for this work and the contract awarded to Karl Telchman, of Cranford, N. J., at his bid of $540, he being the lowest bidder.

Your committee would recommend that the appropriation for this work be increased from $500 to $540, the last named sum being the amount of the contract.

Respectfully submitted,
GEORGE G. TELLER,
D. F. HENNESSY,
CHARLES A. SMITH.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

Report of Committee on Bridge at Broad Street and Union Avenue, Westfield:

In constructing the new bridge at the intersection of Broad street and Union avenue, Westfield, N. J., the contractor has encountered two sewers, one in Broad street and one in Union avenue, which will run directly through the opening of the culvert.

It is the intention of the town of Westfield to reconstruct its sewer system at this point within the next year so as to do away with the necessity for both of these sewers. When such action is taken these pipes could be removed from the culvert.

The only way in which the pipes could be removed at present is by the construction on the part of the town of Westfield of inverted siphons, which with the necessary manhole are quite costly.

Under the circumstances the committee on this bridge and the county engineer have decided to permit the sewers to remain in the culvert temporarily.

There is attached to your report and hereby made a part of the same a letter from Mr. A. W. Vars, town surveyor of Westfield, stating that these sewers will be removed at any time upon request of the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Signed by the committee,
CHARLES A. SMITH,
PETER H. MEISEL.
October 30, 1912.

Mr. J. L. Bauer, County Engineer, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Dear Sir—Confirming verbal statement which I made to you yesterday, I beg to say that we will carry sewer through the bridge at Broad street and Union avenue in an iron pipe. Should this prove to be a serious obstruction to the flow of water through the bridge we will arrange to siphon the sewer under the same on request of the Board of Freeholders.

Very truly yours,
A. W. VARS.

On motion by Freeholder Meisel this report was received and ordered placed on file and spread upon the minutes in full.

Report of Committee on County Roads:

Your committee on county roads, to which was referred the bill of C. H. Hand for $17 for the break of a spring of his automobile, would respectfully report as follows:

Mr. Hand states that the spring was broken while he was passing over Terrill road, near Two Bridges, in Fanwood Township, at a period when repairs were being made to the said road. Your committee is familiar with the conditions which existed on this road at that time and your committee is of the opinion that there was no negligence on the part of the county which would justify the payment of Mr. Hand's bill.

Your committee would, therefore, recommend that the bill be not paid.

Signed by the committee,
HENRY KROUSE,

CHARLES A. SMITH,
S. P. T. WILBUR.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were adopted unanimously.

New Business.

By Freeholder Smith:

Resolved, That the county collector be and he is hereby authorized to pay to the treasurer of the Bar Association of the county of Union any balance that may be in the law library account on December 31, 1912.

On motion by Freeholder Krouse this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Whereas, the Board of Street and Water Commissioners of the city of Newark, by resolution adopted May 2, 1912, and duly approved by the mayor of said city, requested Public Service Railway Company to relocate its tracks in Elizabeth avenue, in the city of Newark, in the middle of the roadway of said Elizabeth avenue and

Whereas, By resolution adopted August 14, 1912, the Township Committee of the Township of Union, in the county of Union, requested said Public Service Railway Company to similarly relocate its present tracks in Elizabeth avenue, south of the dividing line between the counties of Union and Essex, in the Township of Union, in the county of Union; said tracks to be located and constructed as shown on map No. 9894-K filed with the clerk of said Township of Union, a copy of which map has also been filed with the clerk of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, and

Whereas, Said Elizabeth avenue in the county of Union is a county road and under the control and supervision of said Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By said Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, that said Public Service Railway Company be requested to comply with the request of the Township Committee of the Township of Union and relocate its said street railway tracks in Elizabeth avenue, in the said Township of Union in the county of Union, according to the following described centre lines:

(a) Is a relocation of a portion of its northwesterly track in Elizabeth avenue, southwest of the dividing line between the county of Union and the county of Essex, the centre line of which begins at a point in the said dividing line between the county of Union and the county of Essex, distant five feet and thirty hundredths of a foot (5.30) northwestwardly along said dividing line from the intersection of said dividing line with the centre line between its tracks in Elizabeth avenue, in the county of Essex produced, extending thence as follows: (1) south forty degrees forty-three minutes (40° 43') west, a distance of nine feet and fifty hundredths of a foot (9.50) to a point of curve; thence (2) southwtestwardly curving toward the left with a radius of two thousand two hundred and nine feet and seventy-one one hundredths of a foot (2,209.71), a distance of one hundred and two feet and fourteen one hundredths of a foot (102.14) to a point of reversed curve; thence (3) southwestwardly curving toward the right with a radius of two thousand two hundred feet (2,200), a distance of one hundred and one feet and sixty-nine hundreds of a foot (101.69) to a point in the centre line of its said northwesterly track in Elizabeth avenue, southwest of the dividing line between the county of Union and the county of Essex, and there connecting therewith.

(b) Is a relocation of a portion of its southeasterly track in Elizabeth avenue, southwest of the dividing line between the county of Union and the county of Essex, the centre line of which begins at a point in said dividing line between the county of Union and the county of Essex distant five feet and thirty hundredths of a foot (5.30) southwestwardly along said dividing line from the intersection of said dividing line with the centre line between its tracks in Elizabeth avenue, in the county of Essex produced, extending thence as follows: (1) south forty degrees forty-three minutes (40° 43') west, a distance of five feet and thirty hundredths of a foot (5.30), to a point of curve; thence (2) southwestwardly curving toward the left with a radius of two thousand two hundred feet (2,200), a distance of one hundred and one feet and sixty-nine hundredths of a foot (101.69) to a point of reversed curve; thence (3) southwestwardly curving toward the right with a radius of two thousand two hundred and nine feet and seventy-one one hundredths of a foot (2,209.71), a distance of one hundred and two feet and fourteen hundredths of a foot (102.14) to a point in the centre line of its said southeasterly track in Elizabeth avenue, and there connecting therewith.

On motion by Freeholder Mesiel this resolution was adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Wilbur:

U. S. PARCEL POST

STATION 102

JOHN WANAMAKER, NEW YORK

It is a Great Honor to Announce that the United States Government has Established

Official Parcel Post Stations in the John Wanamaker Stores

New York and Philadelphia

In New York, the station is located in the regular Post Office on the Main Floor, Stewart Building, already established.

It is operated under the direction of Edward M. Morgan, Postmaster of New York City, with whom we are cooperating in making the new Parcel Post service the great success that it deserves to be.

This Wanamaker station will, of course, do everything that any other Official Parcel Post Station can do—selling Parcel Post stamps, receiving articles to be mailed by Parcel Post, and giving full and official information on all subjects concerning the new service. It will be a great convenience to the public, and we shall be glad to have it used freely by the tens of thousands of people who visit this store every day.

But the new Parcel Post is a country-wide service. It is not for any one section or community. It belongs to the American people wherever they may live.

To Co-operate with the Government in this Universal Extension of the Parcel Post

We Inaugurate, Beginning January 2, 1913

The Wanamaker Free Delivery By United States Parcel Post

Supplementing the Store's Regular Wagon Delivery

To make this Free Delivery equitable to all and to give to no one an advantage over another we have followed the government plan, dividing the country into eight zones, regulating according to these zones and the weight of parcel the AMOUNT OF PURCHASE on which delivery charges will be prepaid.

Parcels weighing four ounces or less will be delivered free anywhere in the United States by the Wanamaker Store when the purchase is $1 or more.

HEAVIER PARCELS

ranging from 1 to 11 pounds in weight, will be delivered free according to the following table.

Note 1: Goods delivered by Parcel Post are returnable only when return charges are prepaid by the purchaser.

Note 2: Fragile articles will be carefully packed and duly labelled, but as the Parcel Post does not guarantee their safe delivery, the store cannot be held responsible for breakage.

Note 3: Goods sent C. O. D., or sold with usual wholesale or other discounts, are not delivered free outside of our own wagon delivery limits.

Full Information concerning this new delivery — including a reproduction of the Official Parcel Post map for shipments from New York City, will be given upon request.

LEO SLONIM

A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We thank the people of Plainfield and vicinity for their liberal patronage during the Christmas season. We thank you for your co-operation with us to make the past year the best and most profitable in the history of our business career.

If during the rush hours some friends and patrons of our establishment did not receive the proper attention which is due them we must ask their pardon and promise you that by next year we may be located in our own, the Slonim Building, where we will have every possible accommodation to serve our patrons better than heretofore.

For the present we are again ready to serve you. Our

Watchmakers, Jewelers, Engravers and Opticians

are awaiting your further orders and commands.

Again wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year,

We are Yours for Watches and Jewelry,
